CHESTERTOWN SCHOOL NEWS

(By Mary Schauber)

The students of the Chestertown High School came back after a long Easter Holiday looking pretty healthy considering the amuont of candy they consumed. I heard no one complain of being sick but I can imagine how most of them felt if they ate as much candy as they thought necessary to complete the Holiday.

A badminton court has been set up in the front yard and soft ball practice has been going on out back. New equipment has been ordered and athletics are in full swing.

Teachers have been appointed to direct the games and they are as follows: Mr. Deaton, girls' sprint ball; Mr. Hall, boys' soft ball; Miss Riches, boys' volley ball; Miss Bryan, girls' volley ball, and Mr. Fleetwood, girls' soft ball.

Friday night, April 18th was the date of the Freshmen Party. Every Freshman came dressed in gay colors and they had a wonderful time.

Class Night is June 9th and all the Juniors and Seniors are busy planning for this big event. Everyone is invited to come and spend an entertaining evening with them.

The "Reflector" staff has been chosen and will begin work in May. They are: Editor, Martha Lumpkin; Associate Editors, Lewin Wheat, Fred Livingood, and Mary Schauber; Business Manager, John Russesll; Sports Editors, Dick Foley and Diana Hudson; Literary, George Capel; Reflections, Barbara Brittain; Pholography, Graham Watt; Alumni News, Betty Blackway, and Ray Sutton; Social News, Jane Brooks and Virginia Walbert.

ON THE SCREEN AT THE NEW LYCEUM

Wallace Berry as Pancho Lopez, whimsical bandit romps through high adventure, thrills intense drama and comedy in his most picturesque character since he enacted Pancho Villa, in "The Bad Man," coming on Wednesday and Thursday, April 23 and 24 to the New Lyceum Theatre.

"Mr. District Attorney," Republic picture which comes on Friday and Saturday, April 25 and 26 to the New Lyceum Theatre, has our enthusiastic vote for one of the outstanding crook dramas of the season.

Based on the radio series of the same name, the film utilizes all the elements of mystery, suspense and humor which have made the radio program a favorite for more than three years.

The every popular Robin Hood theme, with all its old time color and dash reproduced in a modern setting, provides the story for Republic's "The Phantom Cowboy," the action-pasked western starring Don "Red" Barry, which shows at the New Lyceum Theatre on Friday and Saturday, April 25 and 26.

As the chahacter Jim Lawrence, Barry is embroiled with an unscrupulous rancho majordomo over possession of an estate willed Lawrence by his foster father. To Lawrence's aid in this unequal struggle comes "El Lobo," a young Mexican who has taken the role of a masked avenger in order to protect the peones from the majordomo's cruelty and oppression.
