The editor of the SENTINEL is indebted to the courtesy of Postmaster Sharrer of this city, for a souvenir postal note. The use of these notes ceased on Saturday and a few minutes before the midnight hour Mr. Sharrer issued several for ten cents each, at his own expense, retaining one himself and giving one to each of the postoffice clerks and to the editors in this city. The one presented to the editor of the SENTINEL bears this superscription: "Issued at 11.59 P. M., June 30th, 1894. Compliments of George E. Sharrer, P. M.' We return our thanks to our worthy postmaster for his kind remembrance and will prize the note as much for the personal interest attaching to it, as for its value as an official souvenir.

Mrs. Louise Baile, wife of Mr. Jesse Baile of P., died at her home near Medford, shortly before midnight Friday, 29th ult., after an illness of seven months, of consumption, aged 46 years, 6 months, 18 days. Fortunately her father was close at hand and, fully comprehending his child's danger, promptly extinguished the flames. The only injury she received was a slight burn on the shoulder and the singing of a curl on the side of her head, but for a moment she was in great peril.

A Salary for the Sheriff.

On the 2nd inst the sheriff of this county was quietly paid the first month's installment of a salary of $2,500 per annum, as provided by an act of the General Assembly, passed at last winter's session. This salary is paid the sheriff in lieu of fees and other compensation for services rendered the county by that officer, except as otherwise provided in the law. The exceptions are the fee of $300 for executing a death sentence; the fees allowed by law for controlling prisoners sentenced to labor in this county, and compensation for taking convicts to the Penitentiary and House of Correction and insane persons to the Hospital. For the latter service the sheriff will receive $15.00 for a single person, and if more than one is taken $15.00 for the first and $10 00 for each additional one.

The supplies for prisoners at the jail will hereafter be provided by the County Commissioners, and food will be cooked and served at the expense of the sheriff. He will also provide for his own table and pay his own deputies out of his salary. He will, however, be allowed provender for two horses. Of course these provisions have nothing to do with the sheriff's fees or compensation in civil cases, but are designed to cover all payments by the county to that officer except those particularly mentioned.

The existence of this law will be a surprise to most of the citizens of this county. Its full text was not known, even to the County Commissioners, until a few days ago. It was not sent for publication in the county newspapers, when the other local laws appeared, and the Commissioners recently ordered a certified copy from the ofice of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals. It will, we believe, be generally approved. It takes away the incentive to crowd the jail with prisoners accused of trivial offenses, and provides a liberal, and, at the same time, stable and certain compensation for the sheriff.

Heretofore heavy fees were paid for receiving and discharging prisoners, and the amount allowed for food per day for each prisoner is said to have yielded, when the jail contained many prisoners, chiefly tramps and vagrants, a very handsome profit to the sheriff.

A law of similar character has been in existence for Frederick county, where the salary is fixed at $3,500, which, considering territory and population. is at about the same rate as that named for this county.

Governor Frank Brown Contemplates an Electric Line to Westminster and Other Extensions.

Gov. Frank Brown, who was recently elected President of the Baltimore Traction Company, denies a rumor that he entertains any thought of resigning that position, but on the contrary alleges that he has under consideration the extension of the lines of his company in many directions in the city, and also the construction of several country lines to connect with the city system. Of these projects the Baltimore Sun of Tuesday says:

"Perhaps the most extensive improvement contemplated by President Brown in reaching out for new territory and new business for his railway company is the building of a suburban line to Westminster, and even into Pennsylvania. The plans for this road have not yet fully matured, but the matter is under consideration, and President Brown has about made up his mind to organize a company to push this project. This road will be built under the Southern Immigration and Trust Company charter, which is owned by Governor Brown. This charter was granted by the last Legislature as an amendment to an old charter previously granted. It gives authority to build, construct and maintain railways.

"As part of this extension a contract now in the hands of the Traction Company's officers will be closed in a few days. This provides that the new company will unite with the Pikesville, Reisterstown and Emory Grove Railway Company to extend an electric road from Pikesville, following the Reisterstown turnpike through Reisterstown and thence extending across the country to Emory Grove camp-meeting grounds. From this point the intention is to continue the road to Westminster and on to Littlestown, in Pennsylvania. Under the same charter by which this road is to be built it is proposed to construct another electric road from Pikesville to Randallstown, thence west on the liberty road to the bridge at Luttgerding's Mill. It will cross the Patapsco at this point and connect Baltimore and Carroll counties by an electric system."

