IN CHARGE TO KNIGHTS, TYDINGS SAYS TOURNAMENTS REPRESENT CHIVALRY AND SPORTSMANSHIP

Two Things Needed In Present Stirring World Affairs—Owing To Its Commercial Supremacy U. S. Is In Position To Bring About Peace, He proclaims.

Congressman Millard E. Tydings delivered the charge to the knights at the tournament held by the Towson Lodge of Odd Fellows on the grounds of the High School. He said that tournaments in a sense represent chivalry and good sportsmanship, two things which he claimed were needed in the present stirring world affairs.

The United States, he said, on account of its commercial supremacy, is in a position to do much toward bringing about an era of peace. "I am not among those," said Mr. Tydings, "who, in a desire to promote peace, are willing to scrap our national army and navy. I believe that we should be prepared to defend ourselves against war as we should be prepared to defend ourselves against other diseases with which the human race is confronted."

He said that while human greed and human hate exist there would be war. However, the speaker asserted, much can be done in eradicating the war spirit, and in this work the American nation could on ccount of its powerful position be an important factor.

The honor of crowning the queen of love and beauty was won by Richard Streett, knight of "My Maryland," who gave it to Cleatis Heaps, knight of "St. Mry's," who crowned his wife, Mrs. Anna Heaps. Barnerd Gosnell, knight of "Little Bell," crowned Miss I. May Brightwell as first maid of honor. Wm. Isennock, knight of "Overlea," crowned Miss Myrtle Francies second maid of honor. R. D. Akehurst, knight of "Maplehurst," gave the honor of crowning the third maid of honor to Henry Richardson, Knight of "Norrisville," he crowning his wife, Mrs. Elsie Richardson.

The coronation address was delivered by E. E. Ridgely Simpson, Republican candidate for Congress.

The chief marshal was Paul A. Fleury. The judges were H. G. Gaither, Major R. C. Brady and G. L. Stryker.

The cash prizes were won in the order named: Patrick Brady, G. S. Hobbs, Joseph Brady, Henry Richardson, R. S. Blizzard, James W. Streett, Jr., Wm. Brady, Cleatis Heaps.

DR. EBERT COMES NEAR "GETTING IN DUTCH."

Dr. J. Wm. Ebert, of Towson, was almost arrested as an "auto jack" in Baltimore city one day this week.

It appears the Doctor jumped out of his Buick touring car to take his "old straw hat" into a cleaning establishment, and in his hurry jumped into what he thought was his car, and started off.

He had hardly driven a half block when a fellow ran up yelling "What you doing with that car," and immediately the Doctor realized he had confiscated someone else's vehicle.

After an exchange of cards and a hand-shake each got into their own machines and started on their way.

say that others can follow the example set, and become larger producers of products that are known to bring in a good part of the county's agricultural revenue.

Interest in the size of poultry production should go han din hand with interest in better methods of poultry production. In this respect, it is of noteworthy interest that throughout the length and breadth of Baltimore county farmers wives are keeping two or three hens to get one egg daily. If this can not be overcome, let us go on as we are going. If it can be overcome, and, if the farmer's wives can cut their flock to such dimensions that approximately every eating hen is a laying hen, then let us do the cutting and thereby rid the county of some few thousand hens that are now eating high priced chicken feed, laying mash, etc., without any excuse in dollars in cents for their existence.

Recent work in poultry culling has furnished adequate proof that it is not at all difficult to remove infallibly those hens that are non-producers and star boarders of the flock. The means of accomplishing this is simple in the extreme, and anyone can learn the essential details of poultry culling in fifteen minutes of work under the direction of some person who has done the culling. It is certainly to the advantage of those who have never culled their flocks to have these flocks culled or to learn themselves the art of removing boarder hens.

WATER BOY KILLED BY ELECTRIC WIRE.

Leroy Crum, 15, was killed when he touched a live wire near Pier 3, Wallace and Martin streets, Locust Point. He was employed by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad as water boy for a gang of trackmen.

Claude Rimbey, 48 East Randall street, working near by, saw the boy, who lived at Woodstock, suspended by his hands from a wire about 15 feet from the ground.

He called to George W. Harrison, foreman of the gang, who knocked the boy to the ground with a board. Harrison said he was about to pull the boy down with his hands when warning cries from Rimbey deterred vs.

HAGEL A. BODDICE, Plaintiff
HERBERT E. BODDICE, Defendant.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY, IN EQUITY.

The object and substance of this suit is to obtain a divorce "A vinculo Matrimonii" for the Plaintiff, Hazel A. Boddice, from the Defendant, Herbert E. Boddice, and to secure for said Plaintiff the custody and control of her infant daughter, Alberta D. Boddice.

The bill states that the parties were married in the City of Cumberland, State of Maryland, by a Minister of the Gospel on or about the 11th day of March, 1916, and that they resided together as man and wife subsequent to their marriage in the town of Monesson, in the State of Pennsylvania, until about or during the month of February, 1920.

That the plaintiff is a resident of Dundalk, Baltimore County, Maryland, and has resided in the State of Maryland for more than two years preceding the filing of her Bill of Complaint, but that the defendant resides in the town of Monesson, State of Pennsylvania.

That there is one living child as a result of said marriage named Alberta D. Boddice, and who was born on the 17th day of April, 1917.

That although the conduct of the plaintiff has always been kind, chaste, affectionate and above reproach the said defendant has never during the course of their married life maintained and supported the plaintiff or her infant daughter, but on the contrary, it has always been necessary for the plaintiff to depend upon her parents for practically the entire support of herself, infant daughter and her husband, the said defendant.

The bill further states that since the marriage aforesaid the said defendant, Herbert E. Boddice, has committed various acts of adultery with numerous women whose names are at this time unknown to the plaintiff, and that about or during the month of February, 1920, the plaintiff discovered that the defendant had contracted a loathsome disease which rendered it obnoxious and impossible for her to live with him longer; and the plaintiff further states in her bill of complaint that she has not in any manner condoned the said adulteries of the said defendant since her discovery of them.

IT IS THREUPON this 15th day of August, 1924, by the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, in Equity, Ordered, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Baltimore County, once a week for four successive weeks before the 15th day of September, 1924, give notice to the absent defendant, Herbert E. Boddice, of the object and substance of the plaintiff's bill of complaint, warning him to be and appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor,

On or before the 1st day of October, 1924;

to show cause, if any he may have, why a Decree ought not be passed as prayed.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for a divorce a vinculo matrimonii by the plaintifl from the defendant.
