All indications point to an immense attendance at the grand firemen's parade at Annapolis on the 9th of June, and, if the day should be favorable, the number of excursionists over the Western Maryland Railroad, under the auspices of the Westminister Fire Department, will certainly be very great. The attractions of this excursion, as we have already pointed out, cannot be surpassed. Posters have been put up in convenient places over the county, which those desiring to make the trip can consult for rates and time schedule.

Miss Addie P. Gorsuch, daughter of Dr. Silas N. Gorsuch, of Gamber, died at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, on Tuesday morning last, of a disease superinduced by an attack of grip in February last. Miss Gorsuch, who was aged about twenty-one years, was an accomplished and amiable lady and had a large circle of devoted friends who deeply deplore her early death. She was a gifted vocalist and possessed musical talent of a high order, which had been carefully cultivated and she was a very skillful performer on the piano. The deepest sympathy is felt for her bereaved parents in their great affliction. Funeral services were held at Providence M. P. Church, on Thursday morning.

Miss Mollie E. Hoppie, formerly of this city, has the personal direction of the Woman's Exchange at Atlanta, Ga., an institution organized last November. Georgia papers speak in the highest terms of the work of the exchange and of Miss Hoppie's self-denying efforts to promote its success. The Brunswick, Ga., Evening Advertiser says: "Sure of success, Miss Hoppie, who is the president, secretary and treasurer of the exchange, has gone straight ahead, over obstacles that would have daunted many a woman, and made of the exchange what it is. With only the silver cross that she wears at her throat to recompense her, Miss Hoppie, a charming woman, personally, is giving her noble life to the work of helping others."

Master Harry Huber, son of Mr. A. H. Huber, of this city, is seeing a good deal of the "wide, wide world." In a letter to his father, under date of April 25th, he announces the arrival of his ship, the Castine, after a voyage of 35 days, at Montevideo, S. A. Two stops were made on the cruise for recoaling; one at St. Lucia, W. I., the other at Bahia, Brazil. After his arrival at Montevideo he was transferred to the cruiser Lancaster, a vessel of 3250 tons and carrying 22 guns. The cheapness of soap bark, which the young sailor says can be had for almost nothing, and the muddy waters of the Rio de la Plata were matters of some surprise. Considerable anxiety and alarm existed in Montevideo because of the fear of an attack on the city by the rebels. Harry is very much pleased with his new ship and her officers.

Mr. George W. Morningstar, a well known merchant of this city, died at his home on West Main street at 10.30 o'clock, Friday evening, 21st inst., of neuralgia of the heart, after a week's illness, in the sixty-eighth year of his age. Mr. Morningstar was a native of Frederick county. At one time he resided near Owings Mills and subsequently conducted a dairy and confectionery store in Baltimore. He was successfully engaged in the grocery and queensware business in this city, for fifteen years or more, and possessed the unlimited confidence and respect of the entire community. He was among our very best citizens and leaves an untarnished name and reputation. He was from early manhood a faithful member of the M. E. Church and a consistent christian. His wife died some years ago. Two daughters, Misses Ida and Lillie Morningstar, survive him. Funeral services were held at the house on Monday morning, Rev. Joel Brown officiating, after which his remains were taken to Stone Chapel, near Pikesville, for interment. The pall bearers were: Messrs. E. O. Grimes, J. Q. Stitely, John T. Anders, Emanuel Mackley, A. J. Malehorn, Dr. J. W. Hering.

The barn on the farm of Mr. Michael Walsh, near Carrollton, was destroyed by fire between 9 and 10 o'clock, Wednesday night, causing a loss, on the building, of about $500, upon which there was an insurance of $350. A wagon, harness and farming implements to the value of $200, belonging to Mr. William Walsh, were destroyed. They were not insured. Mr. Wm. Walsh's horses and cattle were saved with difficulty and were considerably burned. In his efforts to rescue them Mr. Walsh, himself, encountered the flames and was badly burned.

Teachers' Annual Examination.

The Examiner reports, that of the 33 applicants for teachers' certificates present at the last examination, 15 passed, namely: Claudine Burgoon, Amanda Overholtzer, Bertha Witherow, M. A. Death of Andrew Keiser Shriver.

