The Corporation Election.

The approaching municipal election in this city is exciting considerable interest. The future lighting of the streets appears to be the prominent cause of this condition. Rumors have been prevalent, from time to time, of an issue at the polls on this question, a result that is deprecated by many citizens, among whom are numbers of those who are interested in one or other of the companies prepared to furnish the lights, and many who have no financial or other interest in either. A general desire has been expressed that such an issue may be avoided and the whole subject left to the determination of a mayor and council entirely independent in interest and feeling on the subject. A call for a town meeting to make nominations has been circulated and signed by a number of citizens with that object in view. In the meantime, however, the name of Michael E. Walsh, Esq., has been brought before the public as a candidate for the mayoralty and he has consented to serve. He publishes a card in another column in which he states that he is "not committed to any person, persons or corporation in the administration of any part of the city government." As a matter of business the people want the best they can get for their money and it is to be hoped an acrid contest over the matter may be avoided and a mayor and council elected free from all bias, who will make a thorough investigation of the subject and adopt the course that will be for the best interests of the town.

Is It the Harmony of Submission?

At a Democratic county convention held in this city on Monday, September 24th, 1894, a platform was adopted in which this sentence occurred:

> "And we further repudiate Gorman methods and Gormanism in this State, that denies to the people the right to control their own affairs and are undemocratic, unpatriotic and if allowed to be continued will result in disaster to the party."

County Clerk B. F. Crouse made a ringing speech, in support, particularly, of the feature of the platform quoted above, and was enthusiastically cheered as he denounced Gorman and Gormanism in the most emphatic terms. Forty of the delegates, out of sixty-five, were thoroughly imbued with the spirit of the resolutions and voted for them with a manner and emphasis that plainly said: "We will have no compromise."

Echoes of these resolutions, somewhat faint to be sure, have come up from other parts of the State since they were carried through the Carroll county convention with a rush, and for a time it almost seemed as if Gormanism was about to be stamped out of the Democratic party, and a new era commenced in which the people would not be "denied the right to control their own affairs." But a subtle change has recently been wrought in this sentiment. The State Committee of the Democratic party met in Baltimore about two weeks ago and quietly and subserviently did the bidding of the same Gorman who was so freely and fiercely denounced by the Carroll county convention. The distinguished party manager was in the Carrollton Hotel while the committee was in session, and his will evidently wholly controlled it. This is what the Baltimore Sun had to say on the subject.

> The "Inspired" portion of the Democratic press is unanimous in the expression of two opinions—first, that the meeting [of the Democratic State Committee] was characterized by the utmost spirit of harmony, and, secondly, that it was made the occasion of a great and gratifying ovation in honor of Senator Gorman. * * * The committee was so harmonious that it passed without discussion and without dissent the cut-and-dried resolutions prepared for its adoption. * * Senator Gorman, who had arrived at the Carrollton Hotel from Washington some time before the hour of meeting of the committee, had seen the resolutions and approved them, and, consequently, every bodyelse approved them. The session of the committee was as brief as it was harmonious. It did not last over 15 minutes, says one account.
> There is just as little doubt about the honors paid to Senator Gorman. He had his own room at the Carrollton, and for over two hours, says a paper published in his own county and supposed to be very much in his confidence, a continuous stream of visitors poured through his room, all eager to shake him by the hand and to congratulate him upon his reappearance at the helm.
> It is the most complete case of surrender on record on the part of a great political party of its own freedom of action and right to control its own affairs into the hands of one man.

Referring to the meeting the Advocate in its issue of the 6th inst., says: "There was a better feeling manifested in the party than has prevailed for some years," and in the same issue, under the heading, "No Contest in Carroll," declares that "those who took opposite sides in the primaries last year, will be found shoulder to shoulder this year."

As "Gorman and Gormanism" are again to the front there would seem to be but one method of securing this result, and that is the meek submission of those who so proudly championed the cause of the people and of anti-Gormanism in the Carroll county convention last year. Mr. Gorman and his friends triumphant throughout the State generally, will scarcely submit to a second snubbing at the hands of the Young Democracy of Carroll, and if the Advocate is right about the "shoulder to shoulder" business somebody will have to take water.

But, after all, it may be that the Advocate is only speaking out of a desire to witness the harmony which it so confidently predicts. We know of some prominent Democrats who were identified with the successful faction in this county last year, who talk as if they are not ready to accept the humiliation of the only sort of harmony that is possible under the rule of bossism.

The Pikesville, Reisterstown and Emory Grove Electric Railway has completed its bridge at Glyndon over the tracks of the Western Maryland Railroad and has wires strung from Pikesville to Reisterstown. It is expected that cars will be running on the road by the first week in May.

"The Republicans of Nebraska believe in fostering home products and industries. Deprived of the incentive to the growing of sugar beets, by the repeal of the bounty offered under the McKinley law, the farmers of that State were abandoning the business, but the Republican Legislature has passed a State bounty law, over the veto of the Populist Governor, by a vote of 26 to 5 in the Senate and 68 to 23 in the House. The Populists, with two exceptions, voted against the bill. We believe some Democratic votes were recorded in its favor. Already there is a marked awakening in relation to the industry, and largely increased production is anticipated as a consequence of the law.

The Supreme Court of the United States has decided to hear argument on the application for a rehearsing of the income tax question. This does not mean that the court will necessarily grant such a rehearing, or, if it should that the entire case will be reopened. The court declared, by a decided majority of the judges, that incomes derived from rentals of real estate, and from interest on State, county and municipal bonds cannot be taxed. It will hardly reconsider that judgment. But as the court was equally divided as to the constitutionality of the other portions of the law and Judge Jackson, who was ill and could not sit in the case, has sufficiently recovered to do so if it should be reheard, there would, in that event be the certainty of a decision, either for or against them, which would prevent subsequent litigation. The argument is to be heard on the 6th of May. In the meantime the law is a vexatious uncertainty, although shorn of half its power to raise revenue for the needs of the government.

