VERY LAME ACCUSATIONS.

The Advocate, in its last week's issue, gives a labored article, without disclosing its paternity, charging Gov. Lowndes with hyprocrisy in relation to civil service reform, and citing his removal of officers of a State Tobacco Warehouse as evidence of the truth of the charge. According to the Governor's views, as they have been stated, the removals were made in the interest of efficient service, although it has been charged that it was done to support his candidacy for United States Senator.

Another accusation made in the article referred to is that the civil service amendment to the Constitution of the State was emasculated in the House Committee on Amendments to the Constitution, and differs materially from the amendment as originally proposed.

A third accusation is that the removal of Jacob Frey from the marshalship of police, in Baltimore, was predetermined and was made solely for political reasons.

So far as the first of these accusations is concerned we have only to say that if the charge made against the Governor be true, his course was not contistent with his professions.

In relation to the second proposition it must be said, that if it was a Republican trick, as the article referred to insinuates, the Democrats must have been represented in both House and Senate by a set of stupid incompetents

As to the third allegation it is simply bosh. Everybody knows that Frey was a facile tool of the old Democratic ring which fraudulently manipulated elections in Baltimore for years; that he closed his eyes to many flagrant violations of law for the purpose of protecting law-breakers who had a "pull" with party leaders, and by reason of all this was totally unfit to discharge such a trust as that of Marshal of Police with impartiality and efficiency. His removal was meritorious and proper.

The article making the charges referred to probably emanated from the Maryland Democratic Editors' Association, a body remarkable for seeing only one side of a question and given to ascribing all the sins in the calendar to political opponents.

MORE THAN DOLLAR WHEAT.

A little while ago the highest aspiration of the farmer, in relation to the price of his wheat, was to receive therefor one dollar per bushel. Many were content to take ten or twenty per cent. less and felt that they were well remunerated for their toil, when the abundance of the crop was considered. They may now fairly anticipate a better price than the dollar which was considered as not only the highest mark attainable, but most abundantly satisfactory.

It is true, there have been daily fluctuations in the market centres of the country since Saturday last, when Messrs. N. I. Gorsuch & Son, of this city, boldly announced that wheat had reached the dollar mark at their mills. That announcement spread like wildfire over the county and excited a sentiment of jubilation worthy of its occasion. During the week the dollar mark was passed in the rural markets and some of our farmers sold at two or three units above that figure. In the fluctuations ensuing it has again gone slightly below the century mark, but it must be observed that it has not gone down to the highest quotation before Saturday last. That has been the case with every advance yet made. A reaction has followed always, but the decline has not been as great as the advance and has speedily been recovered and exceeded. For instance, the highest quotation of the Westminster market two weeks ago was 86. Last week it was 90. To-day it is 95. The highest quotation for Baltimore on Thursday of last week was $1.00; on Thursday of this week it was $1.06. Prices, therefore, are steadily on the up grade and may far exceed the dollar mark. At the present rate the crop of 1897 is worth three hundred and sixty millions more than that of 1896, which at prices then ruling aggregated but two hundred and seventy millions of dollars.

It is probable that a figure will yet be attained which will make the crop of '97 worth three times that of '96, and that the value of all farm products will be a billion greater this year than last. These are stupendous figures, but they are significant of prosperity for the whole country.

What a contrast with the last four years of Democratic administration?

Unless silver stops its downward course, that party of patriots who recently sailed for Japan to obtain arguments in favor of the white metal will scarcely be able to present much encouragement to the cause in time for the autumnal election of 1897.

Apparently the Advocate is still unconscious of the great wave of prosperity rising over the land, and imagines that a few failures here and there are signs of depression and adversity. Its publication of such events as evidence against the overwhelming signs of prosperous times may deceive some of its readers, but dull must be the vision which cannot discern a great improvement in the condition of almost every branch of trade and business in this broad and now prospering country of ours.

