The first of those bills, viz. the bill from the Senate requiring a draft for two years of a body of militia, was on motion of Mr. Johnson of Ky. referred to a select committee for their consideration.

The second of the above bills being before the House, and the question being on the engrossing of the bill for a third reading,

The House adjourned without deciding thereon.

From the Liverpool Courier, Aug. 31.

TOWN-HALL—LIVERPOOL, August, 29th 1814.

At a Meeting of the Merchants, Shipowners, Underwriters, and others interested in the Shipping and Commerce of the Port of Liverpool, held at the Town-Hall, this day, by special appointment, for the purpose of taking into consideration the late numerous Captures by American Cruisers, in St. George's Channel, and on the Western and Northern Coasts of Ireland and Scotland.

The Worshipful the Mayor of Liverpool in the Chair,

The following Resolutions were entered into:

Resolved, That it appears to this meeting, that the captures recently made, and the destruction occasioned by American cruisers in St. George's Channel and neighbourhood, have been unusually extensive and alarming, and in the greatest degree injurious to the commerce of the Country at large, and to the interest of the Port of Liverpool in particular.

Resolved, That such depredations may be expected to increase very materially as the season advances, and during the Winter months, which will add to the facility the enemy have hitherto experienced in effecting their captures, and in returning unmolested to ports in their own country.

Resolved, That the American vessels of war, both national and private, have lately adopted a novel and extraordinary practice, (particularly as it regards the latter) of burning and destroying such prizes as they have no reasonable expectation of getting safely into port; a system, as we are informed, sanctioned and encouraged by the American Government, and, as we believe, rewarded by them; which belief is strengthened by the great anxiety always shown by the Commanders of cruisers to get possession of and preserve the registers and other papers of such vessels as they destroy.

Resolved, Therefore, that it appears necessary to this meeting, that a memorial be drawn up and forwarded to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, representing these facts, and praying that their Lordships will be pleased to take into their most serious consideration, the propriety of adopting such measures as they may deem effectual for the further protection of the trade on the Western and Northern Coasts of this kingdom, and to counteract and prevent, if possible, the ruinous effects of this new system of warfare, and recurrence of such numerous depredations in future.

Resolved, That the Chairman be requested to sign these Resolutions on behalf of the Meeting.

WM. NICHOLSON, Mayor.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.

Columbia College.—At half past 11 yesterday morning, a fire broke out in Professor Adriance's Lecture Room. It was communicated from a Russian Stove; and we understand considerable damage was done to the building before the flames were entirely subdued.

Yesterday the colours on the forts at the Narrows and in this harbor, were hoisted at half mast, and half hour guns fired through the day, in respect to the memory of the late Vice President.—Col.

The new fleet, authorized by Congress, will be at sea with the greatest expedition. Six vessels are engaged to be built in this city in 60 days; besides which a number are in active preparation, and will probably be ready in a week. Com. Porter is to have command of a squadron of these flying cruizers for two or three month's voyage during the winter.—Ib.

This forenoon arrived from Connecticut river, the fine new brig Holkar, pierced for 18 guns, and built by capt. Churchill, in the yard from which he has formerly launched two other vessels of that name.—Colum.

The London Statesman of the 28th Sept. says, "The gallant Sir P. Parker received his wound in the muscle, which vulgarly is called the Pope's eye, in the inside of the right thigh, and which is said to be always mortal. He felt the stroke, but with the most heroic spirit, he placed his hand on the wound, and cheered his men, calling on them to follow him. He ran forward a few steps, but in two minutes fell and expired. N.Y. Gaz.

A gentleman of this city, having received Steel's list of the above date, has politely favored the Editors of the New York Gazette with the following statements of the force of the British Navy, their stations, &c.:

It appears by the last London papers that JOANES SOUTHCOTT has proved an imposter. The English editors have indulged many witticisms on the occasion. ib.

