EVENING ILLUMINATION
OF
Peale's Museum and Gallery of the Fine Arts,
TUESDAYS & THURSDAYS.

In announcing to the public the commencement of the Evening Illuminations on the plan adopted in Philadelphia, the proprietor deems it proper to remark that in making no addition to the price of admission, notwithstanding the encreased expence, his remuneration must depend on the numbers whose leisure and curiosity may thus be gratified. The same moderate and stationary charge will prevent mistakes, and facilitate the arrangement of parties.
A Music Gallery having been constructed, where it is intended to place an Organ to be built for the purpose, the Proprietor in the meanwhile has procured, for the use of the Ladies and Gentlemen acquainted with Music, an excellent Six Octave Piano, made by Mr. Stewart of this city
Subscribers are requested to take notice, that the privileges of the annual tickets do not extend to the Evening Exhibitions.
The SKELETON of the MAMMOTH, discovered in the state of New York, in 1801, and exhibited in this city 11 years ago, forms an interesting part of the Museum—and besides the Birds, Beasts, Fishes, Snakes, Antiquities, Indian Dresses and War Instruments, Shells and Miscellaneous Curiosities, its principal peculiarity is the SALOON OF PAINTINGS.
Admittance to the whole 25 cents.

LAND FOR SALE.

By virtue of a decree of the honorable the Chancellor of Maryland, the subscriber will expose to public sale on FRIDAY, the 23d day of December next, on the premises,
Part of a Tract of Land,
Called Sarah's Allotment, late the property of Richard Marriott, deceased, containing 926¾ Acres, more or less.
This tract of land is situate near Gambril's Tavern, on the road leading from Annapolis to Baltimore. A large proportion of this tract is heavily timbered, and the soil well adapted to the cultivation of small grain. The improvements consist of a Dwelling House, and every necessary out-house. The subscriber deems it unnecessary to give a more particular description, presuming that persons inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the day of sale. Mr. George Watson who resides on the premises, will shew the same to any person inclined to purchase. Should any person be inclined to purchase previous to the day appointed for public sale, they can know the terms by applying to R. Welch, of Benj. who is duly authorised by me to contract and dispose of the same.
TERMS OF SALE.
The purchaser or purchasers to give bond to the subscriber, with approved security for the payment of the purchase money, with interest thereon, within twelve months from the day of sale, and on payment of the purchase money with interest, the subscriber is authorised to execute a deed of conveyance to the purchaser.
WM. H. MARRIOTT, Trustee.

50 DOLLARS REWARD

Ranaway on the 5th inst a negro man named TOBY SINGLETON; he is about 23 years old; 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high; stout made; rubs his thighs together as he walks, and generally smiles when spoken to—shews a fine sett of white teeth; he has two scars on the back part of his right hand, occasioned by cuts received when small. He had on when he left home a dark brown mixt coloured cloth round about jacket and trowsers; the jacket was lined through with coarse linen, the collar and facings of a grey mixture; coarse linen shirt, with white metal buttons on the collar and wristbands; old fur hat, and some other cloathes not recollected. I believe he is lurking about Baltimore, as he has a mother living on Market street extended, near Mr. Heath's Tanyard, known by the name of Suk Hagana. I will give 10 Dollars if taken within 10 miles of Baltimore, 20 Dollars if 20 miles, 30 Dollars if 30 miles, and if out of the state the above reward, with reasonable expenses if delivered to me.

Lands & Mills for Sale.

The subscribers offer for sale, the Mills known by the name of HOLLY MILLS, at about four miles from the city, with two pair of 7 feet Burrs, and the requisite machinery.—The mill Lot comprises 56 acres of fertile land, the greater part thereof well sett in clover—on it is a comfortable frame dwelling house, a barn and several other useful buildings
The Mills will be entitled to that part of the water of Gwyn's falls, which may not be passed down in the new race, cut through this tract—and which, it is believed, will be sufficient to keep it in full operation nine months in the year, the fall of water being upwards of 30 feet.
Also,
A TRACT OF WOODLAND, containing about 120 acres—three and a half miles from the city on the West side of Gwynn's Falls.
LIKEWISE
A Tract of WOODLAND, contaiding about 50 acres, three miles from town, adjoining the Lands of Thomas Wooden. It is bounded on one side by a Mill race, which will always render a fence unnecessary.
ALSO
The property occupied by the Linen Manufacturing company. Containing upward of forty acres of Land, a part thereof in Wood.—The improvements are a large three story stone Mill House, used as a Manufactory; a new Stone Grist Mill, with one pair 6 feet Burrs, and several Dwelling Houses, Stables, &c the Water Works will be supplied with the waste Water of Gwynn's falls, augmented by several small branches which fall into them below the principal Mill dam. This property is now under lease to the Linen Manufacturing Company, and will be sold subject to said lease.
In the neighborhood of the above mentioned lands five very extensive Mills are about to be erected, which will greatly enhance their value
One third of the purchase money being paid a liberal credit will be given for the ballance.
