An anonymous correspondent sends us a snake story from Deep Run, in Myers' district, which we have taken some pains to verify and learn that it is substantially correct. The story is that Mr. Jacob H. Babylon, who was engaged in sawing timber at Earhart's sawmill, while he was returning from the head of the race, where he had gone to turn the water on, encountered an enormous black snake. The reptile was crossing the race on a log and making directly for Mr. Babylon who accepted the challenge, and having been armed with a shovel, speedily dispatched the assailant. The snake measured 9 feet 7½ inches in length and was as thick as a man's arm.

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.

GRAND JURY ROOM.—WESTMINSTER, MAY 27TH, 1892.

To the Honorable—The Judges of the Circuit Court for Carroll county, Md.

The Grand Jury, having completed the business brought to its attention, every case of which has been carefully considered and investigated, respectfully begs leave to submit its report, and asks to be discharged.

During the period the Grand Jury has been in session it has examined one hundred and and five cases, sixty-eight of which we have indicted, and dismissed thirty-seven. The examination of these cases has required the summoning and examining of one hundred and eight witnesses, eleven of which were constables.

In performing our duty we have kept in mind the court's recommendation that we should save the county useless accumulation of costs arising from abortive prosecution and have only prosecuted such cases as we think would stand a probable chance of conviction before a Petit Jury.

We further report that the jail has been visited and we find its condition as to cleanliness good, but we recommend better ventilation and drainage, especially as regards the bath and cesspool, and the building of stable and carriage house.

We further report that we find a number of weak points about the jail that ought to be remedied in order to effectually secure the prisoners therein. To this part of our report we respectfully call the attention of the County Commissioners.

We further report that while we have no intention of reflecting upon the sheriff for the escape of prisoners from said jail, yet we suggest that in the future a closer surveillance be kept over the prisoners, especially, in the condition of the jail. All of which we respectfully submit.

J. OLIVER WADLOW,
FOREMAN.

T., convened in Pickett Hall at Day, Md., May 25th, and was fairly well attended considering the inclemency of the weather, all the Lodges in the district having been represented save Ijamsville. Bielfield, of Frederick; W. Ridgely, of Freedom; M. H Penn, of Daniel, S. F. Hess and others.

Memorial Day in Westminster.

Memorial Day was fittingly observed in this city. The exercises of the occasion were in charge of Burns Post, G. A. R., and were largely attended by soldiers and citizens. At one o'clock P. M., the Post formed at their place of meeting and headed by Westminster Drum Corps, marched to P. O. S. of A. Hall, in the Orndorff building, from which they escorted the councils of the Jr. O. U. A. M. of Westminster and New Windsor to Odd Fellows' Hall, where the indoor exercises were held. The hall was densely crowded with people, many persons standing during the two hours consumed in the rendition of the program, which was announced by Commander Jas. S. Baer.

The services were opened with singing, by a select choir composed as follows: Organist, Miss Annie E. Shriver; cornetist, Mr. Arthur Stonesifer; sopranos, Mrs. Jesse Higgins, Misses Alice Bixler, Bessie Herr, Testie Buckingham, Cerulia Dumm; altos, Misses Mary B. Shellman, Bettie Shriver, Mollie Shriver; first bass, Messrs. W. R. Revelle, W. Mather; second bass, Prof. H. G. Watson, A. B. Crockett, G. H. Revelle; first tenor, A. G. Woodfield, J. C. Freeney; second tenor, E. J. Nelson. During the exercises several fine selections were beautifully rendered by the choir, Mrs. Higgins sang a solo, "Salute the Flag," with fine effect, and the College Glee Club, which furnished the male voices for the choir, sang a beautiful selection in their usual admirable style. Mr. Edwin H. Manning recited "An Incident of the War" in an earnest and effective manner, and Miss Janie B. Thomas touched all hearts with her rendition of the late Harry J. Shellman's poem, "Comrades."

