SATURDAY, APRIL 5th, 1941

Another session of the Maryland Legislature came to an end some time Monday night resulting in some constructive legislation and most important is a reduction in the State tax rate on real estate to a figure that is the lowest for a number of years. Other State-wide legislation of local importance was the purchase of the Claiborne-Annapolis Ferry. Three local bills of importance included were $400,000 bond issue for schools, prohibiting the sale of beer on Sunday, altering the duties of the Treasurer of Kent County. The school bill and the beer bill carry a referendum and are to be voted on by the registered voters of the county. The school bill will be voted on in June and the beer bill at the next general election in November 1942. There was no opposition to the Treasurer bill and it becomes law on June 1st.

—o—

The proponents of the school bill, which will be voted on in June, were encouraged last week when the two per cent school bonds of Queen Anne's County sold at a premium. The tax cost to Kent County of the proposed $400,000 has been based on three per cent bonds in the preliminary estimates. Two per cent bonds would materially reduce the annual interest cost. It is understood that an intensive campaign is underway ot urge the votesr to favor this school bill.

NEWS GATHERED ON PENINSULA

S. District Attorney in Baltimore.

Mr. Price still retains the ownership of Hillside Inn on the adjacent property.

Mr. Bishop, who also owns the Queenstown Ice Company plans to remodel the Centreville establishment at an early date.

$1.15 Tax Rate For Talbot

The County Commissioners of Talbot on Monday made the tax rate for the coming year. It is $1.15 on the $100, five cents lower than it was this year.

The Commissioners cannot give the full levy because the Welfare Board has not as yet made known its requirements. But the rate is definitely $1.15.

Harford Veterans Observers

Through the eyes of veterans of the last year, Havre de Grace and other communities are to have a measure of protection against air raids in the event this country enters the new war.

The protective scheme is being worked out by the army air service in cooperation with veterans' organizations throughout the country. According to George D. Harmon, commander of the Maryland Department o fthe American Legion, the plan calls for the setting up of thousands of observation posts at high points for the detection of enemy airplanes.

Such a post will be erected on Gover's Hill overlooking this city.

Each such point for plane spotting would have telephone connection with army aviation defense centers so that pursuit planes could take to to the air promptly whenever an enemy plane appeared.

Army Day At Aberdeen

Army Day, which falls on Sunday, April 6th, will be celebrated Monday April 7th, by the Ordnance Training Center at the Aberdeen Proving Ground. Due to the heavy traffic and possible interference with construction and activities at the Ordnance Center, Col. Julian S. Hatcher, Commanding Officer at the Ordnance Training Center, and Major Harold J. Conway, Executive Officer, have arranged to celebrate Army Day with a huge demonstration on the Aberdeen High School athletic grounds. The public is cordially invited to attend the demonstration which will include an exhibition of the latest military equipment and weapons.

Snow Hill Gets Federal Funds

In the past seven years the Federal government has granted outright the sum of around $336,311.00 for the improvement and welfare of the municipality of Snow Hill.

In that period, records show, Mayor John O. Byrd nad members of the Snow Hill City Council, have originated, sponsored and secured no less than twelve major Federal-aid improvement projects for the town of Snow Hill, costing the Government nearly $100,000 in grants—$99,748 to be exact. As sponsors of those dozen projects, Snow Hill has had to spend only $13,387.14 in cash.

Skeet Shoot At Sudlersville

The Skeet and Trap Shoot to be held at the Sudlersville Skeet Club on Sunday afternoon, April 6th, will be an occasion that should draw a large crowd of sportsmen. Everyone who would like to have a try at the illusive clay pigeons is urged to attend this affair which will be given for the benefit of the County Red Sox Baseball Fund. Those in charge of the shoot are particularly anxious to point out that the novice will have just as good an opportunity to carry away a prize as the best shot on the field—for each shooter will be given a trial round and then placed in a shooting class according to his score group. There will be three prizes for every five persons shooting—two trophies for the first and second places and passes to ball games for third prizes.

Queen Anne's Bonds At Premium

The First of Michigan Corporation, Wall Street firm, was the successful bidder for the High School bond issue. Their figure for the $180,000 issue was $185,670 for the 2% bonds maturing in fifteen years. This represents a premium of 103.15%.

States Attorney Called In Draft

State's Atorney B. Hackett Turner, Jr., of Queen Anne's is one of the six young men who departed from the county today to report to the Army Induction Station at Baltimore. During his absence Mr. Madison Brown of Centreville will be State's Attorney for Queen Anne's County.

Mr. Turner stated that he was glad of the opportunity to serve and feels that the experience afforded by the year in the Army will be a valuable one.

Further Reduce Flats Sanctuary

Senator J. W. Cronin and Delegate Leo M. Moore introduced a bill in the Legislature no Wednesday following several conferences with representatives of the U. S. Biological Survey which curtailed the area on the sanctuary from its original 7,500 acres to approximately 2,900 acres of the Susquehanna flats. This is a smaller area than originally agreed upon several weeks ago, the local Legislature on Wednesday following Survey officials to concede a further area west of the battery. The new plan calls for the leasing of the reduced area of the sanctuary to the Department of the Interior for 5 years.

The Federal Government will spend from $5,000 to $7,000 annually on planting the Flats area with food plants for duck feed, particularly on those areas where there is now no food. When and if the ducks clean out the food in any area in the future the Federal Government will replace these areas.

500 New Homes For Havre de Grace

According to reports the government will build approximately 500 homes within the city limits of Havre de Grace, 250 of which will be of permanent type and 250 demountable houses. The average rental of these houses will be about $30 monthly, which will give the city a yearly income of about $17,000. For this amount the city agrees to furnish current for street lights, fire protection, police protection and maintain and repair streets. The city will also furnsih water for the new homes but the Municipal Utilities Commission will be paid an additional water rate.
