ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT OF THE MD. GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUPLIC.

The annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic of Md. was held in Baltimore on Friday night, February 22nd and in the evening a banquet was given at the Maltby House, the feature of which was the attendance of Commander-in-Chief Thos. G. Lawler. The principal interest of the meeting centered in the election of officers, which resulted as follows:

Department Commander—Major O. A. Horner, of Emmitsburg.

Senior Vice Commander—R. H. Cameron, North East.

Junior Vice Commander—I. D. Oliver, of Baltimore.

Medical Director—Dr. Pritchard.

Chaplain—W. Lindsay.

Council of Administration—A. F. Carrick, V. Darkins, E. M. Stevenson, J. Douglass and J. Simmons.

Delegate-at-large to the Twenty-ninth Nat. Encampment, in Louisville, in September—John G. Taylor; alternate, Alexander M. Briscoe.

Delegates to Same—D. L. Stanton W. Stahl and B. F. Clark; alternates, C. S. Birch, W. H. Thompson and G. W. Harig.

Assistant Adjutant General—L. M. Zimmerman.

Assistant Quartermaster General—John W. Worth.

A committee, to be appointed hereafter, was created to go before the City Council of Baltimore, and urge the passing of an ordinance requiring the American flag to be displayed over all public schools, and to be half-masted on Decoration Day. Another committee, to be named in the future, was instructed to appear before the state legislature and request an appropriation for a Grand Army building, in which to keep relics and memorials.

A resolution was passed favoring the perdiem pension bill, which gives a cent a day for each day's service in addition to any disability pension.

Another resolution asks Congress to donate cannon for G. A. R. badges to be used at the annual encampment in 1897 if it is held in Baltimore. The delegates to the national encampment were instructed to use all honorable means to get the encampment in Baltimore in 1897. Every post in the Maryland Department was requested by resolution to hold special memorial services on Lincoln's birthday, and military instruction in public schools was endowed. Mr. N. M. Rittenhouse, on the part of the staff of the retiring department commander, Myron J. Rose, presented him with a gold G. A. R. badge ornamented with five diamonds at the points of the star.

At night a banquet was given at the Maltby Houae in honor of National Commander Lawler. The retiring department commander, Myron J. Rose, sat at the head of the table with Commander Lawler on his right and Quartermaster J. W. Brust on his left. The menu consisted of celery, raw oysters, olives, turtle soup, fried oysters, roast wild duck, terrapin, Maryland style; chicken salad, cold turkey, cold corned beef, cakes, fruits and nuts, ice-cream, coffee and cigars. There were no set speeches, but a "general fire alone the line."

NEW NEW COMMANDER.

Major Alexander Horner, the new department commander, was born near Gettysburg, Pa., June 10, 1841. He enlisted in the war of the rebellion as a private in Co. C, Cole's Md. Cavalry, at Emmitsburg, Md., August 27th, 1861, and was made a corporal at the organization of the company; promoted to first sergeant June 10, 1862; to second lieutenant January 15th, 1864; to first lieutenant and adjutant April 20th, 1864 to major February 1st, 1865, the last promotion being for "efficiency, bravery and meritorious conduct," having the written approval of the field and line officers of the regiment. He served continuously with his regiment until the close of the war. At the close of the war he engaged in mercantile business at Emmitsburg. He was appointed postmaster of the town, March 11, 1869, and resigned April 15, 1877; was appointed United States storekeeper of customs at Baltimore August 24th, 1877, serving in that capacity and as an inspector of customs until July, 1882. He has been commander of Arthur Post 41, G. A. R., Department of Maryland, since its organization, in December, 1887. He is known as one of the most earnest and active Republicans in Frederick county.

WOMAN'S REILIEF CORPS.

The ninth annual convention of the Woman's Relief Corps, Department of Md, was held February 22nd, in the G. A. R. Hall. The convention had a larger attendance than any previous one. The report of the committee on the erection in Loudon Park of the Monument to the Unknown Dead, Mrs. Ruth R. Graham, chairman, showed that $900 had been subscribed, leaving $300 to be raised by the various efforts to raise the balance needed. The report of the president, Mrs. Ruth R. Graham, stated that two new corps had been organized during the year. Mrs. Clara Alford, the treasurer, stated that $468.48 had been expended for relief in cash; $414.16 in provisions, fuel and clothing, and $55.75 turned over to G. A. R. posts. Mrs. Buzby, department inspector, also made reports.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Sallie A. Moore, Corps No. 6, president; Mrs. Philomena Bowers, Dodge Corps, No. 5, senior vice president; Mrs. Mary E. Zile, Pickett Corps, junior vice president; Mrs. Agnes Zintz, Dushane Corps, No. 3, treasurer; Mrs. Emily Daily, Corps 6, chaplain. Executive board—Miss Jennie Fouke, Corps No. 6, chairman; Miss Mattie Ewalt, Dushane Corps, No. 3; Mrs. Creamer, Dodge Corps, No. 5; Miss Smith, Emory Corps, No. 20, and Mrs. Delamarter, Reno Corps, of Hagerstown. Delegates to National Convention—Mrs. Clara Alford, Custer Corps, No. 2, and Mrs. Helen Clark, Wingate Corps, No. 9; alternates, Mrs. Julia Birch and Mrs. J. W. Worth, of Custer Corps No. 2. The newly elected officers were installed by Mrs. Evans, post department president of Pennsylvania.

