The Original Blowout.

From Pittsburg Dispatch.

"You have often heard the expression 'We had a great blowout last night,' used in connection with a dance or some sort of amusement," said a gentleman yesterday. "Do you know the origin of the word 'blowout?' No! Well, I'll tell you of it. Away back in the thirties the cotton mills at Lowell, Mass., were furnished with operatives from the families of the farmers living about the town. The sons and daughters of the sturdy farmers held positions in the mills, and coming from such good old stock there was a sort of social spirit developed among the employees which is not found in factories in these days. From the factories of Lowell some prominent people have come. Helen Hunt Jackson was employed there at one time.

"The hours were long, and in winter time lamps had to be provided to give light to the workers. It was before the days of kerosene, or, as they used to pronounce it when it did come out, 'kerosen,' with the accent on the 'o.' Whale oil lamps were lighted on Nov. 1 regularly each year, and their use was dispensed with on May 1. It was the operation on this latter date that originated the word 'blowout.' When the bell sounded on this day to quit work, all lamps were blown out simultaneously, not to be lighted again until November. This was called the 'blowout,' and after this a dance or supper would be given, which at first was called the 'blowout dance,' or 'blowout supper,' until finally any festivity attending the extinguishing of the lamps for the year was called 'the blowout.' So the word 'blowout' was originated."

Was a Forehanded Boy.

The wisdom of a philosopher is not to be placed over the foresight displayed the other day by one of the rising generation of the thinkers and rulers of the country, says the Cincinnati Enquirer. It was the son of a family well known in the city, possessed of the desire for a jackknife that seizes youths of his age. He laid plans to secure one. It was against the wishes of the mother, however, who, motherlike, warned him of the danger of possessing the dreadful implement, and expatiated upon the resulting cuts and consequent sticking plaster. The son was satisfied for a day, but having given to him a quarter, there was of course no better way to dispose of his wealth than to buy the coveted knife. This he did, and, being in no way a deceiving youth, he made the fact known at his home.

"What?" said his mother, "you have bought a knife? And how much did you pay for it?"

"Twenty cents," was the answer.

"Well, and what did you do with the rest of your quarter?"

"Oh, I bought sticking plaster with that."

The heaviest feed for poultry or other animals should be at night. Sleep favors digestion and keeping the stomach full is the best protection against cold. If any corn is given it should be at night. It will be all the better if warmed and some of it charred. A cold grain of corn, sometimes ice cold, has to be warmed before it can be digested. At night, when exercise is impossible, no unnessary burden should be placed on the system. In the morning it is better to feed poultry with grain scattered among straw and let them scratch for it.

Persons who get "qualms" when riding on the cars or on boats can almost certainly quiet them by slowly chewing a clove or two. Indigestion, accompanied by formation of gas, nausea and dizziness will often yield to the same simple measure. There are other and better means of accomplishing these results, but the value of the clove is that it occupies so little room, is so easily carried about and can be so readily procured when wanted.

It is recommended for the prevention of baldness that the hair be kept pretty closely cropped, and that the head be bathed frequently in salt water and lubricated occasionally with vaseline. Two teaspoonfuls of salt to a pint of water will make a tonic of the proper strength, and with this the head should be bathed three times a week.

Oh! do not let us wait to be just or pitiful or demonstrative toward those we love until they or we are struck down by illness or threatened with death!

It is well to hope for success, but much better to deserve it.

It does not take the last drink to to make a drunkard—but the first.

He who thinks his place below him, will certainly be below his place.

The thing most dangerous is the one that does most to make us selfish.

There is always something coming to us, but it is not always just what we prefer.

A melancholy race—The tears running down the furrows of old age.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhœa, and Feverishness. Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 South Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children." DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"For several years I have recommended 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARDEE, M. D., 125th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTYN, D. D., jan 27-94-2y New York City.

Look to Your Interest, People.

Big Slaughter in Wall Paper.

MY PRICES RANGE FROM 12c. TO 30c. PUT ON WALL. GILT 20c. TO 25c. ALL PAPER 8 YARDS LONG

These are not living prices. You may say how do I live. I have no rent to run a store and fuel, &c., and do all of my own work. I don't pay any hands one year to do three months' work in season. This is a chance to get papering done cheap. Take advantage while you have a chance. I will do as before, done by me. I can give the best references in the county.

Guarantee All Work

There has been a great deal said about me being a scab workman, but it was only said by those who can't compete with me in price and workmanship and who are afraid of me—never by a party that I did work for. Write for sample and price, or I will come to see you in person and tell you what your job will cost. I can be found 300 yards from the limit of Westminster on the Littlestown turnpike.

Thankful for past favors,
Very Respectfully,
jun-28 L. GLADHILL.

ATTENTION FARMERS AND FRUIT GROWERS.

I have a fine assortment of all kinds of Fruit Trees, Grape Vines, Dewberries, Blackberries, Raspberries, Strawberries, Gooseberries, and Currants; Flowers of all kinds; Shade and Ornamental trees, all of my own growing. Come and examine my stock, get low prices and see that stock is true to name and first-class.

My trees will be ready to dig about the 25th day of October. Thanking my customers for their past patronage, I beg to say that if any sold has died it will be replaced, with satisfaction to both parties.
