Additional Notice.

The undersigned Commissioners, appointed by the act of Congress of the 31st of March, 1814, relative to the Yazoo claims, are of opinion, that it rests with the claimants, to prepare by themselves or their counsel, the releasses assignments and powers mentioned in the first section of the act. Desirous nevertheless, to give every facility to the execution of the act consistent with what is taken to be its right construction, they recommend,

That claimants living at a distance, who may find it necessary to prefer their claims through an agent or attorney should invest such agent or attorney with authority to add to or alter the instruments aforesaid; or vary in any wise their form and manner, so that they may conform to such directions and decissions as the commissioners may give when organized as a Board, and proceeding to execute their functions under the act. By this course such changes, substisutions and amendments, as are susceptible of being made upon the spot, can take place without inconvenience to the claimants.

Washington Hall Hotel,

SOUTH THIRD STREET,

PHILADELPHIA.

(Late Mansion House.)

WILLIAM RENSHAW

Has the honor of informing the public and particularly ladies and gentlemen travelling, that he has taken from the Washington Benevolent Society of Pennsylvania, on a lease, that elegant and commodious establishment, The Washington Hall Hotel, in South Third street which is now open for their accommodation, and where no expense has been spared by the Society, in building, repairing and beautifying the same, and having erected upwards of forty chambers in addition to the original mansion, will insure to every traveller that so much desired gratification, a single bedded room.

Warm and Cold Baths, are provided for the Ladies and Gentlemen, with every accommodation requisite for the establishment.

The situation is the most central for business being near to all the banks, custom house, auction stores, wharves and the Merchant's Coffee house; all the public stages, regularly arrive and depart from the Washington Hall daily where an office is kept, and seats taken for the Baltimore Pilot, Expedition and Mail, and the New York Pilot, Expedition, Mail and Commercail Stages.

The hour of Breakfast during summer is from 8 to 9 o'clock, and in winter from 9 to 10—dinner will be served up every day at 3 o'clock precisely, the tea at 6, and supper at 9 throughout the year. The supper remains on the table till 12 o'clock, for the accommodation of those who attend public places of amusement, or that arrive late by the stages.

Residing Boarders can be accommodated by the month or quarter on moderate terms.

Detached from the Hotel are extensive stabling, with experienced Grooms for its accommodation.

N. B. An Ordinary every day at 3 o'clock.

W. R. therefore flatters himself that those who favor the above establishment with their visits, will have nothing to complain of, "either as to the style of his apartments, the abundance and variety of his tables, the quality of his liquors, the cleanlines and comfort of his chambers, or the activity and attention of himself and servants."

Country Seat for Sale.

That beautiful Country Seat, known by the name of Brown's Prospect, containing 43 acres, situate on the Falls Turnpike Road, 5 miles from Baltimore, adjoining lands of the Washington Cotton Manufactory, is offered at private sale. This stand is well situated for almost any kind of public business. The land is fertile and rich, and stands in a high state of cultivation; it is extremely well adapted to Plaister of Paris—many excellent springs with several branches of water interspersed through the land—Jones' Falls passing through the same, affords an opportunity of driving upwards of a thousand Cotton Spindles—a Woolen Manufactory, or other water works, at a light expence, as there is a quarry of good stone quite convenient on the premises. There are 3 acres of timber land, a dwelling house 24 by 21 feet, under story stone, and upper story frame, with a handsome spring of water within a few feet of the door—7 acres planted in an Orchard, consisting of apples, peaches, pears, quinces, damsons and cherries, the whole selected from the choicest of fruit, and just beginning to bear.—Persons who wish to view the property and know the terms, may call on the subscriber, living on the premises.
