SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1895.

Maryland's next Governor.

The Advocate is a bad prophet. When the blind lead the blind, both fall into the ditch.

What has become of that 300 majority in Carroll county, of which the Advocate was so well assured last week?

That poultry yard of the Advocate is in a dilapidated condition and the roosters have a severe attack of cholera.

There were more Hurst buttons than voters in this State and county on election day.

Lloyd Lowndes will make an ideal Governor. Maryland produces no better man than he.

Our friend, Mr. Jacob P. Hull, in the kindness of his soul, ought to send the Advocate a good supply of his incomparable chicken powder.

The lights went out at "Democrat" Headquarters in this city at midnight of Tuesday, and the defeated silently departed for Salt River.

The American, the Sun, the News and the World, of Baltimore, all deserve the lasting gratitude of the people for their gallant and unceasing fight against bossism.

The reported open and flagrant use of money in bribing and attempting to bribe voters, at the recent election in Carroll county, should receive the attention of the grand jury at the November term of court.

The mixed school racket didn't work in this county or anywhere else in the State. It was an an insult to the intelligence of the people and probably cost the Democrats more votes than it made them.

Carroll county Republicans need not be reminded that they have great reason to be proud of their successful representative on the State ticket. Mr. Clabaugh made a splendid campaign and won a glorious victory.

The supporters of the bosses would no doubt sell the paraphernalia heretofore used in the celebration of Democratic victories in this county, at a heavy discount. Apply to the Advocate for further particulars.

That great Baltimore parade, in which so many Carroll county Democrats whose fare was paid, participated, didn't help the cause much, but it did help to disburse some of the large campaign fund raised to carry the election for the bosses' ticket.

The Reform League of Baltimore proposes to keep up its good work by prosecuting all the rascals caught at fraudulent practices in connection with the late election. There are some John Y. McKanes in Maryland for whom the penitentiary yawns.

No doubt the Advocate will empty its vials of wrath upon the heads of those Democrats who aided, by their votes, in the defeat of bossism in this State. But it will be a waste of effort. "Thrice armed is he who hath his quarrel just," and the anti-boss Democrats have helped the people to gain a righteous victory.

The Advocate trotted out its pet bugaboo of negro domination and mixed schools in vain. It was warned by a prominent Democrat of this city, weeks ago, that the people could not be hoodwinked any longer by this stage spectre. Experience is better than anybody's advice, however, and now the Advocate is rich in that.

Ex-Gov. Wm. Pinkney Whyte has enjoyed many distinguished and well deserved honors at the hands of the Democratic party in Maryland, but the crowning glory of his old age is, that, rising above party prejudice, he lent his powerful aid to overthrow bossism. With him are hosts of others, whose names we cannot mention, who are worthy of all commendation for their noble stand against the Democratic ring.

While many a Democrat voted the Republican ticket on Tuesday, who will stand by his party, purified and redeemed from bossism, in the future, there are thousands who have severed their connection with it for "good and all," because they have come to realize that the policy of the Republican party is the best for the welfare and prosperity of the country. Maryland is henceforth debatable ground and may be in the Republican column again in 1896.

And Jacob went straight from the temple of justic, to the land of Carter the tailor, and there exhibited to the wondering people pictures of the children of the descendants of Shem and of Ham, in close proximity, as pupils at a public place of learning. And when the people asked: "What meaneth this, O, Jacob?" he replied: "Thus it will be in Maryland if you vote for Lowndes and those other dreadful Republicans, Clabaugh and Graham." But the people laughed him to scorn, and when the votes were counted those men and many others of the same persuasion were elected. And Jacob lifted us his voice and wept bitterly.

Something drapped—A. P. Gorman.

The Reform League of Baltimore, more, perhaps, than any other single agency, aided in the triumpth of the anti-boss legions in the recent battle, by their efforts to prevent frauds on the ballot. Taey frightened the leaders and their heelers by pictures of the penitentiary. While much fraud was committed, much more would have been, but for the efforts of this organization.

In the midst of the general rejoicing among the Republicans of Carroll county, over their glorious victory, there is a deep tone of regret that such men as Dr. J. J. Weaver, Jr., Wm. D. Slack, Arthur P. Smith, Israel C. Rinehart and Wm. Wallace Naill, failed to secure a majority of votes. Considering the means employed to defeat most of them, however, they have no cause to regard the result as a personal slight. They made an honorable canvass and could have won easily if they or their friends had resorted to the methods employed against them.

I am sick—Advocate's Rooster.

Indiana to Maryland.

An old Marylander, residing at La Grange, Ind., sends the following greeting to his native county and State:

"Maryland, My Maryland!
Redeemed and into line;
A Republican State, as sure as fate,
Oh, Maryland, Maryland, mine."

JOHN PAUL JONES.

Taking the Advocate's Photograph after the returns came in.

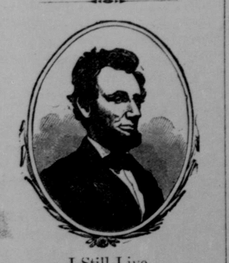

POKING FUN AT EACH OTHER.