Mr. Andrew Keiser Shriver, aged sixty years, died in Baltimore, on Friday, 21st inst., from a complication of diseases. He was a son of the late Wm. Shriver, and was born at the old homestead, at Union Mills, this county. When a young man the deceased went to Philadelphia and engaged in the agricultural implement business. At the breaking out of the civil war he entered the Confederate army as a private and served four years. At an early period of the war he was appointed chief of the department of the medical purveyor, with the rank of major, and served in that capacity to the end. At the close of the war he returned to Baltimore and entered the packing business with the firm of Thomas J. Myer & Co., of which firm he was a member at the time of his death. He served as the treasurer of the Canned Goods Exchange from its organization until compelled to retire on account of ill-health. He was also a director at one time of the National Marine Bank. Mr. Shriver married Miss Emma J. Sanders, a daughter of the late Benedict I. Sanders, of Baltimore. One daughter, Miss Josephine Shriver, survives him. He was a member of the Confederate Society of Maryland. He was a frequent visitor to this county and was widely known here.

Wedding Bells.

SEISS—EYLER.

A pretty wedding took place at the Lutheran Church, Thurmont, at 7.30 o'clock Tuesday night. The bride was Miss Ida S. Eyler, daughter of Mr. John W. Eyler, a prominent farmer of Double Pipe Creek, this county, and the groom Mr. John W. Seiss, of Graceham.

The ushers were Mr. Charles C. Eyler and Prof. Emera L. Warner. The bride's attendants, Misses Zeppa Loy and Lillie V. Fogle, were attired in gowns of white mull. The bride wore a beautiful and becoming gown of white silk and carried bride's roses. The marriage ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Barb, of Thurmont.

BROWN—STARR.

Mr. Rudolph Brown, son of Dr. Geo. H. Brown, of New Windsor, and Miss Mary Starr, of Johnsville, were quietly married at the parsonage of Emory M. E. Church, Baltimore, on Wednesday. The bride wore a steel-colored taffeta silk gown and carried bride's roses. The groom is a clerk in the Baltimore custom house and has been boarding at No. 1200, Pennsylvania avenue. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Brown returned to Johnsville and will later make their home in Baltimore. The wedding, it is said, was a surprise to the friends of both parties.

VOELKEL—WALKLING.

Mr. George A. Voelkel, of Baltimore, and Miss Dora Walkling were married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Frederick Walkling, near Westminster, Tuesday, May 25th, at 2 P. M. Mr. Edward Schultz, of Baltimore, was best man; Miss Rosa Walkling, sister of the bride, and Miss Abbie Gilbert, bridesmaids, and Miss Elsie Carback, flower girl. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Margaret Walkling. The bride was given away by her father. She carried Madam Carnot and Bride's roses, and wore a gown of steel novelty cloth. Rev. P. H. Miller, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, Westminster, performed the ceremony, using the beautiful ring service of the Lutheran Church. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ferd. Pensel and son Willie, Mrs. John Carback and daughter Elsie, Miss Abbie Gilbert, Miss Lilian Nunenthal, Miss Eliza Dunscombe, Miss Rosie Walkling and Mr. Edward Schultz, of Baltimore; Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. John Breighner, and Mrs. Jacob Wohlgemuth of Westminster; Mr. and Mrs. John Walkling, of Warfieldsburg; also Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Stocksdale, Mrs. Mary McGee, Miss Annie Stocksdale, Mr. and Mrs. George Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Barnes, Mrs. Elizabeth Woolery, Miss Grace Woolery, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Walkling, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Walkling, Mr. George Walkling, Mr. George Bitzel, Masters William Walkling, Ernest and Walter Walkling, Misses Margaret Walkling and Annie Walkling. A sumptuous dinner was served prior to the ceremony, following which was a rich collation of cake, ice cream, confectionery and fruits. The bride and groom left on the 7 P. M. train for Baltimore where they will reside.

The bridal presents, which were very valuable, included elegant bedroom suits, chamber sets, parlor, dining room and kitchen furniture, linen and other household articles in such quantity and variety as to well nigh supply all the housekeeping articles needed in the home of the happy young couple.

Manchester Items.

