A very valuable Farm for sale.

The subscriber will sell that highly improved FARM, situate on the Reister's-Town Turnpike road, about 5½ miles from the city of Baltimore, lately purchased by him of Cornelius H. Gist, Esq. The whole will be sold together, if an advantageous offer is made; but the subscriber would prefer selling only that part thereof, lying on the west side of the road, containing about 116 Acres, with all the improvements, consisting of a good Dwelling House, barn and other out houses; apple and peach orchards of the choicest fruits, and an excellent garden. The whole premises under good post and rail fence. A great bargain will be given in this part of the land, if immediate application is made.

He still offers for sale, the Lands on Patapsco river, which will be sold low or exchanged for property in the city or precincts of Baltimore.

Lee's Elixir

A Sovereign remedy for cold, obstinate coughs, catarrhs, asthmas, sore throats and approaching consumptions.

Messrs. Michael Lee & Co.

You are at liberty to use my name in the recommendation of Lee's Elixir, from repeated trials, I have found it an excellent remedy for colds, coughs, &c. RIC'D BARRY.

Balt. June 20, 1810.

Messrs. Michael Lee & Co.

I was attacked with a most violent cold, a severe cough and pain in the breast, which continued to grow worse—during which my appetite failed and my voice altered so much that it was with the utmost exertion I could pronounce a single sentence louder than my breath. Some of my friends having observed to me that much good had been done by the use of Lee's Elixir, advised me to procure a bottle from Messrs. Warner & Hanna, which I accordingly did—and to those persons unacquainted with the merits of this medicine, it will appear astonishing that three does should remove the pains in my breast, and the use of one bottle only restored me to perfect health.

This Lottery is designed to erect an edifice for the use of the ancient and honorable society of Free and Accepted Masons in the City of Baltimore. To the Fraternity it needs no recommendation, because Masonry is confined to no particular country, but is diffused over the whole habitable globe. To the public at large, and particularly to the citizens of Baltimore it is recommended, not only as having for its object the prosperity of an Institution whose foundation is Charity, Beneficence and Brotherly Love, but also the erection of a structure which will add another ornament to this flourishing city. The scheme offers to adventurers the most flattering prospects of success.
