Mrs. Deborah Shipley, widow of the late Nathan Shipley, died at her home on Carroll street, this city, about 3 o'clock, yesterday morning, aged about 84 years. A new avenue was opened in this city, by the action of the Mayor and Common Council, on Monday evening last. It extends from Green street, at a point about 260 feet east of the railroad, to George street, and is 30 feet wide between Green street and the alley running parallel therewith, and 40 feet the remainder of its distance to George street. Most of the ground covered by it was donated by Mr. Edward Lynch, Rev. J. H. Cassidy giving a considerable strip, also, necessitating the removal of a stable. A small corner of the Manger property, was cut off at the rear. A plat of the avenue was filed and the Mayor and Council in accepting it gave it the name of Lynch avenue.

Mr. Christopher Gunther, near this city, made a narrow escape from death by a singular accident on Sunday last. He went into the stall of a horse in his stable, for some purpose, and became entangled in the rope of the halter by which the animal was tied and which, being very long, wrapped around his body. The horse then threw his weight backward drawing the rope so tight that severe injury was inflicted and death would have ensued if Mr. Gunther's son had not discovered his father's dangerous plight, and, getting a knife, cut the rope. Mr. Gunther has now well nigh recovered from the effect of the injury sustained.

Roeder discussed "Christian benevolence an expression of thankfulness to Christ." Great interest was manifested and maintained in the proceedings through the entire course of the convention.

When the night freight train from Baltimore reached this city, about midnight, Wednesday, the brakeman, Hugh O'Neal, was missing. He had been on duty a short time before and it was at once surmised by the conductor that he had met with an accident. The engine was run back to the coal chute, near which the body of the unfortunate man was found in a mutilated condition. It is supposed he fell between the cars and the wheels passed over him, cutting him in twain and breaking his arms. Justice Moore summoned a jury of inquest and a verdict of accidental death was rendered. No blame attached to the railroad company. O'Neal was about 30 years old and unmarried. He resided in Baltimore, whither his remains were taken for interment.

The grand jury for the November term of court completed its labors and was discharged on Wednesday, after having been in session nine days, the shortest period of any grand jury in the history of the court, ten days having been the shortest time previously consumed by any grand inquest. It was composed, generally, of some of the best citizens of the county, and deserves the commendation freely bestowed for its prompt and faithful attention to the business brought before it. Before separating, the members of the body surprised their foreman, Mr. Charles V. Wantz, by presenting him a handsome gold fountain pen. Mr. Harry H. Brough, of Uniontown, made a clever presentation speech to which a neat and appropriate response was made by Mr. Wantz.

Mrs. Catharine L. Gorsuch, wife of Mr. Nathan I. Gorsuch, of this city, died at her home on East Main street, at midnight of Thursday, 21st inst., after an illness of about six weeks, in the seventy-fourth year of her age. Mrs. Gorsuch was a native of Warfieldsburg, but resided most of her life in this city. She was a sister of the late E. F. Crout and the last of her father's children. She was a devout christian and an earnest and devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with which she was connected for fifty-five years. Her husband survives her, and she leaves one son, Mr. Charles C. Gorsuch, a leading business man of this city. Mrs. Colonel S. K. Herr is her step daughter. Funeral services will be held at Centenary M. E. Church, at 2 o'clock, Sunday afternoon.

Surprise Party.

