The Westminster Fire Department has received two plans for the new building about to be erected for its use. One of the plans is for a structure, including apparatus room, meeting rooms, lodge rooms, city council chamber, &c., to cost $10,000. The other includes the above, an opera house and a market at a cost of $16,000. The plans have been submitted to the department and are considered too expensive. Other plans will be obtained and submitted at a future meeting.

Hon. Lloyd Lowndes and the other Republican State candidates, and several other prominent Republicans were at Pleasure Park near this city yesterday.

The Republicans of Winfield and vicinity will meet this, Saturday, evening, October 5th, at Cover's Hall, in that village, for the purpose of organizing a Lowndes Club.

During the month of September 30 deeds, 18 mortgages, and 12 bills of sale were received for record at the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court, and 20 marriage licenses were issued.

Mrs. Radie Barnes, wife of Mr. Alfred W. Barnes, of Gamber, died at her home at that place on Sunday morning last in the thirty-fifth year of her age. Her funeral took place at Mt. Pleasant M. E. Church on Tuesday.

The editor of the SENTINEL is indebted to the courtesy of the Frederick County Agricultural Society for a cordial invitation to attend its twenty-fifth exhibition, which will take place in Frederick from the 8th to the 11th inst.

A special train will be run from Westminster to Bruceville on Wednesday, to make connection with the train to Frederick, for the accommodation of persons desiring to visit the Frederick Fair. A through train will be run from Baltimore to Frederick on Thursday.

Mr. Balthaser Fax, the oldest citizen of Middleburg district, and of the one oldest in the county, died at his home near Double Pipe Creek, Thursday afternoon. His age was 92 years, 6 months. He leaves ten children. His remains will be interred at Oak Hill on Sunday morning.

Dr. Robert James Hall, who, it is said, practiced medicine in this county for some time before the beginning of the war in 1861, died at his home on North Charles Street, Baltimore, on Sunday, aged seventy-six years. He was a native of Dulaney's Valley, Baltimore county, and served as a surgeon in the Union army during the war.

The attendance at both the public schools in this city has increased to an unusual extent since the opening of the fall term. At Central Hall school the number of pupils is so much greater than heretofore that the appointment of another assistant teacher is likely to become necessary, a fact that gives evidence of the confidence of parents in the able principal and his corps of excellent assistants.

Messrs. Frank W. Shriver and Isaac Shriver, executors of the late Francis Shriver, sold at public sale, on Saturday last, the dwelling house on West Main street, near Carroll street, this city, to Mr. Jonas Bachman, of Bachman's Valley, for $1,825. A lot of land containing 1¾ acres, in the rear of Pennsylvania avenue was sold to Mr. Grove A. Shipley for $296. The home residence was not sold.

The individual deposits subject to check in the several national banks of this city and county, at the close of business, September 28th, were as follows: First National Bank of New Windsor, $70,358.73; Farmers and Mechanics National Bank of Westminster, $70,489.40; First National Bank of Westminster, $146,733.54; Union National Bank of Westminster, $152,673.43; total, $440,255.10.

Mrs. Lavina Bowman, widow of the Wm. H. Bowman, of Funkstown, died a the home of her son, Mr. Wm. E. Bowman, this city, very suddenly, of apoplexy, on Wednesday morning, aged 71 years, 10 months, 9 days. She was in apparent health until five minutes before her death. She leaves two sons, Messrs. Wm. E. and Jacob H. Bowman, both residents of this city. Her remains were taken to Funkstown, for interment, on Thursday.

Howard Barnes, aged about nine years, son of Mr. Noah Barnes, of this city, attempted to climb on the wagon of a Mr. Shilling, on East Main street, on Monday, but came in contact with another wagon standing on the street and was thrown to the ground. The wheels of Mr. Shilling's wagon ran over both legs of the boy, diagonally from the ankle of the left to the knee of the right. The flesh of the right leg was badly crushed, but no bones were broken. The wagon was loaded with two tons of phosphate and it is remarkable that the boy did not sustain greater injury. He is attended by Dr. J. T. Hering.

Major Thomas J. Gorsuch, of Greenmount, died at his home, at that place, quite suddenly, on Wednesday morning, of apoplexy, aged about fifty-nine years. Major Gorsuch was a prominent and well known citizen and his loss to the community will be a severe one. He leaves a widow, two sons and three daughters. The marriage of one of the latter, Ida May, to David K. Brown, Jr., took place at the bride's home on the 18th ult., little more than two weeks ago and the home that was then bright with joy, is now clouded with sorrow. The funeral of Major Gorsuch took place at the M. E. Church, Hampstead, yesterday morning.

It seems that the sale of Gov. Brown's "Springfield" farm as a site for the new State Insane Hospital has not been fully consummated and the Board of Trustees has asked an option on the property till November 10th, which the Governor has granted. He has had the land surveyed and has included 198 acres with the 530 covered by the original proposition, making 728 acres in all. The Governor also offered to the board 60 acres of wheat just seeded, at the cost of fertilizers used, charging nothing whatever for the seeding. He is also willing to leave the fodder of 100 acres of corn on the land, and will give the furniture in his main residence to the board, at the original price of $50,000 for the whole, excepting only cost of fertilizers on the wheat just seeded.

