The speakers announced for the occasion are Major A. M. Hancock, Col. A. H. Chase and Dr. J. J. Weaver, Jr., the Republican candidate for State Senator. We have no doubt the meeting will be a rousing success, as great interest in the pending election is being evinced by the Republicans of that section of the county. The Democrats should be present also and hear a fair and candid presentation of the real issues of the campaign.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at Rev. Dr. Bates', Thursday, 30th inst., at 2 30 o'clock.

The funeral of the late John Stuller took place at Pleasant Valley on Saturday last and was largely attended. Mr. Stuller had been ill about ten weeks and had fallen away greatly, but was supposed, at the time of his death, to have weighed 275 to 300 pounds. The pallbearers at his funeral were: Messrs. David E. Myerly, Jacob Lawyer, John N. Ditch, Henry Helwig, D. D. Myers, Wm. H. T. Yingling, J. Michael Frock and Edward Geiman.

The beautiful play, "The Cricket on the Hearth," and the comedy, "A Box of Monkeys," enacted at Odd Fellows' Hall, New Windsor, on Tuesday night, by a company of ladies and gentlemen from this city, attracted a large attendance and were well received. Many residents of this city and vicinity have lost hogs by the prevailing epidemic, to which allusion has heretofore been made. Four fattening hogs and five pigs belonging to Mr. Joshua S. Zepp, near Spring Mills, have died of the disease. Messrs. Thos. Zepp, Wm Oursler, Emanuel Shaeffer, Joseph Groff, C. Herbert Fowler and Herman Dientz, of this city, have each lost one or more. It is said that twenty-seven have died out of the alms house pens, and Mr. L. P. Manning, near this city, has lost sixteen. Numbers of the animals are still sick.

Capt. O. H. P. Mathias, a former well known citizen of Westminster, and for a number of years an inspector of customs at Baltimore, was summarily removed, a week ago, on a day's notice, and, so far as he or the public knows, without other cause than to make place for a Democratic politician. Capt. Mathias has been regarded as a capable, efficient and faithful officer. He was appointed, we believe, by Collector Webster, was retained by Collectors Groome and Marine and was considered one of the best inspectors in the service. He has a record, also as a soldier, of which any man might be proud, having served with distinction as an officer of the Sixth Maryland Regiment.

The most remarkable cycling event among the wheelmen of the South was a century run, undertaken by over three hundred riders, from Baltimore, on Sunday last. Mishaps reduced the number, by the time the cavalcade started, to two hundred and ninety-nine, among whom were several ladies. The run was to Frederick and return. Two hundred and forty-six of the starters continued in the run to the finish and made the 100 miles, among them having been four or five of the ladies. Messrs. George M. Parke and John H. Cunningham, of the Cycling Ramblers of Westminster, were in the run and completed the century. A club prize, a fine American flag, was given to the Centaur Club of Baltimore, ninety-nine per cent. of its starters having been in to the finish. As Messrs. Parke and Cunningham were the only members of the Cycling Ramblers participating they really exceeded the Centaurs in per centage, but numbers were probably also taken into account.

The meeting of the Lowndes Republican Club of this city, at Odd Fellows Hall, on Monday evening, was another outpouring of the people. The hall was crowded. Several ladies were present. The speakers were: Dr. Clotworthy Birnie, Republican candidate for the House of Delegates; Arthur F. Smith, Esq., Republican candidate for State's Attorney; Ex-Mayor Jos. D. Brooks, and Congressman Wm. B. Baker, of Harford county. It was Dr. Birnie's first appearance before a political meeting in Westminster, and his audience was greatly pleased with his forcible and intelligent presentation of the issues of the campaign. Mr. Smith made some excellent points and an admirable speech. Mr. Brooks also enlisted the attention and received the applause of the audience by the straightforward and outspoken manner in which he discussed questions of great local interest. Mr. Baker was the last speaker and entertained the audience so well that they urged him to continue his remarks when they discovered signs that he was about to close. His speech wes extremely creditable and interesting, and his arguments clear and cogent. Among the many forcible thoughts presented by him was a suggstion that the public school teachers should not be made tax collectors, and he used it in a masterly manner as a plea for free school books. Altogether a better meeting does not often occur in this city.

Death of Thomas C. Thomson.

