On Monday last two small boys, who were sent to watch a cow feeding in the neighborhood of Meadow Branch German Baptist Church, near this city, amused themselves by pelting the church edifice with stones, battering and scarring the doors and breaking, altogether, thirty-six panes of glass from the windows. The glass in the transoms over the three doors and most of the panes in the large gable window were broken. The boys are of tender years and did not understand the criminality of their conduct.

The latter was unable for some time to use her limbs on one side at all, but after the fright occasioned by the occurrence had somewhat subsided other members of the family sent for Dr. Joseph T. Hering, who applied restoratives and both ladies were speedily relieved, though they are still rather nervous from the effect of the shock.

The Westminster Election.

The great interest attending the election of Mayor and Common Councilmen of this city, on Monday last, brought out the largest vote ever polled at a municipal contest here, 589 ballots having been cast, nearly 40 more than the number at the election in 1890, when the issue was the bonding of the city for $25,000 for street improvements. In the present instance the contest was in relation to the method of lighting the streets, and the ticket in favor of the use of "arc lights, all night, every night in the year," obtained a majority so decided as to leave no doubt that the preponderance of the public sentiment is largely favorable to that method. The vote was as follows:

ELECTRIC LIGHT TICKET.

For Mayor—Milton Schaeffer, 397.

Western Md. vs. Balto. City College.

The Western Maryland and Baltimore City College Baseball Clubs played a game at Union Park, Baltimore, on Saturday last, which was given to the home club by the umpire, by a score of 12 to 8. From the statement of Manager F. W. Story, of the visitors, confirmed by concurrent testimony, the Western Md. boys were simply deprived of all chance of winning a victory by the unfair decisions of the umpire, who literally robbed them of the game.

Mr. Story also complains that a prejudiced report of the game was published in the Baltimore papers, some of which credited the City College with 13 hits, while they made but 7 to Western Maryland's 8. The home club made 7 errors to the visitors 4. Mr. Story says "the Western Maryland boys led in batting and in stealing bases and in every respect put up a better game" than their competitors.

A Pleasant Incident.

An interesting and pleasing incident occurred at Firemen's Hall, this city, on Thursday evening, in the presentation to the department of photographic pictures of the nine survivors of those who organized the Westminster Fire Department in 1879. The presentation speech was made by Chief F. K. Herr, and the gift was accepted, on behalf of the department, by J. Milton Reifsnider, Esq., who spoke appropriately of the valuable services rendered this community by the organization.

The photographs are contained in a large and handsome frame, which is beautifully embellished with firemen's emblems and designs tastefully arranged. The subjects of the pictures, with the relations they now sustain to the department, are as follows:

Edwin J. Lawyer, president.
F. K. Herr, chief.
Jno. H. Mitten, 2nd vice-president.
Wm. H. Bell, Jr., secretary and treasurer.
Oscar D. Gilbert, ex-president.
Chas. V. Wantz, ex-vice president.
John E. Eckenrode, ex-vice-president.
Denton S. Gehr, ex-secretary and treasurer.
J. C. Mobley, ex-assistant chief.

These nine gentlemen constitute the entire number of the original members who are still actively connected with the department. They were photographed by Mr. J. W. Baldwin, of this city, and it would be difficult to find 9 photographs, taken single and then grouped together, more true to nature than these.

Having been in active service as volunteer firemen for a period of more than fifteen years they have organized themselves into a Veteran Firemen's Corps, under the rules and regulations of the State Firemen's Association, and have elected Mr. Frank K. Herr, who has been chief of the department continuously since its organization, president.

Veterans' certificates, designed for organizations of this character throughout the State, were given the members. These certificates show upon the face the date of the incorporation of the present Westminster Fire Department, and also the date of institution of a fire organization which existed in the town from 1823 to 1850, and which possessed a hand engine that was destroyed about the latter date.

The photographs of the veterans, framed as described, will be kept in a prominent place in the hall, on an easel of appropriate design which accompanied the gift, and will be held among the cherished treasures of the department.

