Wedding Bells.

STAUFFER—STOUFFER.

The Presbyterian Church at New Windsor was the scene of a beautiful and interesting wedding at 3.45 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The bride was Miss Cora A. Stouffer, daughter of Mr. Philip Stouffer, a well known farmer near New Windsor, and the groom Mr. Louis E. Stauffer, a popular young business man, of that place. The church decorations were confined to the altar, which was banked with palms, ferns and flowers in profusion. The happy event excited much interest in the community and attracted a large company of friends of the parties to the church. The bride's gown was a blue novelty cloth, with tinsel trimmings, and she carried Mareschal Neil roses. The ushers were Messrs. J. Walter Getty and Harry S. Stouffer, of New Windsor, the latter a brother of the bride. The wedding march in Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's march were rendered by Mrs. Matz. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. James R. Cadden, of Hagerstown, a retired minister of the M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Purnell, president of New Windsor College. Mr. and Mrs. Stauffer left by an afternoon train for a bridal trip to Baltimore and the South. Among those present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stouffer, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stouffer, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Suman, Messrs. Stirling Stouffer, T. J. Stouffer, of Baltimore; Miss A. J. McKenna, of Buckeystown; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Bennett, of Westminster; Mr. and Mrs. Granville S. Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon S. Shepherd, of Union Bridge.

HOPPE—BANKARD.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mrs. Caroline Bankard, near Cranberry Station, at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The bride was her granddaughter, Miss Emma Louise Bankard, daughter of the late David J. Bankard, and the groom Mr. Elmer Howell Hoppe, of this city. The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion with evergreen and potted flowers. The bride wore a becoming gown, of garnet color, with hat and gloves to match, and carried Marechal Neil roses. Her ornaments were diamonds, the gift of the groom. The bridesmaid, Miss Edna R. Bankard, wore a gown of blue, with hat to match. Mr. Wm. A. Wilson, of this city, was groomsman. The wedding marches were played by Joe Mazziotte's Italian orchestra. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. J. Macalister, pastor of Carroll charge, Reformed Church. A reception followed, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hoppe took a late train for an extended bridal trip to the South. Those present were: Mrs. Isadore Hoppe, Mrs. Caroline Bankard, Mrs. Jacob Kertner, daughter and niece, Mrs. D. J. Bankard, and family, Rev. H. J. Macalister and family, Mrs. Charles Crawford, Misses S. Grace Stonesifer, Carrie Bankard, Carrie and Addie Mouter, Nellie Oursler, Maud Bankard, Cora Schaeffer, Messrs. John E. Death of Mrs. Mary M. J. Shriver, of Union Mills.

This most estimable christian woman and model mother, entered peacefully into rest at half-past seven o'clock, last Tuesday evening. She was in the 87th year of her age and the end was not unexpected by those to whom she was near and dear for, during the past month or more, owing to the general breaking up of the system that always comes with old age, she became gradually weaker as the days passed by. The good woman herself fully realized the helplessness of her enfebled condition, and, with beautiful christian fortitude and devout faith, calmly and patiently awaited the dissolution which, of late, she well knew was near at hand.

Mrs. Shriver was a daughter of the late John Owings and on November 21, 1826, was joined in wedlock to William Shriver, the marriage ceremony taking place at Emmittsburg, Md. Her husband preceded her to the spirit world, his death taking place on June 11th, 1879, in the 83rd year of his age. Their marriage was a fruitful one, resulting in the birth of thirteen children all of whom attained to honorable manhood and womanhood. Two of the children, James, the eldest, and John Lawrence, have died. The survivors are: Elizabeth, widow of the late Thomas J. Myers, who was a prosperous business man of Baltimore; William, who holds a responsible position with the well known firm of B. F. Shriver & Co. which is composed of the two youngest sons, Benj. Franklin and T. Herbert; Columbus, president of the Metropolitan Savings Bank, of Baltimore; Andrew Keiser and Mark O., senior members of a large fruit and vegetable packing house of Baltimore; Albert, who lives retired in Baltimore; Sarah C. and Mary Owings, who reside at the old home where they are spending useful and happy lives, and with untiring devotion cared for their aged parents in their declining years, and Emma, the youngest, who joined the order of the sisters of charity about twenty years ago, and is now stationed at Norfolk, Va. T. Herbert Shriver has also been prominent in politics and has honorably represented Carroll county in the house of delegates and state senator, and has occupied the position of deputy collector of the port of Baltimore. Mrs. Shriver's husband, as well as his father, Andrew Shriver, and his brother, Andrew K. Shriver, all of whom have now passed away, were men of sterling integrity and were in their day and generation always identified with the best interests of the county.