A delightful surprise party was given at the residence of Mr. J. Clarence Tull, near Wesley Chapel, on Tuesday evening, in honor of his sister, Miss Sallie Tull, of Oak Hall, Virginia, who has been visiting in Carroll county the past six weeks. About 7 o'clock on the evening named her many friends and acquaintances began to assemble at a neighbor's house and all marched in a body to the home of Mr. Tull. Into the midst of the unsuspecting members of the entire family, the merry crowd began to pour, two by two, until standing room was at a premium. But soon the host and hostess were in harmony with the occasion and all were bidden a hearty welcome to their genial hospitality. Scarcely was the merry crowd under shelter when one of the party was on his feet and in a cosy little speech expressed their kindly feeling and friendship toward such a welcome visitor and bade her ever remember that though her face may be from our sight her memory will be cherished by all. Merry games were indulged in until a late hour, when all were invited to the parlor, where a table was laden with the choice fruits of the season. After all had done justice to the feast the games were again taken up until the wee small hours of the morning, when hand shaking was freely indulged in and good byes were given to our visitor, who departed for her home the following day. Among the many present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Clarence Tull and daughter, Myrtle; Miss Sallie Tull, of Oak Hall, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Spahr, Mr. and Mrs. Atlee W. Wampler, Mrs. Kate Wampler, Misses Ida Spahr, Minerva Davidson, Annie Newbelle, Elsie Newbelle, Katie Zepp, Birdie Martin, Nina Shaner, Ella Spahr, Virginia Elseroad, Nora Buchman, Lottie Buchman, Lydia Wampler, Mary Elseroad, Grace Abbott, Messrs. John Spahr, Lewis Zepp, Joel Davidson, Claude Allgire, Thomas Buchman, Samuel Fuhrman, Calvin Caltrider, Ross Buchman, Jacob Wisner, William Shaffer, Arthur Chew and Geo. Shaner.

Senator Bennett's Funeral.

The funeral of the late Senator Pinkney J. Bennett, of this county, took place Friday afternoon, 15th inst., from the Methodist Protestant Church of this city, and was largely attended. Preceding the public service, a brief service was held with the family of the deceased senator at the residence, by Rev Jesse Higgins, rector of Ascension Episcopal Church. The services at the church were conducted by Rev. Calvin S. Slagle, pastor of St Paul's Reformed Church, of this city, who also officiated at the grave, in Westminster Cemetery, where the remains were interred. Senator Bennett was a member of Sulphur Spring Lodge, I. O. O. F., of New Windsor, and the brethren, with many of the members of Salem Lodge, of this city, attended the funeral in a body, and performed the burial rites of the order at the grave.

Many persons were present at the cemetery who were unable to gain admission to the church, on account of its crowded condition. The outpouring of the people on the occasion was an eloqnent witness of the affection in which the deceased senator was held, all classes of citizens having been represented.

Many acts of benevolence to the poor and of quiet generosity on the part of Senater Bennett have come to light since his death, and many persons have learned for the first time of his benevolent character and unostentatious charities. Among his acts of public generosity was the building of St. James' Methodist Episcopal Church South, near his country home.

The active pall-bearers were: Messrs. William B. Thomas, George M. Parke, John H. Stem, Elias B. Arnold, Charles E. Goodwin, Charles V. Wantz, Hon. Frank T. Shaw, ex-Judge James A. C. Bond. The honorary pall-bearers were Dr. Geo. Brown, of New Windsor; Mr. David E. Stem, of Sams Creek; State Senator John Walter Smith, of Worcester county; ex-Senator Thomas G. Hayes, of Baltimore; ex-Congressman Milton G. Urner, of Frederick; Congressman William B. Baker, of Harford county; Dr. Somerset R. Waters, of Watersville; Judge Charles B. Roberts, Dr. J. W. Hering, Hon. William L. W. Seabrook, Messrs. Charles T. Reifsnider, A. H. Huber, E. O. Grimes, Wm. H. Vanderford, of this city. Among those from abroad who attended the funeral were ex-State Senator J. J. Lindsay, of Baltimore county; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Taylor, Mrs. Winterson, Miss Winterson, Mr. David Cowan, Mr. James F. Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Taylor, Miss Lizzie Sappington, Messrs. C. J. Hamilton, W. Hamilton, M. S. Brenan, of Baltimore; Miss Florence Risley, of Philadelphia. The tributes of flowers were profuse and very beautiful, surpassing anything of that character in the previous history of this city. Many persons visited the cemetery on Sunday to gaze upon the mound beneath which the mortal remains of the late senator repose and to view the beautiful flowers which were as fresh as if still drawing life from the plants from which they had been severed.

The Hogpen Question.