Proceedings of the School Board.

The School Board met on Monday. All the members were present. Messrs. Myers, Angell and Ott, trustees of Shaw's school, in Taneytown district, were before the Board praying for a new schoolhouse to be built at that place, stating that the house there was too small to accommodate the pupils of the district, and that it was hardly fit for occupancy. The matter was left in the hands of Dr. Reindollar, who was requested to confer with those interested.

Mr. John A. Martin, one of the trustees of Martin's school, was before the Board and asked that the Martin's school district be not divided as it would decrease the attendance of pupils at said school and would probably be the means of breaking it up. He also stated that the schools at Martin's and Oregon afforded ample facilities for the pupils who reside between the two schools. Mr. Martin was told that a committee of the Board had been appointed to visit said school districts, after which they would consider the advisability of making a change there. It being the time fixed by law for the annual appointment of trustees, the following were appointed: Dr. George T. Motter at Taneytown, in place of Charles C. Currens; Millard F. Hann at Martin's, in place of Daniel Trimmer; H. H. Weaver at Uniontown; Lewis Myers and Levi D. Maus at Baust's Church, in place of Henry Sell and Jacob Rodkey; U. Grant Yingling and Benjamin Fleagle at Mayberry, in place of Jacob Marker and D. F. Phillips; John F. Maus at Maus's, in place of Martin Bechtel; William E. Keefer at Green Valley, in place of Samuel E. Keefer; Urias Markle at Cherry Grove, in place of Jonas Legore; Elias E. Shipley at Morgan Run, in place of J. H. Owings; Mr. Stembaugh at Highland View, in place of Luther M. Busbey; Jacob Miller at Kroh's, in place of Joseph Price; James E. James and Jonas Wareheim at Old Fort, in place of Leonard Kreitzer and Elias Markel; E. Benton Handley at West End in Westminster; Francis E. Reese and Wesley A. Steele at Cranberry, in place of George K. Schaeffer and to fill the vacancy; Ephraim Bachmam at Stonesifer's, in place of J. Wesley Beggs; T. S. Gorsuch and Augustus C. Barnes at Franklinville; John H. Roop at Park Hall, in place of Solomon S. Ecker. The above changes were made principally on account of resignations.

Some of the Money Returned.

The Frederick News of Monday says: State's Attorney Edward S. Eichelberger went to Washington last week in the John Eyler case with $300 of the stolen money, and turned it over to Chief Clerk Sylvester. There were six $20 gold pieces and nine $10 gold pieces, and the balance was in greenbacks. Of this money $200 had been deposited as collateral, and $100 had been recovered from his parents. He had given his mother and father each $100, and had said he won the money on the races, so that they suspected nothing wrong, and had spent $100 of the money. So far as the officers have been able to ascertain Eyler spent and gave away about $500 in Frederick, and perhaps $100 in other places. This amount includes the $200 left as collateral. Where the other money, about $1,000 is, the police would like to know. If the prisoner is to be believed the tramp "Eddy" has the money, but the police do not believe this, nor do they believe that any tramp figured in the case.

The Star Spangled Banner's Author.

Many interesting things about Francis Scott Key—the author of the Star Spangled Banner—are contained in a pamphlet, which may be obtained free, from the Key Monument Association of Frederick City, Maryland, by sending one 2 cent stamp for postage. This Association is raising funds for a suitable monument to the poet, and they suggest, that in the schools and everywhere, upon or before Flag Day (June 14th), this subject be suitably recognized. Contributions, however small, are asked for. Every one who loves the Flag, ought to have some small share in building this monument. The Governor of Maryland has strongly endorsed the movement. The names of all contributors will be preserved in the crypt of the monument, and published (without amount) in the history of the monument when completed.

For the Sentinel.

Who Can Beat It?

