"The Boys Who Wore The Blue."

Of the heroes we are thinking
On this sad Memorial day,
Of the soldiers brave who left us
To fight the men in gray.
On many a field they're sleeping,
Those heroes brave and true;
Then have sweet flowers in keeping
For "the boys who wore the blue."

They were young and fair; the veterans
Who carry flowers to-day
When they left their home and loved ones
To fight the men in gray.
Not all fell in the battle
Who marched with colors new;
But one by one they're falling
Still, "the boys who wore the blue."

They meet this little army
To deck the graves to-day,
Of their dear departed comrades
Who fought the men in gray.
Then have sweet flowers in keeping,
Sweet flowers of every hue.
And give them to these heroes,
To the boys who wore the blue.

Memorial Day.

From Elmira, N. Y., Telegram, May, 1895.

Memorial day again. More flowers needed. More graves to decorate and fewer comrades' hands to do the work of patriotism and love. Sherman and several regiments in this department in New York have passed over to "fame's eternal camping grounds" since last we came with the old flag and our blossoms to bestrew the soldier's grave for the sake of the days gone by. It is said that in China, once a year, the emperor, with all his court in grand array, in procession formed, march out into the cemetery and there dig in the ground as a reminder that all power and wealth and glory must come first from tilling the soil. So it is fitting that we as a people, veteran of the late war, his son, old and young, should on one day in the year turn from our busy every-day life and go out to the resting places of those who gave their lives, or the best years of their youth and manhood, that we should not perish as a nation, that we should have the "new birth of freedom," and attain to a position held by no other nation on the earth to-day. That the credit of all our present glory belongs to them. Turning backwards the pages of the past, let us once a year, by the graves of these noble heroes, resolve to "take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the full measure of devotion."

"As long as we boast of freedom,
As long as the old flag waves,
A shrine for the loyal-hearted
Shall be our heroe's grave."

First Shots at the Old Flag.

The stars and stripes were first assailed by the Confederates on Jan. 9, 1861. Soon after dawn of that day the United States steamer Star of the West, carrying 200 armed soldiers of the Ninth Infantry, intended to reenforce the garrison of Fort Sumter, crossed the bar of Charleston harbor and steamed up the channel. When within little less than two miles of the fort, a masked battery on Morris island, half a mile distant from the vessel, opened fire. The steamer carried the usual American ensign on her staff, and at the first shot ran up a full sized garrison flag at her fore, but that was no more respected than the other.

The captain of the Star of the West had intentionally selected his course near the Morris island shore in order to keep out of range of the Confederate guns in Fort Moultrie, and therefore sailed some distance under fire. Most of the balls passed over, several, however, barely missed the mark. Fort Sumter's guns did not answer the Morris island battery, and Fort Moultrie remained silent. Meanwhile several small vessels and armed schooners bore down on the Star of the West, with the apparent purpose of cutting her off, and the commander of the expedition, Lieutenant Charles R. Woods, U. S. A., (afterward a distinguished general), decided to put about and abandon the project. The battery kept up a brisk fire until the vessel had passed out of range.

A Plea for Memorial Day.

The clang of war and smoke and carnage of battle, have long since passed away, and while we are now enjoying the fruits of peace, and plenty, with a steady march of improvement, let us not in our selfish struggle for wealth, place or power, forget the great sacrifice of life and limb, health and fortune, which the good people of this country paid for the boon we now enjoy. In celebrating Memorial Day in every city, town and hamlet in the land, by the suspension of work, and by decorating our homes and places of business; by processions with bands of music, orations, and decorating the graves of our loved but not forgotton dead, with the choicest flowers, we do much more than honor those who for our sake suffered and died for us. We honor ourselves by showing our high appreciation of exalted manhood. We honor the principles which caused these men to stand as a wall of defence when traitors sought to destroy and trample under foot our starry banner, and we also teach the younger generation, in the most effective way possible, the nobility of self-sacrifice for the common good.

Baltimore, Md.

The paper of the people, for the people and with the people.

