BILL'S IN TROUBLE.

From the Denver Post.

I've got a letter, parson, from my son away out West,
An' my ol' heart is heavy as an anvil in my breast,
To think the boy whose futur' I had once so proudly planned
Should wander from the path o' right an' come to sich an end!
I told him when he left us only three short years ago,
He'd find himself a-plowin' in a mighty crooked row—
He'd miss his father's counsels, an' his mother's prayers, too,
But he said the farm was hateful, an' he guessed he'd have to go.

I know thar's big temptation for a youngster in the West,
But I believed our Billy had the courage to resist,
An' when he left I warned him o' the ever-waitin' snares
That lie like hidden sarpents in life's pathway everywheres.
But Bill he promised faithful to be keerful, an' allowed
He'd build a reputation that 'd make us mighty proud,
But it seems as how my counsel sort o' faded from his mind,
An' now the boy's in trouble o' the very wustest kind!

His letters came so seldom that I somehow sort o' knowed
That Billy was a-trampin' on a mighty rocky road,
But never once imagined he would bow my head in shame,
An' in the dust 'd waller his ol' daddy's honored name.
He writes from out in Denver, an the story's mighty short!
I just can't tell his mother; it'll crush her poor ol' heart;
An so I reckoned, parson, you might break the news to her—
Bill's in the legislatur', but he doesn't say what fur.

In buying tin canned vegetables or fruits, those only should be selected that have a slight depression in the end of the can. This, by experts, is accepted as proof that the contents of the can are in a proper condition. If the end of the can is raised or bulged reject it, as that is a proof that the contents of the can were not heated sufficiently at the time of sealing, or that in the past or present they have fermented. If cans are ordered by the dozen, the member of the household who inspects the supplies should return all cans having such an appearance. Lead poisoning is not to be feared from good brands of tinned goods if the contents of the cans are emptied as soon as opened into earthenware or glass.

Never go to bed in any danger of being hungry. People are kept awake by hunger quite as much as by a bad conscience. Remembering that sleep is the essential force which starts the whole system, decline tea or coffee within the last six hours of going to bed. Avoid all mathematics or intricate study of any kind within the last six hours. This is the stuff dreams are made of, and hot heads, and the nuisance of waking hours. Keep your conscience clear. Remember that because the work of life is infinite you cannot do the whole of it in any limited period of time, and you can just as well leave off in one place as another.

The Chinese are said to be very skillful in telling the time of day by looking into a cat's eyes. When they want to know what o'clock it is, they will run to the nearest cat, open her eyes, and at once tell what time it is. This they do by observing the size of the apertureof of the pupil of the eye, which they have discovered is of varying size at different hours of the day, being affected by the position of the sun and the character of light, even when the day is cloudy.

Domestic fowls have two diseases of diphtheritic nature, according to a report of M. Gallez to the Belgian Academy of Medicine. One is a contagious catarrh, called also morve, or fowl glanders, which is very contagious and fatal to hens and may give diphtheria to human beings. The other, though called fowl diphtheria has nothing save the name in common with human diphtheria.

When a man is ashamed to look in a mirror it is a safe bet that his wife buys his neckties.

If you knew to-morrow would be your last day how would you spend this?

* * *

Whoever has a good temper will be sure to have many other good things.

It is not wise to aim at impossibilities, it is a waste of powder to fire at the man in the moon.

There is nothing so strong or safe in an emergency of life as the truth.

Wall Paper! Wall Paper!

I wish to call the attention of my friends and the public in general to the fact that I now am ready to show one of the ever exhibited in this county, bought direct from the factory, in full bundle lots, so you get it only from second hands, no two or three profits coming off it. Of course the consumer pays them all. Sam Jones says it takes a pointer pup nine days to get his eyes open. I have known some people to get their's open in fifteen minutes in a wall paper deal. They thought it was two pieces instead of one, and the border they did not understand, &c. That is always their plea. Remember I am the only paper hanger in the county that carries a stock and don't have the expense of running a store, therefore I have no opposition. If you think I can't save you money, come and see me and bring size of your room, or send size by mail and I will tell you what your job will cost, and send samples and convince you that Gladhill's is the place to save twenty-five cents on a dollar in wall paper.

Finest and Cheapest Lines of WALL PAPER