Mr. Robert M. Shower and Miss Kate, youngest daughter of Mr. Nelson Warehime, were married at the home of Rev. Bickel, Druid Hill avenue, Baltimore, on Thursday evening last. They returned home on Friday evening and were given a supper and reception at the home of the bride. Prominent among the invited guests were the members of the fishing club of which the bride and groom and the bride's parents are members. They have our best wishes for a long life of prosperity and happiness.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Miller, on South Main street, was all ablaze on Saturday night in honor of the reception given Mr. Frank Houck and bride, of Baltimore. The groom is a brother of Mrs. Miller. He is well known here and a large company of his friends were present to extend congratulations and best wishes. The evening was enjoyed by the company in social conversation and merriment. Miss Lotta Shower very nicely entertained the company with a pretty recitation. About 9 P. M. Kunkel put in an appearance and made matters lively for some time. Even the most fastidious about noises were too well pleased, ere they retired. Refreshments in abundance were served about 10 P. M. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. Miller and son Charles, Mr. Charles H. Houck, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Dubbs, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Musselman, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. J. Everhart, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. N. Rev. S. M. Roeder filled the pulpit of the Rev. Stewart, of Baltimore, on Sunday last.

Porter's Items.

It has been some time since we appeared in the columns of your paper. During that time our people have been moving along in their usual quiet way. Farmers have been busy with their corn planting and other spring work and nothing of very great importance has transpired to be chronicled. We have had quite an abundance of rain which has somewhat retarded corn planting, but at this writing all are through, with one or two exceptions. Grain has headed out finely and grass has improved very much but needs some more warm sunshine to make it grow rapidly. Early planted corn has come up well but we hear some complaint of damage by cut worms.

Mrs. A. H. Wallace has improved in health so as to be able to be brought down stairs, but is still unable to walk.

Mrs. L. M. Bushey, who has been suffering from heart trouble, is somewhat improved.

Mr. F. A. Baile, a few days ago, while working in his cornfield picked up an old coin which is quite a curiosity. On the one side it has the head of some royal personage and the inscription Carlos III., with the date 1780. The inscription, &c, on the reverse side are not very plain. The coin is of silver and well preserved.

Marston Items.

Dr. Benj. G. Franklin, of this place, is having a room built to the west end of his home, which he will use as an office. Mr. Jesse Haines is carpenter.

Mr. Edward L. Baughman has bought several acres of land adjoining his farm, from Mr. Joseph Zepp.

Mr. Frank H. Willet and family, of Frizellburg, visited Mrs. Elizabeth Wilt on Sunday last.

Miss Esther Wilson visited friends in Unionville last week.

Mrs. Amos Wilson and son Sterling, of Waynesboro, Pa., are the guests of Mrs. David Harris.

Mr. Jesse Haines spent Sunday and Monday in Hagerstown.

Messrs. Jesse and James Lewis, of Baltimore, visited Misses Fannie Zile and Elsie Haines last Thursday.

Mr. David Harris has been confined to his bed for the past four months, and is still lying in a critical condition.

Most of the farmers around town are done planting corn. The grain fields look very promising.

The dress-makers of this place have been over-crowded with work.

Mrs. Jane R. Zile has improved the appearance of her lot by a new fence.

Mr. Samuel Bond, our young merchant, has purchased from Mr. Nathaniel Zile, a very fine alderney cow.

Reported for the Sentinel.

Christian Endeavor Convention.

The annual convention of the Carroll County Union of Christian Endeavor met in session at Uniontown, on Thursday morning, May 20th, at 9.30. The convention was opened by the singing of that soul-inspiring song, "Scatter Sunshine." The congregation was not very large as but few of the delegates had yet arrived. A prayer service for the spiritual success of the convention was participated in by Rev. Hemstreet, of Baltimore, Mr. Jacob Lawyer, of Pleasant Valley, and State president, Mr. Schumacher, of Baltimore. The prayer service was interspersed with selections from the song leaflets. Miss Florence E. Weaver, of Uniontown, extended in a pleasant and hearty manner the welcome. Miss Weaver said that the people of Uniontown would seek to show by their actions, more than by words, to make the delegates and visitors welcome. The response, on behalf of the delegates was delivered by Mr. Wm. J. Horner, of Finksburg. The male quartette made a very pleasant digression by giving a fine selection. Prayer by Rev. G. W. Baughman. The convention sermon was preached by Rev. Oliver Hemstreet, of Baltimore, on the subject of Christian Endeavor Unity. His discourse was based on Romans 12: 4 5.