Result of the Annual Examination of Teachers.

The inspection of the papers submitted at the annual examination for certificates of qualification as public school teachers and for scholarships at the State Normal School, held in this city last April, has been completed, and School Examiner Diffenbaugh announces the following results:

Twenty-three ladies and thirty-four gentlemen were enrolled at the examination, of whom four, namely, Rebecca McGirr, Mattie Hill, Fannie Cost and James L. T. Waltz, were applicants for scholarships at the State Normal School, and fifty-three were applicants for teachers' certificates.

Twenty-three were teachers in actual service whose certificates had expired, or were two low in grade to satisfy them.

Of the entire number, not one reached the desired average of 5½ in every branch, but many are so near it, as to entitle them to the little indulgence required to pass them. Certificates will be issued to Virginia Reese, Anna Elliott, Marion McSwiney, Mary Henry, S. Ella Shipley, Alice M. Eppley, Cora A. Lambert, M Gertrude Barnes, Fannie L. Slasman, Elsie Dorsey, Julia Lassell, Bertha Bush, Lizzie Byers, Nannie Spurrier, Mary Stansbury, J. F. Croft, B. P. Leister, Charles Reed, John W. Yingling, Holly Utz, Frank Lawson, J. Ross Koons, Charles F. Stansbury, Edward W. Tasto, Charles W. Nace, Robert E. Barnes, W. J. Arthur, E. D. Bankard, Alva O. Reid, Edward S. Harner, Charles R. Hesson Wm. P. Ward, J. H. Taylor, Paran B. Ford, Arthur H. Gill, John A. Zepp, Jesse S. Myers, Percy S. Barnes and Jos. H. Harner. The highest average was attained by Edward S. Harner, and the second by J. Ross Koons. Of the applicants for scholarships at the State Normal School, Rebecca McGirr, and James L. T. Waltz passed creditably.

The Fourth in Westminster.

This city was gay with bunting on Wednesday, in honor of the glorious anniversary of one of the greatest events, if not the very greatest, in human history. It is too common a practice, on the part of Americans, to refer flippantly to this anniversary, as if it were more a cause of humor and amusement than the date of an act of farther reaching influence than any other, perhaps, of which man has been the projector. It is pleasant, therefore, to record any effort towards its proper observance by the people who are its immediate beneficiaries. In connection with the exhibition of the National colors, the parade of the Fire Department, Washington Camp No. 5, P. O. S. of A., and Western Maryland Council No. 79, Jr. O. U. A. M., was a pleasing incident of the day, and the exercises inaugurated in Longwell's grove, by these organizations, were equally appropriate. The parade took place shortly before noon, and was led by the Warfieldsburg Band, the Republican Drum Corps heading the Jr. O. U. A. M. Col. S. K. Herr was chief marshal, with Messrs. Chas. T. Reifsnider, Jr., Harry Harbaugh, Wm. R. Anders, Theodore I. Derr, Wm. N. Keefer, Percy H. Shriver, J. Walter Shunk, as aids, all mounted. Mr. M. Schneeberger was acting marshal of the Fire Department, Mr. D. H. Frizzell marshal of the Jr. O. U. A. M., and Mr. Jno. H. Mitten of the P. O. S. of A.

The line of the parade was through the principal streets of the city, terminating at the grove of Col. Jno. K. Longwell, adjacent to the city limits, where the remainder of the day was spent picnicking by the participants and other citizens who joined them on the grounds.

Although the number engaged in the parade was not great it was a very creditable affair in the attractive appearance of the organizations participating, the fireman having been uniformed and the orders wearing handsome and at the same time significant regalia.

During the afternoon a meeting was organized in the grove, with Mr. Simon P. Weaver presiding and introducing the speakers. Rev. J. L. Walsh, pastor of Centenary M. E. Church, opened the exercises with prayer and read the Declaration of Independence. Addresses appropriate to the occasion were delivered by Mr. Warren Lincoln, of Baltimord; Ex-Judge Wm. P. Maulsby and Harry M. Clabaugh, of this city, the exercises closing with the benediction by Rev. Wm. A. Crouse.

