The Social Wanderer

Dear Roamer

This has been one of those weeks when you are stepping every minute, but when you sit down to write it out, your pen wanders idly over the keys. Have you ever been asked, after you've been as busy as a bee, "Well, just what have you been doing?" When you start to relate, how trivial, how trite it sounds! There now, you have the set-up of to-day's picture.

Of course on Monday, we all attended the dedication of the new wing at the Hospital here, which in the future will be known as "The Maxwell" wing. The day was perfect, and the large number who attended, strolled and admired throughout both the old and new buildings, following the ceremony. That evening, Mrs. Jonathan D. Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell, entertained the board, the doctors, various committee heads, and a few additional friends at supper, at their home, Worton Manor.

Tuesday, Mrs. Norman Cooper's luncheon-bridge, that I told you about last week, came off very delightfully at the Royal Swan Hotel in Betterton.

Miss Martha Speicher entertained at a small picnic on Thursday evening in honor of her birthday.

And there, so far as I know about, the entertaining stopped.

However on Friday night, at this writing, a large crowd is expected to attend "Hay Fever" to be given at William Smith Hall by the Washington Players for the benefit of the hospital. I am told it is extremely funny, and will be admirably acted, by the cast, who are donating their talent so generously. If you still have time, better hustle up there and have an evening of fun. The cast will be entertained, following the play, at the home of Mrs. John Speicher.

Mrs. Rolph Townshend left Friday for Rockville, Md., where she will visit Miss Mary Kingdon for the week-end. Miss Kingdon and Mrs. Townshend will attend a sorority reunion luncheon at the Olney Inn, Saturday (to-day.)

Mrs. W. W. Beck, of New York, who has been a guest of Mrs. Allan A. Harris for the past week, returned to New York on Thursday. En route she accompanied Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Frank Hines and Mrs. Eben Perkins as far as Wilmington, where they were guests at luncheon of Mrs. Roger Wilson, attending the Flower Mart later in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Robinson, formerly of Jackstead, Kent Co., now of Philadelphia, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son, Wolcott Willoughby Robinson, junior, on May 11.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Marscher, of Ardmore, Pa., and Chestertown, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Hazel Marie Marscher, to Ensign Robert Emerson Keith, U. S. N. R., son of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Keith, of Brockton, Mass., in New York on Saturday, May 10.

Miss Marscher is a graduate of Friends' Central School and Harcum College.

Ensign Keith is a graduate of Amherst and Harvard Law School.

Chaplain Albert of the U. S. S. North Carolina officiated. The young couple will reside in New York.

Among the out-of-town people who visited in the community last week-end were:

Mr. and Mrs. John Detwiler, of Washington, D. C., who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines.

Mrs. George Parker and Mrs. Harlan Johnson, of Baltimore, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell.

Mrs. Samuel H. Greenwood, of Baltimore, who visited Mr. and Mrs. Claude Truslow. Mrs. Truslow and her three daughters attended the circus and May Mart held in Baltimore on Wednesday.

Miss Josephine Dixon attended the Spring house-parties, of Princeton University last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McVean attended the May Day fete at Western Maryland College over the week-end. Their duaghter, Miss Ruth McVean was one of the participants.

Mrs. William B. Coleman and Mrs. Alvin E. Coleman, are guests of relatives in Annapolis.

This time next week-end, all will be completed for Chestertown Day—a big day of the year. Let's all help to make it go over with a triumph. The Library needs your support—needs mine. So, here's how—

Yours for success,

The Wanderer
