BALTIMORE: Wednesday, Nov. 16.

BONAPARTE BECOME PRINTER!!

Among the various articles brought to us by the last London papers, is one relative to the most extraordinary man of this most extraordinary age—an account that Bonaparte is establishing a Printing Office in the island of Elba, and that he is going to write his own life, and publish it at his own press! This will indeed be a curiosity—We could not desire a better fortune, than the copy right of this book—No work that has issued from the press since the invention of printing, can be so pregnant with interesting events, and so fully develope the venality and rascality of Potentates and Princes, Generals and Ministers, and all that corrupt crew of Diplomatists and Henryites, who have so wofully distinguished the history of the last 25 years——As to Bonaparte's style of writing, it is of the first order—his letters to the Archduke Charles, those to the King of England, and many of his orders and proclamations, will be considered as models of purity and dignity, whilst the French and English languages continue to be spoken and understood.

But our brethren of the Type will be proud to hear, that this wonderful man is also going to be a news-printer!—We Editors may now talk of brother Bonaparte as one of our most honorable fraternity!—The Gazette of Elba will assuredly be more in demand, than any vehicle of the kind ever yet published either in Europe or America—What a fund of rich and interesting anecdote must this paper produce, not of the common kind, but of the most remarkable personages in all the Courts of Europe.——But how will his wife, the Empress Maria Louisa, daughter of the august Emperor of Austria, conduct herself in this sort of employment?—Will this illustrious Lady condescend to sit down to read proof sheets, mark paragraphs, and manage Printers' Devils?—Surely, this will be something new under the Sun!

We are informed by a gentleman from Newbern, that a British brig and 8 men, belonging to the Ramilies 74, arrived at Newbern a few days since in distress. She had been separated from the Ramilies in a gale at sea, and, having no compass, had beat about until the crew nearly perished. She accidentally made the coast of North Carolina, and got to Newbern, where the officer delivered up the tender and her crew.

A British brig, laden with gums, and valued at between 50 or $60,000 has arrived at Ocracock bar below Newbern, a prize to the Decatur privateer of Balt.—taken in the English channel.—Nat. Int.

COUNTERFEITS.

Imitations of the twenty dollar notes of the Union Bank of Maryland are in circulation—they require a careful examination being well calculated to deceive.—Gaz.

A boat up this morning from Nanticoke. The captain reports that a ship and two schr. passed Sharp's Island, last evening at sun set, down the bay—there was nothing above Sharp's Island.—M. C. H. B.

State of the Philadelphia Market, Nov. 14.

The Market remains with very few exceptions as it was the preceding week. The prices of Coffee keep steady, the quantities selling are moderate, but the great consumption of this article must considerably lessen the stock on hand. Sugars appear also to have taken a stand between 26 and 30 dollars per cwt. and we do not think it very probable that the prices will vary much during the winter. The cargoes of the schooners Argo and Spartan from the Havanna were tried at public sale, and being of an excellent quality the prices were fixed at 30 and 30 1-2 dolls. per cwt.; the consequence was that the greater part sold at private sale!! Salt has for a few days past been rather dull and depreciated about 25 cents per bushel. The daily arrivals from the eastward have for several months past been numerous and not alone sufficient for the great demand occasioned by the scarcity of that article in the southern states, but it is supposed that there is also a sufficient surplus quantity now in our market for the present season.—Grotjan.

Political Folly and Integrity Perpetuated and Contrasted.—A pamphlet is announced to be in the press at Bridgeport, Connecticut, entitled, "The New-England Congress;" containing the extraordinary proceedings of the legislature of Massachusetts relative to the contemplated convention at Hartford; the Protest of the Minority, and the Speech of Mr. Holmes. The following prophetic declaration of Henry, the British agent, is very appropriately affixed to it as a motto:—Colum.

"Should the Congress possess spirit and independence enough to place their popularity in jeopardy by so strong a measure, [as to declare war] the Legislature of Massachusetts will give the tone to the neighboring states; will declare itself permanent, until a new election: invite a congress of delegates from the federal states, and create a separate government for their common defence and common interest." JOHN HENRY.

Interments in the City and Precincts of Baltimore for the last week, ending Monday morning:

Consumption 7; Pleurisy 2; Billious 5; Fits 2; Worms 3; Cramp-cholick 1; Dropsey 1; Drowned 1; Hooping cough 2; Typhus fever 1; Still born 1; Old age 2; Unknown 2—Adults 19; Children 11—Total 30.

AMERICAN MARINE LIST.