In 1876 Mr. and Mrs. Shriver celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage, or golden wedding, on which occasion they were surrounded by forty-one children and grandchildren and hosts of friends and relatives. It was an event in the family and many costly gifts were presented to the aged couple. Deceased was an earnest member of the Catholic Church, in which faith all her children were reared, and Cardinal Gibbons and other prelates of the church were frequently entertained at her home. Part of the mansion has been set aside as a chapel in which services have been held at stated intervals for a number of years.

Funeral services were held at St John's Catholic Church, this city, at 10 o'clock Thursday morning and were largely attended. A solemn requiem mass was said. Rev. Joseph H. Cassidy, the pastor, was celebrant; Rev. Gaston Payne, of Staunton, Va, deacon; Rev. R. W. Cowardin, of Loyola College, Baltimore, sub-deacon. Rev. William E. Starr, of Corpus Christi Church, Baltimore, preached the funeral sermon. Rev. Dr. E. M. Allen, president of Mount St. Mary's College; Rev. Father Meade, of Taneytown; Rev. Father Dyer, of St. Sulpice Seminary, and Rev. C. F. Thomas, rector of the Cathedral, Baltimore, representing Cardinal Gibbons, who was unable to be present, were in the sanctuary. Messrs. Edwin Aler, organist; F. X. Hale, Harry Furst, L. M. Grice, Jos. Plunkett, C. A. McCann, E. J. Geis, of the Cathedral choir, sang through the service. The pall-bearers were the following, grandsons of the deceased: A. K. Shriver, J. S. Shriver, Edw. Shriver, Alfred J. Shriver, A. T. Myer, Robert J. Myer.

Proceedings of the School Board.

The School Board met on Tuesday. All the members were present. The teachers' reports for the Spring term of school were examined and the pay roll made thereon was approved. Payment for sundry amounts for rent of school houses was ordered; also various bills for supplies and incidental expenses.

John A. Evans and thirty-six others presented a petition for a new school-house at or within one quarter of a mile from Newport, in Mt. Airy district. Afterwards Sylvester P. Lewis, representing a like number of petitioners, asked that the house be built on a different site proposed by them. The Board promised to consider both sides before deciding.

A delegation consisting of eight representative gentlemen from Taneytown district was before the Board asking for a new school-house to be built on the road leading from Taneytown to Union Bridge, about midway between the schools of Oregon and Martins. The delegation was assured by the Board that the needs of a new house there would be investigated.

O. A. Haines and twenty-nine others presented a petition from Myers' district, praying for the removal of the Maus school-house to Silver Run. The petitioners were informed that the Board had some time ago decided to move said school-house to Silver Run, and would remove it as soon as funds were available.

Henry Galt, of Taneytown, appeared before the Board and asked to have the privilege of using one of the rooms of the school building there for a private school for the summer term. The privilege was granted.

A petition from Jesse Fleagle and nineteen others was presented to the Board requesting that the schoolhouse at Bear Mount be not removed. This being a counter-petition, a committee of the Board was appointed to visit the vicinity, and look into the needs there.

The Board adjourned to meet Monday, 6th May.

The Electric Railway.

The Gettysburg Star and Sentinel of Tuesday says: "Judge Murphy and Messrs. Bendall and Connelly, of the Electric Railway Company, arrived in town last Tuesday. Steps were immediately taken to begin work on the power house. Their plans have not taken definite shape, but they hope to have the entire line to Reisterstown in operation this season. If Governor Brown and his friends will not undertake to build the road from Westminster to Reisterstown then their franchises will be surrendered to Judge Murphy and his associates. The Littlestown parties who subscribed to the bonds have been a little upset by the bank trouble, but it is thought that all the troubles will be straightened out in a few days. Judge Murphy thinks the extension to the Maryland line could be built at the rate of a mile a day—if we had Western contractors."

