WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1897.

The charge recently made, that Governor Lowndes is pardoning more prisoners than any other governor, is not warranted by the facts. Excluding those that Governor Lowndes was compelled to pardon to diminish the over-crowded numbers at the House of Correction, he has, pro rata for the time he has been in office, pardoned fewer persons than his immediate predecessor.

Governor Bushnell, of Ohio, has formally announced his intention to appoint Hon. Marcus A. Hanna to succeed Hon. John Sherman in the United States Senate. Mr. Sherman will resign March 4th, to become Secretary of State in the Cabinet of President McKinley. The appointment of Mr. Hanna is eminently a satisfactory one to the Republicans of this country generally and it is said was earnestly desired by a very large majority of the Republicans of Ohio. Mr. Hanna has abundantly demonstrated his capacity to fittingly represent his great State in the Upper House of the National Legislature, and may be counted upon to render valuable service to the country as a legislator. He may not have the gift of oratory and will not consume much time in speech making, but he will act wisely and well and speak plainly and to the point when the occasion arises.

There is no very pronounced disposition on the part of the regular Democrats of this State to throw their great leader, Senator Gorman, overboard, for the sake of placating his enemies and unifying the party. It is declared, also, in some quarters, that the senior Maryland Senator is unwilling to be relegated to the rear in the summary fashion demanded by his foes of the Democratic household, and that he will be very much in evidence as a candidate to succeed himself in the United States Senate. If these things be true and the regulars stand by him, it is pretty safe to conclude that after March 4th, 1899, two Republicans will represent Maryland in the United States Senate. The feeling of hostility on the part of many of the best men in the Democratic party, toward Mr. Gorman, was sufficiently pronounced in 1895 to cause a remarkable Republican triumph, and since that date he has added a still greater cause of reprobation to his previous history, by becoming an advocate of free silver coinage. This alone would be sufficient to assure the defeat of his party under his leadership. Added to the other causes which have made so many Democrats his implacable foes, not the ghost of a chance remains for Democratic success under his leadership.

OUR MERCHANT MARINE.

A plank was inserted in the Republican platform by the St. Louis convention, last year, favoring the restoration of the policy of "discriminating duties for the upbuilding of our merchant marine and the protection of our shipping in the foreign carrying trade, so that American ships—the product of American labor, employed in American shipyards, sailing under the Stars and Stripes, and manned, officered and owned by Americans—may regain the carrying of our foreign commerce." The subject of restoring the former prestige of the American merchant marine has received the attention of American statesmen for years, but little that is practical has been accomplished, and this great industry still languishes, with an apparently almost hopeless future. The primary cause of its decline was, of course, the danger it encountered from Confederate cruisers during the War of the Rebellion, but if that had been the sole cause the revival of the industry would have followed the removal of that cause. As that result did not ensue it is very evident that other influences have been at work to prevent this important and most desirable consummation. Chiefest of these is, undoubtedly, the better wages paid American labor, whether on land or on sea, than are enjoyed by the toilers of other nations. American ships cannot pay American wages and compete, successfully, in the carrying trade, with the shipping of any foreign country.

How, then, is it possible to restore this vast trade to the channel in which it once ran? The St. Louis convention says by discriminating duties; by protection. And this is the Republican policy. Some time ago Senator Elkins, of West Virginia, presented it in practical shape by offering in the United States Senate a bill which proposes that goods brought to this country in foreign bottoms shall pay 10 per cent. greater duties than if carried in American ships. This proposition is in harmony with the principle adopted by the St. Louis convention, and is sound Republican doctrine. The rate suggested may not meet the approval of all who favor the principle. Some may regard it as less than sufficient to accomplish the end designed, while others may consider it excessive. Mr. Elkins probably considered the question carefully before deciding upon the rate, which, while it appears moderate, would undoubtedly afford such protection as to greatly stimulate the business of American shipping. It ought to be considered sufficiently conservative to be acceptable to every American who believes in the principle of protection, however moderate his views on the subject may be. At the same time, it is great enough to furnish a fair basis for testing the effect of discriminating duties and of opening the way to further legislation, if necessary, in that direction. Free trade England protects her shipping by direct subsidies. Let us see if discriminating duties will not be as effective as that method. It will be only going back to first principles, the same proposition having been legalized, to the great advantage of the American merchant marine, in the early history of the government.

Ex-President Harrison is the father of a brand-new eight-pound baby daughter.

The Cretan question seems to be very much muddled. The Powers, after a brief bombardment of the camp of the Cretan insurgents at Canea, ordered King George of Greece to cease his warlike operations in behalf of the Christians of the island against the Turks. But the plucky monarch disregards all warnings and is still endeavoring to annex Crete to his own dominions. Evidently he will not be permitted to consummate that action, but it is also certain that Turkish rule in the island is ended. Just how the matter will be arranged it is difficult even to surmise, but the masses of the people of Europe are becoming very much exasperated with their governments for protecting the Cretan Turks after having permitted the atrocities perpetrated upon Armenian Christians during the last two years.