Democratic newspapers which accuse the Republican party of hypocrisy are respectfully referred to the platform adopted by Mr. Gorman for their government during the present campaign. They are all swearing by it, yet they are aware that it is one of the most hypocritical deliverances that ever emanated from any man or any party. The Republican party may have sins to answer for; but in contrast with Maryland Democracy it is as an angel of light to the enemy of man. For nearly thirty years Maryland Democratic leaders preached of political purity and practiced unblushing fraud upon the rights of the people. An election measure to insure a fair ballot was denominated by the party's own dictator as a bill to "relegate the Democratic party to the year." And that's precisely what it accomplished when a fair election was guaranteed by the law of '96. Gentlemen of the Democratic press, don't forget that it is the biggest rascal that first cries "stop thief," as it is the greatest hypocrite who is most zealous in charging others with hypocrisy.

DOUBLE PRIMARIES IN BALTIMORE.

The Republicans of Baltimore held double primaries in that city, on Monday. At one set of the primaries referred to the delegates voted for favored the nomination of either Theodore Marburg or J. Frank Supplee, for mayor, with the exception of one or two wards, where tickets favoring the nomination of Wm. T. Malster were in the field. At the other set of primaries the delegates voted for were all in favor of Mr. Malster. In other words, the Malster men, after vainly endeavoring to secure from the Republican city committee such arrangements as would have insured a fair result, held independent primaries of their own. At the Marburg-Supplee, or regular primaries, about 15,000 votes were cast, while the Malsterites got about 18,000 into their boxes, showing that Mr. Malster was the choice of a large majority of the Republicans of the city for the mayoralty nomination. Two conventions were held on Tuesday night, at which mayoralty and other nominations were made. One of the conventions nominated Mr. Marburg and the other Mr. Malster for mayor, it having been all along understood that Mr. Supplee, although agreeing to the course of the committee, was "not in it," and that Mr. Marburg was to be the choice of the "regulars."

THE BALTIMORE MUDDLE.

The Republicans of the counties of Maryland have been deeply interested spectators of the mayoralty controversy in the party in Baltimore. To many, doubtless, the contest has seemed to be nothing more than an unseemly wrangle over individuals and hence a deplorable exhibition, all around, of personal selfishness. If that were all, however, all Baltimore Republicans participating in the conflict would have earned, and well earned, the contempt of members of the party who are influenced in their political action by principle. It strikes us that it is not the fight itself, but the cause of it, that is deplorable. There should have been no cause to provoke it, but if the alleged cause existed then those who met it with opposition and refused to submit to unfair methods, and the chances of defeat in the primaries by fraudulent practices, were right in resisting even to the extent of creating a division in the ranks. It is the proud boast of the Republican party that, although only partially in power, it has given to the State a law under which the first untainted election for many years was held in 1896. The party should see to it that its primary elections shall always be as free from the taint of unfairness and fraud as the general election was last year. As soon as the party officials in Baltimore were notified that doubts existed concerning the propriety of the manner in which the primaries were to be conducted, all such doubts should have been removed by prompt acquiescence in the plan directed by the State Central Committee. There was no other way in which the officials of the party in the city could have demonstrated an intention to make the primaries pure and clean. The persistent effort of a majority of those officials to evade acquiescence in the State Committee's action, gave grave reason for suspicion that the will of a majority of the Republican voters, unless that majority was on the side of the organization, was to have been thwarted by trickery, and the concessions that were at last made were so qualified by a repugnant condition as to be practically valueless.

To the Republicans—outside of the city at least—the question of candidates was and is of no consequence The question of integrity in the primaries, however, lies at the very root of the whole matter and is the very essence of the principle of purity in elections for which the Republicans and many Democrats in Maryland have been striving for years against the Democratic machine.

As this is being written the question is in the hands of the State Convention of the Republican party, at Ocean City, and Republicans throughout the State are anxiously awaiting its solution. May the action of the convention be such as will commit the party in the State to a crusade against all forms of trickery in primary, as well as general elections.

The above was written in the expectation that the convention would not reach a conclusion in the premises in time for publication this week. It has, however, done so, and has fully met the wishes of the great body of Republican voters, who are intent on upholding the integrity of the primary election, the real basis of the people's government. The article is still pertinent and its publication proper.

It may be added, that the question of individual interests should "cut no figure" in the transaction. It matters not who is "knocked out," as long as the rights of the people are preserved.

PURITY OF PRIMARIES TO BE MAINTAINED.