The Mayor and Common Council of Westminster have decided that hogpens need not be banished from the corporate limits. The subject received careful consideration by the Board and several meetings were held at which citizens appeared and presented their views for and against the proposition. On Monday evening a large delegation of those opposed to the prohibition attended at the council chamber and urged their objections to such action by the authorities. Strong pleas were presented in behalf of those who find the keeping of hogs of value to their families in supplying them with necessary food. The board was not unmindful of the opinion of the health officer and others, that hogpens have been detrimental to the health of citizens, but finally concluded, in view of the appeals made by its opponents—among whom were several of the most prominent citizens—not to adopt the extreme measure requested, but to substitute an ordinance requiring the utmost cleanliness of the pens to be maintained, and imposing drastic penalties for failure to observe this law, which was also made applicable to cellars, closets, and in fact any place where filth may be collected so as to create a nuisance. These penalties are: Fines of not less than $2.00, nor more than $5.00 for the first offence; not less than $5.00, nor more than $10.00, for the second offence; not less than $10.00, nor more than $20.00, for the third offence, and not less than $20.00, nor more than $40.00, for the fourth offence; default of payment of fine to be followed by imprisonment. No notice to abate a nuisance of the character referred to will be given by the corporate authorities, but upon the discovery of such a condition upon anybody's premises, proceedings will be at once instituted against such person, and, upon conviction, the penalty stated, of the proper degree, will be imposed. All citizens should take due notice of this ordinance and, if their premises are not in a cleanly condition, promptly remedy such defect, as the authorities have expressed a determination to require a rigid compliance with its provisions.

Wedding Bells.

MCDANIEL—SMITH.

On Thursday last, at noon, was celebrated the marriage of Mr. William Roberts McDaniel, and Miss Ada Smith. The wedding was of unusual interest, both on account of the wide circle of acquaintance possessed by the bride and groom, and of the latter's prominent position as Professor of Mathematics in Western Maryland College. The bride's father, the late John Smith of Wakefield, was for over twenty years president of the Board of Trustees of the College, and this, together with the facts before mentioned, made the affair seem peculiarly a college wedding.

The marriage took place at noon as stated, at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Joseph W. Smith. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, president of the college, and was elegant and impressive. The large parlor was beautifully decorated with ferns and palms, the library and dining room with roses and chrysanthemums. Only the families of the bride and groom, together with the ladies and gentlemen of the college faculty were present. Mr. William Marshall Black, of Virginia, assistant professor in the college, acted as best man and the bride was conducted to the altar, by her brother, Mr. J. W. Smith. Little Carrie and Sue Billingslea, nieces of the bride, were the flower-girls, and besides the ribbon each carried a beautiful bouquet of violets.

The bride was gowned in a handsome brown cloth dress, with hat to match. She carried a large bouquet of violets. An orchestra from Baltimore furnished the music, and was stationed in the wide hall. The service was performed with the ring, and was rendered, if possible, more beautiful and impressive by the whole bridal party kneeling and repeating in concert the Lord's Prayer. Immediately after the ceremony a delightful luncheon was served in the library and dining room, and the bride and groom after receiving congratulations left for the train.

The whole body of the college students was waiting at the depot, and nothing was heard but cheers for the couple, and nothing was seen but a hailstorm of rice until the 1.14 train bore away the happy pair. The wedding trip will be to Atlanta and the Cotton States' Exposition. Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel will return the day before Thanksgiving, and on New Year's day will occupy the house which the groom has lately erected on College Hill. We predict for them a most happy married life. Among those present were: Col. and Mrs. J. M. Lowe and master Clarence Lowe, Miss Alice McDaniel, St Michaels; Mr. Frank W. Hopper, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Emmons, Messrs. Frank and Fred Emmons, Miss Edith Emmons, Mr. Paul Smith, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Smith, Wakefield; Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Baile, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Getty, New Windsor; Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Fenby, Baltimore; Rev. Charles Smith and sister, Miss May Nicodemus, Wakefield; Mrs. Geo. Webb, Miss Sallie Wilmer, Mrs. C. R. Miller, Baltimore; Miss Lethe Lisle, Glen Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Jos. W. Smith, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Ward, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Billingslea, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. White, Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Bott, Rev. A. D. Melvin, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Starr, Mr. and Mrs. Philip C. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Grimes, Mr. Clarence Billingslea, Miss Belle Orndorff, Miss Kitty Noel, Miss Mary B. Shellman, Miss Nan. Gehr, Misses Miriam and Clara Lewis, Miss Maggie Huber, Prof. J. W. Reese, Miss Westlake, Miss Ferris, Prof. W. M. Black, Prof. A. S. Crockett, Miss Lewis, Miss Reese, Miss Gilbert, Prof. G. W. Ward, Miss Katie Smith, Prof. and Mrs. Simpson, Prof. and Mrs. Watts.

