WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.

It is rumoured, and generally believed, that the President yesterday made the following nominations to the Senate:

BENJAMIN W. CROWNINSHIELD, of Massachusetts, to be Secretary of the Navy of the U. States.

WILLIAM EUSTIS, (late Secretary of War) to be our Minister to Holland.—Int.

EDITORS' CORRESPONDENCE.

Extract of a letter from near Tappahannock Virg. dated 13th December, 1814.

"The enemy have at last left us, after burning a part of Tappahannock. They then landed, and marched to Farnham Church, seven miles from the river—burnt the post office, and took away many negroes, and returned unmolested to their shipping; after defeating our small force, took from us one gun, wounded and took prisoner captain Shackleford of artillery, whom they paroled. He is doing well, though the ball is not extracted. Capt. Barrie, of the Dragon, and Col. Malcolm, of the Marines, commanded this brilliant expedition, as they will no doubt call it. Thirteen prisonesr and deserters of the enemy, capt. Lomax has taken on to Washington."—ib.

SAVANNAH, Dec. 5.

On the 1st inst. it was expected an attack would be made on Amelia, by the Patriots, who were assembled at Back River, to the number of from 3 to 400; in consequence all was alarm and confusion at Amelia. The Gun Boats had been sent out in pursuit of the British barges, and returned after having succeeded in re-capturing the Lady of the Lake, from Amelia bound to this port, laden with Dry Goods, &c.

It was also reported that Mr. Dubignon, and a Mr. Hall, had raised a breast work on Jekyl island with the bales of cotton they had re-captured from the enemy's barges, and that in a rencontre with several barges, they were repulsed with the loss of 7 killed and 6 or 7 wounded. They afterwards, however, effected a landing on Jekyl, and plundered Mr. Dubignon of $6000 in specie, and carried off 35 of his primest negroes.

There was a report very prevalent on Saturday last in this city, that two or more waggoners were scalped and killed, near the Altamaha river, on their way from Savannah to St. Mary's, by a number of Indians—whether the report deserves credit or not, we are unable to say. We have endeavored to trace it but have failed.

AMERICAN AND Commercial Daily Advertiser.

BALTIMORE: Monday, Dec. 19.

On Friday morning last, an alarm was given from Fort M'Henry, that the enemy's fleet, was approaching up the Patapsco—Our brigades and volunteer corps turned out with alacrity and spirit, and, in a very short time, were ready to meet and repel the foe. The morning was wet and cloudy, and when the thick atmosphere cleared away, it was discovered, that the enemy was still in statu quo on their station in the Bay, and had not made another demonstration against the city.

Many accounts seem to corroborate the idea, that the British are now collecting all their forces, both at Bermuda and in the West Indies, in order to make a formidable attack on New Orleans with an army composed both of white and black troops—But we should keep in remembrance, that this may be only thrown out as a Russe de Guerre, a stratagem calculated to put us off our guard—Unfortunately, the enemy has it in his power to attack us at any time he pleases; and we know that he has a particular hatred to our city, which he is anxious either to destroy, or to obtain possession of it; of course, we should be continually on our guard against a sudden attack—And we must believe, that the General Government will have a proper attention to a place of such infinite value, not only for its own importance, but also, as on its fate, depends the fate of both Washington and Philadelphia.

We do not wish to lay blame on any of those Officers, whether they be Civil or Military, who have the safety of the city under their immediate care—But we have heard, from what we think respectable authority, that a British Officer has been in this place for several days last week, who at his leisure had an opportunity of making his observations on our strength and numbers.

This story as we have heard it is nearly as follows: This gentleman is represented to have fought a duel with a brother officer in Canada, and had "killed his man"—In order to avoid a Court Martial, he fled to the United States—He did not stop at Albany, or New York, or Philadelphia, but comes strait on to Baltimore, "the City of Refuge"—Now, whether this story be true or false, it shews that the Guardians of our City should have made the proper enquiries, and sent this British Officer to a proper place of safety.