Honest in Motive. Fearless in Expression. Sound in Principle. Unswerving in its allegiance to right theories and right practices.

The Sun publishes all the news all the time, but it does not allow its columns to be degraded by unclean, immoral or purely sensational matter. Editorially, The Sun is the consistent and unchanging champion and defender of popular rights and interests against political machines and monopolies of every character. Independent in all things, extreme in none. It is for good laws, good government and good order. By mail Fifty Cents a month, Six Dollars a year.

The Baltimore Weekly Sun.

The Weekly Sun publishes all the news of each week, giving complete accounts of all events of interest throughout the world. As an Agricultural paper the Weekly Sun is unsurpassed. It is edited by writers of practical experience, who know what farming means and what farmers want in an agricultural journal. It contains regular reports of the work of the agricultural experiment stations throughout the country, of the proceedings of farmers' clubs and institutes, and the discussion of new methods and ideas in agriculture. Its market reports, Poultry Department and Veterinary column are particularly valuable to country readers. Every issue contains Stories, Poems, Household and Puzzle Columns, a variety of interesting and instructive selected matter and other features, which make it a welcome visitor in city and country homes alike.

THE

MORNING HERALD

FOR 1895.

The Publishers take pleasure in announcing that "The Morning Herald" has recently been enlarged from four to eight pages, and that while the price remains at one cent per copy, or $3.00 per year to mail subscribers, each edition contains as much news and more general reading matter than is printed by the Baltimore two-cent dailies.

The Telegraphic Service of "The Morning Herald" is unexcelled by any other Baltimore paper.

Its News Service in the counties is thorough and reliable.

Its Market Reports are full, complete and accurate.

Its Illustrated Woman's Page is a feature that will not be found in any other Baltimore daily.

A verbatim report of the Sermon by Rev. Dr. Talmage the celebrated Brooklyn Preacher appears in Monday morning's edition.

"THE MORNING HERALD" will continue to be an Independent Newspaper—fair and impartial in its statements and fearless in the expression of its opinions.

"THE SUNDAY HERALD,"

Of twenty-four pages, is the best Sunday paper in Baltimore, and is sold at 3c. per copy, or $1.50 for a year.

Harper's Weekly

IN 1895.

HARPER'S WEEKLY is a pictorial history of the times. It presents every important event promptly, accurately, and exhaustively in illustration and descriptive text of the highest order.

The manner in which, during 1894, it has treated the Chicago Railway Strikes and the Chino-Japanese War, and the amount of light it was able to throw on Korea the instant attention was directed to that little-known country, are examples of its almost boundless resources. Julian Ralph, the distinguished writer and correspondent, has been sent to the seat of war, and there joined by C. D. Weldon, the well-known American artist, now for many years resident in Japan, who has been engaged to co operate with Mr. Ralph in sending to Harper's Weekly exclusive information and illustration.

During 1895 every vital question will be discussed with vigor and without prejudice in the editorial columns, and also in special articles by the highest authorities in each department. Portraits of the men and women who are making history, and powerful and caustic political cartoons, will continue to be characteristic features. This Busy World, with its keen and kindly comment on the lesser doings of the day, will remain a regular department.

FICTION. There will be two powerful serials, both handsomely illustrated—The Red Cockade, a stirring romance of olden days by Stanley J. Weyman, and a novel of New York, entitled The Son of His Father, by Brander Matthews—several novelettes, and many short stories by popular writers.

Send for Illustrated Prospectus.

The Volumes of the Weekly begin with the first Number for January of each year. When no time is mentioned, subscriptions will begin with the Number current at the time of receipt of order.

Cloth Cases for each volume, suitable for binding, will be sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of $1.00 each. Title-page and Index sent on application.

Remittances should be made by Post-office Money Order or Draft, to avoid chance of loss.

GREATEST FAMILY WEEKLY.

THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

The National Tribune is now entering upon its 17th year of phenomenal success.

No other family weekly in the country has had such a growth, and maintained it so steadily.

It goes into every County in the United States, and has clubs of subscribers at nearly every Post-office.

It has gained this proud position solely on its merits as a highly interesting family newspaper.

