THE OLD RAIL FENCE.

The old rail fence with aimless angles
Curved round the scented fields of old,
And wild blown vines in quaintest tangles
Bloomed there in purple and in gold;
And winds went over, cool and sweet,
With rivery ripples in the wheat.

The white road to the river knew it—
The river running wild and fleet—
A cabin path went winding to it,
With light prints of a boy's bare feet;
And cattle in the woods at morn
Roamed by and nipped the bending corn.

In corners cool the plowman rested
When rang the welcome bells of noon,
And there the thrush and partridge nested,
And sang the mocking-birds of June;
And winds were sweet with muscadines,
And blooms were on the melon vines.

There twilight paused in rosy dreaming,
And o'er the riot of the rills,
When starlight on the world was streaming,
Rose the love song of whip-poor-wills;
And with the music and the stars,
Love met his sweetheart at the bars.

There, with the evening shadows falling,
In cabin door a woman stands,
And far and sweet her voice is calling,
And children heed her beckoning hands;
There, for the weary ones that roam,
Twinkle the dreamy lights of home.

* * * * * * * * * *

The corn still waves and vines are clinging,
The larks are hid in bending grain,
The birds sing as my heart is singing,
Where lonely in the woodland rain,
The old rail fence, its service o'er,
Curves round the blossoming fields no more.

Yet there I halt my horse, and, sighing,
Above the old rail fence I lean;
The snows upon life's pathway lying
Have left one living glimpse of green;
And still, through change of time and art,
The old rail fence runs round my heart.

—Atlanta Constitution.

Ewes that are suckling lambs should have some grain, especially if they are given roots or other succulent food to increase the flow of milk. There is always profit in making the lamb grow rapidly, as the larger and fatter they are the better price they will bring per pound. It is just as possible to increase the yield of milk from ewes as it is from cows in the dairy by good feeding. By keeping up the practice for several generations breeds of sheep that are superior for milk may be established. This will be especially necessary if farmers grow the breeds that produce twins and occasionally triplets at a birth. Most common sheep are so poor milkers that one lamb is all they can provide for, and they need good feeding for that.

One day, while a Peruvian goatherd was tending his flock, he had to go after a few members of it. In climbing up a steep bank he seized a brush to give him a better hold, but the bush gave way and brought to light a vein of pure silver. Keeping the fact of this discovery to himself, the man grew wealthy and became nicknamed "the Rich;" but he took a friend into his confidence, by whom his secret was betrayed to the Spaniards. They opened a mine on the spot, and registered it on the 21st of April, 1545. This was the beginning of the famous mines of Potosi, which are said to have yielded from first to last as much as three hundred and fifty millions sterling of silver.

The courage of high endeavor is not courage of endurance; the enthusiasm that laughs at obstacles and difficulties is very different from the experience which realizes them; the self-confidence which has no thought of limitations is quite unlike the humility which has found and accepted them; the hopefulness which has never been crushed scarcely resembles the modest hope which may spring up after failure or disappointment, content to strive for small things when great ones are impossible.

According to Max O'Rell, the Australians are a hungry lot. They eat seven times a day. Tea and bread and butter at 7, breakfast at 8.30, lunch at 11, dinner at 1.30, tea at 3, supper at 6, and a nightcap at 10. Tea is a standard drink, and there are few hours in the day when the teapot is not brought into requisition. The only people who can compare with Australians in drinking tea are the Irish, who keep the teapot boiling on the stove all day long.

Plants in the house will become dusty and the leaves will then be unable to properly perform their functions. All plants should be washed, or sprayed, twice a week with tepid water. To protect against mealy bug wash with strong soapsuds and in 15 minutes after rinse the plants well with clean water.

Apple trees should be pruned so that all parts may easily be reached by a spray; well-pruned trees allow free access of light and air among their branches, which prevents fungi from obtaining so strong a foot-hold.

THE CENTURY
IN 1895.
Taking advantage of the general revival of interest in the Great Emperor, The Century will print during 1895
A NEW LIFE OF NAPOLEON, MAGNIFICENTLY ILLUSTRATED.
The Century is famous for its great historical serials, and never in its history has a greater one been projected than this new "Life of Napoleon," written by Prof. William M. Sloane, of Princeton, who has spent many years in preparation for his work. Thus far no biography of "the man of destiny" has appeared in either English or French that is free from rancor and attentive to the laws of historical criticism. The Century has secured it—the great, all-round, complete and interesting history of the life of one of the most marvelous of men. No matter how much you already know of Napoleon, you will want to read this;—here is the concentration of all the lives and memoirs. The illustrations will be magnificent—the wealth of the Century's art department will be lavished upon them. Two members of the staff have just returned from Paris, where they have been securing all that is best of Napoleonic material. New portraits will be printed, great historical paintings reproduced, and Castaigne and other modern artists have drawn anew some of the great scenes of Napoleon's life of this history.
In addition to this there will be
A NEW NOVEL BY MARION CRAWFORD.
The title is "Casa Braccio," and it is a romance of Italy, full of human passion and exciting episode.
A NEW NOVEL BY MRS. BURTON HARRISON
will be published during the year. It is called "An Errant Wooing," and is a tale of wandering (and love) among new scenes of travel in Northern Africa and Southern Spain.
OTHER FEATURES
will be several familiar papers on "Washington in Lincoln's Time," by Noah Brooks, who was on terms of unusual intimacy with the War President; "The Cathedrals of France" by Mrs. Schuyler Van Rensselaer, with illustrations by Joseph Pennell. Many more serials will be announced later.
RUDYARD KIPLING.
contributes his First American Story to the December number of The Century.
THE PRICE
of The Century is $4.00 a year. "No home is complete without it." Begin subscriptions with November number. Whatever other magazines you may take, you must have The Century. All agents and dealers take subscriptions, or remittance may be made directly to
THE CENTURY COMPANY,
UNION SQUARE, NEW YORK.
Send for our beautifully illustrated pamphlet, "The Century Co. and its Work," and mention where you saw this.

