Cookies And Tea

After the day's work is done—that is, done until time to start dinner—but with the luncheon dishes out of the way—comes time to relax. At relaxing time we usually sip something cooling and nibble at something sweet like chocolate pinwheels. These can be made most any time, in fact, a roll of dough can be kept indefinitely in your refrigerator and you can serve fresh baked cookies at will.

1½ cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon double acting baking powder,
⅛ teaspoon salt
½ butter or shortening
½ cup sugar
1 egg yolk, unbeaten
3 tablespoon milk
1 square unsweetened chocolate, melted

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually and cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg yolk and beat well. Add flour, alternately with milk mixing well after each addition. Divide dough in two parts. To one part, add chocolate and blend. Chill until firm enough to roll. Roll each half into rectangular sheet, ⅛-inch thick, and place plain sheet over chocolate sheet. Then roll as for jelly roll. Chill over night or until firm enough to slice. Cut in ⅛-inch slices. Bake on unglazed baking sheet in hot oven (400 F.) 5 minutes or until done. Makes 3½ dozen pinwheels.

SPORTS AT THE COLLEGE

(By CALVERT JONES)

If the 18-6 defeat the Sho'men suffered at the hands of Delaware wasn't excitement enough, perhaps the little incident that happened to one of the Washington students prior to the game would prove of some interest.

Ted Hazlitt, Washington Freshman who lives a few miles outside of Wilmington, went home Friday night before the game and decided he would spread a little spirit around the town. Armed with a bit of soap, he painted "Beat Delaware" signs all over the windshields of Delaware cars.

To make a long story short, he was apprehended by a band of Delaware students and taken to Newark, the home of the Blue Hens. Midnight saw Ted Hazlitt the center of attraction in a Delaware dormitory while the enemy proceeded to cut a humiliating "D" in the midst of Hazlitt's curly locks. The plans were to hold him in the Delaware dorm that night and then to parade him on the gridiron between the halves of the Washington-Delaware tilt.

Around six in the morning, Hazlitt escaped from his prison and was able to return to Wilmington where he had the rest of his hair shaved to remove the "D". We can only guess what would have happened had he been paraded on the field at Wilmington Saturday.

The game with the Blue Hens has been told and retold. Almost everyone agrees that the best team did not win. Washington completely dominated the play for three periods. It is our opinion that if the Sho'men had been able to score the conversion after the first touchdown, which would have made the score 7-0, a victory would have been brought home. As it was, the Maroons lost the game on intercepted passes. Had seven points been scored, the Sho'men could have remained on the defensive and those vital passes would never have been thrown.

And now, with the football season over, all eyes turn to basketball, which, judging from attendance records, is the main sport here at Washington College. Coach Dumschott has remained silent about his prospects but word has leaked out from the official sources that Washington College will put one of its best quintets on the floor this year. Veterans returning are Francis McNiff, Jim Stevens, Frank Samele, Lew Yerkes, John Kardash, Stoney McLaughlin, Jimmy Juliana, R. C. Burtz Bob Ruff, Bill Benjamin, Dave Bartolini, not to mention numerous good prospects in the Freshman Class.

The quintet's schedule opens on the 16th of December with a road trip up in Pennsylvania. These trips have proven a bit disastrous in the past years but this year promises a different story. LaSalle, and Moravia, will offer the best competition on the trip. Other games on the schedule include Baltimore University, Western Maryland, University of Maryland and others in the Mason-Dixon League. The first game to be played at home will not be until January.

WITH THE HORSES

—BY—

Paul P. Steel

COMING AND GOING

We have a new owner in Kent County. Miss Polly Chapman of Broadneck purchased a mare from George Nickerson of Galena at an undisclosed price. This mare was formerly the property of the Lussier sisters of Rock Hall and has been shown by them.

We were informed that Miss Lussier is awaiting call to go to England to become a member of the W. A. A. F. to her "Happy Landings."

The father of Miss Chapman is connected with the OPM and has just completed a home "next door" to "Langford" the property of Mr. Walter P. Bloecher. Miss Chapman will be seen in the shows next year and from what we have seen of her riding she will be able to hold her own in horsemanship classes.

GLANCING BACK

The first Horse Show we saw in Kent County was featured by the performance of a black filly "I'm Alone" the property of the late Mr. Samuel Loller. This filly, then two years old, jumped like a veteran and until we saw the judges "mouth her" we, too, thought she was older. She was out of a big Percheron type work mare by *Principe then the property of the late Mr. Henry Catlin. Mr. Loller and his son Bill showed the filly for several years and then sold her to Mr. Ward Sullivan of Philadelphia. Mr. Sullivan changed her name to "Dixie Belle" and she continued to show only in much faster company. She was very successful one year at Atlantic City and was later bred to an Irish Hunter the result of which is unknown as we have not been in contact with our Philly Scouts for sometime.

We also saw for the first time several other horses that day which we hope to write about in the future. Some of them are Bill Loller's "Brownie." Mr. Hubbard's "Bob," Mr. Mason's "Totsy Todd" and "Silver Beau" and others.

IN OTHER PARTS

Bill Loller accompanied Sud Emerson of Wyoming, Del., to Kentucky last week to purchase a hunter. Sud came home with a son of "Dan 4th". He is a chestnut with white hind feet and a blazed face. Watch out for him next summer.

We have been unable to get a full account of the trip for this issue but we will try to get Bill to tell us about it next week.

A CORRECTION

In reporting the trip of two of our local horsemen to the Harrisburg Show it was not Mr. Orengo Etmie, whoever that is but the one and only Orenzo Stime (Stimey to most) who accompanied Mr. Chas. A. Wilson of "Green Acres."

BILLY B SEZ:

It has happened just as I knew it would. The Boss is stuck with a column and nothing to put in it.

I want to warn all and sundray that they are liable to be pestered by him hunting news.

Lady Gardiner, Miss Kay, and I carried some of the Washington College football team around last Thursday. Too bad they didn't have my size on Saturday to stop Delaware and if they had just had some good sprinter like "Gino" they could have caught Walt Paul when he intercepted "that pass."