At night fireworks were displayed on the grounds and at many private residences in this city, while the constant reports of explosives, large and small, resounded from every quarter until a late hour.

The events of the day may be fairly supposed to indicate that the great anniversary is not to be permitted to fall into "innocuous desuetude."

The addresses of Dr. Blayney and Rev. Dechant were notable for their felicitous expressions of sincere regret in the departure of their co-laborer and their sentiments were echoed by all. The music was especially fine and all taking part reflected credit on themselves and the event. The words of the last solo were written for the occasion. The service throughout was appropriate and interesting and a deserving tribute to a loved pastor.

At the close the treasurer of the church, J. E. Brewer, made a financial statement showing that the church is out of debt and in better condition financially than at any time in many years.

To-morrow Rev. Seabrook and family leave for Maryland where they will visit friends and enjoy a rest before taking up church work again. Their departure will be noted with unassumed sorrow and best wishes will be extended not only by the Lutheran church and congregation but by hosts of friends besides. Mr. Seabrook by his frank, sincere, manly ways, his brilliancy as a preacher, his earnestness as a pastor, his progressiveness as a citizen has won many admirers. Abilene has not had his superior as a church worker and a friend of all classes and he will be greatly missed. The Reflector joins with every acquaintance of Mr. Seabrook and his estimable family in wishing them joy, prosperity and good cheer wherever they may be located.

The future holds high honors for the departing pastor and we shall rejoice to learn that they have come to him—for they will be deserved.

Frizellburg vs. Union Mills.

Another exciting game of base ball was played by the Frizellburgers and Union Mills boys, on last Saturday afternoon, on the ground of the latter. On account of the intense heat the game was not called till five o'clock. The home club was the first to appear at the bat, and was shut out without a run by pitcher Hiteshew, who was in the box for the visiting club. The Frizellburgers then came to the bat encouraged, and with a determination to win. Black was first at bat, and first to score, with four more to follow, thus scoring five runs in the first inning. In the second inning the home club scored seven runs, which was followed by loud applause from the spectators. Pitcher Galt was in the box for the home club, but was batted in a lively manner, while Hiteshew was hard to hit. The fielding of the winning club was sharp and clean. Especially did R. W. Fleagle do remarkably well in the right field, by catching several high balls. The visitors scored every inning, while the home club only scored in four. Bad errors were made on both sides, when in the sixth inning Black failed to make a double play on the second. The principle feature of the game was the good batting of O. Brown and Hiteshew, and in the seventh inning when two runs were scored on Fleagle's out. Another point in the game was a home run by A. Brown on a ball knocked only ten feet from the home base. Hiteshew also struck out 14 men. This was an interesting game throughout to all present. The next game by these two clubs will be played at Frizellburg in the near future. Runs scored—Black 2, A. Brown 3, Sands 1, O. Brown 2, Null 2, Hiteshew 4, Babylon 3, Fleagle 1, Stevenson 2. The score by innings was as follows:

Bankert's Mill Items.

Our farmers have finished wheat harvesting and now are plowing their corn and getting their wheat into the barn. A bountiful harvest has been gathered in this section. Farmers are very much elated, except in regard to prices, which are kept way below by the bad management of this Democratic administration. But we will wait patiently for the change which is sure to come in the near future. Corn and other summer crops look very promising at this time.

Baust Church Sunday School will hold its yearly celebration on Saturday, August 12th. A band of music will be in attendance. Prominent speakers have been engaged. All are invited.

The crop of golden grain that waved so beautifully upon our hills and through our valleys is now upon shocks, standing thick upon the fields as so many monuments to the labor of the husbandman. The sharp clicking of the machinery is hushed and by the time this reaches your readers the cutting of the harvest of 1894 will be numbered with the past. Already much of the early cutting has been gathered in and the general report is that the crop in this section is above the average, while the hay crop has been a good one also, but the long drought is telling upon other vegetation to some extent.

The funeral of Mr. Daniel Beckley on Sunday last was largely attended. Mr. Beckley was engaged in the paper making business all during life and amassed quite a fortune. His business was the life and activity of that neighborhood and gave employment to many persons. When the mill was burnt several years ago, it proved just the reverse of the prosperity it had given, and depression was felt on all sides. He was 75 years of age, and for a number of years took a lively interest in the prohibition movement in his county, serving several times upon the ticket.