Rumors have been rife during the past week concerning an alleged disagreement between Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, special consul at Havana, Cuba, and Secretary Olney in relation to the course of the present administration concerning the Cuban question. It was announced that Gen. Lee had resigned in disgust, but this report was promptly denied. Enough has become public to make it certain, however, that Gen. Lee is not in thorough accord with the State Department in its treatment of questions growing out of the arrest and imprisonment of American citizens by the Spanish authorities in Cuba. Dr. Ruiz, a naturalized American, either committed suicide, or was murdered in prison, strong ground being given to suspect the latter assumption. The case has excited much comment, and, in connection with the Sanguilly case, has caused bitter controversy in Congress. The administration has been bitterly assailed by some of the most prominent Democrats in the Senate and House, as well as by Republicans, because of apparent lack of stamina and decision in dealing with these questions.

THE ELECTION OF 1897.

The election in Maryland, November 2nd, 1897, will be for the following officers:

Comptroller of the Treasury, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, Members of the House of Delegates, Fourteen Senators, nine Judges, Clerks of three courts in Baltimore city, Clerks of Circuit Courts in seventeen counties, one Register of Wills in Baltimore city, Registers of Wills in fifteen counties, Sheriffs in Baltimore city and all the counties, Surveyors in Baltimore city and all the counties, one or more of the County Commissioners in each county.

The Judges to be elected for fifteen years include one chief and two associate judges in the second circuit, one associate and one additional judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore city, one associate judge in the fifth, one in the sixth and two in the seventh circuits.

The clerks of the courts to be elected for six years are as follows: Court of Appeals, (whole state), Baltimore City Circuit, Criminal and Common Pleas.

Counties—Allegany, Baltimore, Calvert, Caroline, Carroll, Cecil, Charles, Dorchester, Frederick, Harford, Kent, Prince George's, Montgomery, St. Mary's, Talbot, Washington and Wicomico.

The Registers of Wills to be elected for six years are as follows: Baltimore city, Calvert county, Caroline, Carroll, Cecil, Charles, Dorchester, Frederick, Kent, Montgomery, Somerset, St. Mary's, Talbot, Washington, Wicomico, Worcester.

In Carroll county a County Treasurer to serve for two years is to be elected.

The Legislature elected in 1897 will elect one United States Senator, 6 years; one Police Commissioner, 6 years; one Treasurer of State, 2 years.

In Baltimore City the Mayor and members of both branches of the City Council will be elected.

At this election a civil service amendment to the Constitution of Maryland will be submitted to the vote of the people. The amend ment requires that all civil service ap pointments of the state, of municipalities and of counties, except those subject to confirmation by the Senate, shall be made as far as practicable, by competitive examination.

The board of control and review of Frederick county has completed the work of tabulating the returns of reassessment. The total assessment of real estate and personal property is shown to be $20,228,547, the exemptions aggregating $202,737. The figures given will be subject to a number of changes, as in some of the districts the assessors made no returns of bonds. Mortgages are also to be included, besides abatements and additions, and the report of the State Tax Commissioner, fixing the tax on bank stock and corporations, it is believed this will bring the basis up to about $23,000,000. The new assessment on real estate aggregates $16,158,385, and on personal property $3,504,366, while bonds aggregate $565,796. The old assessment on real estate was $19,085,025, and on personal property $4,349,967. To the latter, $1,225,764 was added by the amount returned by the State Tax Commissioner, together with the bonds. This made the total old assessment for real and personal property $24,666,756 for county purposes, and $23,453,842 for state purposes.

An agreement has been made between the Western Maryland Railroad Company and the Reading Railroad Company by which an important change has taken place in the operation of the Baltimore and Cumberland Valley Railroad, a branch of the Western Maryland, running from Edgemont, Md., to Shippensburg, Pa. By a trackage arrangement passenger trains of the Reading Company will be run from Harrisburg to Chambersburg, instead of stopping at Shippensburg, as heretofore, and the passenger trains of the Western Md. Co. will have their terminus at Chambersburg, instead of Shippensburg, as before. Three trains will be run each way over each road, and first-class connection arrangements have been made. The distance between Chambersburg and Shippensburg by this route is about eleven miles. It is understood that the agreement is based upon a division of the earnings between the two points. No change has been made in the handling of freight, and the Western Maryland will continue delivering freight to the Reading at Shippensburg, as before, and vice versa.

The coming inauguration ceremonies will be on a very grand scale, probably exceeding anything hitherto seen in Washington.