BOSTON, Nov. 11. Arrived, letter of marque schr. COSSACK, Capt. Drake, of Baltimore, (240 tons) 14 guns, (eight only mounted) and 29 men, from Wilmington, N. C. cargo 296 tierces rice, 200 bbls. flour, and 100 do. tar. Sailed from Wilmington, Oct. 25, and from the Bar, Nov. 1; schr. ———, Clark, of New-Bedford, sailed 2 days previous. An American sloop from St. Jago, had just ar. several other vessels belonging to Wilmington, had lately ar. from the W. Indies.

The MIDAS privateer, Capt. Thompson, arrived about 18th Oct. from a cruize, during which she had captured only one vessel, which has been retaken. It is said she landed 45 men on the Island of Port Royal, (one of the Bahamas,) BURNT all the houses on the place, and brought away about 1000 doubloons, (16,000 dolls.) and a quantity of cloathing, &c. This, the captain said, was done in RETALIATION for the destruction of Washington.

Port Royal or Harbor Island, on which the expedition from the Midas landed, contained four dwelling houses, and 25 or 26 negro huts, the whole of which were plundered and destroyed.

The Midas had attempted to get into New Bedford and Newport, but was chased off by several frigates.

On Tuesday, off Nantucket Shoals, the Cossack passed to windward of a brig steering S. E. apparently a clump merchantman. Spoke no vessel whatever, and saw nothing else, until this morning at 10 o'clock, C. Cod in sight, when she made a frigate to leeward about 3 lea. which gave chase; soon after made another frigate ahead, but to leeward, which also crowded all sail in pursuit; the former keeping the Cossack's wake. They continued the chase until within 2 miles of our light, when they went in stays, and stood off.

One of the ships fired a shot at the Cossack She was supposed to be the Newcastle, from her size.

The Cossack was formerly the British brig Fanny, of Waterford, sent into N. Carolina, by the Perry privateer. She was taken from the Amricans, and is a Southern built clipper.

This morning, spoke several Cape Harbor fishing boats, who stated that no men of war, had been in thence for some days.

Mr. James Godfrey, prize master of the sloop Jefferson, brought into this port, states that she was captured on the 29th ult. off Watch hill, by the Minerva privateer, and was her first capture. The M. sailed fr. Liverpool, N. S. Oct. 16, in co with the Lunenburgh, capt. Folt, and continued her cruize for Block Island, where she took in provision, &c. and on the 28th, ar. at the place where she took the Jefferson.

The Minerva mounts 8 guns, and had 50 men when she sailed: she was formerly an Am. packet of the same name, is about 65 tons and sails very well. Left at Liverpool the Liv. Packet fitting out: and the Polla and Shannon privateers hauled up. Oct. 25, off Nan ucket Shoals, the Minerva was spoken by the Maidstone and Nymph frigates on a cruize, from Halifax.

Mr. Godfrey says that he experienced bad weather while on board the Minerva, lay to for several days, and split his mainsail to pieces, &ct and got drove into Boston Bay, after being within 24 hours sail of Liverpool. He saw 2 ships of war in the bay on Saturday night last, but being to leeward could not obtain assistance, or make them see his signals of distress; and not knowing where he was, (owing to a want of an observation for several days,) he was compelled to seek assistance where he could find it, and finally to give up his vessel and himself and crew prisoners.

The Jefferson, belongs to N. London, and is about 80 tons burthen.—All the crew, except a black man, (who has been brought in here) were taken on board the privateer. [Since landed.]

The Am sloop Janus, Capt. Gwinn, 4 days from Halifax, ar. at Newport on Monday last, with a flag, granted to Mr. De Mello, a Portuguese gentleman. She brought 14 passengers, (part of them belonging to different vessels sent into Halifax) and 10 prisoners, belonging to Nantucket whale ships, captured a long time since. Also, three old black men, (75, 76, and 80 years old!) who were made prisoners at the time the British attacked Baltimore, carried to Halifax, and paroled!

Among the passengers is Mr. Claiborne, (son of Gov. C. who ar. at Halifax in Duke of Montrose packet,) and Mr. Thompson, who left Cork Sept. 6, in a large fleet. Mr. Claiborne has proceeded from Newport to the Southward, as also have most of the other passengers. Capt. Gwinn and Fitch, of Nantucket, who likewise came in the fleet from Cork, have ar. in the Janus.

The Janus sailed from Halifax on Thursday last. On Friday evening, about 15 lea. W. of Cape Sables, was boarded from the Wasp brig, and treated politely; she had taken nothing lately; said that 3 frigates were cruizing near her. The Janus saw nothing else—passed over Nantucket Shoals on Sunday, and came through the Vineyard Sound same night.

She was captured on her passage from N. York, sent to Halifax, and ransomed.

Nothing had been heard of Ad. Cochrane since he sailed.

