Washington Hall Hotel,
SOUTH THIRD STREET,
PHILADELPHIA.
(Late Mansion House)
WILLIAM RENSHAW

Has the honor of informing the public and particularly ladies and gentlemen travelling, that he has taken from the Washington Benevolent Society of Pennsylvania, on a lease, that elegant and commodious establishment, The Washington Hall Hotel, in South Third street which is now open for their accommodation, and where no expense has been spared by the Society, in building, repairing and beautifying the same, and having erected upwards of forty chambers in addition to the original mansion, will insure to every traveller that so much desired gratification, a single bedded room.

Warm and Cold Baths, are provided for the Ladies and Gentlemen, with every accommodation requisite for the establishment.

The situation is the most central for business being near to all the banks, custom house, auction stores, wharves and the Merchant's Coffee house; all the public stages, regularly arrive and depart from the Washington Hall daily where an office is kept, and seats taken for the Baltimore Pilot, Expedition and Mail, and the New York Pilot, Expedition, Mail and Commercail Stages.

The hour of Breakfast during summer is from 8 to 9 o'clock, and in winter from 9 to 10—dinner will be served up every day at 3 o'clock precisely, the tea at 6, and supper at 9 throughout the year. The supper remains on the table till 12 o'clock, for the accommodation of those who attend public places of amusement, or that arrive late by the stages.

Residing Boarders can be accommodated by the month or quarter on moderate terms.

Detached from the Hotel are extensive stabling, with experienced Grooms for its accommodation.

N. B. An Ordinary every day at 3 o'clock.

W. R. therefore flatters himself that those who favor the above establishment with their visits, will have nothing to complain of, "either as to the style of his apartments, the abundance and variety of his tables, the quality of his liquors, the cleanlines and comfort of his chambers, or the activity and attention of himself and servants."
