Health Much Better After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Detroit, Michigan.—"Your little book left at my door was my best doctor. I read it, then said to my husband, 'Please go and get me some Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I want to take it.' The first month I took three bottles of Vegetable Compound and one of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine, and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. If you only knew how much better I feel! Now when my friends say they are sick I tell them to take Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines. I give the little book and your medicines the best of thanks."—Mrs. HAMERINK, 3765 25th Street, Detroit, Michigan.

In newspapers and booklets we are constantly publishing letters from women, who explain how they were helped by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

These letters should guide you. If you are troubled with pains and nervousness, or any feminine disorder, bear in mind that the Vegetable Compound has helped other women and should help you For sale by druggists everywhere.

DEATH OF MRS. HENRY LAUER LEADS TO $20,000 SUIT.

Suit for $20,000 damages was filed against Miss Jeanette Rosner, of Sudbrook Park, at Towson, as an outgrowth of the death May 28 of Mrs. Henry Lauer.

The suit was filed by Mrs. Estelle C. Nichols, daughter and administratrix of Mrs. Lauer's estate. In the suit Mrs. Nichols charges that her mother was struck by an automobile operated by Miss Rosner the night of May 27.

Mrs. Lauer was found unconscious on Sudbrook avenue, near the railroad bridge in Sudbrook Park.

On the night of the death of Mrs. Lauer, Miss Rosner appeared at the Pikesville Police Station and said that on the previous night she had struck something near the spot where Mrs. Lauer was found, but could not tell what it was in the darkness.

A coroner's jury meeting in the Northeastern Police Station issued a verdict that Mrs. Lauer died "from causes unknown, probably from being struck by an automobile, the driver of whom is unknown to the jury."
