The Fathers of the Order of the Holy Cross, this city, have been invited to take charge of the work of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, on High street, Baltimore, which is without a rector. The latter, it is supposed, will devote his entire time to the work, while Father Sargent and his assistant of the order will divide their time between St. Andrew's and the Mother House in this city.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that United States Senator Geo. L. Wellington, whose eloquent voice has been heard on more than one occasion on the hustings in this city, will appear before a Westminster audience on April 6th, in a very different character. He will lecture at Grace Lutheran Church, for the benefit of the Sunday School library, and the subject will be, "Luther." A gentleman thoroughly capable of estimating the merits of such productions, and who has heard the lecture, pronounces it exceedingly able and interesting in substance and most attractive in the manner of its delivery. There can scarcely be a doubt that Senator Wellington will have a large audience.

The "Cineograph" exhibited Thursday night at Odd Fellows' Hall, to a large and appreciative audience. This exhibition is truly the marvel of the age, showing, as it does, pictures taken from real life faithfully depicting every motion made by the subject. The picture of the "Start for the Fire" is alone worth the price of admission. It shows the entire fire department of Newark, N. J., answering an alarm, and is wonderfully realistic and lifelike. Upon the earnest solicitation of many of our citizens the gentlemen have decided to exhibit again Friday night, 19th inst., when a picture of the Royal Blue Express, running at 65 miles an hour, will be shown. Exhibition starts promptly at 8.15.

A very pleasant incident occurred during the regular monthly meeting of Burns Post No. 13, G. A. R., at Odd Fellows' Hall, this city, last Saturday afternoon, in which Commander James S. Baer and his comrade, Mr. Charles P. Baile, were the central figures. At a proper point in the proceedings Mr. Baile addressed Capt. Baer in a manner which at once arrested his attention and aroused his curiosity as to what was to follow. He was not left long in ignorance, as his comrade quickly made known his desire that the commander of the post should accept at his hands a grand army badge of which he, Mr. Baile, was the maker. The badge is complete in every particular and is quite a handsome piece of workmanship. Its chief attraction, however, lies in its large dimensions, which are 20x11 inches. Commander Baer, who is serving his fourth term in the office, responded in fitting terms to the kind and generous words of Mr. Baile and accepted the gift as a valuable memento. Every member of the post was pleased and gratified by the unexpected incident.

Mrs. William N. Gettier gave a carpet rag party to a company of friends, at her home on North Main street, on Thursday evening last. Gentlemen as well as ladies took a part and made a good showing of balls. As the evening advanced cards were distributed to the gentlemen containing the names of postoffices in Carroll county with the letters transposed and mixed from which the name was to be written. This was quite an interesting feature of the evening. Refreshments of cake, fruit, ice-cream, coffee &c., were furnished in abundance. After this the donkey game was introduced and twenty-five tails were appended. Your correspondent carried off the prize and Mrs. Geo. S. Motter a yellow kid as the booby prize. Mr. Edward Powel had arranged to occupy the Powel house, one mile on the Westminster road, which had been fitted with window panes and other repairs made necessary during a long vacancy, one day last week. That night some miscreant broke the window panes tore down the porch, burst in the door and pulled out several logs from the wall, thus making the building untenable. It is church property and subject to a ground rent, and no doubt if the trustees can get a clue to the perpetrators they will enforce the law.

The friends at the Myerly house, 2½ miles on the Westminster road, were notified on Tuesday of the death of Mrs. Fred. Myerly in Baltimore, on Monday. Mrs. Myerly had been in delicate health for some time, and was treated at the hospital for quite a while, but all to no avail. Her remains were laid away to rest on Thursday morning in the Baptist cemetery, Butler, Baltimore county.

Master David Myers, the 12-year-old son of Mr. A. E. B. Myers on North Main street, was thrown to the ground on Friday evening by one of his schoolmates, rather in fun. He adjusted the fracture and made the boy comfortable.