The action of the Republican State convention at Ocean City, on Thursday, in declaring the primaries held in Baltimore, on Monday last, null and void, and providing that new primaries shall be held September 9th, gives the best possible evidence of the purpose of the Republicans of the State to maintain the purity of the processes by which party candidates are selected. The proceeding was so important that we give our readers the resolutions of the convention upon the subject in full. They are as follows:

Resolved, by the republican State convention, That all of the republican primaries held in the city of Baltimore on August 23, 1897, be and the same are hereby declared null and void, because of irregularity, and that none of the delegates from first, second and third legislative districts of the city of Baltimore are entitled to seats in this convention, and that the seats of the sitting delegates from said city are hereby declared vacant.

Resolved, That a primary election is hereby ordered to be held in the city of Baltimore on the ninth day of September, 1897, and at such primary the polls shall be opened from 12 o'clock noon until 8 P. M., and that the said election shall be conducted under the primary election law, and in the following manner:

First.—Messrs. Edmund Hoffman and Robert H. Smith, of the city of Baltimore, are hereby appointed as special supervisors for the purpose of holding said election.

Second.—That the said supervisors shall at once notify the opposing republican for the mayoralty nomination to file with them on or before the hour of 12 o'clock noon on the fourth day of September the name and appoint one judge and clerk of his own selection for each and every polling place in the city of Baltimore, as hereinafter provided, and the said supervisors shall name and appoint two judges of their own selection for each of said polling places in said city, and all of such judges and clerks shall, before proceeding to act, be sworn as said officers of election, in the in the same manner as the judges and the clerks are sworn in the holding of a general election under the State law.

Third.—The said supervisors shall designate three polling places in each ward, and the election precincts shall be conveniently grouped; said polling places and the names of the judges and clerks shall be advertised in three daily newspapers in Baltimore on the 7th day of September, 1897.

Fourth.—Voting shall be from the printed registration lists of 1896, to be secured by said supervisors, glass ballot boxes shall be used and the test of the right to vote shall be whether the voter supported the republican candidate for President in 1896, or will support the ticket to be nominated at this election.

Fifth.—At said election there shall be selected in each ward as many delegates as there are precincts in the ward to represent the ward in the convention hereby called, and also nine conferring delegates for the nomination of a candidate in the Second Branch of the City Council, from those wards entitled to representation in the said Second Branch, and there shall also be nominated a candidate for the First Branch of the City Council from each ward.

Sixth.—After the polls shall have been closed and the result ascertained, it shall be the duty of the judges immediately thereafter to cause to be made up duplicate certificates showing the total number of votes cast and for whom cast, the same to be signed by the judges, or a majority of them, and the clerks, or one of them, and delivered by said judges to the said supervisors not later than 11 A. M. the following day. One of said certificates shall be for the information and guidance of said supervisors, and the other placed by them in the hands of the persons whom they shall designate and whom they are hereby authorized to appoint to call said convention to order until a temporary organization shall have been effected.

Seventh.—That the republican city convention shall be held at Raine's Hall on the 11th day of September at 8 P. M. to nominate a candidate for Mayor, for Sheriff, for Surveyor, for Clerk of the Criminal Court, for Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, for Clerk of the Circuit Court, for Register of Wills, for Associate Judge and for an Additional Judge of the Supreme Bench for Baltimore city; that a convention be held in each of the three legislative districts of Baltimore city for the selection of delegates to the republican State convention equal to the representation of each district in the General Assembly, and that there shall at the same time be nominated a candidate for the State Senate in the second district and six candidates in each of said districts for the House of Delegates of Maryland, and at the same time members of the State central committee as there are members of the Senate and House from said districts. First legislative district shall assemble at Harugari Hall on the 11th day of September at 2 P. M. The second legislative district convention shall meet at Raine's Hall on the 11th day of September at 2 P. M. The third legislative district convention shall meet at Cross Street Hall on the 11th day of September at 2 P. M.

Eighth.—That the names of all persons to be voted upon on any ticket shall be filed by the representatives of the ticket with the said supervisors on or before the 3rd day of September, 1897, and shall be immediately printed, of uniform size, weight and color of paper, and be furnished to the representatives of the ticket at actual cost, at least forty eight hours before the opening of the polls in such numbers as may be ordered by such representatives of the ticket. All ballots otherwise than herein provided for shall be rejected by the judges of election.