Big Slaughter in Wall Paper.

MY PRICES RANGE FROM 12c. TO 30c. PUT ON WALL. GILT 20c. TO 25c. ALL PAPER 8 YARDS LONG

These are not living prices. You may say how do I live. I have no rent to run a store and fuel, &c., and do all of my own work. I don't pay any hands one year to do three months' work in season. This is a chance to get papering done cheap. Take advantage while you have a chance. I will do as before, done by me. I can give the best references in the county.

Guarantee All Work

There has been a great deal said about me being a ascab workman, but it was only said by those who can't compete with me in price and workmanship and who are afraid of me—never by a party that I did work for. Write for sample and price, or I will come to see you in person and tell you what your job will cost. I can be found 300 yards from the limit of Westminster on the Littlestown turnpike.

Thankful for past favors,
Very Respectfully,

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhœa, and Feverishness. Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 South Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children." DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"For several years I have recommended 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARDEE, M. D., 125th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTYN, D. D., New York City.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE.
Foremost of America: Weeklies.
Circulation 168,000 Copies a Week.

First to rally from the overwhelming defeat of 1892, THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE patiently labored for two years to awaken the sleeping judgment of the Nation. Possessing an enormous circulation, equipped with a staff of competent and honest students of public questions, and itself having no object to serve except the welfare of the masses upon the farms and in the shops, scorning lies and sensational appeals, and satisfied merely to place the truth before its readers, THE TRIBUNE has sent to half a million earnest and reflecting people, weekly, a budget of honest facts, sensible arguments and friendly suggestions which have at last borne fruit in the elections of 1894. The work of the people is, however, only half done. It is necessary in 1896 to place in the Chair which Grover Cleveland has not adorned, a constructive statesman of the Republican faith. To this task THE TRIBUNE now addresses itself, and invites the support of every American citizen who desires a return of the "good old times."

Roswell G. Horr, ex-Congressman from Michigan, but now of New York City, will continue to discuss Tariff, Currency, Coinage and Labor questions in THE TRIBUNE. By all odds the most witty, earnest and well-informed speaker upon the stump, he is every year sent by THE TRIBUNE to aid the local campaigns in every part of the country. He keeps in constant touch with the people, knows their wants, and addresses himself in THE TRIBUNE directly to the thoughts which are in their minds, and makes himself understood. He will gladly answer questions, asked in good faith, by readers.

All the regular features of THE TRIBUNE will be continued. For Western readers, a special array of Western news is supplied. For Eastern readers an Eastern edition is printed.

It is the intention to make the paper especially helpful to farmers and mechanics. Each class has its separate department in THE TRIBUNE; and the new inventions of mechanics, who lack the means to exploit the product of their brains, are advertised free of charge in the hope of aiding them to find a purchaser or a partner.

The market reports of THE TRIBUNE, long acknowledged to be the best in the country, will maintain their old standard; and the usual variety of foreign news letters, essays upon home topics, book reviews, articles on chess and checkers, and miscellany will be presented every week. The editorial pages of the paper sum up the most important news of the day, with comments.

THE TRIBUNE also prints, for the ladies, the very latest fashions from Paris and London, and there is a department of "Answers to Questions," conducted by a capable writer, in which all the questions of the people on miscellaneous topics are carefully answered.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is an incomparable paper for residents who live beyond the range of THE DAILY TRIBUNE, but find it necessary to keep in touch with the best thoughts and higher interests of the world at large.

A few premiums are offered to readers and club agents.

Any friend of THE TRIBUNE is cordially invited to send for sample copies and terms, and make up a club of subscribers. We would be especially pleased to see a large circle of readers in every workshop.

THE WEEKLY, $1; THE SEMI-WEEKLY, $2; THE DAILY TRIBUNE, $10 a year. THE TRIBUNE Almanac for 1895, ready in January, 25 cents a copy.

GREATEST FAMILY WEEKLY.
THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE.
WASHINGTON, D. C.

The National Tribune is now entering upon its 17th year of phenomenal success.

No other family weekly in the country has had such a growth, and maintained it so steadily.

It goes into every County in the United States, and has clubs of subscribers at nearly every Post-office.

It has gained this proud position solely on its merits as a highly interesting family newspaper.