FLORY—MCKINNEY.

The large concourse of people gathered at Messiah Lutheran Church on Wednesday, November 20th, met to witness the marriage of Mr. George Flory, of Bridgewater, Va., to Miss Abbie McKinney, eldest daughter of Mr. R. C. McKinney, of this place. Long before the hour appointed for the ceremony the many friends and relatives of the young couple had filled the church to overflowing. The obliging organist, Miss Milly Bushey, rendered several musical selections before beginning the wedding march. As the familiar strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march sounded upon the ear, the bridal party entered, led by the ushers, Messrs. J. W. Wright, H. E. Gettier, J. C. McKinney and John S. Bushey, with Mr. B. S. Garber and Miss Minnie McKinney, sister of the bride, as attendants. The bride, leaning upon the arm of the groom, followed and all took their places beneath a floral arch. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Austin A. Kelley, of Gettysburg Theological Seminary, assisted by Rev. J. D. Thomas, of Springfield Presbyterian Church. After the impressive words were spoken which made the happy couple one, the bridal party returned to the residence of Mr. R. C. McKinney, where a reception was held. The bride wore a gown of cream-colored diagonal cheviot, trimmed in white satin and carried white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid was dressed in cream henrietta cloth, trimmed in chiffon, and carried La France roses. The groom looked his best in the conventional black. The church was beautifully decorated with festoons of evergreen. Immediately in front of the altar was a large arch, from which was suspended a circlet of waxen tapers embedded in evergreens. The chandelier was also decorated with evergreen amid which the waxen tapers shone brilliantly. Over the pulpit in a circle of evergreen were the letters "F—Mc.K.," the initials of the contracting parties, and on each side of the altar growing plants and chrysanthemums were arranged in graceful profusion. The effect of all was greatly heightened by the numerous waxen tapers interspersed among the evergreens. Mr. and Mrs. Flory were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents. They left on Thursday for Washington, Roanoke and other points south.

Meeting of the School Board.

The School Board met on Tuesday; all the members were present. Bills for repairs at various school-houses were passed and ordered paid. The teachers' reports for the Fall Term of school just ended were examined, and the pay roll made thereon, aggregating $13,400, was approved. The Board unanimously decided that a Teachers' Institute be held this winter, but deferred naming the dates until its next meeting. Adjourned to the first Monday in December.

Epworth League Rally.

A grand rally of the West Baltimore District Epworth League was in session, at New Windsor M. E. Church, Saturday and Sunday, 16th and 17th inst. The delegates from different chapters, about 50 in number, arrived on trains reaching New Windsor at 6 P. M., where they were met by a committee and escorted to the church, where all were assigned to their homes. At 8 o'clock a meeting was held, led by W. C. Ballard, president of West Baltimore District Epworth League, in which the different committees discussed their respective work, explaining the best way to conduct such committees. Responses were given by delegates from many chapters, which gave our chapter the privilege of profiting by others' experience. The meeting was held before a crowded house and was very interesting. Sunday, at 9.30 A. M., love feast was held, in which nearly all the members participated. At 10 o'clock an experience meeting was held which lasted until 11 when the convention sermon was preached by Rev. J. T. Ensor, former junior pastor of New Windsor circuit, but now filling same position on Patapsco circuit. The text was taken from Matt. 16: 24. "If any man will come after me let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me." Most likely the fact that a rally was in progress would have filled the house, but when the news was received that the popular young minister, who is one of its own natives and as President Ballard says, "seemed locked in the hearts of the people of New Windsor," was to preach, it appeared to increase the enthusiasm and a crowded house, every available place having been filled, greeted the young man when the hour for preaching arrived. The sermon was one suitable to the occasion and well received by the congregation. At 2 o'clock the Junior League held its session, led by Mrs. M. A. Rawlins, of Baltimore. The little Juniors, 41 in number, responded well to the different tasks imposed upon them and showed that the training of their superintendent, Mrs. J. T. Smelser, had not been in vain, but had built up a league within 4 months that is an honor to the church.

