each class shall furnish, by draft or by contract, one effective able bodied man, to serve in the militia for the term of two years as aforesaid, unless sooner discharged. Provided nevertheless, That if any state or territory shall, within months after the passing of this act, raise its quota of militia, or any part thereof required by this act, in any other manner, for an equal or longer term of service, the same shall be received into the service of the UStates in substitution of the same number of the militia called for by this act, and in that case, the draft shall so far cease to take effect. And the draft shall also cease to take effect in every case in which any class shall furnish a militiaman by contract as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the President of the U. States to issue his orders to such officers of the militia as he may think proper, to divide the whole militia of each state and territory into classes, and to make drafts therefrom according to the provisions of the 2d section of this act. And for the purpose of equalizing, as much as possible, the contributions of the respective classes, in all cases, where any class shall furnish a militiamen by contract, it shall be the duty of such militia officer or officers, in laying off the respective districts comprehending each class, to apportion the same, as nearly as possible, according to the value of property, and the number of militiamen subject to draft within each district.

Sec. 4 And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act, with equality and justice to all descriptions of the militia, it shall be the duty of every officer commanding a company of infantry, to enter upon his muster roll every person subject to militia duty within the beat or district comprehending his company, whether of artillery, cavalry, grenadiers, light infantry, volunteers, or by whatever other denomination distinguished, including all non-commissioned officers and musicians; which muster roll he shall make out, on oath, and return to the officer commanding the battalion, or regiments to which he belongs; whereupon all the militia of every description, entered upon such muster roll, shall, in like manner, be subject to classification for the purposes of draft or contribution required by this act; and in all cases of making the draft, where the person drafted shall heretofore have faithfully performed any tour of duty in the militia since the commencement of the war, either as a volunteer or regular militiaman, whether upon the requisition of the United States, or of any state or territory, he shall be entitled to a deduction for the whole of his former term of service, as aforesaid, from the term of service required by this act; and it shall be the duty of the officer making such draft, at such time, to make a true and faithful report to the department of war of all persons drafted by him, who shall previously have performed a tour of service as aforesaid, specifying the nature and duration of such service; whereupon it shall be the duty of the secretary for the department of war to cause discharges to be granted to all such persons, according to the principles of the aforesaid provisions.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the president of the U. States be and he is hereby authorised and required to organize the militia of each state and territory, called forth in virtue of this act, into divisions, brigades, regiments, battalions and companies, as the numbers from each state and territory shall render necessary and proper, conformably to the laws and regulations respecting the military establishment of the United States; and it shall be lawful for the proper authority of each state and territory to appoint and commission all officers which may be required to complete such organization.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That every officer, non commissioned officer, or private, of the militia, who shall fail to obey the orders of the President of the U. States in carrying into effect any of the provisions of this act, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding —— year's pay, nor less than —— month's pay; and such officer shall, moreover, be liable to be cashiered by sentence of a court martial, and be incapacitated from holding a commission in the militia for a term not exceeding —— at the discretion of the said court; and such noncommissioned officer and private shall be liable to be imprisoned, by a like sentence, on failure to pay the fines adjudged against them respectively for one calender month for every 5 dollars of such fine.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That the militia while employed in the service of the U. States in virtue of this act, shall not be compelled to serve beyond the limits of the U. States, nor beyond the limits of the state or territory furnishing the same, and the limits of an adjoining state or territory; except that the militia from Kentucky and Tennessee may be required to serve in the defence, and for the protection of Louisiana.

Sec. 8 And be it further enacted, That the militia aforesaid, whilst in the service of the United States, shall be subject to the same rules and articles of war, as the troops of the United States; and in like manner, shall be allowed the same pay, clothing, rations and forage; and entitled to the same privileges and immunities, in all respects, as the troops of the United States.

Sec. 9 And be it further enacted, That after the classification of the militia as aforesaid, any three classes within any state or territory, which shall furnish, according to law, two effective able-bodied recruits, to serve in the army of the United States during the war, shall thereafter be exempt from the militia service required by this act; and to aid them in this respect, such recruits shall be entitled, respectively, to receive the bounty in money and land, which is allowed to other recruits respectively for the army of the United States; and in all cases where recruits shall be furnished as aforesaid, the same shall be delivered to some recruiting officer in the service of the United States, who shall immediately give his receipt therefor, on account of the classes furnishing them, and shall forthwith report the same to the Department of War, specifying in such report, the names and description of such recruits respectively, and the description of the classes of the militia furnishing the same; whereupon it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Department of War, to grant, without delay, to such classes, a certificate of exemption from the militia service required by this act; which certificate shall, to all intents and purposes, be good and available to them for their absolute exemption therefrom.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That in case the recruits furnished under the provisions of this act, in addition to the recruits now authorised by law, should amount, in the whole, to a greater number than sufficient to fill the present military establishment, it shall be lawful for the President of the United States to receive such recruits into the service of the United States, notwithstanding such excess; and to form them into regiments battallions, and companies, as the numbers, of such excess may render necessary, conformably to the regulations of the present military establishment; and the President of the United States is hereby authorised and required to nominate, and by and with the advice of the Senate, appoint as many officers to command such recruits as may be necessary for that purpose, conforming in all respects to the laws and regulations respecting the organization of the present military establishment, and the appointment and relative rank of officers therein. And the officers hereby authorized to be appointed, shall be placed upon the same footing in all respects, with the officers of the same grade in the present military establishment.