A prominent Democrat of this city has addressed the following communication to Postmaster Boyle, anent the result of the recent election:

JOS. B. BOYLE.—DEAR SIR:—Allow me to present you with a Nerve Tonic. Since November 5th, I hear you have been suffering with a severe attack on your nerves. I send you a prescription called "Lowndes' Nerve Tonic." Directions: Four tablespoonsful of this tonic each day, one after each meal and one at night when going to bed. It will have the same effect as Cleveland's Salve had in 1884.

Respectfully yours,

Westminster, Md., Nov. 7th, 1895.

I Still Live.

Plurality for Lowndes, 19,874

IT WAS AN AVALANCHE.

Maryland Redeemed

FROM THE TYRANNY OF

Bosses and Bossism.

True Democrats Rejoice with the Republicans over the Victory.

It Means Honest Elections, Good Government, Reassessment of Property and Free School Books.

The "Mixed School" Slander Spurned by an Intelligent People.

Lloyd Lowndes will grace the Governor's Seat.

Harry M. Clabaugh, Carroll's Favorite Son, is in it too.

The Treasury will be guarded by Robert P. Graham.

Charley Gibson, Gorman's "Me Too," will be succeeded in the United State's Senate by a Republican.

The People Did It.

The House of Delegates Overwhelmingly Republican.

The Senate Close.

Hooper, Republican, elected Mayor of Baltimore.

A majority of the City Council Also Republican.

Carroll County did her Share of the Good Wook.

THE RESULT IN OTHER STATES.

Grand Republican Victories Everywhere.

Even Kentucky Joins the Column.

The Solid South is Shattered.

THE RESULT.

The election in Maryland on Tuesday was a magnificent victory of the Republicans and their Democratic allies in the State against bossism and fraudulent elections. The State has been redeemed from an intolerable tyranny, assured of such legislation as will purify the ballot and restore good government. We give, elsewhere, the official vote for all the candidates, in Carroll county, in full, and a table showing the reported votes for Governor, by which it appears that Lowndes beats Hurst upwards of 19,000 plurality. The vote for Messrs. Clabaugh and Graham is something less.

In the Senate the Democrats have a small majority, but the House of Delegates is overwhelmingly Republican, and the Republican majority on joint ballot will be nearly seventy, assuring the election of a Republican to the United States Senate as the successor of Mr. Gibson. Even Mr. Gorman's own county, Howard, was carried by the Republicans by a handsome majority. Baltimore City gave Mr. Lowndes nearly 12,000 plurality, and the counties voting for him are: Allegany, Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Calvert, Caroline, Carroll, Cecil, Charles, Dorchester, Frederick, Garrett, Harford, Howard, Kent, Prince George's, Somerset, St. Mary's, Talbot, and Washington. Mr. Hurst carried only Montgomery, Queen Anne's, Wicomico and Worcester. Several of the counties were close and were carried by the Democrats, in part, on the legislative and local tickets.

But Maryland was not alone in its endorsement of Republicanism. Virginia stands almost alone in the Democratic column, of the States in which elections were held on Tuesday, and even there decided Republican gains are reported.

Kentucky elects a Republican Governor, W. O. Bradley, by an estimated plurality of 15,000, and a Republican majority in the legislature, which will elect a successor to Senator Blackburn.

Other States going Republican, with estimated majorities are:

New York	67,000
New Jersey	27,000
Nebraska	10,000
Massachusetts	64,000
Pennsylvania	190,000
Ohio	95,000
Kansas	40,000
Utah	1,600

In Nebraska the Republican boss was defeated in the primaries and united with the Democrats to defeat his own party. But the people sat down hard upon him. It is a bad year for bosses.

We append lists of members of the Senate and House elected in Maryland, with other interesting data with relation to the election in Baltimore.

MARYLAND ELECTION.

The Legislature.

According to the face of the returns the democrats will have a majority of two in the Senate. Michael, democrat, is elected in Harford, and Finley, democrat, in Queen Anne's. Westcott, republican, in Kent, has a majority of only 3, which the official returns may reverse.

The Caroline delegation to the Legislature is democratic by a close vote.

The Senate.

The following Senators were elected Tuesday, though fuller returns may make some changes:

Anne Arundel—J. Wirt Randall, republican.

Baltimore City, First district—Gustavus A. Dobler, republican.

Three democrats.

Total—Republicans, 69; democrats, 22.

The Vote in Baltimore City.

The Republicans carried everything before them in Baltimore City on Tuesday except five candidates for the First Branch City Council and three members of the Second Branch.

The unofficial pluralities for the candidates on the general ticket were as follows:

Governor—Lloyd Lowndes, 12,439.

Attorney-General—Harry M. Clabaugh, 11,824.

Comptroller—Robert P. Graham, 10,196.

Mayor—Alcaeus Hooper, 8,378.

Sheriff Stephen R. Mason, 10,118.

State's Attorney—Henry Duffy, 10,066.

Clerk of the Supreme Court—Robert Ogle, 5,450.

Clerk of Circuit Court No. 2—Alfred J. Schultz, 5,773.

Judges of the Orphans' Court—Sylvester L. Stockbridge, Chas. F. Riehl and J. Henry Naas (average) 6,092.

First Branch.

The new First Branch City Council will be composed of the following members, 17 Republicans and 5 Democrats:

First Ward James S. Allison, R., 579 plurality.

Second Ward Conrad Dickhaut, D., 851 plurality.

Third Ward—Henry Steffens, R. 112 plurality.

Fourth Ward—Michael E. Brennan, D., 224 plurality.