German Baptists in Council.

The German Baptist Council of the Eastern district of Maryland met in Meadow Branch Church, near this city, on Tuesday last, for the discussion of questions touching the interests of the Church within the limits of the district. Three days were devoted to the meeting, the first having been of a congregational character and its sessions private. These district congregational meetings are not a new feature of the Church, but the ministerial council which followed, on Wednesday and Thursday, was the first ever held in the district and was regarded with much interest.

Elder Ephraim W. Stoner was elected moderator, Elder Samuel H. Utz recording clerk, and Elder George K. Sappington writing clerk for the ensuing year.

Among the subjects considered at the congregational meeting the most important, probably, was a proposition to establish an Old Folks' Home. The German Baptist Church does not permit its indigent members to become a charge on public charity, but cares for them and ministers to their necessities. It has, however, no institution for the reception and support of this class of its people, which is not at all extensive, industry and frugality being marked characteristics of the faith. The question of providing such a home, therefore, was regarded with much interest and was carefully considered in the council, but no action was taken and it was left in abeyance.

Elder Uriah Bixler, of Meadow Branch, was elected delegate to the annual meeting, and Elder Edward Brunner, of Frederick, alternate.

The date of the yearly meeting of the council was changed from the first Tuesday after Easter to the third Tuesday in April.

A proposition from the Board of Missions that the church at Washingon, D. C., be taken under the charge of the district, was declined, for the present.

The district embraces the Churches at Meadow Branch, Pipe Creek, Monocacy, or Rocky Ridge, Middletown Valley, Sams Creek, Beaver Dam, Bush Creek and Frederick. The churches in Baltimore and Woodberry, being under the supervision of Meadow Branch, are included in the district. The Western district embraces the churches west of the mountain.

The ministerial conference, following the congregational meeting, was in session two days and discussed the topics in the program heretofore published in the SENTINEL. Elder Samuel H. Utz was elected moderator and Elder Geo. K. Sappington secretary. The conference will be held at a place and time, next year, to be named by the program committee.

An Ineffectual Habeas Corpus.

Officer Leonard, of the House of Correction, brought Joshua Edwards here from that institution last Saturday in obedience to a writ of habeas corpus sued out of the Circuit Court for Carroll county. Edwards is serving a sentence imposed by Justice Wm. Moore, of this city, upon a plea of having been guilty of habitual disorder and drunkenness. Previous to last November he had been frequently in the county jail, and at least once in the House of Correction. At the time named a farmer named Zentz, living near Warfieldsburg, offered to give him steady employment if he would reform. He accepted the proposition, and remained with Mr. Zentz several months. He then came to this city to attend a wedding, fell into temptation and became intoxicated and troublesome. He was arrested and was committed to the House of Correction, pleading guilty to the charge referred to above. His employer took an active interest in his case, and held that a fallen man should be assisted in an attempt to reform. The application for the writ of habeas corpus was made, but the hearing resulted in Edwards being remanded to the House of Correction. The writ was made returnable before Judge Roberts, who heard the case. No question was raised as to the legality of the commitment, and the court held that the merits of the case could not be entered into de novo. As the prisoner had been produced, however, something like an informal hearing of the claim that he had reformed was allowed, a point upon which the evidence was somewhat conflicting. It was in evidence that he had been in this city several times, before his arrest, in a condition bordering on intoxication, and had been warned to leave or to take the consequences. On the other hand it was testified that he had been sober and industrious during most of the time he was in the employ of Mr. Zentz. Mr. Henning represented the prisoner and Mr. Fink the State.

Bloom Items.

Flittings are become a thing of the past and every body seems to be at work of some kind. Messrs William Y. Frizzell and Bro. have moved their saw-mill home, intending to saw lumber for a new house on the home farm. George L. Lescalleete's house is nearing completion. William Williams has moved into his new residence.

Our public school closed on Thursday of last week with a general program pertaining to Arbor Day. Tree planting was performed and speeches made by the children, all helping to make up a good time for both teacher and scholars.

Mr. David Bloom, Sr., is improving.

Mrs. Kate Kimmey is also mending slowly, under the treatment of Dr. L. A. Aldridge.