At 3 o'clock a platform meeting was held, in which president Ballard and Lawrence Carroll, of Baltimore, and Rev. Mr. Edwards, of Westminster, participated. The subject was "Reality of Religion." At 1 o'clock a song service was held, using the song book, "Heart Melodies." At 8 o'clock the evangelistic services commenced, led by President Ballard. Many persons were unable to gain entrance to the church, in consequence of which an overflow meeting was held in the Presbyterian Church, and led by Lawrence Carroll. The meetings were extremely interesting and resulted in the conversion of one young man. The delegates left Monday morning. The meeting throughout was a decided success and not only a credit to the church, of which Rev. T. J. Cross is pastor, but also to the citizens for the way in which the visitors were entertained.

A Pleasant Occasion.

The home of Mr. Frederick Walkling, of Woolery's district, was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Thursday evening. Mrs. Walkling's birthday occurred on Wednesday, but the event was not celebrated on that day, as the presence of the members of the sewing society of Grace Lutheran Church of this city was desired and the time was set for their convenience. The guests were welcomed and entertained with lavish hospitality. Elegant refreshments, in great abundance, were served. The evening was spent in social conversation, music and other diversions and a very pleasant time was experienced by all. Those present were: Mrs. S. A Republican Jollification.

The Republicans of New Windsor district celebrated the victory of the recent election by a torchlight procession in New Windsor, on Thursday night of last week. Enthusiastic delegates, headed by the Linwood and Sam's Creek Cornet Bands, paraded the town, and attracted large crowds from the community. There were about thirty mounted horsemen leading the van. No transparencies or other objectionable features to the opposite party were permitted. Dr. William H. Purnell, president of New Windsor College, had consented to deliver a speech from the steps of the Odd Fellows' Hall, but out of respect for the memory of our deceased Senator, Pinkney J. Bennett, the engagement was cancelled and public speaking omitted. The town was beautifully illuminated, and in this feature both Republicans and Democrats apparently vied with each other.

On last Saturday, while Mr. Jeremiah Overtholtzer was hauling lime on the farm of Mr. W. J. Roberts, near this place, and was crossing the bridge over the race, he had the misfortune to break it down and upset his load into the water. The accident was very disastrous to the fish as it killed them all for a distance of about three miles and five to eight bushels were secured as they floated down the stream. This was not nearly all that were killed. Some very fine ones were caught, but people were afraid to eat them and they were thrown away.

The fourth anniversary of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Lutheran Church was observed on last Sunday evening. Several speakers from abroad were present and delivered addresses, and the evening was very pleasantly spent.

The procession numbered about eight-hundred persons from different parts of the State. They began to arrive at an early hour, and at eight o'clock, sharp, the procession was formed and marched through the different streets, headed by the Littlestown Drum Corps. The Band at this place also rendered some choice music. The parade was a great success in every particular. The houses were handsomely illuminated with Japenese lanterns and every thing that could give light was put in use to add to its brilliancy. Messrs. Wm. Jesse Roberts and Franklin Bowersox were the chief marshals. After the parade was over speeches were made by Messrs. Harry M. Clabaugh and Jos. D. Brooks.

A grand progressive euchre party was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rinedollar, on last Tuesday evening. It is needless to say the surprise was complete. But soon all were enjoying themselves to the utmost and continued to do so until a late hour, when they took their departure, having expressed themselves as having spent a most enjoyable evening together. I find that many people are of the erroneous opinion that the office of STATE'S ATTORNEY will prevent me from attending to any other legal business than that pertaining to said office. I therefore adopt this method of informing my clients and friends that, EXCEPT IN CRIMINAL CASES, I am as free as an other attorney to attend to any legal business that may be entrusted to me.
