A SILHOUETTE EFFECT
is produced by this slenderizing frock of ivory white Society satin, the only embellishment being a monogrammed decoration.

SU-ZETTE CLOCHE TURBAN of dark green Milan, richly ornamented with roses in deep red shade, imported from Paris by Franklin Simon and Co.
Nickolas Muray

IMPORTED FROM PARIS
by Franklin Simon Co. is this small hat, brown in color, with pleated lace jabot on side dyed to match the hat. Worn by Grace Moore of the "Music Box Revue."
Nickolas Muray

A TOUCH OF THE BIZARRE is evident in this creation of black and white of Adhoc Velora material elaborated with black lace. Haverstick design.
Tornello

FOR THE WARM DAYS TO COME.—Attractive hat of pleated orchid crepe with an edge of purple faille, the effect being enhanced by the long, broad, white drape that descends to below the shoulder.

FOR OUTDOOR SPORTS
Snappy outfit of light blue pongee with monogrammed overblouse and pleated skirt. Elite Co. design. Worn by Maxine Brown.
White Studio

WINSOME CHILD DANCER.
Little Helen Virginia Walling, nine years old, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who took a first prize gold medal awarded by the Metropolitan Junior Theatrical League at its contest for classic dancing, held at the Waldorf-Astoria.
Aldene

"THE SHOOTING OF DAN McGREW"
Jim (Percy Marmont) playing the piano in the shin cabaret in the South Sea Isles, while Lou (Barbara La Marr) gives an exhibition of her skill as a dancer, in the exciting photoplay of the above title.

THE LONG LINE, which is so much in vogue this season, is charmingly exemplified in this chic gown of pagodee designed by Jean Patou. The leather belt at the waistline gives a smart finishing touch.
Tornello

MISS ISABEL LEIGHTON, appearing in the new drama "Sweet Seventeen" at the Lyceum Theatre, N. Y. In addition to being a theatrical favorite, Miss Leighton is gifted as a composer and, although but twenty-two, has achieved distinction by having written Maria Jeritza's favorite English song, "The Awakening."
Pach Bros.

© Maryland State Archives mdsa_sc3410_1_81-0543.jpg