Cartel—The cartel ship Jenny, Captain Myers, has arrived in the offing from Dartmouth, (Eng.) which place she left on the 29th of October, and brings London dates to the 27th of that month, not so late by one day as were received by the schr. Chauncey. Passengers, the Rev. Dr. Romeyn and Lady, the Rev. Stephen Grillet, Mr. Jacob P. Daniel Giraud, Mr. Van Schaick, of the house of Van Schaick & Givan, merchants of this city, Capt. Sherry, Capt. Robinson, Mr. P. Ludlow and Mr. Beck all of this city; Mr. Eckey, Mr. L. Lewis, and Mr. S. Miffin, of Philadelphia; Mr. & Mrs. Dickins and 7 children, of N. Carolina; Mr. M. Meyers, of Norfolk; Mr. P. W. Snow, of Providence; Mr. H. Gardner; Mr. Tudor, capt. D. Sawyer, capt. Lindsey, Mr. Carroll, Dr. Walker, and Mr. Putnam, of Boston, and one other gentleman belonging to Boston, whose name we have not ascertained.——Also, seventy prisoners, principally belonging to the late American sloops of war Wasp and Frolick, and two of the Chesapeake's crew. The Spanish cartel ship St. Philip was to sail from Dartmouth, in 6 days after the Jenny, for Norfolk, with three hundred prisoners, principally soldiers.—Spoke the schooner Mary of Philadelphia, bound to Bermuda, a prize to the British ship of war Telegraph. Capt. Robinson informs us he left the Jenny yesterday morning at half past 6 o'clock, about 8 miles to the southward of Sandy Hook, and went on shore for a pilot, which he procured and sent off to the ship. Capt. Robinson states that the Jenny is leaky and short of provisions. We understand Mr. Mitchell's pilot boat has gone down to the ship with a flag for the purpose of bringing up the passengers.

Capt. Robinson returns his thanks to Lieut. Russel commander at Sandy Hook, for his politeness in sending him up to town in his barge.

We learn that the lamented death of Mrs. Rogers, wife of Mr. B. W. Rogers, happened on the 21st day of her passage out, and four days after the ship put into England, where her body was taken on shore and interred.

AMERICAN PRIVATEERS

The private armed ship America, Cheever, mounting 22 guns, from Salem; and the private armed schr. Macdonough, Goodrich, from Boston, have both sailed on a cruize.

The private armed brigs Warrior, Champlain, mounting 21 guns; the Arrow, Conklin, mounting 16 guns; and the schr. Whig, Capt. Mix, all sailed from this port last week on a cruize. Several other privateers are fitting out at this Port, Boston, &c.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1.

FIRE!

Last night about 12 o'clock, the Chocolate Manufactory, owned by Mr. Miller, and an extensive range of dwelling houses, situated in Kunkle-street, between Brewer's-alley and Callowhill-street, and between Third and Fourth streets, were destroyed by fire. It originated in the Manufactory, and in less than half an hour from 15 to 20 families were compelled to seek refuge from the flames.

THE NEGOCIATION.

From what has been already published of this most interesting correspondence, our readers will be able to form a judgement of their contents—It appears, that the sine qua non propositions are nearly abandoned by the British Commissioners, and that they now stand on the uti possidetis, viz. each party to retain what they possess; by which if so degrading a treaty were to be made, the enemy would remain in possession of the Tangier and almost all the islands in the Chesapeake Bay.——We think this the plainest way to explain what is meant by the Diplomatic phrase, the uti possidetis—Such a treaty, we are confident, never will be acceded to either by the Government or the Representatives of the people of America.

In short, it is palpable that the B. Commissioners go on the principle of "procrastination," until they hear the result of the success of their arms in this country, and the result of the Congress at Vienna—See the letter of our Commissioners dated the 25th of October, which states this conduct nearly in the same words which we used some time ago.

Various accounts now seem to agree, that the British are collecting all their force both from Bermuda and the West Indies, in order to make a formidable attack on New Orleans—If they get possession of that important place, and thereby obstruct the navigation of the great river Mississippi, then will they more strenuously insist on the uti possidetis—But, we hope, that Old Hickory Jackson, with the assistance of the brave Tennessee and Kentucky men, will be able to spoil the projects of the enemy in that quarter.

MILITARY DISCIPLINE.

A private of the 6th M. Militia having been found guilty, by a Court Martial, of a violent assault on an Officer with a loaded pistol, he was condemned to be shot—On Saturday last, he was taken out under a strong guard, dressed in funereal habiliments, and preceded by a coffin, to the camp near this city—After going thro' all the awful forms attached to so melancholy a ceremony, just as the platoon was going to fire on him, the Commanding General was pleased to respite the execution for some days, until the will of the President of the United States should be known as to the final fate of the criminal.

We sincerely hope that this impressive solemnity may have its due effect, and teach our soldiers of every description, the necessity—the absolute necessity—of subordination and discipline.——If a system of laws be necessary for the guidance of a civil society, it is still more requisite for a military body, where the misconduct of one man may cause the loss of a whole army, and, eventually of a whole nation—it is now obvious that we must have an army for the defence of the Union, and, that that army must be regulated by strict military rules.

WILLIAM JONES resigned the office of Secretary of the Navy, according to his previous determination, on the first of this month. His successor is not yet named.

The President of the U. States has conferred upon Capt. SAMUEL MILLER, of the U. States' Marines, in consequence of his gallantry and good conduct on the 24th of August in the action at Bladensburgh, the brevet rank of Major.

SAVANNAH, November, 24, 1814, 10 o'clock, P. M.

CAPTURE OF THE GENERAL ARMSTRONG, CAPTAIN REED.