Mrs. Kate Devilbiss, of Frederick county, has moved in with her niece, Mrs. Savilla C. Sellman, near Bloom.

Mr. Columbus Wilson, formerly of Gist, has moved in the tenant house of Mr. L. A. Aldridge. We are all glad to see him with us.

Arbor Day was well observed here. Mr. Grove J. Shipley, our worthy and much esteemed teacher, will now take a much needed rest.

Manchester Items.

The marriage of Miss Josephine C. Wareheim and Mr. William F. Masenheimer, on Monday evening last, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Wareheim, on South Main street, was a nice affair. The parlors, hall, and dining room were tastefully decorated with evergreens, potted plants and flowers, and with the bright illumination were quite beautiful. Promptly at 8.23 P. M., the ushers entered the parlor followed by Rev. S. M. Roeder, and the bride and groom, where by the ritualistic ceremony they were declared man and wife. After they had received the congratulations of the many friends present all were invited to the dining room and enjoyed a bountiful supply of salads, sandwiches, cake, confectionery, ice cream, strawberries, lemonade, &c. A good social time was enjoyed and much enhanced with good music. Of special mention was the duet of Messrs. Hoffacker and Wilson. The bride was dressed in golden brown diagonal cloth trimmed in silk and passementerie and carried Marechal Neil and bride roses. The groom wore the conventional black. They were the recipients of many fine presents of silverware, linens, china, glassware, and cash. The ushers were Messrs. George Everhart, Rob. Shower, Kenneth Masenheimer and Jacob E. Musselman. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Warehime, daughter Kate, and son Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wareheim, Mr. H. F. Masenheimer and daughters, Sarah and Mary, Rev. and Mrs. S. M. Roeder, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Preston, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eckenrode, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hoffacker, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Masenheimer, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Turner, Mr. and Mrs. C. Motter, Dora Stricklin, Will Eckenrode, Geo. Wyant, David Everhart.

Rev. S. M. Roeder administered the Holy sacrament to 190 persons at Trinity Reformed Church on Easter Sunday morning, among whom were five young persons who were received by confirmation on the previous Friday.

At the annual election of Trinity Reformed Church, on Monday, Mr. Willoughby Rhodes was elected elder and Messrs. John E. Masenheimer and Daniel L. Dubbs, deacons, leaving a tie vote for another elder to be decided next Sunday.

At the annual election of Emmanuel Lutheran Church Messrs. Hunt and Shaffer were elected elders and Messrs Leese and Hanson deacons.

The annual report of the treasurer of Trinity Reformed Church, exhibited a gratifying degree of liberality on the part of the membership. The entire receipts were: Pastor's salary, $420, Sunday collections $104.64, special collections $49.61, rents $224.63, benevolent collections $122.54, special collection $38, Holy Week and Easter collections $33.46, total $991.86.

Miss Fannie Ross and Mrs Cornelius Miller gave a rabbit nest hunt to a number of children, in their respective yards, on Monday. To say they were enjoyed is placing their pleasure at quite a discount.

Bert Keller, son of Dr. Keller, of Glenville, Pa., died on Tuesday from the effects of an injury caused by having been struck in the temple with a baseball while playing on Monday. He was 17 years old and a student at the Glenville Academy.

A false alarm of fire about 12 o'clock Tuesday night caused considerable alarm among our citizens.

We have had the general quiet of our isolated town greatly disturbed during this week by having among us 200 and more representatives of the Grand Council Jr. O. U. A. M., whose first session was held on Tuesday morning in the I. O. O. F. Hall. They held three sessions a day, and have transacted a great deal of business. On Wednesday morning they had a parade of the Grand Council and visiting local councils, which formed at the Hall at 10 A. M. headed by the Manchester Band, followed by the grand officers in hacks and the grand representatives in line; Rayville Band, followed by the Beckleysville Council; Snydersburg Band, followed by the Reisterstown and Manchester Councils; Pleasant Hill Band, followed by the Manchester Fire Department, Chief A. C. Myers.

C. J. H. Gauter was chief Marshal, with Wm. N. Gettier, Dr. J. H. Preston, C. M. Masenheimer and Jacob Hoffman aids. The town had on its gala dress. The hotels, business places and many private residences were nicely trimmed with flags and bunting, with three large flags across Main street and a double arch spanning the square from the center of which was suspended a large shield and emblems of the order. Mr. Gervig, of the U. S. Council, was present at the sessions.

