30 DOLLARS REWARD.

Ranaway from North Hampton Furnace, near Baltimore, on Monday, the 22d instant, a negro girl named BETTY, about 5 feet high; 16 or 17 years of age; slim made; short round face; was brought up in Mr. Burke's house, in Old Town, where she is well known. She was taken up a few days since near Belle Air, but made her escape, and left all her clothes except those she had on, of osnaburgs, a shawl, and black Bombazette frock, tore in several places. I will give a reward of THIRTY DOLLARS for taking and securing her so that I get her again, and all reasonable expenses paid if brought home. All persons are forewarned from harboring or carrying off the said Betty at their peril.

REGIMENTAL ORDER.

27th Regt. M. M. 22d August, 1814.

The Lieut. Colonel of the 27th Regt. has understood that some of the Privates of this Regiment since the commencement of the present tour of duty, have declared a determination of joining other Military Corps in this city, notwithstanding their being enrolled in the ranks of this regiment. The Lieut. Col. takes this opportunity of checking in its first appearance such a pernicious idea. The non-commissioned officers and privates of this Regiment are informed that they have no right to join any other regiment during the present tour of duty, that their attempting to do so will be vain, and will certainly be punished as a military offence. The utmost strictness must be observed in reporting absentees, and the heavy consequences of desertion may attend a wilful absence from duty. The Lieutenant Colonel hopes, that it will not be necessary to enforce this notice by measures of rigour, but he deems it necessary to inform the Regiment, that in future all absentees will, when apprehended, be put under arrest, and subjected to the decision of a Court Martial. By order,

ADVERTISEMENT.

The subscriber takes this method to return his sincere thanks to his friends and customers for that liberal encouragement they have favored him with in the line of his business, and likewise informs them that the difficulties of procuring proper assistance to carry on his business, makes it necessary that he should give up supplying them at their houses, any longer than this day.

He will in future, as far as possible, furnish family and English bread, made of the best wheat flour, and also rye bread as well as crackers and pilot bread, to all who may please to favour him with their custom at his baking house, north Calvert street, near the City Spring, for cash only. And as considerable expense will be saved in the conveyance, he intends that his bread shall be as large and as good as any in the city, and hopes thereby to give general satisfaction.

Those who wish to see the bread are invited to call at the subscriber's baking house.

A Journeyman understanding his business will meet with employment and receive good wages.

FOR SALE,

A valuable Merchant and Grist Mill, Saw Mill, and Plaister Mill, together with two farms containing about TWELVE HUNDRED ACRES of excellent plaister land, in a high state of cultivation, with good buildings, a sufficiency of wood, and a large portion of bottom meadow of a very superior quality. It is well calculated for grazing, as there is now upwards of 500 Acres in clover and timothy, and a preparation for 200 more in the Spring. There are few farms, if any, on which the plaister has a more beneficial effect. The Mill is capable of doing an extensive business, being 68 feet by 30, three stories high, with three overshot water wheels, running three pair of French burrs, all in good repair. There is also a valuable Mill Seat on the land, sufficiently powerful for any kind of water works.

This property is situated in a very healthy and improving neighbourhood, on the upper part of Elk Ridge, in Anne Arundel County, 25 miles from Baltimore, about the same from the City of Washington, and four from the Frederick Turnpike Road. If an early application be made, the whole will be sold together, or if required the Mill with a part of the land separate, on accommodating terms. For further information apply at No. 85, Bowley's wharf.

EDUCATION.

Wants employment as a private tutor, to one or more families, or to teach a select school, a gentleman whose mode of instruction is entirely new, and only practised by himself, by which he will engage to quicken and mature the judgment of his pupils in one third the time required by the common mode. Besides confirming them in a knowledge of the sciences he professes to teach, his method has many other advantages, among which is, that the boys he prepares for a classical education will, with a good teacher, acquire a knowledge of the Latin and Greek languages, in one half the time required by boys taught in the common way, and with more ease to themselves and their tutor.

He will likewise engage to make his pupils write an elegant and free hand.