Mrs. John Warehime, of Frizellburg, has raised a calf, which at the age of eight months weighs 475 lbs. We would like to hear from some of our friends to know who can beat it and how much? When weighed this calf was within one day of eight months, not like some heavy weights, published at a certain age and only lack a few days of being a month older than stated. This is a heifer calf from a cow which has produced 10¼ pounds of butter in one week and gives nearly the same quantity of milk eight months after being fresh as at the beginning of that period. We don't mean to say that this cow can't be beat, but would like to hear of some more superior ones.

Jerusalem Sunday School.

The Sunday School of Jerusalem Reformed congregation, at Bachman's Valley, was organized on Sunday, April 21st. The following officers were elected: President, David Sterner; superintendents, Oliver Hoover and John Houck; treasurer, Noah Sullivan; secretary, Theo. H. Frock; managers, William K. Leppo, Larkin Belt, Edward Leese, Mrs. Amelia Leppo and Mrs. Rebecca Hoover.

The outlook for the school, notwithstanding some difficulties which have stood in the way of its organization, is very promising. Last Sunday the first regular session was held, and the attendance far exceeded the most sanguine hopes of those having the school in charge. The number of scholars present and enrolled was sixty-seven with the prospect of continued increase.

The pastor and officers of the church have great cause for encouragement, both on account of a growing interest on the part of the congregation, the attendance on the regular services being on a steady increase, and also an account of the unexpected success attending the opening of the school.

Frizellburg Items.

An event which cast a shadow on this little village, was the death of Mrs. Null, wife of Mr. Jacob Null, who exchanged time for eternity on Wednesday evening, May 1st, after a lingering illness of typhoid pneumonia. She was confined to her bed on March 29th, and for five weeks suffered intensely, but bore her afflictions patiently, trusting in God for her recovery. She was a mother who was very affectionate toward her children, and who possessed great energy. All efforts were exercised by her to make the home attractive to them and comfortable, and to provide for their daily wants. Her loss is largely felt, and the home, which was bright and cheerful, is now sad and lonely. The deceased was in the fiftieth year of her age, and was the mother of ten children, eight of whom are living. This is a more accurate statement than the one which appeared in Fountain Valley items last week. The funeral services were observed on last Friday, at St. Benjamin's Lutheran Church, and were attended by a large concourse of people, after which the mortal remains were interred in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. S. A. Diehl officiated. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. James, Jerome, Levi, Charles, Theodore, and Upton Myers, all of whom were first cousins of the deceased.

Mr. Frank Zahn left on Thursday morning for Virden, Macoupin county, Ills., where he expects to get employment with his brother, who is an efficient blacksmith.

Mrs. Elliott Little is very ill at present writing.

A baseball club, with a membership of thirteen, has been organized in this place for the ensuing season. The team is open to engagements with other country clubs. All communications should be addressed to Mr. J. E. Null.

Mr. Jesse Sheets, of Hanover, paid a flying visit to his place on Monday.

Miss Clara Zahn, of Baltimore, has been spending a few weeks with her parents.

Mr. Harvey Bankerd and family made a trip to this village on Sunday.

Mr. William Arthur has resumed work on his new house.

Mr. Harry Cover is having his house and all outdoor buildings repainted, which when completed will make them attractive in appearance. Mr. L. O. Handley is performing the work.

Mr. Harris Heagy, who is engaged in the manufacture of mild drinks, is doing an extensive business.

Indications for a large fruit crop are prevalent in this neighborhood.

Mr. William Frizell is putting up the foundations on which he intends to erect a new hog house.

The grain and grass look very promising.

Dear mother, forget thee, O, when life shall cease
To thrill this heart of mine,
And not till then, will I forget
One look or tone of thine.

Forget thee! 'tis a bitter word,
I would it were unsaid;
Forgetfulness is not of life,
But with the silent dead.

Farewell, dear mother, but not forever,
There will be a glorious dawn.
We shall meet to part, no never,
On the resurrection morn.

Tho' thy darling form lies sleeping
In the cold and silent tomb,
Thou shalt have a glorious waking
When the Blessed Lord shall come.