Mr. Thomas C. Thomson, a native of Taneytown, and a well known citizen of Takoma Park, near Washington, D. C., died very suddenly in Baltimore, last Sunday evening. Mr. Thomson, with his daughter, Miss Fannie L. Thomson, were visiting a friend of the former, Dr. C. W. Neff, 763 West Lafayette street, having gone over to Baltimore on the day previous. In the evening of Sunday father and daughter were taking a stroll on North Charles street, and as they were about to pass the drug store of Dr. Hall, corner of Charles and 31st streets, Mr. Thomson requested Miss Fannie to walk on slowly, saying he wished to get some medicine. He entered the drug store and said: "I have an attack of paralysis of the heart. Get me some medicine quickly." Before his request could be complied with he was seen to totter and would have fallen to the floor, but the druggist ran quickly to him and caught him in his arms. He expired immediately. His daughter was loitering in the vicinity and speedily learned the sad news. A physician was promptly summoned, and found that death was caused by disease of the heart. It is said that Mr. Thomson was aware that he might be taken away suddenly, and probably apprehended his extreme peril when he requested his daughter to walk on while he went into the drug store.

Mr. Thomson was a son of the late Judge John Thomson, of Taneytown, and a brother of Mr. William N. Thomson, of Baltimore. He was about fifty-two years old. His wife, who survives him, was a daughter of the late Alfred Troxell, one of the founders and the first president of the First National Bank of Westminster.

He leaves two daughters, one of whom is the wife of Mr. O. M. Bosbyshell, of Philadelphia, and the other is Miss Fannie, who is unmarried.

Mr. Thomson was, for eighteen years, connected with the well known business house of Messrs. Armstrong, Cator & Co., of Baltimore, and at the time of his death held the important station of agent for the house at Washington, D. C., and Richmond, Va. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and only recently became a ruling elder in the church at Takoma Park. He was a member of Eureka Council, Royal Arcanum. His remains were brought to this city on Monday evening, and interred in Westminster Cemetery on Tuesday afternoon, after funeral services at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. George W. Albaugh, his pastor, Rev. John Van Ness, officiating, assisted by Rev. Dr. Ward, Rev. Dr. Lewis, Rev. Joel Brown and Rev. A. D. Melvin. The active pallbearers were: Dr. Charles Billingslea, Messrs. Wm. L. W. Seabrook, George R. Gehr, Milton Schaeffer, George E. Sharrer and Jos. W. Smith; honorary, Messrs. J. H. Marston, Milton Stewart, S. D. Glines, Worthington Hogg, H. H. Bowman, R. Cator Walters, N. M. Harrison, all connected with the business of Messrs. Armstrong, Cator & Co. Flowers of rare beauty and in great profusion, wrought in appropriate designs, covered and surrounded the casket. Many relatives of the deceased and his family, from a distance, and prominent citizens attended the obsequies.

Shipley Items.

As announced in the county papers, Prof. G. W. Walker's choir was with us on the 19th inst. and we were treated to one of the finest singing and musical concerts of the season. Long before the hour for opening the exercises the house was comfortably filled. This was a new feature in our community and many stayed away, fearing that it would be a failure; but those present enjoyed themselves hugely. The best of order prevailed and after two full hours of enjoyment, they returned to their homes much elated. The concert netted us $9.25 to pay on our church organ, still leaving a balance of $5.75 yet due of the $55; but the committee has made a settlement in full.

The choir consisted of the leader, Prof. G. W. Walker, of Browningsville, Montgomery county; Prof. R. M. Browning, of Baltimore, tenor; Miss Stella Hood, Mt. Airy, soprano; Miss Ola Hood, Mt. Airy, alto; Miss Lulu Brandenburg, of Berret, organist, and Mr. W. A. Walker, of Ridgeville, cornetist.

The Shakers have made a great hit. Their Digestive Cordial is said to be the most successful remedy for stomach troubles ever introduced. It immediately relieves all pain and distress after eating, builds up the feeble system and makes the weak strong.

The fact is, foods, properly digested, are better than so-called tonics. The cordial not only contains food already digested, but is a digester of other foods. Food that is not digested does more harm than good. People who use the Cordial insure the digestion of what food they eat and in this way get the benefit of it and grow strong.

The little pamphlets which the Shakers have sent druggists for free distribution, contain much interesting information on the subject of dyspepsia.

LAXOL is not a mixture of drugs. It is nothing but Castor Oil made palatable.