Be this as it may, we wish to inculcate the necessity of both our Civil and Military Officers, and of all kinds of Citizens public or private, to have an attentive eye to all strangers—These are not ordinary times; they require extraordinary and the most vigilant exertions for the public safety, not only to repel the public enemy, but also to guard against the stratagems and machinations of internal foes.

POOR.

In consequence of the extensive sufferings of the Poor, many of whom, thrown out of employment, by the late calamity which prevailed in this city, a number of individuals voluntarily subscribed sums of money, which was placed at the disposal of the Committee of Inspection and Distribution, whose duty it was to visit and administer relief, as far as their limited means would enable them, during the last three months—the few that subscribed to this fund evinced a liberality heretofore unprecedented, yet it is totally inadequate to the objects, being nearly exhausted—Our fellow citizens must therefore be aware that from the general pressure of the times, particularly at this inclement season, many worthy families are reduced from comfort and plenty, to distress and absolute want. The widows and helpless children—the sick, aged and infirm require immediate assistance—the distressed circumstances of a number of them are perhaps only known but to those who have visited them.

From these considerations the Committe of Relief find it necessary to call upon their fellow Citizens and solicit their humanity and benevolence, for, without their liberal and christian aid, in all human probability many of them must finally perish—To those whom Providence has blessed with abundance, we presume that it is only necessary, that those distresses should be made known, which consists in the extreme want of fire, clothing of every description (particularly for women)—bedding, and the necessary provisions to sustain nature, &c.—in this unhappy state there are hundreds to be found.

We owe much to a kind Providence for the means he has given for our comfort—we owe much to a merciful God for his recent deliverance from a foreign Enemy—an opportunity is now afforded to manifest our gratitude for his superintending care—let us endeavor to merit a continuation of it by contributing relief to the distresses of these our fellow men.

On the present occasion, the Committee would suggest to the Females in affluent circumstances, the essensial service they would render by furnishing any kind of old clothing to accommodate the poor women and helpless children, as there is a large portion of this class in extreme want—those whose husbands and fathers are engaged in their country's service, or have fallen in its defence.

Contributions in provisions, clothing or firewood, will be thankfully received by the Committee of Investagation and Distribution at their Warehouse, No. 18 Calvert-st. or in money by James Ellicott, Treasurer to the Committee.

Persons residing in the Country are earnestly solicited to contribute to this laudable purpose, and will please forward any of the foregoing articles to the said Warehouse

The Committee feel a confident hope in the well known humanity and liberal dispositions of their fellow citizens, and have therefore nominated the following persons to call on them for such relief as they may be disposed to give—to wit:

1st Ward—John March, Wm. Hays, Jessee Slingluff, Joseph Young.

2d Ward—Geo. Roberts, Nathan Tyson, Jacob Lindenberger, John M'Keen.

3d Ward—Peter Hoffman, Philip Littig, John Vance, Michael Jenkins.

4th Ward—Jacob Myers, Wm. Campbell, Christopher Raborg, jr. Abraham White, jr.

5th Ward—Wm. Warner, George Smith, James Hutton.

6th Ward—Robert Fisher, Wm. Stansbury, Walter Crook, David Brown.

7th Ward—William Hobart, Wm. Mancur, John Trimble, Robt. Steuart.

8th Ward—John Bealey, Richard Pitt.

Western Precincts—Jonas Clapham, Ebenezer Finley, Wm. Jones, Frederick Brendle.

Eastern Precincts—John M'Eldery, Geo. Milleman, Arthur Mitchell, James C. Dew.

—Who are requested to compleat the subscriptions without delay, and pay the money to the Treasurer aforesaid.

Signed on behalf by

JOSEPH TOWNSEND, Sec.

IMPORTANT!

FROM OUR CHARLESTON CORRESPONDENT—Dec. 9.

