By order of County Central Committee,

DR. GEO. T. MOTTER, Chairman.

GEO. E. SHARRER, Secretary.

The Republicans want Thomas B. Reed and nobody else for Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Mayor Hooper, of Baltimore, is making a good beginning in the promised work of reform in the administration of the city government. He is lopping off useless offices, greatly to the advantage of the tax-payers.

Some leading Democratic journals are seriously pressing Mr. Cleveland for a fourth nomination and a third term of the Presidency. Whether this course is due to exalted admiration of the man or lack of material in the Democratic party, out of which to make Presidents, is a question, but in either case there is little probability that he will receive the nomination, and none whatever that he can be elected. The Democrats will not be "in it" in 1896, whether Mr. Cleveland or some other man shall be their leader.

It is currently rumored here that Governor Brown will issue his warrant to the sheriff of this county, in relation to the special election for senator to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Bennett, at such time as will cause the event to fall on the Saturday before Christmas. Prominent Democrats speak of the matter as definitely settled and name the date as the time when it will take place. In the absence of any contradiction of the rumor, it may be regarded as credible. Of course there can be nothing known with certainty until the warrant shall have been issued.

In the impending senatorial contest in this county it is generally understood that Dr. J. W. Hering, the well known cashier of the Union National Bank of Westminster, will be the Democratic standard bearer. Dr. Hering, it is well known, was exceedingly reluctant to permit the use of his name, and, it is said, would much prefer some other man; but his many close personal and political friends have been so urgent in their desire for his candidacy that he has felt constrained to yield to their wishes in the matter and will accept the nomination if tendered with unanimity.

There are some strong Republican counties in Kentucky. During the recent campaign, Mr. Bradley, the Republican candidate for Governor, offered a silken banner to the county giving the largest percentage of its total vote for the Republican ticket. The banner goes to Leslie county, which gave 90 per cent. of its total vote. Jackson county was a close second, with 89 per cent; Oatsley gave 87 per cent., and Whitley 81 per cent. Every one of them ought to have the finest silken banner that can be manufactured.

At the head of the editorial columns of the SENTINEL, to-day, will be found a call, issued by the Republican County Central Committee, for primaries and a county convention to nominate a candidate for State Senator to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Bennett. The committee was in session on Wednesday, and although most of its members had but a few hours notice, the meeting was well attended. The primaries will be held next Saturday, and the convention on the following Monday. The convention will be held at Odd Fellows' Hall, this city. The Democratic primaries and convention will be held on the same days.

The Woman's Relief Corps of the Department of Maryland, Grand Army of the Republic, unveiled a monument on Thursday in the National Cemetery, at Loudoun Park, Balto., to the unknown Union dead. The monument was unveiled with simple, yet impressive ceremonies, in the presence of the department officers, all the Grand Army posts of the city and a large number of other persons.

South Carolina's Constitution.

They've been making a new Constitution down in South Carolina, the institution object of which seems to be the primary ation of official power the perpetuation of the organization in the hands of State. The ring now controlling the under the present at of suffrage is limited tional new organic law, by an educational qualification of an extreme type. citizen, possessing the other requisites of an elector, can vote, unless he can read the Constitution and interpret some portion of it to the satisfaction of the judge or judges of election. Hence those officers are invested with power to disfranchise all citizens who may not be in sympathy with their political views. They are made absolute judges of the elector's accuracy of interpretation, and may accept the blundering opinion of a citizen who knows nothing about such matters, and reject the knowledge of the best informed lawyer in relation to it. Just now the wing of the Democratic party that is saturated with Populism, and scarcely recognized as Democratic at all, is in power in the State, and with this constitutional weapon at command has the Conservatives at its mercy. The power may not be exercised, and then again it may. At any rate the constitutional provision referred to is utterly at variance with Democratic or Republican government and sets up a despotism which, if allowed to stand, will make South Carolinians the helpless slaves of their election officers. It is not surprising, under the circumstances, that prominent conservatives contemplate a union with the Republican party against this electoral tyranny. Dr. Sampson Pope, the last conservative candidate for Governor, is said to have already taken that step. The union of Republicans and old line Democrats is an anomaly, but it may also be said to be a necessity of the situation.

Work for Congress.

The new Congress, which will commence its first session on Monday, will find a revision of the revenue laws, for the purpose of providing a sufficient income to meet the expenses of the government, an absolute necessity. It is said that President Cleveland, in his message, will recommend the continuance of the policy which has governed his official acts during his administration up to this time, and will allege that increasing prosperity and large imports, under normal conditions of business, will bring in a sufficient amount of revenue to satisfy the financial wants of the government.