A festival was held during the week by Mr. Jno. E. Masenheimer's Sunday School class, in the Wareheim room, to increase their talent.

Banquet at Uniontown.

Union Lodge No. 56, I. O. M., of Uniontown, gave a grand banquet, on Thursday night, 11th inst., in celebration of their second anniversary on the one part, and as a compliment to the ladies of Uniontown and vicinity for their kind services rendered on previous occasions. Plates were laid for 225 members and guests. The menu consisted of oysters, stewed fried and raw, roast chicken, cold ham, chicken salad, pickels, celery, Saratoga chips, Maryland biscuits, sliced tomatoes, ice cream and strawberries, oranges, banannas, coffee, and cigars. An address of welcome was delivered by Bro. W. M., M. G. Shaw, who afterwards propounded the following toasts: 1st. The Day We Celebrate. In consequence of the severe indisposition of Bro. Seilhamer, he was not able to respond as was designed. 2nd. Our Lodge; responded to by Rep., Dr. L. Kemp. 3rd. When Union Lodge celebrates Her Centennial Anniversary; responded to by Con., W. L. Unger. 4th. Why I Am a Mechanic; responded to by P. M., Evan Haines. An abundance of excellent music was furnished during the evening by the Linwood Band. The members present from the Grand Lodge of Maryland were P. G. A., J. W. Loane, Jr., G. A., G. W. Hahn, and G. J., T. Charles Barnhart, all of Baltimore. Great credit is due the committee and lodge for the manner in which the affair was conducted, as it was unprecedented in expectation, execution and realization in this vicinity.

Roseville Items.

Mr. N. J. Leister spent a two-days' visit in Washington, D. C., recently, with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trine. The latter was ill at the time with paralysis, and died on the 28th ult. She was buried on Sunday, 31st ult.

County Commissioners.

The County Commissioners were in session on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, and were engaged chiefly in making transfers and abatements.

A special pension of $5.00 was granted George Landers of district No. 11.

Permission was granted the Western Maryland Telephone Company to construct its lines on the county roads, provided poles shall be so placed as not to interfere with the free and unobstructed use of the same by the traveling public, or with the drainage and the use of road machines in repairing such roads.

Pound Party.

A most enjoyable pound party was given at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver J. Hoover, near Bachman's Mills, on Saturday evening, 13th inst. By eight o'clock the throng had gathered and all heartily entered into the spirit of the occasion, and participated in all manner of games and social diversions. At 10.30 all were invited to the dining-room to partake of refreshments, which were prepared in abundance. Various amusements were again indulged for a short time, when all reluctantly took their departure. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Oliver J. Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bachman, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. K. Leppo, Mr and Mrs. Jacob L. Mathias, Misses Polly Garrett, Lillie M. and Effie Palmer, Addie J. and Carrie R. Hoover, Florence and Stella Mathias, Messrs. D. W. Hummer, Clarence Bachman, Frank Bachman, Charles M. Sullivan, G. Curtis and Renus S. Garrett.

LIME.

I have a full supply of Fresh Burnt Lime for all purposes. T. ROSENBERGER & SON, at Goodwin's Quarries, near Westminster.

FOUND.—A pair of eye-glasses with gold frame and chain were found on West Main street, this city, on Friday of last week. By proving property and paying for this advertisement the owner can recover them. Apply at the SENTINEL office.

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY EXCURSIONS TO WASHINGTON VIA PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

On April 20 and 21 the Pennspivania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets Baltimore to Washington and return at the low rate of $1.25 for the round trip. Tickets valid in each direction on all regular trains and good for return passage until Monday, April 22 inclusive.

An entertainment, for the benefit of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of Grace Lutheran Church of this city, will be given at Odd Fellows' Hall on Thursday evening next. The program will include several songs by a male quartet, a representation of Jean Ingelow's "Songs of Seven," a solo by Miss Helen Crouse, a Tom Thumb Wedding, and an operetta, Voices of Nature. It will be one of the most unique and interesting entertainments ever given in Westminster. Doors open at 7.00, performance at 7.45. Reserved seats 25 cents; general admission 20 cents.

