Newsgravure and Magazine Section

BALTIMORE COUNTY'S PROGRESSIVE NEWSPAPER

THE JEFFERSONIAN

TOWSON, MD., October 25, 1924.

FIRST IN WAR, FIRST IN PEACE AND FIRST IN THE AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Winners of the American League pennant. Front row, left to right: Zahnizer, Speece, Hargrave, Leibold, Robinson (Mascot), Schacht, McNeely, Altrock, Ruel and Martin (Trainer). Middle row: Russell, Bluege, Peckinpaugh, Mgr. Harris, Judge, Rice, Tate and Mogridge. Back row: Marberry, Miller, Ogden, Martina, Zachary, Johnson, Goslin, Shirley. Leflev and Taylor.

International

WASHINGTON BASEBALL FANS BUYING TICKETS FOR ITS FIRST WORLD'S SERIES.

Part of the immense throng that besieged the ball park for the precious pasteboards that permitted the fans of the national capital to witness the games between their pets and the Giants.

International

REMARKABLE DOG ATHLETE.

Shaw Baby, greyhound, making a record-breaking jump of 13 feet in an exhibition at the Mineola, L. I., Dog Show.

Fotograms

MAY PROVE A STRONG COMPETITOR OF HELEN WILLS.

Youthful Clara Louise Zinke, who, though but 16 years old, has won the Women's Singles Tennis Championship of Ohio and will represent her State in the next National Tournament.

Wide World Photos

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL WELCOMES ITS BASEBALL HEROES.

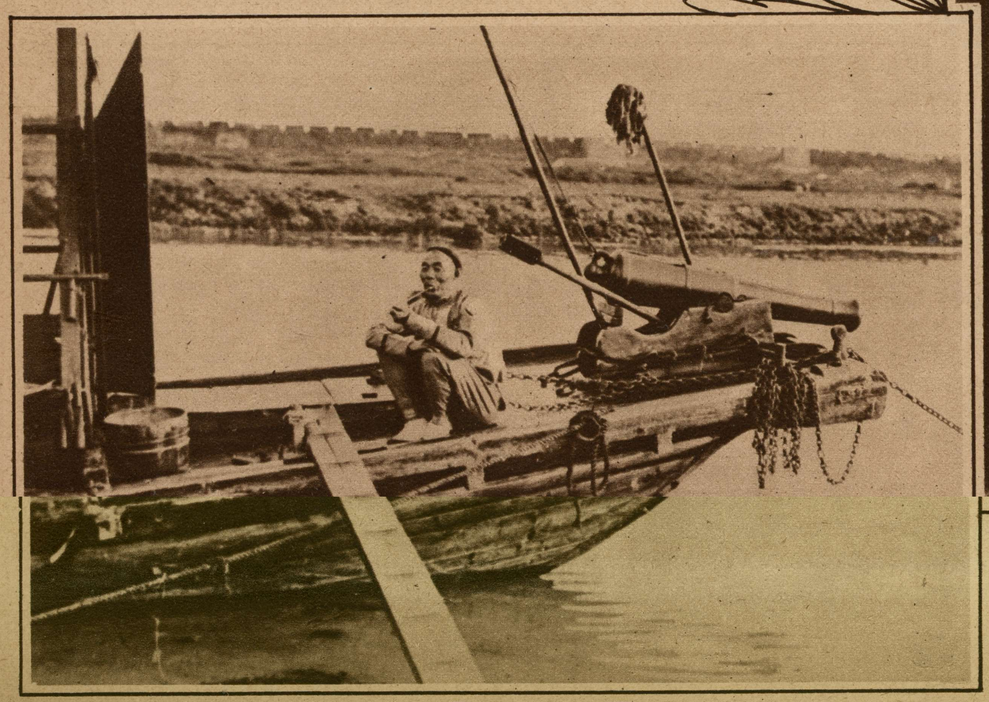
Members of the Washington pennant-winning baseball team making their way up Pennsylvania avenue to the Sero Milestone, where President Coolidge addressed them and presented them with a loving cup.

International

WHEN NATURE TURNS HER HAND TO SCULPTURE.

Interior of "Sunny Jim'" cave at La Jolla, San Diego, Cal., which derives its name from the remarkable profile of a human face. The camera man also caught a nymph in the act of diving.

Keystone View Co.



CHINESE NAVY PARTICIPATES IN THE CIVIL WAR.

Typical canal gunboat with a muzzle loader that forms a unit in the struggle now convulsing the Chinese Republic, so ineffective that a single shot from a modern warship would blow it out of the water.

Wide World Photos

THE "DEATH" SIGN ON WORLD'S BUSIEST CORNER,

Fifth avenue and Forty-second street, New York City, where the traffic cops are kept busy in preventing jaywalkers from flirting with death.

Keystone View Co.

© Maryland State Archives mdsa_sc3410_1_81-0322.jpg