The above bill is now under discussion in the Senate.

TUESDAY, NOV. 15.

The Senate made further progress in the above bill; which, it is generally believed, will pass that body, without any material change of its features.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, NOV. 15.

Mr. Lyle of Pa. presented the memorial of a number of citizens of the town of Hickory in Pennsylvania, remonstrating against the transmission and opening of the mail on the Sabbath.

On motion of Mr. Rhea of Tenn. (on the suggestion of Mr. Sanford of N. C.) his and the petitions of a like tenor previously presented, were all referred to the Postmaster General; and the committee of Post Offices and Post Roads were discharged from the further consideration thereof.

Mr. Ingham of Pa. presented the petition of sundry paper makers in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware, praying that the proposed tax on the manufacture of paper may be dispensed with; which was referred to the committee of Ways and Means.

Mr. Archer of Md. presented the petition of Achseh Chief, proprietor of a rope walk and its contents destroyed by the orders of officers in the public service on the approach of the enemy to Baltimore, praying indemnification of his losses thereby sustained. Referred to the committee of Claims.

The Speaker laid before the House a report on the petition of William Mosely and others, deputies employed in taking the census in South Carolina, favorable to their claim of the government for compensation; which report was referred to the committee of Claims.

Mr. Johnson of Ky. offered for consideration the following resolution, in conformity to a representation of the Legislature of Kentucky at the last session:

"Resolved, That the committee of Claims be instructed to enquire into the expediency of paying for waggons and horses lost in the campaign of the North Western Army, in that division of it commanded by General James Winchester."

Mr Yancey of N.C. moved that the resolution lie on the table, alledging as a reason therefor, that a general bill on the subject of such claims had been reported by the committee of Claims and was now before the House.

The resoulution was ordered to lie on table accordingly.

CLOTHING OF THE MILITIA.

Mr. Eppes of Va. in introducing the following motion, remarked that in the late calls of the militia from different parts of the U. States, the persons composing most of the detachments had been compelled to leave their homes with that clothing suitable for the summer season, but unfit for that now approaching; and in various instances they were suffering for want of clothing suitable to the season. They are unable to procure for clothing, and in many instances are not able to procure it. To bring this subject before the House Mr. Eppes moved,

"That the committee on Military Affairs be instructed to enquire into the expediency of authorising the Secretary of War, on the application of the commanding officer of any detachment of the militia, to furnish the necessary clothing to such of the private soldiers of the militia as may require it, and to deduct the same from their pay."

The motion was agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Bigelow, a resolution was twice read and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, directing a copy of the public documents to be furnished to the Historical or Antiquarian Society of Massachusetts.

Mr. Bradly of Vt. offered the following resolution for consideration—

"Resolved, That the committee of Ways and Means be instructed to enquire into the expediency of allowing interest to the public creditors, whose balances have been stated at the Treasury."

Mr. Eppes enquired on what views this motion was grounded.

Mr. Bradley said, he had understood that in some cases balances had been struck at the Treasury, in relation to army supplies particularly, and remained unpaid. He could not see the reason why the U. States should not pay the interest on such balances until they were paid.

Mr. Eppes said, that in his report, the Secretary of the Treasury had contemplated the issuing of debentures to all those persons to whom balance appeared to be due by government, which, from the insufficiency of appropriations, or from other causes, had not been paid. He thought therefore this motion had better lie on the table, until the House had acted on that suggestion, or at least until it could be ascertained what were the amount and character of those balances. For his part Mr. E. said, he had no knowledge of their existence. There might be some such, but if there were, they were small in amount and few in number. Such as they were, they might have arisen from the deficiency in the authorised loans; but he believed means were in operation for meeting all the demands of the government without the intervention of any provision of this kind. He therefore moved that the resolution should lie on the table.

The motion to lay the resolution on the table was agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Ingham of Pa. a resolution was adopted requesting the Secretary of state to cause the members of congress to be furnished with the volumes of the new Digest of the Laws as they might be respectively finished.