MARYLAND SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION ANNIVERSARY.

The 39th Anniversary of the Maryland Sunday School Union, will be held in Baltimore, at the Academy of Music, on Thursday evening, April 26th, at 8 o'clock. The addresses will be delivered by Rev. Geo. Edward Reed, D. D., L. L. D., president of Dickinson College and Rev. Hugh Walker, pastor of Central Presbyterian Church, Baltimore. The music will be furnished by a large Union Choir, representing the various Sunday Schools of Baltimore, under the direction of Mr. R. C. Beall. The program is exceedingly interesting.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

The thirtieth anniversary of Lincoln's assassination, falling in April, will be commemorated by the publication in Harper's Weekly of two noteworthy articles, of which the first will discuss the sources of Lincoln's eloquence, and the second will be devoted to the Lincoln genealogy—tracing the line back to New England stock. The second article will be contributed by Lucius E. Chittenden, Register of the United States Treasury during the period of the Civil War, and an intimate friend of the President himself, as well as of many of the leading men connected with that administration.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

The first instalment of the personal recollections of Joan of Arc having shown the environment in which the heroine's childish years were passed, the second (in the May Harper's) will carry forward the marvelous story to the beginning of Joan's efforts to take to the Dauphin the message she had received from Heaven: "It is appointed that I shall drive the English out of France, and set the crown upon your head."

THE EASTER YOUTH'S COMPANION.

Among the many attractive and handsome Easter numbers so popular among readers of magazines and papers, The Youth's Companion excels in appropriateness to the season and in the exceptional quality of its reading matter. "The Story of a Statue," by the Marquis of Lorne, prepared for the Companion in collaboration with the Princess Louise, is an article of rare interest. "Dorothy's Easter," and "A Corner in Eggs," are two typical Easter stories well worth twice reading. "The Romance of a Shoal," an adventure story by W. Clark Russell, would be hard to duplicate. Each one of the entire collection of stories deserves mention, and with the miscellany, poetry, etc., collected in this one issue is worth the price for the entire year.

MEETING OF GRAND DIVISION S. OF T.

The Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance for the State of Maryland will hold its semi-annual session in Carroll Hall, this city Thursday, 25th inst. The morning session will open at 10 o'clock. All Sons of Temperance are invited to attend each session.

It is expected that F. M. Bradley, P. M. P. of S. of T. of North America, will be present at the prayer meeting exercises at the Lutheran Church on Wednesday evening, 24th inst., with the G. W. P. of this State, and will deliver an address.

A public meeting will also be held on the evening of the 25th, at Carroll Hall. Addresses will be delivered by officers of the Grand Division. Music by the College Temperance Choir. Miss Ada Mosher, the distinguished elocutionist, will be present Thursday night. All are cordially invited.

SWEETHEARTS AND THE VIOLIN MAKERS.

"Sweethearts," a comedy by W. S. Gilbert, author of "Mikado;" and "The Violin Maker," a dramatic sketch by Jerome K. Jerome, the great English author, will be presented at Odd Fellows' Hall, Westminster, Tuesday Evening, April 30th, by the same company that gave such a satisfactory performance of "The Lady of Lyons," in February last.

The leading part in "The Violin Maker" is a cripple and a hunchback. This part will be assumed by Mr. E. H. Manning, who will no doubt add to his former success as Claude Melnotte in "The Lady of Lyons." Mr. Jos. W. Swikert, a member of the Foyer Club and one of the leading amateur actors of Baltimore, will have a prominent part. Mr. Chas. A. McCann will again be the musical director. Mr. McCann, is a tenor of great local prominence in Baltimore, and is a member of the Lafayette Glee Club, the leading musical organization of that city. The performance is under the direction of Mr. George D. Parker, formerly with Wilfred Clarke.

The citizens of Westminster will again have the opportunity of witnessing a first class performance and a full house should greet them. Tickets are on sale at Huber's and Boyle's.

The Tyrolien Queen, an operetta, in four acts, will be presented at Odd Fellows' Hall, this city, on Friday evening, 19th inst., under the auspices of the Junior C. E. Society of the M. P. Church. Admission 25 and 35 cents.