FOR THE YEAR 1894

It will be made much better and more attractive than ever. While retaining all of its present popular features, it will constantly add new ones.

ITS FEATURES.

War History, by men who actually served and fought in the struggle. Short Stories of Romance, Travel, Experience and adventure, by leading writers. Editorials upholding the cause of the veterans, and maintaining the highest loyalty to the Government, and the promotion of the best interests of the whole people. Washington News. Full accounts of what is taking place at the seat of Government; careful reports of all important matters in Congress and the Executive Departments; gossip about public men. Household Department, Edited by a lady of National reputation. G. A. R., W. R. C., and S. of V. News, more full and complete than published by any other paper. Agricultural Department, carefully edited by practical men. General News, carefully compiled.

The National Tribune is strictly non-partizan, and thoroughly American. It believes in the greatest good to the greatest number of our people, and the highest development of our institutions—in National unity and exalted loyalty. Price

$1 a Year Payable in Advance.

It claims to give more and better matter for the sum of Two Cents a week than any other publication. Every line that appears in it is written for it, and has appeared in no other paper. It uses no syndicate or boiler-plate matter. Address—

We have in all cases cut off the profits.
We have in some instances not alone cut profits, but have even made losses.
Our "Underselling" system offers you all goods at

THE MERE COST OF HANDLING.

Look at our great price list—then come and compare every offering with those found elsewhere—you'll surely see what

GREAT BARGAINS ARE TO BE MADE HERE.

BLACK DRESS GOODS.

Seems like we can't get enough to supply all the folks who crowd our store for the All Wool Black Serge, so well known. We made another big purchase less than import cost—and that's the way you'll get them, too.

300 yards all wool, 46-inch Black Serges worth $1, at 48 cts.

200 yards all wool. 46-inch Blue and Jet Black Henrietta, the regular $1.25 quality, during the unloading sale, at 79 cts.

36-inch Black Henrietta, sold always at 40 cts., during this sale at 29 cts.

COLORED DRESS GOODS.

No reason for not having best and choicest creations, especially at the prices our purchases let you buy them.

34-inch Fancy Dress Goods, sell elsewhere at 30 cts., all for one price, at 17 cts.

Our entire collection of Silk Mixed Suitings, sold usually from 50 to 65 cts., at 33 cts.

All our 46-inch wide, colored, all wool Serges, regular price 75 cts., during this Unloading Sale, at 33 cts.

SILKS.

No room for doubt. This is the Silk Year. Not hard to be in fashion at the rare underselling prices they will go here during this Unloading Sale.

Kai Kai Wash Silks at 33 cts.

Black Figured Taffeta Silk, sold elsewhere at 75 cts., during this sale at 47 cts.

Plain Black, 27-inch India Silk, regular price $1, at 71 cts.

REMNANTS.

No use disputing facts. Our contract enables us to buy and sell at just half what other merchants were able to do. We've got a beautiful assortment in Remnants, most dainty Lawns, beautiful Challies, Cooling Muslins—in fact, any kind of goods you need.

5 ct. Challies, new styles, U. S. P., 2½ cts.
6 ct. Lawns, fast colors, U. S. P., 2¾ cts.

Look to Your Interest, People.

Big Slaughter in Wall Paper.

MY PRICES RANGE FROM 12c. TO 30c. PUT ON WALL. GILT 20c. TO 25c. ALL PAPER 8 YARDS LONG

These are not living prices. You may say how do I live. I have no rent to run a store and fuel, &c., and do all of my own work. I don't pay any hands one year to do three months' work in season. This is a chance to get papering done cheap. Take advantage while you have a chance. I will do as before, done by me. I can give the best references in the county.

Guarantee All Work

There has been a great deal said about me being a ascab workman, but it was only said by those who can't compete with me in price and workmanship and who are afraid of me—never by a party that I did work for. Write for sample and price, or I will come to see you in person and tell you what your job will cost. I can be found 300 yards from the limit of Westminster on the Littlestown turnpike.

Thankful for past favors,
Very Respectfully,