Harper's Weekly
IN 1895.
HARPER'S WEEKLY is a pictorial history of the times. It presents every important event promptly, accurately, and exhaustively in illustration and descriptive text of the highest order.
The manner in which, during 1894, it has treated the Chicago Railway Strikes and the Chino-Japanese War, and the amount of light it was able to throw on Korea the instant attention was directed to that little-known country, are examples of its almost boundless resources. Julian Ralph, the distinguished writer and correspondent, has been sent to the seat of war, and there joined by C. D. Weldon, the well-known American artist, now for many years resident in Japan, who has been engaged to co-operate with Mr. Ralph in sending to Harper's Weekly exclusive information and illustration.
During 1895 every vital question will be discussed with vigor and without prejudice in the editorial columns, and also in special articles by the highest authorities in each department. Portraits of the men and women who are making history, and powerful and caustic political cartoons, will continue to be characteristic features. This Busy World, with its keen and kindly comment on the lesser doings of the day, will remain a regular department.
FICTION. There will be two powerful serials, both handsomely illustrated—The Red Cockade, a stirring romance of olden days by Stanley J. Weyman, and a novel of New York, entitled The Son of His Father, by Brander Matthews—several novelettes, and many short stories by popular writers.
Send for Illustrated Prospectus.
The Volumes of the Weekly begin with the first Number for January of each year. When no time is mentioned, subscriptions will begin with the Number current at the time of receipt of order.
Cloth Cases for each volume, suitable for binding, will be sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of $1.00 each. Title-page and Index sent on application.
Remittances should be made by Post-office Money Order or Draft, to avoid chance of loss.

Harper's Magazine
IN 1895.
The Simpletons, a new novel by Thomas Hardy, will be begun in the December Number, 1894, and continued to November, 1895. Whoever may be one's favorite among English novelists, it will be conceded by all critics that Thomas Hardy stands foremost as a master artist in fiction, and the Simpletons may be expected to arouse enthusiasm not inferior in degree to that which has marked Trilby—the most successful story of the year. Another leading feature will be the Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc, by the Sieur Louis de Conte, Her Page and Secretary, under which guise the most popular of living American magazine writers will present the story of the Maid of Orleans. In the January Number will appear a profusely illustrated paper on Charleston and the Carolinas, the first of a series of Southern Papers.
Northern Africa is attracting more attention than at any other time since it was the seat of empires. The next volume of HARPER'S MAGAZINE will contain four illustrated articles on this region, and three of them will depict the present life there. Julian Ralph will prepare for the MAGAZINE a series of eight stories, depicting typical phases of Chinese Life and Manners. Besides the long stories, there will begin in the January Number the first chapters of A Three-Part Novelette, by Richard Harding Davis—the longest work yet attempted by this writer. Complete short stories by popular writers will continue to be a feature of the MAGAZINE.
Send for Illustrated Prospectus.
The Volumes of the Magazine begin with the Numbers for June and December of each year. When no time is mentioned, subscriptions will begin with the Number current at the time of receipt of order. Cloth cases, for binding, 50 cents each—by mail, postpaid. Title-page and Index sent on application.

Look to Your Interest, People.
Big Slaughter in Wall Paper.
MY PRICES RANGE FROM 12c. TO 30c. PUT ON WALL. GILT 20c. TO 25c. ALL PAPER 8 YARDS LONG
These are not living prices. You may say how do I live. I have no rent to run a store and fuel, &c., and do all of my own work. I don't pay any hands one year to do three months' work in season. This is a chance to get papering done cheap. Take advantage while you have a chance. I will do as before, done by me. I can give the best references in the county.
Guarantee All Work
There has been a great deal said about me being a scab workman, but it was only said by those who can't compete with me in price and workmanship and who are afraid of me—never by a party that I did work for. Write for sample and price, or I will come to see you in person and tell you what your job will cost. I can be found 300 yards from the limit of Westminster on the Littlestown turnpike.
Thankful for past favors,
Very Respectfully,