Arrived this evening from Amelia, a Spanish schooner, on board of which came passengers, several of the crew of the privateer General Armstrong. The Armstrong while lying in Fayal Roads on the —— was attacked by 16 barges from a British squadron then off that harbor, which he engaged near an hour, and after killing and wounding 200 of the enemy, surrendered, further resistance being in vain, the vast superiority of force against her. Killed on board the Armstrong, O. Williams, first lieutenant; and eight or ten seamen, and about thirty wounded. We have not been able to obtain particulars relative to this affair. Captain Reed, who will be in town to night, will no doubt give us a detailed account of the engagement. For the present we can go no further.—Republican Extra.

SAVANNAH, Nov. 24.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT!

Captain Isaacs, late commander of the brig Mary of New York, arrived in this place last evening from New Providence, via St. Mary's—came passenger in the Spanish schooner Felisha, which was taken possession of by an United States' gun vessel off St. Mary's Bar, and ordered in for that port for adjudication.

Captain Isaacs states, that he left New Providence on the 13th inst. at which time 1200 black troops were ready to embark, and were only waiting for vessels which were hourly looked for to transport them to Jamaica.—Captain I. left Jamaica for Providence on the 18th of October. He informs that every vessel of an easy draft of water that could be procured at that place (Jamaica) was taken up by government at six pounds per ton, to be fitted out as transports, supposed to be intended for an expedition against NEW ORLEANS. Troops were daily expected from all the Windward Islands to rendezvous at Jamaica—all the black regiments were to be consolidated on their arrival there—that on the 19th of October, on his passage to New Providence, fell in off the east end of the Island of Jamaica with seven sail of transports full of troops bound in; that in Providence every arrangement was making for an expedition; and the general opinion was that it was intended for New Orleans. The day on which Captain Isaacs left Providence, a Spanish brig, 45 days from Cadiz arrived, and reported that a few days before making Abacco, was boarded by his majesty's ship the Tonnant, Admiral Cochrane; but could not learn where she was bound: After being detained by Admiral C. about half an hour, was permitted to proceed, when the Tonnant stood for the southward under a heavy press of sail.—Republican.

The brig Mary, mentioned above was cut out of the port of Laguira by the British sloop of war Heron on the 7th July last, and ordered to St. Thomas's, where she arrived in September and was tried by the British vice admiralty at Tortolla and restored to her owners in consequence of her having been taken in Neutral waters. The Mary was left at St. Thomas's not being able to procure a crew.—Ibid.

Boston, Nov. 28.—The privateer Cadet, Kelly, of Salem, has arr. at Thomastown, Me. in co. with her prize, the British schr. Betsey & Jane, of 51 tons, and a cargo of 119 packages of dry goods, valued at 150,000 dollars, part of which were taken on board the Cadet. She was bound from St. Johns to Castine, and was captured off the Cranberry Islands, after a chase of a number of hours. The Cadet had also captured a whale boat, which she manned and ordered in.

We have been informed, that the privateer Scourge has arrived at Newport, and that her crew were in a state of mutiny on board, and that many of them had been imprisoned on board the gun boats a that place.

Philadelphia, Dec. 3.

Ar. Letter of Marque schr. Burrows, Capt. Malher, 16 days from St. Barts, cargo rum, goat skins, queens ware, glass ware, and dry goods etc.

Sailed from St. Barts in company with the Schrs. Highflier and Diver of Philadelphia. On passing S. W. end of Anguilla, a squall upset the Diver, when the B. and Highflier rounded to and took off Capt. Green his Officers crew and passengers. Capt. G. came passenger in the B.—Came into the Capes on Wednesday morning, having been chased the day before to the Southward by a Frigate, and likewise on the morning of the 30th by a Frigate and Brig close in with the Capes. Left at St. Barts schr Sylph of Baltimore.

The Tonnant, 74, with Ad. Cochrane, has arrived at Guadaloupe from Halifax; and preparations were making to evacuate that Island and Martinique. It was understood, the Garrisons were to be sent to Bermuda.

The Cork fleet has arrived in the West Indies.

Schr Mary, hence for Havanna, is captured and sent to Bermuda, by the schr Telegraph.

Letter of marque schr. Com. Decatur, of Baltimore, from New York to St. Barts, is taken near that Island, by the British brig Barbadoes.

Wilmington, Nov. 25.—Ar. on the 17th inst. British schr. Mary, late American Clara—cargo fish—captured on the 30th ult. by the Saratoga privateer of New York.

The schr. Faith, capt. Hicks of this port from Laguira, with a cargo of hides and indigo was lost in coming over the bar on or about the 17th inst. She had previously lost her foremast. A part of the cargo and materials were saved.

Cleared.—Sloop Tickler, Pitts, for Charleston.