Experience, thus far, is in opposition to that theory. The country is far from a condition of prosperity, and will be still farther away from it, if the volume of importations becomes great enough, with the notorious undervaluations prevailing, to bring into the treasury money enough to meet all demands upon the government.

The gold reserve is being diminished to a considerable extent and another loan may become necessary to replenish it, without the interposition of some remedial legislation.

The financial policy of Mr. Cleveland and the Democratic party has been a pronounced failure. Under it the national debt has increased to a large amount, while previous to its acceptance by the country, by the election of Mr. Cleveland in 1892, every year following the close of the war had witnessed the steady diminution of that financial burden.

But it has not only failed to provide revenue. It has broken down or seriously crippled numerous American industries and occasioned wide-spread distress among the people. The products of agriculture are abnormally low in price and the wages of labor have materially declined, because, under prevalent conditions, the supply of labor exceeds the demand, as do also the products of the farm.

These are the simple facts which confront the Congress as it enters upon its first session. They will be dealt with in an American spirit, by the Lower House, and failureto provide proper legislation can only be prevented by a hostile Senate or a presidential veto. Mr. Cleveland may take the responsibility of prolonging the undesirable condition of things now prevailing, but the consequences in that case will be all the worse for the Democratic party.

The work lies before Congress and will be faithfully performed. The consequences of its obstruction must be borne by the obstructionists.

A Strange Case.

Governor Brown, of Kentucky, granted a pardon, on Tuesday, under the following singular circumstances, as related by himself:

"Berry Stone," said the Governor, "came into my office and handed me a copy of a judgment of the Clark Circuit Court, from which it appeared that at the November term of court, in 1877, he was convicted of malicious cutting and by the verdict of the jury was adjudged to serve one year in the penitentiary. He said that during the entire eighteen years since his conviction he had continuously resided at home and no officer had ever proposed to take him into custody to be confined in the penitentiary. He said he was here to enter the penitentiary under said judgment if I said so, but presented a petition signed by many good citizens asking his pardon. I told him he could go back home a free man. I thereupon issued him a full pardon."

Mr. Stone returned to Winchester a free any happy man.

There are said to be 60,000 Turkish troops in Palestine recently called out, and as they are waving the green flag of Mohommedanism instead of the Sultan's banner, it is feared that they are agitating a religious war against Christians.

A number of soldiers who fought on both sides at the siege of Vicksburg met there Friday and formulated plans for the conversion of the battle-field into a military park. Lieut-Gen. Stephen D. Lee, of Mississippi, presided.

Griffin Johnson, a son of the distinguished rebel general, Albert Sidney Johnson, who was killed at the battle of Shiloh, lost his life by a fall from a horse, at Los Angeles, Cal., a few days ago.

Mr. A. H. Nichols, a farmer, living seven miles northwest of Lincoln, Neb., threw a heavy club at a horse Thursday. It struck his eight-year-old daughter. She died in half an hour.

The Mount Lebanon Shakers recently performed a great deed of charity, although it was not designed as a charity, being nothing more nor less than an advertising scheme. It however resulted in great good just the same. They gave away 1,000 bottles of their Digestive Cordial to those suffering from stomach derangements.

It was so effective in curing those who used the remedy that they were loud in their praises of it and in consequence a large demand for the cordial was at once created.

The druggists of this town have little books that tell all about it. Digestive Cordial creates an appetite, aids digestion and brings about a rapid increase in flesh and strength.

LAXOL is the name of a palatable Castor Oil. Just the thing for children.

THE COMPANION CALENDAR FOR 1896.

The Publishers of The Youth's Companion are sending to their subscribers free an art Calendar which will be highly appreciated. Four elegant water color paintings are reproduced in all the beauty of color and design of the originals, and of such size (7⅝x10 inches) that they may be framed with fine effect. The first two pictures offer a striking contrast,—a blustering March day in the sugar orchard, and a peaceful scene in midsummer. Then follows the noonday rest in the harvest-field, a charming bit of color with a foreground of goldenrod and brilliant autumn foliage. The winter walk to church over the snow covered fields is the last of the series. To all new subscribers to the paper who send their name and address and $1.75 at once, the Publishers offer to send free this handsome Calendar, lithographed in nine colors, the retail price of which is 50 cents. The Companion free every week to January 1, 1896, including the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's double numbers, and The Youth's Companion fifty-two weeks, a full year to January 1, 1897. Address, The Youth's Companion, 205 Columbus Avenue, Boston.

The Publishers take pleasure in announcing that "The Morning Herald" has recently been enlarged from four to eight pages, and that while the price remains at one cent per copy, or $3.00 per year to mail subscribers, each edition contains as much news and more general reading matter than is printed by the Baltimore two cent dailies.