At 1 30 a meeting of the executive committee was held, when the business part of the convention received attention. The afternoon session opened with a short prayer and praise service led by Miss Belle Cover, of Uniontown. The president's address, by Mr. Chas. R Woods, of Finksburg, followed. The report of the secretary showed that the county work was growing in strength and usefulness. That from a membership of 200 at its organization it has grown to a membership of 1229. The number of societies at the beginning was 7 and now there are 30. The total amount of money raised by these societies during the year was $745 88. The amount given for missions in the same time was $332 42, or an average of 27 cents per member. In the unavoidable absence of the county Supt. of Temperance, Mr. Archer Burgoon, his report was read by the secretary. This is the first report of the kind ever read before the convention. It showed that the temperance sentiment in Carroll is very lukewarm. State President Schumacher delivered an address. He said that if there was one thought more than any other which he wished to leave with the Union, it was "to go forward." He brought greetings from the Frederick county convention which was in session at the same time in Walkersville. Their greeting was: 1st John, 2: 1, 2, 3. The reply was Phil., 3: 13, 14. A parliament on the "Imperative need of a stricter separation from the world" was conducted by Rev. S. W. Coe, in the absence of Rev. W. H. Ehrhart.

At 7.30 a prayer and praise service was conducted by Mr. Hering, after which the quartette rendered some of their fine music. The address of the evening was one on Christian Patriotism, by Mr. Homer L. Castle, of Pittsburg. It was a treat to the people of Carroll to listen to such an address as Mr. Castle delivered.

Early Friday morning a sunrise prayer meeting was held in the Lutheran Church. A very enjoyable and spiritual meeting was conducted by Mr. Francis Hering, of Finksburg. At 9.30 a prayer and praise service, with Miss Amelia Birnie, of Taneytown, as leader. The missionary sermon was preached by Rev. S. A. Diehl, of Westminster. Presentation of missionary banner by Rev. L. S. Patterson. The successful society was Taneytown Presbyterian, the average per member for missions being $1.18. The Presbyterian society at New Windsor had honorable mention as having an average very close to the winning society. A very helpful parliament, on "Practical Points on Prayer," was conducted by Mr. Geo. Mather. The subject was divided as follows:

1. Why should we pray? Rev. S. J. Derr.
2. When should we pray? Miss Lizzie Birely.
3. Where should we pray? Miss Anna Motter.
4. For what shall we pray? Mr. Robt. Bankert.
5. What shall we expect when we pray? Mr. Geo. W. Yeiser.
6. How should we pray? Miss Lizzie Murray.

This parliament proved, if nothing else, that our C. E. work is growing. These speakers were taken from our own ranks and it can be said in all truth that we need not go abroad for helpful influence. Mrs. Wm. G. Rinehart opened the afternoon session with a prayer and praise service. A selection by the quartette was followed by a parliament on "Bright and Helpful Features of the Convention." Quite a good many took part in this parliament. The junior rally, under the leadership of Miss Shriver, the county Jr. Sup't., was a most successful one. About 150 children were in the march. The State Jr. Sup't., Mrs. Fred. Ohrenschall, was present and talked to the children. She also presented the banner, for greatest average attendance, to Union Bridge Lutheran. Their average was 81 per cent. of the whole membership. Taneytown Lutheran was second. An able address by Rev. D. Frank Garland came next on the program. At 7.15 Rev. B. W. Kindley took charge of a short prayer meeting. The reports of the special committees were given. The committee on nominations reported the following officers for the coming year: Pres., Mr. Chas. R. Woods; Vice Pres., Rev. R. L. Patterson; Sec. and Treas., Miss Ida M. Diffenbaugh; Junior Sup't., Miss M. Louise Shriver; Sup't. of Temperance, Mr. W. Archer Burgoon. The report of the Resolution Committee was also submitted and adopted. Among the resolutions was the following:

LAST OF ALL.—Your committee would report that during the year since last we met three of our members have been discharged from the ranks of our Endeavor Regiment, and led by the Captain of our Salvation into the blissful rest prepared by Him for his faithful soldiers, and crowned "heirs of eternal life." Granville T. Hering, of Sandy Mount Methodist Protestant Society; E. Jerome Myers, of the Pleasant Valley Society, and Miss Sallie Haugh, of the Taneytown Lutheran Society, are lost to the church militant, but gained to the church triumphant. These fellow-soldiers were faithful and true when they were among us. Let us follow their beautiful examples and "the good which they did shall live after them."

Rev. Hugh L. Elderdice, Pres. of the Westminster Theological Seminary, delivered the consecration sermon on "Whole hearted Service," after which Mr. Geo. H. Birnie conducted the consecration service. The convention adjourned to meet in Pleasant Valley in May, 1898.