The moving season has come again and many will have to engage in the unpleasant business. Mr. George Riglar will move from the farm formerly owned by Dr. B. G. Franklin to the farm belonging to Dr. T. Sappington, near Mt. Airy. Mr. Thomas S. Gorsuch has moved from his home on the Sams Creek road to a farm three miles north of Westminster, owned by Mr. Hoppe, and Mr. D. Kauffman will occupy the farm vacated by Mr. Gorsuch. There will not be many sales in our section this spring. The widow of the late Lee Franklin will continue on the farm of her deceased husband during the present year, and during this time she will try to sell the farm.

A few days ago Dr. B. G. Franklin sold his valuable farm of 165 acres, live stock, farming implements, 30 barrels of corn, and the doctor's half of growing grain to Mr. Jesse Stuller, near Dennings; price paid $6,625. Mr. Stuller has rented this farm to a Mr. Bower, for the present year. Under the circumstances the docter has made a fair sale and Mr. Stuller has gotten the worth of his money.

Mr. N. E. Franklin is having the foundation dug for the extension of his store building, in order to have more room and enlarge his stock to accommodate his many customers.

Mr. John Roop has bought a store property in New Windsor, where he and Mr. Marshall Lindsay will conduct a green grocery, in connection with the butchering business.

Mr. Nicodemus will, during this spring, have his dwelling house remodeled and a new top put on the same.

It is not likely that Prof. Wm. K. Franklin will visit his friends here in the East during this summer, as he has contracted with the college at Loudsburg, California, for another year.

The subject at the coming lecture at the Lutheran Church, which will conclude, for this year, Prof. Heapes' appearance in Taylorsville, on the lecture platform, will be "Fossils, &c."

Mr. Geo. Grimes, Jr., will read a paper at this lecture on "Remarkable Changes in Recent Times in the Earth's Crust."

On Friday evening, April 2nd, Prof. Heapes will give an address before the Epworth League, at Linganore Church in Unionville, Frederick county.

On Sunday afternoon last, Rev. Thos. Copes, the new pastor of the M. E. Church, preached at Taylorsville. He had a fair sized audience and made a favorable impression. Mr. Copes will move on Monday next, at which time Rev. Campbell, our ex-pastor, will move out. Mr. Campbell is in town this week making final calls. His little girl, who has been reported in the SENTINEL as being so poorly, with pneumonia, is rapidly improving and will be able to be removed on Monday next, if she continues to improve as she has the past few days.

Rev. Geo. W. Cecil will go to Berkeley Springs to begin his work on Sunday next. Mr. Cecil will remain on the field two weeks and perfect plans for moving, when he will take his family. The "Bishop" has many warm friends here, who will miss his kind words and genial manners.

Miss Delia Ensor, who has been visiting Mrs. Stouffer, her cousin, since Christmas, returned to her home at Oak Orchard, Frederick county, on Wednesday.

Mr. Willard Nicodemus leaves us the last of this month. Mr. Geo. Grimes, Jr., will take his place as clerk for Mr. E. I. Stouffer.

On Sunday last Mr. Chas. Nickerson, who recently married Miss Lucy Shipley, one of the Taylorsville girls, paid a flying visit to his wife and her friends here.

Mr. Nickerson is a member of the "Academy of Music" Orchestra, of Baltimore. After the theatrical season is over he will make an extended visit in these parts.

On Tuesday last Mr. Thos. Gorsuch and family moved from his place to a place two miles beyond Westminster. Miss Pearlie Barnes, Miss Lizzie Desser and Master Harry Barnes were among the number who accompanied them.

Mr. Stouffer and Mr. Jno. English were of the number who took advantage of the good weather on St. Patrick's day to sow their early cabbage seed.

Mr. Thos. Barnes has shipped several hundred pounds of capons this week. At a later date we will report to the SENTINEL the full shipments which Mr. Barnes has made during the season.

