THREE HOUSES RAIDED

Men "Trapped" By Dry Agents To Appear Before United States Commissioner.

Washington prohibition agents raided two houses in Essex. It was reported eight gallons of whiskey was found in one and in the other a home-brew plant. George Clerick and Frank Talmer were cited to appear before J. Frank Supplee, United States Commissioner.

The agents also reported seizing two small stills in the home of Frank Kalmer, Turner Station. Kalmer was ordered to appear before the commissioner.

Raiders likewise took possession of a 200-gallon still, found by county firemen, who answered a call to a house in Graceland Park. The still is supposed to have exploded, setting fire to the building. Occupants fled before the arrival of the fire apparatus.

TO RELEASE RABBITS

15,000 Missouri And Kansas Cottontails Will Be Set Free.

Fifteen thousand cottontail rabbits will be released in Maryland during the first three months of 1925, State Game Warden E. Lee LeCompte announced. Contracts recently have been made for purchase of the rabbits, which will be brought from Missouri and Kansas.

There were 18,000 rabbits released last year by the State Game Department.

While there is no way of ascertaining definitely the total number of rabbits killed by hunters, investigation by the State Game Department led to an estimate of more than 500,000 killed last year. Except under especially adverse conditions, which cannot be predetermined, the natural propagation of rabbits plus the importations, should prevent any lessening in the number of the animals.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

ONEIDA M. BENSON
vs.
WILLIAM E. BENSON.
IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY.

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce a vinculo matrimonii by the plaintiff, Oneida M. Benson, from the defendant, William E. Benson.

The bill states that the parties were married on August 3rd, 1917, in Baltimore County, State of Maryland, by Reverend Frank G. Porter, and that they lived together as man and wife until the abandonment and desertion in said bill complained of; that one child was born as a result of said marriage, namely, Helen L. Benson, aged six years, who is now in the custody of the plaintiff; that the plaintiff has always conducted herself as a kind affectionate and faithful wife toward the defendant, that the defendant, without any just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted the plaintiff on or about May 1st, 1918; that said abandonment and desertion has continued uninterruptedly for more than three years, is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable hope or expectation of reconciliation; that the plaintiff has been a resident of Baltimore County, state of Maryland, for more than two years preceding the filing of the bill of complaint, and that the whereabouts of the defendant are unknown.

A petition filed in the case states that two successive subpoenas directed to the defendant at his last known address have been returned "non est" by the Sheriff of Baltimore County.

It is thereupon ordered by the Circuit Court for Baltimore County this 19th day of November, nineteen hundred and twenty-four, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some weekly newspaper published in Baltimore County once in each of four successive weeks before the 22nd day of December, nineteen hundred and twenty-four, give notice to said defendant, William E. Benson, against whom two successive subpoenas have been returned "non est," of the object and substance of the bill of complaint, warning him to be and appear in this Court in person or by solicitor,
On or before the 8th day of January, 1924;
and show cause, if any he may have, why the decree sought and the relief prayed should not be granted.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

CHARLES A. KORBLY
vs.
EDWARD H. BURKE, Substituted Trustee, under a decree of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County; ISABEL S. KORBLY, KATHERINE ISABEL KORBLY, infant; RICHARD PALMER KORBLY, infant; CHARLES ALEXANDER KORBLY, infant; MARY ELIZABETH KORBLY JOHNSON, Infant, and SAMUEL NORMAN JOHNSON, JR., her husband.
IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY IN EQUITY.

The object of the Bill of Complaint in the above entitled case is to have a deed of trust construed, interpreted and terminated, and the corpus and unexpended income delivered to the Complainant.

The bill states that Charles A. Korbly and Isabel S. Korbly, living at Indianapolis, Indiana, are the parents of Katherine Isabel Korbly, Richard Palmer Korbly, Charles Alexander Korbly (said three children living with their mother), and Mary Elizabeth Korbly Johnson, infants, the said Mary Elizabeth Korbly Johnson being the wife of Samuel Norman Johnson, Jr., living at Loreado, Texas, that Charles A. Korbly acquired One Hundred and Eighteen shares of stock of the Madison Hotel Company, of Madison, Indiana, and twenty-six shares of stock of the Madison Brewing Company, now worthless, that he borrowed divers sums of money from said Isabel S. Korbly on the pledge of said stock as security for said loans; that the Complainant thereafter repaid all of said loans, and was entitled to an assignment of said stock; that because of ill health of the complainant, and of his desire to provide for the maintenance and education of his four children, he caused the said stock to be assigned to him as trustee for the maintenance and education of said children, subject, however, to termination by the Complainant in his discretion.

That the Complainant has borne some of the expense of maintaining and educating said children from his funds other than the trust fund; that Edward H. Burke has been appointed substituted trustee; that all the purposes and objects of said trust have been fulfilled, and that the Complainant is empowered to and does now terminate said trust, and that the trust funds be delivered to the Complainant.

It Is Thereupon this 16th day of December, 1924, by the Circuit Court of Baltimore County, in Equity, Ordered, that the Complainant cause a copy of this order with the object and substance of the Bill of Complaint to be inserted in some weekly newspaper published in Baltimore County, once a week for four successive weeks before the 18th day of January, 1925, giving notice to the absent defendants to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitors
On or before the 2nd day of February, 1925; to show cause, if any there be, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.