For the SENTINEL.

A Surprise Croquet Party.

The residence of Mr. Nathaniel Zile, near Marston, was made the scene of a pleasant gathering of our local young folks, Saturday afternoon and evening last, the occasion having been a surprise to Miss Linnie and Mr. Carroll Zile. All went with the expectation of having a good time, and in this they were not disappointed. The time was pleasantly spent in the enjoyment of croquet playing, social games and music. Prof. Guy Albaugh favored us with some of his choice vocal and instrumental music on both organ and violin. The guests were met on the beautiful lawn by Misses Fannie and Lucy Zile and Elsie Haines, who in their pleasant, affable manner, made all feel at home. After an hour or so in social chat, the dining-room became the center of attraction, and no wonder, as everything was served in the best possible manner. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Zile, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Greenholtz, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, Mr. and Mrs. James Dixon, Misses Linnie Zile, Cora Haines, Maggie Eisenheart, Elsie Albert, Lizzie Franklin, Ada Dixon, Elsie Baker, Lucy Zile, Elsie Haines, Grace Stem, Fannie Zile, Lucinda Hollenbaugh, Susanna Kiler, Nettie Brown, Mabel Dixon, Daisy Devilbiss, Anna Brown, Helen Greenholtz, Messrs. Arthur Albert, David Stem, Jr., Norris Babylon, Wilbur Franklin, Carroll Zile, Prof. Guy Albaugh, Jesse Dixon, Frank Baker, Cornelius Haines, Roy Zile, Raymond Brown, George W. Pennington, Harry Zile, James Pennington and others. About 10 o'clock the company began to disperse, all having enjoyed an evening long to be remembered.

Frizellburg Items.

Many improvements have been made, which are very creditable to this little village. Dr. J. Rinehart is having his new barn painted, together with a number of other outbuildings. He also has a meat house in course of erection. Mr. C. H. Brown has the digging of a well in progress, which is a requisite to his manufacturing establishment. Mrs. A. Willet had a new roof put on her porch this week. Mr. Louis Fleagle has erected a hennery. Mr. William Arthur is enclosing his much admired yard with an attractive and durable picket fence. The store building which is yet in its infancy is very ostentatious, and when completed will certainly be an ornament to this place.

Mr. Eldridge Packham and wife, their daughter, Miss Beulah Packham, and Mrs. Robert M. Polk, all of Baltimore, visited Mr. Harvey Freeman's last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Ephraim Cover left for Baltimore on Tuesday, where she will remain several days.

Miss Susie Freeman is spending some weeks with Mr. John Feeser's family near Silver Run.

Mr. Washington Dickensheets killed a black snake recently which measured 4 feet, 2 inches.

A rat is suspected of having killed fourteen ducks for Mrs. John Zahn one night last week.

Misses Lizzie and Lucy Freeman, of Baltimore, spent a few days in this place last week.

Union Mills Items.

Mrs. Olivia Shriver and Miss Bertha Kemp, of Baltimore, spent several days with Mr. H. Wirt Shriver, this week.

Crop prospects are very encouraging in this section. Corn came up well, and wheat, rye oats and grass are growing finely and promise bountiful harvests.

Rev. Dr. A. F. Dreisbach held appropriate services at St. Mary's Reformed Church, Silver Run, on Ascension day. Rev. F. W. Bald, of Baltimore, a member of Maryland Classis, filled the pulpit of Dr. Dreisbach's church, last Sunday, and delivered a fine sermon to a well filled house.

One day last week, Carrie Stitely, aged about fourteen years, daughter of Mr. Thomas J. Stitely, inflicted a painful flesh wound in her foot by accidentally letting an axe fall upon it.

On the 21st inst., the dwelling house in Silver Run, owned by Mr. John T. Dutterer and occupied by Mr. Arthur W. Feeser, was struck by lightning. Several holes were torn in the slate roof and on the interior the plastering was considerably damaged. None of Mr. Feeser's family were home at the time, but a dog that was left in the house was severely stunned by the stroke.

Shipley Items.

We are having fine growing weather and grain and grass are looking very promising. The early planted vegetables are promising well and corn is coming up nicely, but the potato bugs are very numerous and this year they seem to relish cabbage and tomato plants better than potato vines. Our plum and peach trees seem to be full, but the cherry trees are taking a rest. The apple orchards are rather full of fruit and, if the young apples hold on we may have an abundant apple crop. The vines of early sown peas are full of blossoms and young peas.