FOR THE YEAR 1894

It will be made much better and more attractive than ever. While retaining all of its present popular features, it will constantly add new ones.

ITS FEATURES.

War History, by men who actually served and fought in the struggle. Short Stories of Romance, Travel, Experience and adventure, by leading writers. Editorials upholding the cause of the veterans, and maintaining the highest loyalty to the Government, and the promotion of the best interests of the whole people. Washington News. Full accounts of what is taking place at the seat of Government; careful reports of all important matters in Congress and the Executive Departments; gossip about public men. Household Department, Edited by a lady of National reputation. G. A. R., W. R. C., and S. of V. News, more full and complete than published by any other paper. Agricultural Department, carefully edited by practical men. General News, carefully compiled.

The National Tribune is strictly non-partizan, and thoroughly American. It believes in the greatest good to the greatest number of our people, and the highest development of our institutions—in National unity and exalted loyalty. Price

$1 a Year Payable in Advance.

It claims to give more and better matter for the sum of Two Cents a week than any other publication. Every line that appears in it is written for it, and has appeared in no other paper. It uses no syndicate or boiler-plate matter. Address—

FIFTY-TWO DIVIDENDS.

As a general thing investors are pleased to receive only two dividends a year, and if they are paid with regularity are fully satisfied. When one, however, can receive fifty-two dividends in a year upon an investment of only three dollars, the matter deserves very serious attention.

The Independent of New York for forty-six years has held the first position among the great religious literary and family weeklies of the land. It presents features for the coming year far in advance of any heretofore offered. It has the leading contributors of the world, it prints the best poetry, it has twenty-one departments, edited by specialists, devoted to Fine Arts, Science, Insurance, Finance, Biblical Research, Sunday-School, Missions, Health, etc. The Independent is particularly fitted for intelligent people, whether professional men, business men, or farmers, and for their families. It costs but six cents a week and gives a great deal. A subscriber receives fifty-two dividends a year.

The subscription price of the Independent is only three dollars a year, or at that rate for any part of a year, and a sample copy will be sent to any person free by addressing The Independent, New York City.

Harper's Bazar
IN 1895.

Elegant and exclusive designs for Out-door and Indoor Toilettes, drawn from Worth models by Sandoz and Chapuis, are an important feature. These appear every week, accompanied by minute descriptions and details. Our Paris Letter, by Katharine de Forest, is a weekly transcript of the latest styles and caprices in the mode. Under the head of New York Fashions, plain directions and full particulars are given as to shapes, fabrics, trimmings, and accessories of the costumes of well-dressed women. Children's Clothing receives practical attention. A fortnightly Pattern-sheet Supplement enables readers to cut and make their own gowns. The woman who takes HARPER'S BAZAR is prepared for every occasion in life, ceremonious or informal, where beautiful dress is requisite.

An American Serial, Doctor Warrick's Daughter, by Rebecca Harding Davis, a strong novel of American life, partly laid in Pennsylvania and partly in the far South, will occupy the last half of the year.

My Lady Nobody, an intensely exciting novel, by Maarten Maartens, author of "God's Fool," "The Greater Glory," etc., will begin the year.

Essays and Social Chats. To this department Spectator will contribute her charming papers on "What We are Doing" in New York society.

Answers to Correspondents. Questions receive the personal attention of the editor, and are answered at the earliest possible date after their receipt.

THE CENTURY
IN 1895.

Taking advantage of the general revival of interest in the Great Emperor, The Century will print during 1895

A NEW LIFE OF NAPOLEON, MAGNIFICENTLY ILLUSTRATED.

The Century is famous for its great historical serials, and never in its history has a greater one been projected than this new "Life of Napoleon," written by Prof. William M. Sloane, of Princeton, who has spent many years in preparation for his work. Thus far no biography of "the man of destiny" has appeared in either English or French that is free from rancor and attentive to the laws of historical criticism. The Century has secured it—the great, all-round, complete and interesting history of the life of one of the most marvelous of men. No matter how much you already know of Napoleon, you will want to read this;—here is the concentration of all the lives and memoirs. The illustrations will be magnificent—the wealth of the Century's art department will be layished upon them. Two members of the staff have just returned from Paris, where they have been securing all that is best of Napoleonic material. New portraits will be printed, great historical paintings reproduced, and Castaigne and other modern artists have drawn anew some of the great scenes of Napoleon's life of this history.

In addition to this there will be

A NEW NOVEL BY MARION CRAWFORD.

The title is "Casa Braccio," and it is a romance of Italy, full of human passion and exciting episode.

A NEW NOVEL BY MRS. BURTON HARRISON

will be published during the year. It is called "An Errant Wooing," and is a tale of wandering (and love) among new scenes of travel in Northern Africa and Southern Spain.