Reports have been circulated that Hon. Wm. B. Baker, of Harford county, Congressman from the Second District of Maryland, who is also State Senator from Harford county, has been considering the advisability of holding the latter office until after the November election, and, if his vote were then necessary to control the latter body, to abstain from taking the oath of office, as Congressman until the close of the next session of the Legislature. Mr. Baker disposes of these reports in a letter to the Bel Air Times, in which he states in the plainest terms his intention to resign the senatorship in ample time to permit the election of his successor in November. The report evoked expressions of violent indignation from many Democrats, who regarded with the utmost complacency the course of Mr. Hill, of New York, in holding on to the Governorship of that State and a seat in the United States Senate at the same time, his retention of the Governor's chair having been necessary to the success of the conspiracy to steal the New York Senate, for which the people subsequently rebuked Maynard, one of his tools in the conspiracy, by their votes at the polls.

Utterances of President Cleveland and members of his Cabinet indicate that the Administration proposes to make hostility to the free coinage of silver a test of fealty to Democratic principles. It is quite possible, however, that free coinage numbers more friends than enemies in the ranks of the party, and that the President and his advisors may be read out of the Democratic fold by this majority. The heresy seems to be spreading among the Democrats, and the "gold bugs" of the party, as some of the organs so courteously characterize the opponents of free coinage, may find the current of opposition to their theories too strong to be stemmed. Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, has announced his adhesion to free coinage in the most unequivocal terms, and Secretary Carlisle proposes to take up the gauntlet thus thrown down and fight against Mr. Blackburn's return to the Senate. Senator Daniel, of Virginia, is another free silver man, and there are intimations that his desire to succeeed himself must be thwarted. It is very doubtful whether this can be done; but sound money men need not be distressed by evidences of unsoundness among the Democrats. The Republicans will have a large part in the government hereafter, and will see that the equality of the currency is maintained.

WASHABLE MATERIALS FOR LADIES' SUMMER GOWNS.

New grass linens and ecru linen, batistes have color introduced in dashes, bars and stripes, or else they are quite plain. Heavier smooth linens come in a variety of shades, such as light blue, navy, pink, green, and yellowish brown. Among the new cotton fabrics are some beautiful Hindoo batistes and smoothed twilled teviot suitings. Ginghams, zephyrs and dimities are always popular, and appear in pretty and novel designs. Dotted Swiss muslins with artistic wreaths, bouquets, or separate blossoms, printed in natural colors, on tinted or white grounds, easily take the lead for elegant wear. In the McDowell Fashion Magazines just at hand can be seen many illustrations of these new fabrics and their applications. The latest styles of skirts and capes appear in special coupon patterns. These popular and artistic patterns continue to form a most characteristic feature of the McDowell Journals, and are highly prized for their accuracy of details and their practical excellence. "La Mode de Paris" and "Paris Album of Fashion" cost only $3.50 a year, or 35 cents each per copy; "The French Dressmaker" is $3.00 per annum, or 30 cts. a copy; "La Mode" costs only $1.50 per year, or 15 cents a copy. If you are unable to procure either of these publications from your newsdealer do not take a substitute from him, but apply by mail to Messrs. A. McDowell & Co., 4 West 14th street. New York.

SWEETHEARTS AND THE VIOLIN MAKERS.

"Sweethearts," a comedy by W. S. Gilbert, author of "Mikado;" and "The Violin Maker," a dramatic sketch by Jerome K. Jerome, the great English author, will be presented at Odd Fellows' Hall, Westminster, Tuesday Evening, April 30th, by the same company that gave such a satisfactory performance of "The Lady of Lyons," in February last.

The leading part in "The Violin Maker" is a cripple and a hunchback. This part will be assumed by Mr. E. H. Manning, who will no doubt add to his former success as Claude Melnotte in "The Lady of Lyons." Mr. Jos. W. Swikert, a member of the Foyer Club and one of the leading amateur actors of Baltimore, will have a prominent part. Mr. Chas. A. McCann will again be the musical director. Mr. McCann, is a tenor of great local prominence in Baltimore, and is a member of the Lafayette Glee Club, the leading musical organization of that city. The performance is under the direction of Mr. George D. Parker, formerly with Wilfred Clarke.

The citizens of Westminster will again have the opportunity of witnessing a first class performance and a full house should greet them. Tickets are on sale at Huber's and Boyle's.

GORSUCH'S IS THE BEST
I have found that to be true. I will use no other.
FINE DISSOLVED Raw Bone PHOSPHATE 167 lbs

What is the best or most paying crop for a farmer to raise?

The answer, as a rule, is the crop planted in the Spring--

CORN, OATS, OR POTATOES.

The Spring is nearly with us and we wish to call your attention to the most available Fertilizer you can use on your SPRING CROPS.

We have studied the FERTILIZER BUSINESS for years and are prepared to give a farmer anything he wants in the way of Fertilizer. We especially recommend our

CHAMPION DISSOLVED BONE

FOR POTATOES OR CORN, AND OUR

FOUR X BONE FOR OATS.

We are especially prepared to furnish an excellent article of Fertilizer at very low prices. Our goods have been used by farmers in all sections of Carroll county and have given the best of satisfaction.

Use the Best this Spring and call on us and get the best and your crop will be satisfactory and pay you well. Very respectfully,

N. I. GORSUCH & SON.
