NIP'S WORK IS DONE

Thousands of travelers will miss old Nip, who for 19 years hauled the baggage trucks in the Union Pacific railway station at Los Angeles; for when the U. P. moved into its new station recently electric trucks beat Nip out of his job. Formal pension papers have been made out for him, however, and he will continue on the railroad's payroll for the rest of his life. Miss Edna Thomas, one of the equine veteran's friends, is seen telling him good-by.

Fascisti of Milan Taking Oath of Allegiance

Premier Mussolini addressing the Fascisti militia in the Piazza del Duomo in Milan and calling for the oath of allegiance to the king.

WARREN S. STONE

Warren Sanford Stone, grand chief engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, is now the president of all brotherhood activities, including insurance, banking and the labor organization.

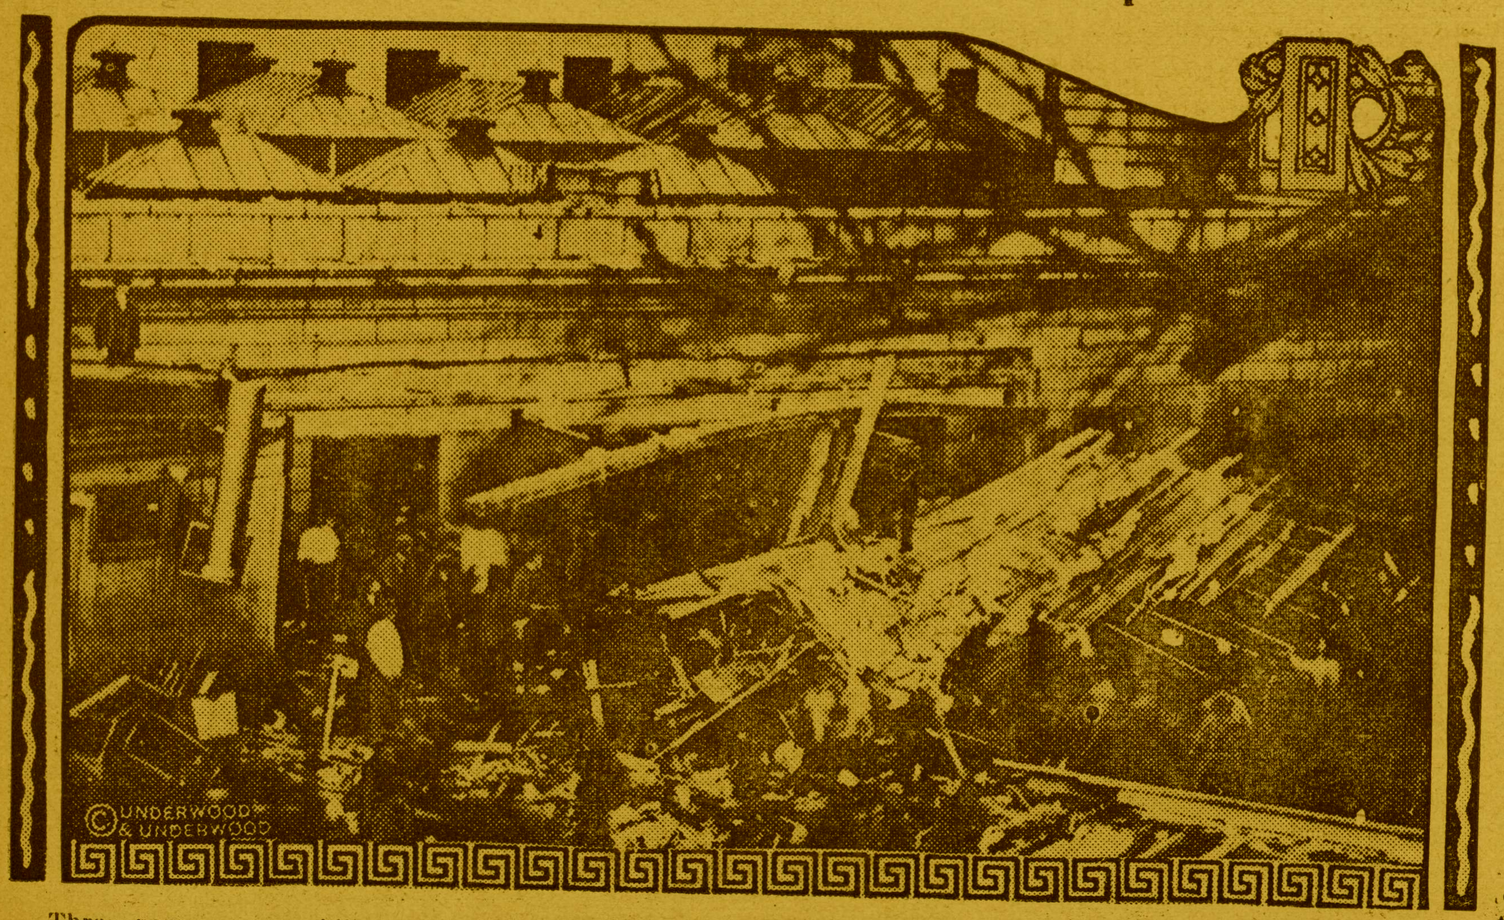
St. Paul Office Has Wild Caller

This hawk made an early morning call at a St. Paul (Minn.) office, remained only long enough to have his picture snapped over the stenographer's desk and then departed through the open window.

"WAR" WINS A PRIZE

This bronze head design for Meade memorial, representing "War," has been purchased by the Art institute, Chicago, for its permanent collection. It is the work of Charles W. Grafly of Philadelphia and won for him the Mr. and Mrs. Keith Spalding prize of $1,000 at the annual exhibition at the institute.

Grand Rapids Has a Mysterious Explosion



Three persons were killed and twelve injured in a mysterious explosion in the post office at Grand Rapids, Mich. The loading platform was completely destroyed and the system disorganized.

GIFTS FROM ARIZON.

[illegible] Farmer traveled all the way from Tucson, Ariz., to call at the White House and present some unique gifts to the President and Mrs. Coolidge. A chouya cane for the President and an Indian basket filled with candy for Mrs. Coolidge were his offerings

© Maryland State Archives mdsa_sc3410_1_81-0436.jpg