On Monday last Detective John Lloyd, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, brought a man who calls himself Otto Frank to this city, and turned him over to the county authorities. Otto Frank, or Hanover Frank, as he is sometimes called, is one of the parties implicated in the murder of Jacob Miller, at a tramp rendezvous, near Melrose, about six weeks ago, and the man brought here by Detective Lloyd is supposed to be he. He was committed by Justice William Moore for a hearing on Monday next. He was arrested by Detective Norris while at work in the Belt Line tunnel at Baltimore. Several persons from Manchester have seen him but failed to identify him and others will be summoned to attend the hearing on Monday.

The fall opening of several of the prominent stores of this city will take place to day. Buyers, by consulting the advertising columns of the SENTINEL, will obtain valuable assistance in determining where to make their purchases. The merchants of this city are not behind the best in the State in the extent and quality of their stocks, moderate prices and thorough enterprise.

Wedding Bells.

COVER—DUPREE.

The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Cover, near Sams Creek, was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Wednesday, at 1 P. M. The contracting parties in this happy event were Miss Annie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cover, and Mr. William S. Dupree, of Philadelphia. Rev. Thomas J. Cross performed the ceremony. Miss Maggie Stem rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march on the organ. Messrs. Albert Cover, brother of the bride, and J. Ezra Stem were ushers. Refreshments were served in abundance, consisting of ices, fruits, cakes, nuts, confectionery &c. The bride wore a very handsome gown of brown satin, trimmed in gold, which she exchanged for a becoming green broadcloth traveling costume. Mr. and Mrs. Dupree left on the 4.05 P. M. train, amid a shower of rice and with many good wishes, for a bridal trip to Baltimore, Philadelphia and other Eastern cities. They will reside in Philadelphia. The bride was the recipient of a large collection of useful and handsome presents.

ALBAUGH—WICKERT.

Miss Mollie E. Wickert, only daughter of Ex-Sheriff S. Carr Wickert, and Mr. Harry C. Albaugh, a well known young business man of this city, were married at the Methodist Protestant Church at 3 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, 3rd inst. While no attempt at ostentatious display was made the wedding was a very pretty and interesting nuptial event. The altar and pulpit platform of the church were banked with profusion and taste with palms, ferns and cut and potted flowers. The bride wore a beautiful and becoming gown of white silk, with jewel trimmings, white gloves and slippers, and carried bride roses. The ushers were: Mr. Atlee Horner, of the Baltimore postoffice; Messrs. Howard F. Schaeffer, George Louis Brown and Joseph D. Zepp, of Westminster. The wedding march from Lohengrin was beautifully rendered by the church organist, Miss Annie E. Shriver, as the bridal party approached the altar, and Mendlessohn's march after the ceremony. Other selections were rendered preceding it. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. A. D. Melvin. The church was filled to overflowing with friends of the contracting parties. Subsequently, from 4 till 6 o'clock, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on East Main street, where the many guests were very handsomely entertained. Mr. and Mrs. Albaugh left on the fast mail train, at 6.04 P. M., for a bridal trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Sixth Md. Regiment Reunion.

The annual reunion of the Sixth Maryland Regiment was held in Thurmont Saturday, forty-eight answering to roll-call, Major C. A. Damuth, of Thurmont, presiding. An election for officers resulted in the election of Major Damuth, president, and Mr. Walter Esmer, of Baltimore city, secretary. The next reunion will be held at Smithburg, Washington county.

A number of veterans of other commands were present and at the banquet prepared for the visitors, the presence of Confederate Veterans, there by invitation, was noted.

At 2 o'clock a formal welcome was tendered the Sixth Regiment in the town hall. Addresses were made by Col. John R. Rouzer, of Thurmont; Col. J. W. Horn, who commanded the regiment, and Mr. David Reightler. Miss Effie Baker, of Thurmont, sang "Auld Lang Syne;" Miss Addie Johnson, "Parting Came Too Late;" Miss Blanche Hammet, "Star Spangled Banner," and Miss Fannie Landers, "Beautiful Flag." Miss Vallie Smith, of Baltimore, and Misses Linnie McGuigan, Margaret Osler and Margaret Bower, of Thurmont, gave appropriate recitations, and twenty little girls sang "Red, White and Blue."

Many of the veterans were accompanied by members of their families.

Taneytown Items

Miss Lula Saxton, of Woodsboro', was the guest of Mrs. H. B. Miller for a few days last week.

Misses Jennie and Neta Oursler, of Manchester, have been the guests of Mrs. Edw. Weaver during the past week.

Mr. Joshua Biehl and a number of hands have been working on the Catholic Church during the past week, giving the same a coat of paint, which will add greatly to its appearance.