On Sunday morning last when Mr. Henry F. Warner and family, of Lineboro, awoke they found William, the older son, in bed with his throat all lacerated, from which he had almost bled to death. During the building of the new house some of the family slept in an upper room of an outbuilding, now used as a kitchen. It appears William came home about 11 P. M., and finding the door locked placed a ladder against the wall on which he reached the upper window and while attempting to open it the ladder slipped, falling in one direction and throwing him in another, among some scaffolding. His chin struck a stake that lacerated his throat most terribly. Dr. J. H. Preston was called and dressed the wound and made him as comfortable as possible under the circumstances. Instead of informing the sleeping members of the family in another house he placed a smaller ladder at a lower window and thus gained access to the upper room.

Dr. J. H. Sherman was called to the house of Mr. Benjamin Gummel, southwest of town, where he found his son suffering with two fingers of the left hand nearly severed, having caught them in the cogs of a reaper while helping to load it. The fingers were dressed and it is thought will come all right again.

There was a creditable turnout to the grove on Wednesday morning to engage in the anniversary exercises under the auspices of the Jr. O. U. A. M. The procession was formed at the Hall at 9 A. M., headed by the Band, and marched to the grove where the following program was presented: Music by the Band; prayer, Rev. C. M. Eyster; singing, Red White and Blue; reading, Declaration of Independence, by Miss Lizzie Trump; singing, America; music, by the Band; address, Rev. S. M. Roeder; music, by Band; solo, Miss Edna Lamotte; music, by Band; address, Rev. C. M. Eyster; solo, Miss Kate Warehime; instrumental duet, Messrs. Trout and Keller; singing, duet, by Miss Edna and Harry Lamotte. Miss Trump did full credit to her reading, while the addresses, solos and music all were of such character as to inspire a deeper patriotism and a closer adherence to the principles of Liberty. Long may they live.

Mr. John W. Burns informs us that one of his customers, David Julius, living near Spring Grove, within the borders of Pennsylvania, used 13 balls or 58 pounds of twine in cutting his grain one day last week, which appears to be an extraordinary amount for one binder to use in a day, and he would like to know whether Carroll county can beat it. The field contained about 50 acres and lay so that he could cut around it all the time.

Master Herst Handy shot himself in the eye with a toy pistol on the 4th inst. Dr. Preston was called and relieved the little sufferer.

Mr. Chas. W. Motter cut his thumb quite badly with a large knife while cutting ice in the grove on the 4th.

Mr. Forrester and wife, nee Miss Reagle, and her sister, Miss Flo, Messrs. Charles and Samuel Houck, Mr. Michael Hoffman and lady friend, all of Baltimore, spent the 4th with friends here. Misses Daisy and Sadie Masenheimer and Ada Fuhrman, who attended school in Baltimore, during the year, have returned home for vacation.

Numerous amusements will be gotten up and no pains will be spared to make the pic-nic attractive. Refreshments in abundance will be on the grounds.

Mr. Harry F. Palmer, one of our most amiable and industrious young citizens, died Sunday, 1st inst., aged 27 years, 8 months and 27 days. Church cemetery, on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the presence of a large concourse of friends.

A good many farmers are almost through with their grain harvest while others have not commenced, especially where the hail storm had cut it, as it is not ripe.

The children of Providence M. P. Church contemplate having a grand day next Sabbath at their anniversary of children's day. Exercises are to commence at 3 o'clock, P. M., promptly.

The singing school, organized here under the leadership of Prof. Frock, numbers about 50 scholars. They meet every two weeks for instruction.

Baseball in Westminster.

The Westminster Second Nine defeated the Myrtle Stars of Baltimore, in a game played on the college grounds, this city, on Wednesday morning. The visitors scarcely afforded the home team a chance to show their mettle, but were beaten almost without effort, the score having been fifteen to four. The score by innings was as follows:

Myrtle Stars............	0	2	1	0	0	1	4
Westminster	1	5	2	0	7	x	15

A better game was played at the same place Wednesday afternoon, by the same home team and Franklin's "Cuckoos," the latter doing some fairly good playing but suffering defeat by a score of fourteen to seven. The score by innings was as follows:

Innings.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total
Franklin's........	1	0	0	1	0	0	3	2	0	7