A letter from Amelia, dated December 2d, says—"A vessel from St. Bartholomews reports that the British Commandant at Martinique has refused to give up that island to the French force arrived there to take possession of it; alledging that he had received no orders from his government." —Patriot.

We have made it a point to inquire of an intelligent and correct gentleman who passed many weeks at Ghent previous to the 28th of Oct. and who had daily opportunities, and those of the best, to ascertain the public opinion at that place, what was the relative degree of estimation in which the American and British Ministers were held there He informs us that the marks of attention to the American Legation, by the public authorities, as well as individuals at Ghent, unequivocally manifested their high sense of the political skill and personal worth of the members composing the mission.

On the 27th of Oct. the anniversary of the Academy of Sciences and Fine Arts at Ghent, the American Ministers were unanimously elected members of the institution, and invited to partake in the exercises of the occasion—They accordingly attended. An Oration on the objects of the institution was delivered; and in the evening a sumptuous Banquet was served up to a numerous company. The British Commissioners were not present; nor do we know that they were invited—The first toast was, the Prince of Orange—Second, the Intendant of Ghent—Third, the Mayor; and the Fourth given by the Intendant was, "Our distinguished guests and fellow members, the American Ministers; may they succeed in making an honorable peace, to secure the liberty and independence of their country."*——The effect which this toast produced was like instantaneous thunder; and some minutes elapsed in tumultuous applause, before Mr. Adams had an opportunity to address the Company. On behalf of the Amecan Legation, he returned thanks for the very flattering manner in which they had been treated by the municipality of Ghent, and particularly for the unexpected and undeserved honor conferred on them by the Academy.—He then made some remarks on the importance and great usefulness of the Fine Arts, and concluded by giving as a toast,

"The Intendant of the City of Ghent."

Our informant adds, that the entertainment was attended, not only by the members of the Society of Fine Arts, but by all the principal officers of the city, and some distinguished strangers. It was a splendid, and to the Americans present, a most interesting and gratifying scene.

* On this toast being announced an elegant band of Music struck up the American air of "Hail Columbia," which was received by the company with enthusiastic applause.

A Boat with 5 hands left Elk River on Friday last for this place—When abreast of Still Pond discovered a brig and a schr. laying at anchor off that place. Four of the hands landed at Delph Creek and walked up to town. The people informed us the captain of a schr. belonging to Mr. Presbury, and a sloop* belonging to Mr. Thomas of Susquehanna were captured by the enemy and were in company with them.

*The Luke, Abrams, of this port.

Charleston, Dec. 7. Ar schr. Betsey, Cotton, Fagan, Elizabeth city, 12 days. Put into Cape Fear on Saturday last, and sailed again on Monday; spoke a top-sail schr. fr. Charleston, with cotton, going in—saw a large two top-sail schr soon after, standing for Wilmington, apparently a privateer, probably the Kemp. A brig went into Wilmington on Saturday.

SHORT CRUISE.

The ship mentioned being in the offing, proves to be the British ship Rosella, of 16 guns and 30 men, with a full cargo of Sugar and Coffee, a prize to the privateer schooner Kemp, capt. Almeida. The prize master being unacquainted with our bar, unfortunately stood so near in as to get ashore on Stone's breakers, and the ship bilged and will be lost, with, it is feared, the principal part of her cargo. When the pilots left her yesterday, the water was over the cabin floor. She struck on the breakers about 5 or 6 o'clock on Monday evening; the crew took to the boat at 8 o'clock, and were pulling about all night, near the bar.

Arrived, British brig Portsea, (John Stokes late master) from Havanna bound to Portsmouth, (Eng.) with a full cargo of Sugar and Coffee; captured, with 3 others, on the 2d inst. by the privateer Kemp. Capt. Stokes, and his lady who was a passenger, with the Steward of the brig, have been brought in on board her as prisoners. We understand the three other vessels taken were the ship Roselle, lost on our bar; the ship Princess, Capt. Dares, and the hermaphrodite brig S. B. Capt. Brun. They were under convoy of the Ister frigate, capt. Cramer, who was to accompany them fr. Havanna into the lat. 32. The Roselle was not so large a ship as first stated—she was only 264 tons, British measurement.

