AN OLD MAN'S DREAM.

BY OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES.

Oh for one hour of youthful joy!
  Give me back my twentieth spring!
I'd rather laugh a bright haired boy
  Than reign a gray-haired king!

Off with the wrinkled spoils of age!
  Away with learning's crown!
Tear out life's wisdom written page,
  And dash its trophies down!

One moment let my life-blood stream
  From boyhood's fount of flame!
Give me one giddy, reeling dream
  Of life all love and fame!

My listening angel heard the prayer,
  And calmly smiling said,
"If I but touch thy silvered hair
  Thy hasty wish had sped."

"But is there nothing in thy track
  To bid thee fondly stay,
While the swift seasons hurry back
  To find the wished for way?"

Oh, truest soul of womankind
  Without thee, what were life!
One bliss I cannot leave behind—
  I'll take—my—precious—wife!

The angel took a sapphire pen
  And wrote in rainbow dew;
"The man would be a boy again,
  And be a husband too!

"And is there nothing yet unsaid
  Before the change appears?
Remember, all thy gifts have fled
  With those dissolving years!"

Why, yes; for memory would recall
  My fond paternal joys;
I could not bear to leave them all,
  I'll take—my—girl—and—boys!

The smiling angel dropped his pen,
  "Why this will never do;
The man would be a boy again,
  And be a father too!"

And so I laughed—my laughter woke
  The household with its noise—
And wrote my dream, when morning broke,
  To please the gray haired boys.

The Country Editor.

Verily the life of a country editor is a path of thorns.

His bread is promises and his meat disappointment.

His creditors chase him by day and the devil grinneth at him in his dreams by night.

He sendeth the paper to a subscriber on credit and the subscriber payeth him not.

Then he stoppeth the delinquent paper and the delinquent singeth tra-la! and borroweth it of a neighbor.

He whoopeth up the township politician and the politician gets elected and knoweth him no more.

He puffeth the church fair gratis and then attendeth it and payeth his quarter and recieveth two oysters.

He boometh his town and all things therein, and yet recieveth no support and is a man without honor in his own country.

Two young people marry and he giveth them a great puff and they go housekeeping and taketh not his paper.

Yea, he is bound down with woeand his days are full of grief and trouble and vexation of spirit.

But sorrow endureth in patience, and it is written that he will receive his reward at the judgment.

The Greatest of Rivers.

The Amazon is the King of streams. From first to last it receives over twelve hundred tributaries, of which more than one hundred are large-sized rivers and rise so far apart and have their floods and ebbs at such different seasons that the Amazon is at about the same height the year round. At some points on its lower course one bank is visible from the other. The beholder seems to be looking on a great yellow sea of fresh water. When discovered, some tribes, of Indians on the lower portion knew nothing of the existence of the opposite shore and did not believe that it existed, saying that "the great river flowed all around the world.' Its mouth, including that of the Para, is one hundred and eighty miles in width, and it is navigable for large-sized steamers for one thousand miles from the sea, and so vast is the flood that the ocean is tinged yellow for four hundred miles from the coast of Brazill.

Newspapers as Educators.

The educational value of newspapers has never been more conspicuously shown than during the past year or two, when important scientific discoveries have crowded so thickly upon one another. There is no reader of a good newspaper nowadays who is not thoroughly posted as to all scientific discoveries, so far as these discoveries can be made known without techanical study and explanation. The information imparted in this way has not only been valuable for information's sake and in keeping readers thoroughly up to date, but it constantly stimulates inquiry and intellectual activity in their minds.

By what strange law of mind is it that an idea long overlooked, and trodden under foot as a useless stone, suddenly sparkles out in new light as a discovered diamond.

A horse that rubs his neck until sore must be treated not for skin disease always. It may need physic and tonic for the general system.

When the earth is moist in the furrow it may pack very solidly in the horse's hoof. He will render substantial thanks for having them cleaned out occasionally.

Fowls in the house yard are nuisances to be abated, however beautiful they may be.

Successful Failures.

Columbus discovered America through his failure to reach India, as he hoped to do by sailing westward.

David Livingston studied for three years with the sole aim of being a missionary to China. It was only because his hopes were crushed by the "opium war," which made it impossible to enter China, that he thought of going to Africa and was the means of opening up a whole continent to Christianity and civilization.

Some years ago an ingenious plan was proposed by a man named Joggins for sending logs from Canada to New York by towing them, bound together by cables and iron girdles, as rafts. The plan failed, as the first raft sent out met with a storm near the end of its voyage, the iron girders snapped and the logs were scattered far and wide. Hundreds of captains in the Atlantic, the Mediterranean and the south seas noticed these logs and reported on them. The reports were collected and systematized and deductions made from them as to the course of ocean currents. So the failure of the Joggins raft led to one of the greatest discoveries in modern marine geography and navigation.

COLUMBIA Bicycles!

Standard of the World,

1897 Models, 5 per cent. Nickle Steel Tubing, have no equal,

$100.00.

HARTFORD BICYCLES.

Patterns 7 and 8 reduced from $75 to $60.

Patterns 9 and 10 reduced from $60 to $55.

We ask experts to examine them. Equal to any bicycles made except the Columbia.

Maybe the above prices are more than you wish to pay for a wheel. If so we wish to say we have a very good wheel that we are selling at the very low price of $35.00.

This wheel is worth more than the price we ask for it, and we are willing to have you bring an expert machinist with you when you come to look at it, and we will abide by his decision. It is made of weldless steel tubing; connections—drop-forgings and selected steel, wheels—28-inch with selected Washburn & Moon piano wire spokes, hubs turned out of bar steel, bearings turned from bar stock and properly hardened, balls large size, cranks 6½ in. round, tapered; drop-forgings, tread 4½-in., sprockets—drop-forged front and detachable rear. Everything first-class. This is not what is termed a cheap wheel but a good wheel cheap. Come and look at it whether you wish to buy or not.

Wall Paper! Wall Paper!

I wish to call the attention of my friends and the public in general to the fact that I now am ready to show one of the ever exhibited in this county, bought direct from the factory, in full bundle lots, so you get it only from second hands, no two or three profits coming off it. Of course the consumer pays them all. Sam Jones says it takes a pointer pup nine days to get his eyes open. I have known some people to get their's open in fifteen minutes in a wall paper deal. They thought it was two pieces instead of one, and the border they did not understand, &c. That is always their plea. Remember I am the only paper hanger in the county that carries a stock and don't have the expense of running a store, therefore I have no opposition. If you think I can't save you money, come and see me and bring size of your room, or send size by mail and I will tell you what your job will cost, and send samples and convince you that Gladhill's is the place to save twenty-five cents on a dollar in wall paper.

Finest and Cheapest Lines of

WALL PAPER

L. GLADHILL,

NOTICE.

I wish to inform the public that I have secured the assistance of Ex-Sheriff E. B. ARNOLD, of Smallwood, to sell my FERTILIZER in that Section of the County.

I desire to say to my friends and patrons that my FERTILIZERS have given the best of satisfaction for eight years and my prices are in keeping with the times.

Yours respectfully,
CHARLES SCHAEFFER,
successor to H. S. Roberts & Co., manufacturers of High Grade Fertilizers,