Ninth.—That the candidates for the mayoralty nomination shall be bound to pay to said supervisors an equal share of the actual cost of the expenses of conducting the primaries.

The Grand Army of the Republic, in convention at Buffalo, N. Y., elected J. P. S. Gobin, of Pennsylvania, commander-in-chief and decided to hold its next annual encampment at Cincinnati.

Could not Mr. Bryan be persuaded to lay aside his Spanish studies for awhile and explain why wheat continues to rise while silver continues to fall?

Wheat Sale Contracts.

Westminster correspondence of the Baltimore Sun, of the 26th inst., says: "The statement was made several days ago that a Frederick co. farmer had delivered to a Frederick dealer 1,600 bushels of wheat at 70 cents a bushel when it was selling at a dollar because he had made a verbal agreement to do so some weeks previously. Attention is called by lawyers here to the fact that the Maryland Court of Appeals has decided that the sale of wheat not yet thrashed, and which is to be thrashed before delivery, is not within the statute of frauds and therefore is a valid contract, although not in writing."

The Republican State Convention, which met at Ocean City on Thursday, elected Dr. W. G. Tuck, of Anne Arundel county, chairman; Emanuel W. Harman, of Baltimore county, secretary and Harry Levely, of Anne Arundel county, assistant secretary. After disposing of the Baltimore city primary election matter, elsewhere reported, the convention adjourned to meet in Baltimore on Wednesday, September 15th, when nominations will be made for Comptroller of the Treasury Department and Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

Mr. James Plunkard, near Walkersville, Frederick county, recently lost eleven cows by a disease supposed to have been hydrophobia. One of Mr. Plunkard's dogs was bitten some time ago by a strange dog and subsequently exhibited symptoms of hydrophobia and was killed, but not before having bitten another dog belonging to his owner, which in turn bit the cows. State Veterinarian A. W. Clement is experimenting with an emulsion made from the medulla oblongata of one of the cows, with which he has inoculated some rabbits, to discover whether the cattle really suffered with hydrophobia.

Mr. Gregg Eichelberger, who was injured in a railroad train collision with the vehicle in which he was riding, at a crossing near Graceham, several weeks ago, died, on Friday of last week, at the hospital in Baltimore to which he was taken immediately after the accident. His remains were interred, after funeral services, in the burial ground of the Lutheran and Reformed Church at Creagerstown, Frederick county, on Sunday in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends.

A REMARKABLE CURE OF CHRONIC DIARRHOEA.

In 1862, when I served my country as a private in Company A, 167th Pennsylvania Volunteers, I contracted chronic diarrhoea. It has given me a great deal of trouble ever since. I have tried a dozen different medicines and several prominent doctors without any permanent relief. Not long ago a friend sent me a sample bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after that I bought and took a 50 cent bottle; and now I can say that I am entirely cured. I cannot be thankful enough to you for this great Remedy, and recommend it to all suffering veterans. If in doubt write me. Yours gratefully, Henry Steinberger, Allentown, Pa. Sold by Joseph D. Zepp, Druggist, Westminster, and W. R. Rudy, Mt. Airy.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy always affords prompt relief. For sale by Joseph D. Zepp, Druggist, Westminster, and W. R. Rudy, Mt. Airy.

It is always gratifying to receive testimonials for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and when the endorsement is from a physician it is especially so. "There is no more satisfactory or effective remedy than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Dr. R. E. Robey, physician and pharmacist, of Olney, Mo.; and as he has used the Remedy in his own family and sold it in his drug store for six years he should certainly know. For sale by Joseph D. Zepp, Druggist, Westminster, and W. R. Rudy, Mt. Airy.

WE'VE TROUBLES OF OUR OWN.

One of our troubles just now is that we have about 100 children's fine Wool Suits, 4 to 15 year sizes, which we must sell to make room for our immense line of Fall and Winter Suits, which will be here early in September. These suits were bargains at former prices, $3, $4 and $5. You can have your choice of these fine goods for next 10 days at $2.00 and $2.50. Don't miss getting one of these Suits. The loss is ours, the gain yours.