A British brig of war came along the coast from the southward yesterday afternoon, close into the bar, and fired upon the boats which were alongside the prize ship Roselle, endeavoring to save what they could from the wreck. Before the boats left the wreck her main deck was all under water. Little or nothing has been saved of the cargo; some of the sails and running rigging were brought off. About sun down the brig sent her boats on board the ship, and set fire to that part of her which remained above water.

Wonderful Curiosity.

To be seen at the Centre Market Space.

The public are again presented with an opportunity of beholding one of the most singular and extraordinary curious animals perhaps ever seen,

The Female Guanacos,

Faintly delineated by M. Buffon, but more minutely by Doctors Mitchell and Ackerly of New York, from occular observation of the present animal, whose extraordinary stature and peculiar form bespeak her to be the greatest and most satisfactory natural curiosity ever imported or exhibited in this country. To attempt a minute detail or description of this animal would prove fallacious, as there appears to be a similarity of every species of animal united in one, with many other peculiarities uncommon to all. The wonderful agility of this curious animal, whose speed is accurately estimated at the rate of 76 miles an hour—its innocent mode of defence when tormented—its stature—its downy coat or covering (which the ancient kings and queens of Persia prefer for their nuptial beds, from a belief that it excites amour and repose) but above all, its peculiar and very singular formation, impress the beholder with wonder and astonishment, and excites him to reflect on and admire the wonderful productions of the Divine Architect, in filling the universe with life in such a boundless variety of forms.

The admirers of natural curiosity are respectfully assured, that the GUANACOS is particularly worthy their attention.

 The Guanacos to remain at the above place for 3 days only—Admittance 25 Cents—Children half price—Families and parties by contract.

In Chancery, Dec. 15th, 1814.

Thomas Cromwell & William Winchester Ex'rs. of Thos. Cromwell, vs. John Nace.

The object of the bill filed in this case is to obtain an injunction to prevent Elias Glenn, Esq. Trustee for the sale of the real estate of Thomas Cromwell, deceased, from paying to the defendant, John Nace, a certain sum of money out of the proceeds of said sale, and also to obtain a decree for the payment of the complainant's claim.

The bill states that a certain Thomas Cromwell, late of the state of Pennsylvania, deceased, in his life time put and placed a negro boy as an apprentice until he was 21 years of age, to the defendant, to learn the Tanning business—That the defendant took the said negro boy into his possession in the life time of said Cromwell, and did commence teaching him in his trade of Tanning—That the said negro boy remained with the said defendant several years until he had acquired a considerable knowledge of the said trade, and was a good workman—That the said defendant, without the consent or knowledge of the said Cromwell, sold said negro for the sum of 450 dollars, and received the said sum of money—That the said defendant never did account to said Cromwell for the same, or return the said negro to the said Cromwell, or afford him any satisfaction therefor, and that said negro having gained the art and trade of Tanning, was worth the sum of money beforementioned That George Nace, the father of the defendant, by will did devise all his real estate to be sold by his Executors, and out of the sales there should be paid to the defendant, John Nace, the sum of £500.—That the real estate of the said George Nace has been sold by a decree of this court; and a certain Elias Glenn was appointed Trustee, who made sale of the same and made report thereof—That the complainants are Executors of the said Cromwell. The bill also states that the said defendant resides out of the state of Maryland.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once in each of three successive weeks in the American of Baltimore before the 15th day of January next give notice to the absent defendant of the substance and object of the bill, that he may be warned to appear in this court in person or by a solicitor before the 15th day of May next, to shew cause if any he has, why a decree should not pass as prayed.