THE ENEMY IN THE DELAWARE.

WILMINGTON, DEL. Nov. 15.

The sloop Dart, of Philadelphia, Hasszenn, master, arrived here yesterday from Matompkin Inlet.

The captain states that he passed the blockading squadron, near cape Henlopen the evening before; that they consisted of 1 ship of the line, 2 frigates and a schooner; that the people at Cape May informed them, that the enemy had taken a vessel out of Morris' river, and had driven two Egg Harbour vessels on shore near the inlet; one of which they burned, but before they could destroy the other the militia drove them off.

Also arrived the sch. Ann, of Provincetown, (Mass.) Philip Cook, master, cargo salt. Capt. Cook states, that he sailed from Barnstable on the 1st. inst. bound to the Chesapeake; that on Sunday the 6th inst. he was boarded by a crew of British sailors, armed from the schr. Telegraph, while he lay at anchor near Cape May, and made prize of: that he was taken on board the Telegraph then at anchor between the Overfalls and the Brown, in the Delaware, and there held till the 10th inst. when the capt. of the Telegraph permitted him to proceed up the Delaware to sell his salt, on condition that he would promise to return to the blockading squadron near the Delawaae, and pay one hundred dollars, which he agreed to do as a ransom for his vessel and cargo.

He further states that the crew that captured him was in the sloop Four Brothers of Great Egg Harbour, capt. Sampson, a prize to the Telegraph; and that if he had not supposed the sloop to be an Am. vessel, he could have escaped, for he could sail two feet to her one.

The sloop Four Brothers has also arrived, with clams. The captain states, that he was four days a prize to the Telegraph; that the crew plundered him of half his cargo of clams and one fowling piece and permitted him to depart with the remainder on the 10th inst.

SAVANNAH, Nov. 7.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Fernanaina, to a mercantile house in this city, dated Nov. 3.

"The Spanish brig Esperanzo, has just arrived from Nassau, N. P. in six days, and brings accounts of the arrival there of the frigate Lacedemonian, with several of her prizes, and an express arrived directly after, ordering her off—and report said, for Savannah, when she was to be joined by several others of her class.

"Capt. PAINE was at Nassau, and contradicted the report of his having been wounded on deck, but was very ill with the wound in his thigh."

CHARLESTON CONVOY.

The U. S. sch. Alligator, safely arrived yesterday, with the Charleston Convoy.

AMERICAN AND Commercial Daily Advertiser.

BALTIMORE: Thursday, Nov. 17.

Part of a letter from a Gentleman now at Washington.

——"You must have heard of the taxes which are to be laid on almost every article whether of luxury or of necessity, for the support of a war that has become unavoidable from the numerous aggressions and insolent demands of the enemy—and, probably, you have heard of certain grumblings in various parts of the Union, caused by the tardy proceedings of our Representatives in Congress at this very critical juncture—It will give you pleasure to be informed, that a majority of these Gentlemen have become sensible of the justice of these complaints, and have resolved, in future, to save both the time and the money of their constituents—in short, like true Patriots as they are, the members of both houses intend to turn over a new leaf, to have after dinner sittings, and by their working double tides, to do as much business in one week, as they now do in two or three weeks; by which means, instead of arguing and debating for six months, they will be able to transact all the business of the nation in three!—This will not only be a vast saving to the people in these hard times, but also permit the gentlemen to return to their different homes, to mind their own personal affairs—But what will still more evince their patriotism in a most essential point, they have thoughts of dedicating two, or even three, out of the six dollars which they receive per diem, towards the expences of the war—"They will shew the world, say they, that we do not come to Washington to spend time and make money for nothing."—It is proper to mention, that these economical reforms have originated with the Eastern members, who have always been famous for their saving schemes both in time and money. ——When these important plans are carried into execution, I shall give you the earliest information, in order that you may, both privately and publicly, do justice to the magnanimity of the members of the 15th Congress of the United States."

FROM THE NIAGARA FRONTIER.

We learn that on the 5th inst in pursuance of previous arrangements, the whole of the remainder of our army, which has been some time engaged in preparing for the destruction of Fort Erie, having accomplished that object, recrossed the straight, to take up winter quarters near Buffalo.—Nat. Intel.

FROM DETROIT.

We learn the Indians are yet troublesome. On the 14th ult. a party of them carried off five of our citizens from the neighboring territory, and a few days after one of our citizens was shot and scalped within a mile of Detroit. Gen. M'Arthur moved off on the 22d with a detachment, against a party of the hostile Indians at Saguisa, rather more than a hundred miles distant from Detroit.—ibid.