Mr. Frederick Bremer, of Bloom, put up the wall for the new school house here last week and also the wall for Mr. E. G. Shipley's new addition to his bank barn.

Mr. G. J. Shipley met the examining committee of Deer Park Circuit at Harmony Grove Chapel on the 15th inst., and having passed the examination required by the new order of the General Conference of 1896, was granted a written local license to preach, by the quarterly conference.

Medford Items.

Mr. Daniel Pfoutz, of Ohio, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Elizabeth Englar and family.

Miss Lydia Englar, of Union Bridge, was the guest of Mrs. Mary Horn last week.

Mr. Wm. Walkman, who has been very ill, is slowly improving.

Messrs. Harry Stoner and Charles Becker, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with Mr. Jesse Baile and family.

The ladies of the Mite Society of the Pipe Creek M. P. Church will hold an ice cream and strawberry festival in Medford, June 3rd and 5th. Music on Saturday afternoon and night. The proceeds are for the benefit of Sunday School and repairing the parsonage. All are cordially invited to attend.

Remember This:

There is no Bicycle as good as the

Rambler

BICYCLE.

We stand ready to prove this assertion. You come around to the finest equipped Bicycle House in Western Maryland and let us show you what constitutes a good wheel. NOTE also the great number of Ramblers in all the century runs. It takes a good wheel to stand these tests. Also, Mr. Smith's remarkable ride in Baltimore last week—314 miles in 22 hours and 57 minutes. He did it on a 20 lb. Rambler, breaking the world's long distance record by 19 miles. Quality counts.

Happy Thought Lamps, regular $4.00 lamp, while they last, $2.00.

Taylorsville Items.

During the early part of this week our people were blessed with an abundance of needed rain, as the result of which the farms and gardens are all in fine condition. Most of our farmers have finished plowing their corn once and others have been over the ground twice. All of our farmers at this time are busily engaged in fencing their various places, and in hauling away the broken rails. Mr. Gus. Barnes put a wire fence on his place last week. Mr. Ike Frizzell, Mr. Jas. Barnes and Mr. Thos. Barnes have all been remodeling the fences on their places.

Mr. Thos. Barnes has had the locust trees cut in front of his house and will as soon as he can get the posts made put a fence around his yard and driveway. He also has several hundred pannels of post fence to put up, which he will erect during the spring or after harvest.

Mr. B. F. Hammaker, of Libertytown, has been in town during the past week erecting tombstones on the lot of Mr. Thos. A. Barnes, over the remains of Mrs. T. A. Barnes.

Mr. Gus. Barnes drove through town on Sunday in his new carriage which he recently purchased. "The "rig" is a fine one.

The officers and teachers of the Taylorsville M. E. Sunday School met one evening the early part of this week to practise for children's day. The public exercises will be held on a week from next Sunday in the afternoon. On one week later, in the afternoon, the exercises will be held at the Bethany M. E. Church. Both of these societies have been making extensive preparations for their services and will give the public on the various occasions a good entertainment.

Rev. Thos. E. Copes has been spending his vacation in Baltimore and down the river fishing. He is expected home the early part of next week.

Mr. Howard Shipley was in the city last week studying the ways of city life. He reports many things of interest.

Mr. E. I. Stouffer made for himself this week a cheese case with sliding door. Mr. Stouffer is quite an expert with the tools.

Mr. N. H. Farver and Mr. Chas. Tucker have done the white washing for Mr. Stouffer. This completes the work of this nature in the town and everything looks bright and cheerful.

All of our people will attend the exercises at Winfield on Saturday. A pleasant time is anticipated. Prof. Heapes, of this place, will be one of the speakers.

On Whit-Monday the District Lodge, I. O. G. T. of Md., will hold an all-day celebration at Damascus, Montgomery county. Rev. Henry Branch, D. D., of Ellicott City, president of the State Temperance Alliance, will be present and make an address, and there will be other speakers. The services of Prof. Heapes, of this place, have been secured as elocutionist. Prof. G. W. Walker, the singer, of Browningsville, is chairman of committee of arrangements.

There will also, as is the custom, be an all-day's celebration at "Witells Woods" near Unionville.

Miss Lizzie Dresser returned to town last week after a visit to her home at Sparrows' Point.

Rev. Edward Smith, in the absence of the pastor, preached at the M. E. Church here, last Sunday.