The orator of the occasion was Dr. Wm. H. Purnell, president of New Windsor College, who was introduced by his life-long friend, the editor of the SENTINEL, in a few complimentary remarks which but faintly portrayed his worth. Dr. Purnell delivered an exceedingly interesting and well timed address, in which he discussed, briefly, the question of secession, forcibly pointing out its fallacy. He paid a glowing tribute to the valor of the soldiery and the generalship of their commanders, and justly accorded the honor due in this respect to the men who fought against the Union, of which all are now citizens. He spoke briefly of his personal knowledge of the devoted loyalty of that true patriot, the late Governor Thomas Holliday Hicks, whose services in preserving Maryland from secession and its fearful consequences are not appreciated as they should be.

Dr. Purnell's address received marked attention and was heartily enjoyed by the audience. After the choir sang the Star-Spangled Banner, all united in the ever appropriate doxology and the exercises, which had been opened with prayer by Rev. Joel Brown, were closed with the benediction by Rev. Dr. James W. Reese.

A procession was then formed, consisting of about 100 school children, boys and girls, and the "Boys Meeting," led by Ray Smith and Earl Baumgartner, as drummers, and followed by the Westminster Drums Corps, Burns Post and the orders heretofore mentioned. When the procession arrived at the cemetery gate the children opened ranks and saluted the members of the post, as they passed through, with flowers. They then passed in review before the post and halting, were introduced to the G. A. R., by Miss Mary B. Shellman in a beautiful little speech, to which Commander Baer replied. They then sang, "America," saluted the flag and gave the pledge: "We pledge our heads and our hearts to our country—one country, one language, one flag."

The decoration of the graves of deceased soldiers with flowers, in accordance with the ritual of the G. A. R., was then performed and the choir sang "Sleep, O, Sleep." At the conclusion of the exercises at Westminster Cemetery the post marched to the Episcopal and Catholic Cemeteries and decorated the graves of their comrades interred therein.

The part borne by the children in the event deserves more than the brief notice we have given it, but time and space both prevent elaboration. It is proper to say, however, that the school children were instructed in their parts by Mr. Simon P. Weaver and Miss Carrie Mourer, and the "Boys' Meeting" by Miss Lizzie Herr.

THE DAY AT DEER PARK.

Services were held at Deer Park, in the morning, by Burns Post, in the Deer Park Chapel, and consisted of singing, prayer by Rev. A. D. Melvin, recitation by Harman Wardenfelt, an address by Rev. A. D. Melvin, recitation by Miss Bollinger, and an address by Rev. Mr. Honey. The graves were then strewn with flowers. The services were largely attended.

Ascension Day was pretty generally observed in this section and consequently many persons were in town. The members of Trinity Reformed congregation improved the evening by giving their pastor, Rev. S. M. Roeder, and family a surprise. The large company congregated at the house of Mrs. J. M. Motter and went in a body to the parsonage which was taken possession of, particularly the dining room, where a large table and every available place was well filled with flour, groceries, canned goods &c. The surprise was complete and Mrs. Roeder and children were agreeably astonished to find so large a company coming in upon them so suddenly. A good social time was experienced by all. Rev. Roeder and daughters had gone to Snydersburg, where he held evening services and confirmed a class of catechumens. They returned about 10 P. M., and were happily greeted by all. Mr. Roeder responded in a pleasant and grateful address, which he closed with prayer. At a late hour all retired feeling that they had acted a good part in the relation between pastor and people.

Letter From an Occasional Correspondent at Gamber.

GAMBER, MAY 28TH, 1895.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—I see in the SENTINEL of the 18th inst., that you have published a card from a Republican of Taneytown urging Dr. Birnie to accept the nomination for State Senator. I will say that such a man on our ticket would bring out the full Republican vote at the polls in November next. He suits district No. 4 first-rate.

On Saturday night, 25th inst., about 9 o'clock, Mr. Thos. Poole, who lives near East View, caused a great deal of speculation by setting fire to a lot of pine brush on the farm of Mr. Hanson Davis, near Bird Hill. Many thought the fire was that of a building near Westminster.

The weather has been very cold and wet and corn looks very bad, for the time of year.