At the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic of Maryland, held at Hagerstown last week, the following were elected officers for the ensuing year: G. W. Johnson, Baltimore, commander; D. L. Stanton, Baltimore, senior vice commander; C. C. Watts, Hagerstown, junior vice commander; Dr. J. W. C. Cutty, Baltimore, surgeon; Rev. J. L. Grimm, Baltimore, chaplain; C. J. Knoor, J. Wright, V. Dorkins, G. E. Greenwald, Baltimore; H. H. White, Cumberland, council of administration; J. E. Hough, Baltimore, delegate at large to national encampment; J. D. Taylor, Baltimore, alternate; J. H. Mandaull, Hagerstown; A. G. Cadwalader, R. L. W. Simmons, Baltimore, delegates; G. T. Leach, Baltimore; J. S. Baer, Westminster, and H. Wicks, Gaithersburg, alternates. The encampment adjourned to meet in Baltimore, in 1898.

It is reported that a telephone line is to be built from Hanover to Gettysburg, Pa., to connect with the Adams county system at the latter place. A toll of ten cents will be charged between Hanover and Gettysburg and of 15 cents between York and Getty-burg. Is there anything to prevent a similar connection between the Adams county and Carroll county systems? Could it not be effected at Littlestown without involving the expense of building a line all the way through? The communications passing between the two counties might not be very numerous, but the expense of maintaining the connection would be trifling.

According to the Hagerstown Mail there is no doubt that ground has been purchased at Hagerstown upon which shops for the Western Maryland Railroad are to be erected, and it is asserted, in many quarters, with apparent knowledge, that the Union Bridge shops are to be removed to that place. On the other hand it is alleged that the only condition upon which such a removal can be made is their transfer to Baltimore, that condition having been made upon the last endorsement of the company's bonds by the city. The outcome of the matter can hardly yet be considered as certain and definite.

Rev. J. T. Leftwich, D. D., for many years pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Baltimore, died at the home of his son, Mr. T. J. Leftwich, Atlanta, Ga., on Thursday, aged about sixty-one years. Dr. Leftwich was a profound theologian and an eloquent and powerful preacher of the Gospel His health failed about ten years ago, and he was compelled to retire from the active work of the ministry, to the great regret of his people and others who regarded him as one of the ablest and most efficient ministers in the State.

On last Sunday night the safe in Messrs. Geo. W. Miller & Son's store and warehouse at Loy's was broken into by burglars and between fifty and sixty dollars secured, forty-some dollars in cash and eleven dollars' worth of postage stamps. The thieves seem to be raiding the W. M. R. R., as they have tapped Walbrook, Mt. Hope and one or two other places during the past several weeks.

Great floods were caused in the Potomac and other large rivers by the heavy rains and melting snow during the early part of this week. Much damage was done. The B. & O. R. R. suffered severely and the movement of trains was suspended for a day or two. In this county, while the rain was heavy, the streams were not swollen inordinately, the water generally penetrating the earth.

The next fair of the Frederick County Agricultural Society will be held October 18, 19, 20 and 21. By arrangement with the Washington County Agricultural Society, the Hagerstown Fair people have the first choice of dates this year, and have selected October 11, 12, 13 and 14.

The members of Washington Camp No. 20, P. O. S. of A., of this place, assembled at Harmony Grove Church, on Sunday last, and listened very attentively to a sermon preached to them by Rev. Mr. Hill, of Deer Park Circuit, which he had especially prepared for the occasion. The meeting was designed as the celebration or memorial of the birth of Geo. Washington. Rev. Hill selected his text from the book of Joel, 3rd chapter and 13th verse: "Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Come, get you down, for the press is full, the fats overflow." The text in itself is almost a sermon, but the minister handled it in a masterly manner and dwelt chiefly along the line of patrotism, calling to mind the great difficulties our forefathers encountered in the struggle for American Independence and liberty.

It has adopted several new, interesting and important features, two of which are: "The Survey of the World," which gives in a concise form all of the important events that have happened in the world during the week, and "Work Indoors and Out," which tells men, women, boys and girls how to earn money in a variety of ways. Medford has waked up, wide awake! Only a short while back the night freight got off the track out here and knocked Medford off its foundation. Well, for the moment we thought one of those cy—— I mean gentle breezes, from N. Dakota, had strayed in here after some of our friends who had been out there, and between whom a very strong attachment had sprung up. When we had learned the real gravity of the situation we were not nearly so wide awake as we are now. We don't feel as if we can ever sleep real good again. We will tell you all about it next week, but then some of you know it already. In fact, you were the cause of this —insomnia I think they call it.

AN OPEN LETTER.

WESTMINSTER, April 10, 1890.

Mr. Jos. R. Boyle:

Dear Sir:—For many years I have suffered intensely, on taking cold, from a very troublesome cough, for which I have used a number of various remedies, and obtained but temporary relief. During the past Spring I was again troubled with the same cough, and through a friend was induced to try your Pectoral Syrup, which not only gave almost instant relief, but a permanent cure. It gives me great pleasure to say that I believe it to be the best remedy I ever used for the purpose for which it is recommended. Hoping that any person afflicted as I was may be fortunate enough to give it a trial, I am,

Truly yours,
EDWARD LYNCH.