Five of the passengers have ar. in town, but bro't no papers, they not being able to obtain any at Halifax, of the printers. There were a few brought by some of the passengers, part of which were given to the boarding officer of the Wasp

The Bulwark was expected at Halifax in a few days, she having been left cruizing with 200 American prisoners on board. It was stated that she had re-captured several English vessels, one of which was a fine transport ship, the Mentor, from England for Quebec, cargo provisions, rum, &c. prize to the Mammoth. She ar. at Halifax 1st inst. A brig of about 250 tons, had also just ar. retaken. No Am. privateers had been seen off Halifax, lately. No accounts received there of any of the Salem privateers, since a prize recaptured from the Grand Turk—ar. two months since.

Capt. Crowninshield was on parole at Dartmouth—most, if not all, of the other Am. captains, &c. were in prison, and no prospect of their getting released, the British Government appearing determined not to release any prisoners. Only 8 or 9 neutral vessels remained at Halifax, and they were fitting for sea—the remainder had sailed for Europe. the W. Indies, &c. A Dutch brig fr. Amsterdam, had returned home.

The Loire frigate, Capt. Brown, was to sail on the 10th inst. for England, with a convoy.

Mr. Shaeffer, sergeant of marines on board the late U. S. sloop Frolic, has ar. in the Janus. He had been been detained in England.

The Duke of Montrose Packet was to leave Halifax on the 4th inst. on her return to Falmouth.

In attempting to careen the privateer America at Salem, on Wednesday, for the purpose of repairing her, the main mast and mizen mast were carried away, and the foremast was sprung,

The private armed sch. Brutus, Capt. Austin, of 14 guns and 120 men, lately sailed fr. this port, put into Salem, in consequence of perceiving two ships off, and sailed again the 8th inst. on a cruise. She belongs to this port and Bristol.

The private armed schr. Surprise, Captain Barstow, of Balt sailed from Salem, same day on a cruise.

On the 2d inst. the privateer Liv. Packet was off Chatham, and boarded several fishing boats. She was just out of port, supposed to be bound into Long Island Sound. It was said she had made no captures,

Sch. Ranger, Burton, of and for this port, out 3 days from Waldoboro', cargo wood and joice, was taken on Saturday last, off Newburyport, by the Lunenberg priv. and ordered for N Scotia. The crew (with the exception of one man, who went in the prize) were landed on Monday. We have not been able to see Capt. B. but learn that the privateer had only about 9 men when he left her, and that she had taken two vessels previous, one the Dolphin, before heard of, and the other a sloop which was burnt. The Ranger was an old vessel of 88 tons.

The Englishmen brought in here on Monday last, have all made their escape, with the exception of the prize master!

As the New-London paper of Wednesday, is silent respecting the enemy's ships, &c. in the Sound, the probability is that nothing new had transpired and no augmentation of the force in that vicinity.

The Portuguese brig Voader, from the W. Indies, captured off Cape Cod, and sent into Halifax, for a supposed attempt to violate the blockade has been cleared.—The Spanish brig Anita, Ornes, hence for Havanna, in ballast, also sent in, has been condemned.

The Portuguese ship N. S. del Carmo, fr. Lisbon for this port, was recaptured and restored by the Chasseur, (after having 18 boxes of opium taken out for salvage,) she being in possession of the English, for a (supposed) violation of the blockade.

Half of the vessels taken by the Mammoth were given up; seven only, having been destroyed.

The Dauntless ship of war, 20 guns was at Halifax in Oct.

The cargo of the English sloop carried into Camden, consisted of a choice and valuable collection of goods, (value said to be about 80,000 dls.) We are told they belonged to a young man who was going to Castine from Halifax, to establish himself, and had obtained them on credit. The goods were taken by Lt Wilkins and 6 soldiers of the U. S. troops stationed at Northport.

A brig was loading at Castine, last accounts to Bermuda, with a cargo of potatoes.

The British brig Alton, sunk by the Wasp, was built in 1804. The name of her commander is unknown. She was at Portsmouth some time since, repairing

The Br. brig Eclipse, from the Canaries, prize to the Grampus, has been retaken by the Cossack sloop of war, and sent to Bermuda.

Savannah, Nov. 5.—Yesterday at 3 P. M the British schr. Whiting, capt. Little appeared off our bar, and sent her boat on shore with a flag, and landed 7 prisoners—6 belonging to the sloop Philadelphia, capt. Howland, of N. Bedford, bound for Savannah, and one of the crew of the Saratoga privateer. Capt. Howland was captured on the 28th ult. The Whiting recaptured on the 31st, a schr. which had been captured by the Saratoga, with a cargo of fish. The flag remained on Tybee about one hour. Nothing in sight at one o'clock this day.