"Uncle Dave" Buckingham is tearing down the old fence about his garden preparatory to putting up a new one.

Prof. Heapes contemplates having quite an increase in the attendance of his school after the Carroll county schools have closed. Several have already signified their intention of coming. Those contemplating teaching or wishing especial studies should get the professor's subjects and terms, which may be had for the asking.

Mr. John English is running the saw mill for Mr. Frizzell in the neighborhood of Salem.

"Grandma" Barnes is complaining a good deal at this time.

Pickett Post, G. A. R., which has a number of members in Taylorsville, is already beginning its preparations for Memorial Day exercises.

Peltz-Wilhelm.

Near New Windsor, at the residence of Mr. John Wilhelm, on Wednesday, 17th inst., were gathered quite a number of friends to witness the marriage ceremony of Mr. Wilhelm's only daughter, Miss Mollie C. Wilhelm, and Mr. Chas. J. Peltz, formerly of the Marine Band, Washington, D. C., but now of Baltimore. The bride was becomingly attired in a suit of green cloth, trimmed with flowered silk, and wore white gloves. The groom wore the conventional black, with white tie, and white gloves. The company assembled in the parlor where the bride and groom were met by the bride's pastor, Rev. Geo. W. Baughman, of Uniontown, who, in an unostentatious but solemn manner, performed the nuptial ceremony. After the happy couple had received the congratulations of their friends all were invited to the dining room to partake of a bounteous feast, consisting of tropical fruits, confectionery, cakes and lemonade. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Wilhelm, Mrs. Peltz, mother of the groom; Wm. Peltz, W. M. Jenkins and wife, Mr. Snedmier, all of Baltimore; Edward Wilhelm and family, Chas. Wilhelm and family, Chas. Otto and sister, of New Windsor, Emanuel Hines and wife, Rev. G. W. Baughman and wife, Charles Sittig and family, of Uniontown; Henry Spielman, Chas. Spielman, of Linwood.

A Surprise for a Pastor.

Last Wednesday evening was the occasion of a very enjoyable time at Carroll Reformed parsonage near this city, being a surprise and donation to the pastor, Rev. H. J. Macalister, and his family from members of St. Matthew's congregation and other friends from Pleasant Valley. At about 8 o'clock quite a large number arrived, all abundantly laden with good things, substantials and luxuries, by which pantry, cellar and corn-bin were generously replenished. Refreshments of ice-cream, cake, &c., in great abundance, also provided by the ladies of the congregation, were served. A presentation address was made by Miss Clara Myers and responded to by the pastor. A very pleasant evening was passed in social conversation and with vocal and instrumental music, and at a late hour the large company retired leaving to the family the pleasant task of stowing away the gifts they had left behind them, and which was not completed until the following day. Among those present and those represented were: Mr. and Mrs. Jos. P. Yingling, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Yingling, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Shade, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. A very enjoyable pound party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses G. Poole, near Mt. Olive, on Saturday night, 13th inst., in honor of Miss Josephine Sellman. At an early hour the guests began to arrive and the house soon was filled to overflowing. The evening was pleasantly spent in social conversation, various games, and other amusements, in which all heartily joined until half-past ten o'clock, when they were invited to the dining room, where refreshments were served in abundance, consisting of cakes, confectioneries, lemonade, etc., to which all did ample justice. The games were subsequently resumed and indulged in for a little while, when all departed for their homes having spent a very pleasant evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses G. An Enjoyable Party.

One of the most enjoyable parties of the season was given last week by Mrs. Greenbury Wilson, in honor of her niece, Miss Elsie Shipley, of Westminster. The guests were met by Mrs. Wilson, who in her usual manner welcomed each one cordially and made all feel at home. At an early hour the guests were enjoying themselves with Captain Jinks, Dan Tucker and similar games. Refreshments were served at midnight, after which the young folks indulged in games until warned by the chickens that it was time to rise. Then they took leave of their kind hostess, expressing themselves highly delighted with their evening's enjoyment. Harney Items.