D. Melvin, of Westminster, was the officiating clergyman. Owing to the illness of Mr. Shepherd the ceremony was performed in his sick room, only the immediate members of the family having been present. The bride was tastefully attired in a house dress of dark green silk. Mr. Paul Reese, cousin of the groom, officiated as best man. The groom is a son of Mrs. Katharine J. Shellman, of this city, and of the late Col. J. M. Shellman. He was at one time an attache of the SENTINEL, which tenders hearty congratulations on the interesting event.

James E. Dodrer, of Silver Run, died, of dropsy, on Sunday, 26th inst., aged seventy-eight years. He was a man of well-known integrity and uprightness of character. The greater part of his long and useful life was spent on the farm and through good judgment and close attention to the duties and cares of his occupation he had accumulated a large fortune. The latter years of his life were quietly spent in retirement in the comfortable home in which he died. A wife and five sons and two daughters survive him. The sons are: Jacob and William, of Virginia, and John, Jerome and Austin, of Carroll county. The daughters are: Mrs. Caroline Weller and Miss Elizabeth Dodrer. The funeral took place at Silver Run, on Wednesday morning, and was so largely attended that the capacious Reformed Church there was almost filled with the large concourse of sympathising friends and relatives in attendance. Deceased was a member of the Reformed church and for a number of years filled the responsible position of elder. He was also one of the largest contributors of funds towards the erection of the church in which the funeral services were held. Rev. Dr. A. F. Driesbach officiated at the funeral, and the pall-bearers were: Frederick Bachman, Jacob Koontz, Cyrus Feeser, David Feeser, Jeremiah Little and Amos Study.

Last Tuesday B. F. Shriver & Co. shipped the forty-three steers that were fed at "The Oaks." They averaged 1360 lbs., and gained 473 lbs. per head.

The annual election of church officers was held at Silver Run on Ascension day and resulted as follows: Reformed—Elders, Levi Motter and John T. Duttera; Deacons, Josiah Myers and Harvey Duttera. Lutheran—Elders, Wm. Yingling and John Fuhrman; Deacons, Jerome Warner and Wm. Masonheimer.

It was noted in last week's SENTINEL that Louis E. Shriver, of this place, with D. E. Winebrenner, Jr., Harry and Robt. Ehrhart and Geo. T. Kerr, of Hanover, Pa., were on a bicycle tour through Virginia, and at the close of the SENTINEL's report they had reached Luray. They continued their trip by way of the Natural Bridge and Richmond to Old Point Comfort, on the cars, as they learned that the roads in that part of the State were fit for most anything else than bicycling. Their wheels, however, did them good service in doing up the sights at the different places they visited. From Old Point they enjoyed a delightful ride up the bay on the "Georgia," arriving in Baltimore on Saturday morning, 25th inst., and from there they wheeled it to their respective homes the same day, taking dinner at the Hotel Albion as they passed through Westminster.

When B. F. Shriver & Co. shipped their steers last Tuesday, one of the herd became wild and unmanageable at the scales and breaking away from the herd ran several miles down Pipe Creek Valley. He several times attacked his pursuers, but was finally brought to bay in a swamp where he was slaughtered.

Hampstead Items.

For some months a mysterious character has been seen in the vicinity of Hampstead. He avoids as much as possible the sight of the inhabitants and is only seen occasionally and at long range. He has been known to take up his abode in hay-barracks and the imprint of his bare feet have been seen in the muddy road from time to time. One day during the week he was seen in Mr. Wooden's woods, south of town, lying upon the trunk of a tree which had been blown partly down, several feet from the ground. When approached he ran away.

The Annual Statement of the Mayor and Council of the finances of the town was given to the public during the week. Following is a summary:

From the church they will proceed to the cemetery to decorate the graves.

Taneytown Items.