Mr. Thomas Shriver, who has been very ill for some time with calculus, was very much relieved on last Tuesday when a consultation was held by Dr. C. W. Weaver, of this place, and Dr. Weaver, of Littlestown, Pa., who administered the proper remedies and at this writing he is doing very well.

Miss Nettie Fringer, who had been confined to her bed with scarlet fever for several weeks, is able to be around the house again.

Mr. H. B. Miller and wife, Miss Lula Saxton, of Woodsboro; Miss Lorena LeFever, Messrs. Theo. C. Fair and Geo. E. Koutz spent Sunday last at Gettysburg, viewing the battle field, and report having had a most enjoyable day.

The Republican primary, which was held at the Buffington House on last Saturday, was well attended and every thing passed off very quietly, as there was only one ticket to be voted for.

The new pipe organ for Grace Reformed Church has arrived and is being erected by Mr. J. W. Staub, of Mendelssohn, Pa. The organ was built by the Carl Berckhoff Manufacturing Co., of Mendelssohn. It is 8 by 12 ft. and 18 ft. high, and has two manual pedal bars, with 723 pipes. The case is finished in new mahogany. This is the finest church organ in the town and compares favorably with any outside of the large cities. It will be dedicated October 20th, when Rev. Dr. C. Clever, of Baltimore, will preach the dedicatory sermon, and it is expected that Rev. H. E. Jones, of McConnellstown, Pa., will assist and preach in the evening. Dr. Frost, professional organist, of Washington, D. C., will be present and give an organ rehearsal in the evening.

Union Mills Items.

B. F. Shriver & Co. closed out the bean packing season last Wednesday.

Our Republican primary, held on the 28th ult., was the largest ever held in this district.

Wm. H. Harner has sold his house in this village to Elmer Leppo, for $750.

Miss Kate Shriver, of Hanover, Pa., is visiting Miss Sarah C. Shriver.

As a Baltimore cyclist was coasting down Pipe Creek hill last Sunday, he was thrown from his wheel, receiving a number of painful bruises. One of our wheelmen, acting the part of the Good Samaritan, appeared upon the scene with soothing ointments and sent the traveller on his way rejoicing. We failed to hear the Baltimorean's name.

The reunion of the Knights of the Mystic Chain will be held in a grove near Silver Run, on Saturday, 5th inst., under the auspices of Carroll Castle of that place. Refreshments and music will be provided, and several speakers will be on hand to address the assembled knights.

Mrs. Edward Bankert had her breast, face and hands severely burned, on Tuesday of this week. The accident was caused by her clothing taking fire while she was boiling applebutter.

Shipley Items.

Zion Sabbath School has placed a Miller organ in the church. Prof. Walker's choir, of Montgomery county, will be with us, October 19th, at 6 P. M., to give us a concert free in behalf of the church organ. Our Church people are making a faithful effort to raise the debt on Zion Church. The committee appointed has secured by subscription and cash $380 of the $500 and they intend to try to raise the other $120 during the month of October, and then a day will be appointed by the pastor, Rev. Geo. W. Honey, for dedicating the chapel, of which public notice will be given in the county papers.

Miss Louise Easton, of Westminster, visited her parents on the 29th ult. She came home on her bicycle. So far as your correspondent knows, Miss Lou is the only one of the Shipley family and their relatives who has yet exhibited courage enough to ride a wheel.

The Nicodemus road near Mr. Andrew Polster's needs a small bridge over one of the streams crossing the road obliquely. In winter it is next to impossible to cross at this place, when it is icy. We hope the road commissioners will give this place their kind attention and give us the needed bridge promptly.

Manchester Items.

The estimable wife of Dr. George T. Shower, of Woodberry, died rather suddenly at a hospital in Baltimore on the 25th ult., after an operation for the removal of a large tumor. She was about 42 years old. Great sympathy is felt for Dr. Shower by his many friends in this community.

The protracted meeting at Bethel Church of God, near here, will begin on Sunday night, October 6th.

Mr. H. L. Shipley is having an addition built to his store; Messrs. Pickett, Farver and Stem carpenters.

For more than a hundred years the Shakers have been studying the remedial properties of plants. They have made many discoveries, but their greatest achievement was made last year. It is a cordial that contains already digested food and is a digester of food. It is effective in removing distress after eating, and creates an appetite for more food so that eating becomes a pleasure. Pale, thin people become plump and healthy under its use. It arrests the wasting of consumption.

There never has been such a step forward in the cure of indigestion as this Shaker Cordial. Your druggist will be glad to give you a little book descriptive of the product.

Give the babies LAXOL, which is Castor Oil made as palatable as Honey.

In this city, October 2nd, 1895, Mrs. Lavina Bowman, aged 71 years, 10 months and 9 days.

In memory of MRS. BAUST, wife of Samuel Baust, who died one year ago.

Tearfully, tenderly gaze on her face,
Of all earth's dark sorrow there's not a trace,
But a peace only given to hearts all pure,
The sweet peace of heaven that shall endure,
Where bright days of summer ne'er fade at eve,
No sin to o'ercome her, no cares to grieve.

By her Husband, Samuel Baust.
