the 5th May, for St. Petersburg, in ballast under passports from the Am. government and British Admiral. She will land passengers and letters in England, Amsterdam and Gottenburg.

The London Gazette, of Jan. 1, contains a list of 100 sail of American vessels captured and sent into Halifax, by the squadron under Ad. Warren, between the 20th April and 20th Sept. 1813.

Since our last, we have received through the post office, Halifax papers of March 28, and April 4.—Extracts:

Halifax, March 25. Ar. H. M. brig Wasp, from Bermuda, 14 days, with three vessels under convoy.

March 30, ar. HMS. Martin, capt. Senhouse, 2 days from St. John's N. B.; and sch Margaret, from Dominica, captured Feb. 23, by the American privateer Diomede, and retaken 16th inst. by HMS. Maidstone, near New York, sailed HM. brig Arab, capt. Jane, for Bermuda, and Swiftsure packet, Caddy, for England.—April 2, sailed, HMS. Martin, for New Providence; and HM. brig Rifleman, on a cruize.

April 3.—Wrecked, at Cape Sable, 25th ult. a schr. ascertained by part of her log book, to have been the Rebecca, Staunton, of St. John, with a cargo of fish, provisions, tar, &c.; one mast appears to have been cut, and one carried away; both cables parted, one corps found on board; but chests, &c. all taken out.—— Thursday night last, near Sambro Light House, ship Union, capt. Rennie, from Jamaica for Glasgow, cargo cotton and sugar, captured by Am. letter of marque Rambler, recaptured by HM. brig Curlew parted with her off the harbor the same evening, the crew, &c. came up in the boat.

Ship Sir J. Yeo, from Jamaica, for this port, has been lost on Crooked Island Reef. Brig Fair Acadian, of this port, has been sent into France.

Liverpool, NS. March 25. Came in HM. brig Curlew, Head. We are much gratified to learn, that she is to cruize off this part of the coast; which will be a great protection to our trade.

New-York, May 1.—Ar. schr. Jenette, Buddington, 14 hours from N. Haven. On Thursday, two British barges went up Connecticut river and cut out two sloops, after which they stood off to the squadron with them.

Returned.—Schr Peacock, Wagner, from N. York bound to Newport, (R. I.) The Peacock put into Saybrook, and on coming out was chased by the above barges one hour; but it blowing hard she escaped. On Thursday afternoon, saw 2 ships of war off N. London, and a 74 at anchor in Gardner's Bay.

Charleston, April 7.—Cleared, sloop Charleston, Brookings, Savannah; schrs. Sally and Esther, Smith, Havanna; Henry, Osborn, Boston; Luck's All, Smith, Amelia; Alfrey, Starr, do; Nancy, & Polly, Walker, do; Catharine, Phillips, do; Nymph, Emmery, do; Com. Perry, Elliott, do; Jolly Sailor, Hurd, do; Friends, Morgan, do; sloops Elizabeth, Glenn, do; Lawrence, Lebby, do.

Extract of a letter from Savannah to the Editor of the Charleston Gazette, dated April 24.

"I have just time to inform you that the privateer Rapid, Saunders, formerly of your port, but sailing from this about ten days since, has sent in a prize ship (English) with a cargo of dry goods, salt and glass ware—the prize was from Plymouth bound to Amelia. I understand she has late English papers on board, which I shall endeavor to have a peep at. The prize is upwards of 300 tons, and is said to be very valuable—she is perfectly new, just from the stocks.

"N. B. The Rapid is below, the captain has just come up to town."

THE PRIZE.

☞ No. 26119 being the first drawn number yesterday in the Washington Monument Lottery was entitled to a premium prize of 30,000 Dollars. We understand it was sent from MR. COHEN's OFFICE to Mr. MATTHEWS, Broker in Philadelphia, who divided the ticket, one half of which is said to be owned by a gentleman now in this city.
