CHILDREN CRY FOR IT.—But only because they're mighty uncomfortable in this hanging position. The kiddies don't seem to like it a bit. However, their maters thought it a good way of giving the children a thorough drying out. This new wet wash scheme of enterprising mothers caused a near riot, when folks came from near and far to witness the unique situation.

International

A LONG HORN FOR A LONG DISTANCE.—Swiss Alpine horns used by the guide corps in Rainier National Park for signaling climbers at high points. Blasts from this horn can plainly be heard for a distance of five miles. Mount Rainier, 14,408 feet, is seen in the background.

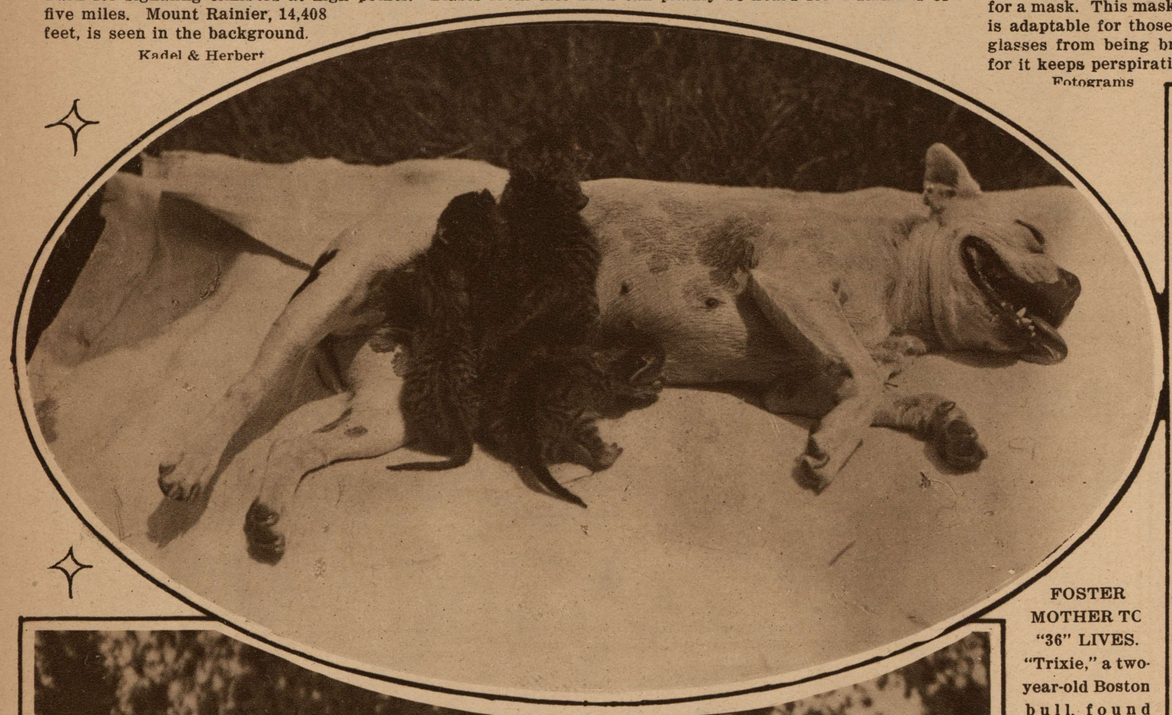
Kadel & Herbert

The rough game of tennis now calls for a mask. This mask is adaptable for those who wear glasses while playing, preventing the glasses from being broken and the forehead band is a great comfort, for it keeps perspiration from flowing into the eyes.

Fotograms

WILL SHE BE THE FIRST WOMAN GOVERNOR? — Mrs. Miriam Ferguson, wife of the former Governor of Texas, who has been nominated on the Democratic ticket by a vote of over 80,000 over her opponent. "Ma" Ferguson plans, if elected, to "clean house" in a political way, which, no doubt, she can do, as photo shows her quite handy with the broom.

International



FOSTER MOTHER TO "36" LIVES. "Trixie," a two-year-old Boston bull, found these four tiny kittens and decided to mother them. Will the feeling be mutual in later years?

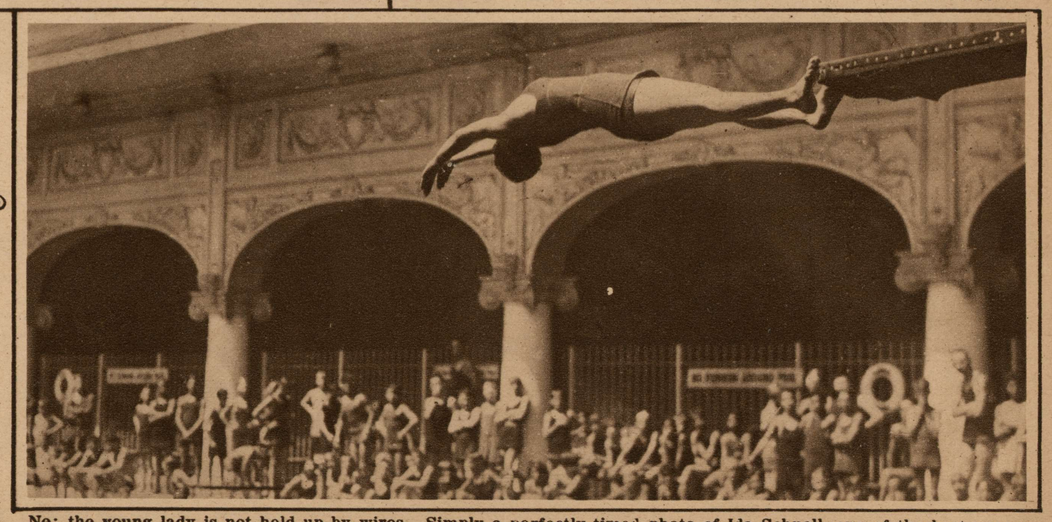
International

THE VERY REV. MICHAEL J. RIPPLE, O. P. P. G.—National Director of the Holy Name Society, who is planning to have 200,000 of the 1,500,000 Holy Name men in this country take part in a national rally in Washington Sunday, September 21, to be held in commemoration of the 650th anniversary of the founding of that organization by Pope Gregory X.

© Anne Donahue

ALL UP IN THE AIR AT THE SAME TIME.—These "flying nymphs" are members of the Kosloff Imperial Russian Ballet, rehearsing for the coming season at Los Angeles, Cal.

Kadel & Herbert



No; the young lady is not held up by wires. Simply a perfectly timed photo of Ida Schnell, one of the best women fancy diving champions of Luna Park, Coney Island.

International

© Maryland State Archives mdsa_sc3410_1_81-0193.jpg