The program of exercises on Memorial Day, as published in the SENTINEL last week, was observed at this place. The parade was a great success. It consisted, first, of the Taneytown Band, 19 pieces, followed by the old soldiers, 20 in number; 150 children, with flowers and flags; Washington Camp No. 9, P. O. S. of A., of Middleburg, 18 members; Washington Camp No. 7, P. O. S. of A., of Pleasant Valley, 26 members; Washington Camp No. 2, P. O. S. of A., of Taneytown, 78 members. Messrs. Franklin Bowersox, Scott Smith and William Unger were mounted marshals. The principal feature of the day was the oration by Major R. M. J. Reed, of Philadelphia, who held his large audience spell-bound, in the hot sun, for forty-five minutes. The oration was pronounced one of the ablest ever delivered here on such an occasion. The gathering was the largest ever seen here on Memorial Day, there having been between 2,000 and 2,500 people in attendance.

A meeting of Washington Camps Nos. 2, 7 and 9, P. O. S. of A., of Taneytown, Pleasant Valley and Middleburg, respectively, was held in the camp-room of the first named on Friday evening of last week, at which a number of invited guests was present. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. M. F. Saylor and the opening ode was sung. Prayer was offered by Mr. C. E. H. Shriner, and a short speech made by D. P., Mr. P. B. Englar, which was followed by a stirring and patriotic address by Major R. M. J. Reed, of Philadelphia. The entire company was then served with refreshments of ice cream, cake, fruits, lemonade &c. The Taneytown Cornet Band furnished the music.

A few days ago a horse driven to a wagon by a boy in the employ of Rev. Fr. Meade, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholoic Church, ran away, throwing the boy out and breaking both bones of one of his arms between the wrist and elbow. The wagon was pretty well demolished. The boy had foolishly undertaken to drive the horse without "holding-back" straps, and in descending a hill the wagon ran on the animal's heels, with the result described.

Base Ball.

The Westminster Base Ball Club played its second game of the season at Union Bridge on Saturday, May 25th, and was defeated by the score of 9 to 8. Rain fell throughout the game making it impossible to play a fine fielding game and made the outfield in such a condition that the fielders could not get through the tall wet grass in time to catch several balls which are marked as hits and should have been caught under different circumstances. The game was hotly contested throughout, the winning run being made in the last half of the ninth inning on a fly which but for the condition of the outfield would have been an easy out. The Westminsters were given two bad decisions, one of which cost them the game. In the eighth inning, Crass was called out for not touching third while returning from home to second on a foul hit, and in the ninth Irwin and Frizzell scored on a passed strike which was blocked by a spectator. The umpire only allowed Irwin's run to count, and made Frizzell go back to third, making an even score instead of putting the Westminsters one run ahead. Irwin pitched a good game considering the wet ball, and was well supported except in the first inning, when two errors and four hits netted four runs. Zepp led in hitting for the Westminsters, making three hits, one of them a two-base hit. Davis made four of the eleven hits made by Union Bridge.

SCORE BY INNINGS.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	To'l.
Westminster	0	1	3	0	0	0	1	0	3	8
Union Bridge	4	0	0	0	0	1	0	3	1	9

The Westminsters play Reisterstown this afternoon (Saturday) at 2 o'clock on the College grounds. Mitten and Smith will be the battery for Westminster.

Commencement Tickets.

The plan adopted last year of admittance by ticket to all the evening entertainments of Commencement week, at Western Maryland College, gave such general satisfaction in preventing overcrowding, that the Faculty has decided to carry out the same plan this year. In order to make the plan successful, these simple measures may be observed.

1. The evenings' entertainments will be: Monday, Concert; Tuesday, Society Contest; Wednesday, Class Rally.

2. Admittance to these entertainments will be exclusively by ticket. Tickets, each representing one seat, will be distributed free of charge, to any one applying for them, until the seats have all been disposed of.

2. Send a self-addressed stamped envelope to Prof. W. R. McDaniel, name the evenings for which the tickets are desired, and to prevent duplication if more than one ticket is asked for, name the persons to use them.

4. The Auditorium doors will be open at 7.15 each evening. There will be no reserved seats except for Trustees, Faculty and students. Seats will be secured by ticket holders on arrival, "first come, first served." Owing to the large number of old students expected on Wednesday evening the number of tickets for this occasion will be limited.

5. Applications are now in order.

By order of the Faculty,
W. R. McDaniel, Secretary.
