The theme of discussion during these rainy days among our farmers and business men seems to be the large crops and the advancing price of wheat. Our friends of the Advocate might note this under "More Prosperity." During the interim between the rainy spells Mr. Conaway did the threshing for Mr. Ike Frizzell and Mr. Bud Franklin, who farms Mr. Thos. Shipley's place. Both received a large yield about—35 bushels per acre. We can not compete with the Frizellburg correspondent in the length of potato vines but Mr. Franklin, before mentioned, dug 16 hills of his field patch covering a space of less than as many feet in length, and got therefrom one-half bushel of potatoes. Frizellburg, we call you. Mr. Franklin will raise over 200 bushels to the acre.

On Thursday evening last a company of friends surprised Mrs. Wm. H. Shower, at her home on Foundry avenue. It was the anniversary of her birth and the well laid plans of her sister, Miss Fannie Ross, and Miss Celia Shower were carried out to the letter and a complete surprise was given. The company, some 25 in number, met at the house of Mrs. Julia M. Motter where the procession was formed and with horns and chinese lanterns the march was taken up to the Shower home, which was unconditionally surrendered to the friends who were fully equipped for a good time. The front porch and yard were decorated with the lanterns and soon fun and amusement set in and a jolly good time was enjoyed by all. At a late hour refreshments were served and enjoyed by the jolly party.

On Monday evening as Mr. Lewis B. Lippy and George Shower were returning from Westminster and had reached the eastern slope of Westminster hill their horse became unmanageable and began to kick and plunge down the hill. Mr. Lippy not having been able to control the animal with the reins ran her into a deep gully where she fell and broke both shafts. The buggy upset but we are glad to say neither of the gentlemen was hurt. The mare got away from the wreck and in her mad fright dashed out York into Church street and the cemetery gates being open she ran through the same and was captured in the lot below. She was badly cut about the hock and bruised about the head and body. Mr. Lippy has only had her about a month and has been using her for a driving horse ever since.

The thunder-storm that passed over this section just south of town on Friday last was very heavy in and about the White House, just within the border of Baltimore county. The horses were put into their stalls and the men had gotten but a little distance from the barn when a bolt of lightning struck it, killing one of the horses and setting the barn on fire. With its contents of hay and rye and a large lot of corn it was consumed. The wheat crop was in a shed some distance away and was saved.

Your correspondent in his rambles picked up the following lines about a mishap:

Swinging in a hammock,
Taking my daily rest;
Up came a bad boy,
Doing of his best.

Pulling and tugging
At the ropes so strong,
Till he had tried their strength,
And that of the thong.

Not heeding admonition
Nor threat in any way,
But kept pulling and tugging
Till the staple gave way.

Then I found myself
Lying on the ground,
With spectacles broken,
And shaken-up quite sound.

From swinging in the hammock,
I have graduated,
Don't you think a good reason
I have fully stated?

A Chapter of Accidents.

Louis Berkowitch, a little son of Moses Berkowitch, at the east end of this city, was struck, on Thursday morning, by a bicycle ridden by a youth named Edwards, knocked down and badly injured. Mr. George Grob, while hauling hay, on the same day, on the farm of Mr. Samuel Roop, at Meadow Branch, had his cheek and forehead badly torn and lacerated by the hook attached to the chain on the hay pole. The chain broke, while the pole was being tightened, and the hook was driven with much force against Mr. Grob's face. He received two cuts on the forehead and a very severe one on the cheek.

On the same morning Mr. Ira Young, of that neighborhood, was struck above the eye by the limb of a tree and a deep gash cut in the eyebrow. Dr. Thomas J. Coonan, of this city, dressed the wounds in these cases, and found the use of the needle necessary in all of them.

Lee's United Shows exhibited at this place on Tuesday night, but as the day was quite a wet one a very small crowd was in attendance. Owing to the fact that the ground was very soft the seats collapsed and fell to the ground. All escaped unhurt with the exception of a few bruises. The show left on Wednesday for Woodsboro, where it performed on Wednesday night, after which financial trouble caused the company to disband.

Mr. Harry G. Hawk, of Otterdale Mill, while cleaning up the upper floor of the mill, which is being refitted by Mr. E. E. Reindollar who is putting in full roller process machinery, met with a severe accident on Tuesday about noon. He was removing the debris left by the carpenters and had gone to the front door to throw out an armful of dirt, when his foot slipped and he was thrown to the ground, a distance of thirty-five feet, breaking his leg between the knee and ankle. The fracture was such as to cause the bone to pierce clear through his gum boot. Otherwise he was unhurt with the exception of a few bruises. Dr. F. H. Seiss was at once summoned and it was found that part of the bone had to be removed in order to adjust the fracture successfully. At this writing Mr. Hawk is improving and doing as well as can be expected.