OTHER FEATURES

will be several familiar papers on "Washington in Lincoln's Time," by Noah Brooks, who was on terms of unusual intimacy with the War President; "The Cathedrals of France" by Mrs. Schuyler Van Rensselaer, with illustrations by Joseph Pennell. Many more serials will be announced later.

RUDYARD KIPLING.

contributes his First American Story to the December number of The Century.

THE PRICE

of The Century is $4.00 a year. "No home is complete without it." Begin subscriptions with November number. Whatever other magazines you may take, you must have The Century. All agents and dealers take subscriptions, or remittance may be made directly to

THE CENTURY COMPANY,
UNION SQUARE, NEW YORK.

Send for our beautifully illustrated pamphlet, "The Century Co. and its Work," and mention where you saw this.

Harper's Weekly
IN 1895.

HARPER'S WEEKLY is a pictorial history of the times. It presents every important event promptly, accurately, and exhaustively in illustration and descriptive text of the highest order.

The manner in which, during 1894, it has treated the Chicago Railway Strikes and the Chino-Japanese War, and the amount of light it was able to throw on Korea the instant attention was directed to that little-known country, are examples of its almost boundless resources. Julian Ralph, the distinguished writer and correspondent, has been sent to the seat of war, and there joined by C. D. Weldon, the well-known American artist, now for many years resident in Japan, who has been engaged to co operate with Mr. Ralph in sending to Harper's Weekly exclusive information and illustration.

During 1895 every vital question will be discussed with vigor and without prejudice in the editorial columns, and also in special articles by the highest authorities in each department. Portraits of the men and women who are making history, and powerful and caustic political cartoons, will continue to be characteristic features. This Busy World, with its keen and kindly comment on the lesser doings of the day, will remain a regular department.

FICTION. There will be two powerful serials, both handsomely illustrated—The Red Cockade, a stirring romance of olden days by Stanley J. Weyman, and a novel of New York, entitled The Son of His Father, by Brander Matthews—several novelettes, and many short stories by popular writers.

Harper's Magazine
IN 1895.

The Simpletons, a new novel by Thomas Hardy, will be begun in the December Number, 1894, and continued to November, 1895. Whoever may be one's favorite among English novelists, it will be conceded by all critics that Thomas Hardy stands foremost as a master artist in fiction, and the Simpletons may be expected to arouse enthusiasm not inferior in degree to that which has marked Trilby—the most successful story of the year. Another leading feature will be the Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc, by the Sieur Louis de Conte, Her Page and Secretary, under which guise the most popular of living American magazine writers will present the story of the Maid of Orleans. In the January Number will appear a profusely illustrated paper on Charleston and the Carolinas, the first of a series of Southern Papers.

Northern Africa is attracting more attention than at any other time since it was the seat of empires. The next volume of HARPER'S MAGAZINE will contain four illustrated articles on this region, and three of them will depict the present life there. Julian Ralph will prepare for the MAGAZINE a series of eight stories, depicting typical phases of Chinese Life and Manners. Besides the long stories, there will begin in the January Number the first chapters of A Three-Part Novelette, by Richard Harding Davis—the longest work yet attempted by this writer. Complete short stories by popular writers will continue to be a feature of the MAGAZINE.

Send for Illustrated Prospectus.

The Volumes of the Magazine begin with the Numbers for June and December of each year. When no time is mentioned, subscriptions will begin with the Number current at the time of receipt of order. Cloth cases, for binding, 50 cents each—by mail, postpaid. Title-page and Index sent on application.

1895. The Sun! 1895.
Baltimore, Md.

The paper of the people, for the people and with the people.

Honest in Motive. Fearless in Expression. Sound in Principle. Unswerving in its allegiance to right theories and right practices.

The Sun publishes all the news all the time, but it does not allow its columns to be degraded by unclean, immoral or purely sensational matter. Editorially, The Sun is the consistent and unchanging champion and defender of popular rights and interests against political machines and monopolies of every character. Independent in all things, extreme in none. It is for good laws, good government and good order. By mail Fifty Cents a month, Six Dollars a year.

The Baltimore Weekly Sun.

The Weekly Sun publishes all the news of each week, giving complete accounts of all events of interest throughout the world. As an Agricultural paper the Weekly Sun is unsurpassed. It is edited by writers of practical experience, who know what farming means and what farmers want in an agricultural journal. It contains regular reports of the work of the agricultural experiment stations throughout the country, of the proceedings of farmers' clubs and institutes, and the discussion of new methods and ideas in agriculture. Its market reports, Poultry Department and Veterinary column are particularly valuable to country readers. Every issue contains Stories, Poems, Household and Puzzle Columns, a variety of interesting and instructive selected matter and other features, which make it a welcome visitor in city and country homes alike.

One dollar a year. Inducements to getters up of clubs for the Weekly Sun. Both the Daily and Weekly Sun mailed free of postage in the United States, Canada and Mexico. Payments invariably in advance. Address