Mr. C. C. Crawford repaired the county road north of town this week.

Work has not yet been begun on the new schoolhouse at this place. Our farmers are quite busy and may not get time to do the hauling until after harvest.

Mr. Howard Shipley hauls full loads of milk to the dairy every day.

Miss Gertie M. Cover will make an address at the Bethany Sunday School on children's day, on "The Growth and Influence of Sunday Schools."

Uniontown Items.

The C. E. County Convention, held here last week, was a decided success. It drew together a large crowd from all parts of the county, delegates and others. Each meeting was largely attended and at night from four to five hundred were in attendance. The exercises were interesting and it looked very much like as if any man, or woman, or church would oppose such a movement and did not get out of the way they would be run over. The spirit seemed to be one without denominational differences. The services, with the exception of the first sermon, which was preached in the Lutheran Church, were held in the M. P. Church. Singing was by the Lutheran and M. P. Church choirs. Male quartetts by both societies were features of the convention. The two societies and their friends furnished meals—dinner and supper—in the lecture room of the M. P. Church. 650 meals were served and 70 feeds for horses. All found homes at night with families of town and vicinity. It was noticeable that but little chewing gum was used.

Mrs. Sarah Day and Miss Estella Dorsey, of Berret, and Mrs. Eliza Hering, of Philadelphia, visited Thos. H. Routson's family during the convention.

Mrs. Thos. H. Routson and Mrs. Eliza Hering visited Mrs. Laura Hann, of Pleasant Valley, on Tuesday last.

Mr. Hezekiah Yingling, who spent the winter with his grandson in Baltimore, was brought home Sunday last to his daughter, Mrs. Frank Eckard. He is confined to his bed with a sore foot.

Rev. Seilhamer is improving and looks very much better.

Mr. Ed. Cover, who has taken a clerkship with Mr. P. B. Englar, of Taneytown, was brought home to his father's several days ago, and is now confined to his bed with typhoid fever.

Uniontown and Pipe Creek representatives of the M. P. Church met at the latter church on Saturday last, to transact business of the churches. They decided to enclose the parsonage property at Uniontown with an iron fence. They, too, paid the parson in full, all because they have the right kind of stewards. The churches pay as they go and allow no debts to accumulate.

On Saturday afternoon and night, June 5th, a strawberry and ice cream festival, with all the accompaniments, will be held at the lawn of the M. P. Church.

The Bethel Church has made a very decided improvement at the front of their church. The fence and embankment has been removed, new steps have been placed and all in front has been paved, making it much more convenient.

On Saturday night, June 5th, Miss Lydia Forney, of Harrisburg, Pa., will preach in the Bethel; also Sunday morning, and at night the ordinance of God's House will be observed.

On Saturday, May 29th, Memorial services will be held, commencing at 1 o'clock. The Sunday Schools of the town and citizens will decorate the soldiers' graves. Revs. Baughman and Tyler will make addresses. At the same hour the Red Men will meet at their hall and, with the Monocacy Tribe, of Union Bridge, will form in procession, headed by the Linwood Band. They will march to the cemeteries where addresses will be made and the decoration ceremony performed according to the custom of the order. At 5.30 o'clock the tribes will go to Union Bridge for the same purpose.

Union Bridge Items.

On Wednesday, 19th inst., the grand officers of the K. of P., of Baltimore, installed a new K. of P. Lodge at this place. The following officers were elected: C. C., J. J. White; V. C., Wm. Wood; P., J. A. Seabrook; M. of W., C. T. Hiltabidle; K. of R. and S., H. G. Winters; M. of F., H. D. Fowble; M. of E., Dr. G. R. Markel; M. at A., G. W. Byers; I. G., Dr. Wm. H. Demmitt; O. G., C. C. Myers. This lodge begins with 25 members and at its next meeting there will be an increase of about 25 more. After the lodge closed a banquet was given at the Union Bridge Hotel.

Personal.

Mr. D. L. Segafoose, of Philadelphia, visited friends in this city, this week.

Mrs. Letitia Wood, of Union Bridge, is visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Mrs. Geo. K. Schaeffer and daughter, Miss Nellie R., of this city, are visiting relatives at Dayton, Ohio, and will be absent about two weeks.

Miss Jeanne Irene Whytehill, of Frederick county, formerly of Baltimore, is the guest of the family of Mr. George W. Hull, near this city.