Rev. J. O. Clippinger has been appointed to Littlestown circuit of the U. B. Church. He will therefore succeed Rev. T. Wagner as pastor of the U. B. Church in this place.

Miss Alice Shoemaker, near here, and Mr. Lewis Reifsnider, of Bruceville, were married last week at the home of the bride, Rev. T. Wagner officiating.

The stock of goods which Mr. Hill purchased from Mr. Hesson, in this place, amounted to over $7,000.00.

Mrs. Maria Shoemaker sold her household goods last Saturday and will live with her children in the future.

We had three sales here last Saturday afternoon. Mr. Ed. Shriver was the auctioneer at all three. The public sales held so far are reported to have been good, stock selling better than last year.

The actions of some young folks who come to this place are not very complimentary, and we hope the scenes enacted the past two Saturday evenings will not be repeated again.

Mrs. Samuel Haugh has been quite ill the past two weeks, but at present she is somewhat improved. Dr Seiss, of Taneytown, attends her.

Miss Minnie Linn and Mr. Harry Reck were married last week at the Lutheran parsonage by Rev. W. G. Minnick.

A Congratulatory Message to the Churches.

I desire to extend heartiest congratulations to the churches of this city, (M. E. excepted, as none of its members indorse,) upon the decrease of the number of their communicants, who now sign liquor license applications compared with two years ago. The applications for license for 1894 and 1895, contained the names of forty-five members of the various churches in our city. Happily there are now only thirty of the fifty-three individuals, who sign for the eleven saloons, in the churches. If the same ratio of decrease continues annually, it will soon come to pass that no part of our christian community, will be found as indorsers of the saloon. It is sincerely hoped the applications for 1897 and 1898, will show a decided, if not an entire, loss of the religious element from any countenance whatever of the liquor traffic.

With congratulations,

J. A. WEIGAND.

FOR CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of this city, at the recent monthly meeting held at Mrs. T. W. Mather's, decided to combine with its regular monthly meeting a literary program of a varied character. The meeting to be held March 25th, at 2.30 p. m., at Mrs. Dr. Chas. Billingslea's, will be the first of the series. All friends of the W. C. T. U. are cordially invited to be present.

An Offer to Pay the Fare of Delegates to the San Francisco Convention.

Thousands of Christian Endeavor workers who would like to attend the Sixteenth International Convention which will be held in San Francisco in July of this year are deterred from thinking seriously of doing so on account of the expense of the long journey. This has been called to the attention of "The Philadelphia Press," and the publishers of that journal have decided to furnish free any number of railroad tickets from Philadelphia to San Francisco and return to representatives of Christian Endeavor Societies who will render a trifling service to "The Press." The offer involves the possible expenditure by "The Press" of thousands of dollars and opens the way for all Christian Endeavorers to enjoy the experience of a lifetime—a journey across the continent under the most favorable auspices. Write to "The Press" for details of the offer.

After May 1st, '97, it will cost 40 cents to register, increasing 10 cents a month after May 1st each month till the price will be $1.00 per annum. To our out of town friends who can't get to the Store each month, we will mail them the Queen if they request it. But you must be registered. We propose to make the Queen the equal if not superior to any Magazine of this kind on the market. The March issue of the American Queen marks a striking advance over the foregoing number. A charming love story, "A Renaissance Model," is sure to attract the attention of readers, who will also find pleasure in the various departments that offer unusual variety and interest this month. The fashions are fresh, varied and some of them rarely beautiful and suggestive, courting comparison with the best art work in this line on either side of the water. "The Dressmaker" is sure of a warm welcome from observant women who are keen to note its value, and housekeepers are congratulated upon "The Queen's Cooking School," a new feature for March: "The Mirror of Venus," "Recreation," "Needlework," "Money Making for Women," all maintain their high standard of excellence.
