"JEFF" OFFICE FAST BECOMING AN ART GALLERY—EVERYONE FROM EDITOR TO "DEVIL" CONTRIBUTES

Base Reliefs Of Old Castle, Old British Frigate And Other Novelties Made Of Wood By Employees During Few Minutes At Lunch Time.

A visit to the plant of The Jeffersonian in the Masonic Building is really worth while. The mechanical department of a newspaper is always interesting. Take the press, for instance; you simply feed it white paper and when it leaves the press it is a newspaper with the world's news folded and ready to start on its educational mission. Then the linotype—its diet is exclusively lead; the operator simply touches a button and it is ready to work. The operator sits at a keyboard like a typewriter and as he touches a key a letter drops into position, so that this marvelous piece of machinery turns out stories of life and death, love and hate, tragedies or comedies, as the operator wills it to do. All this is interesting to the visitor, but in addition the office is fast becoming an art gallery to which the entire force of the mechanical and editorial departments from the editor-in-chief to the devil contribute. Everyone knows of the wonderful Christmas tree and garden exhibited each year to the public; the children far and near are as much interested in this exhibit as they are in Santa Claus himself—but the "Jeff" outfit is not satisfied with only an annual exhibit; they want a continuous performance, so they devote much of their spare time to painting and wood carving.

Recently they have put on exhibition a wonderful Swiss cottage, an old Viking boat of the Norsemen, an old coach and four horses attached, and driver; these are all carved from wood and will easily rival the work of the Oberamargau artists who exhibited in the city recently. This work of the employees is highly creditable to them, and shows not only artistic temperament, but a disposition to make their time not only a pleasure to themselves, but to others.

"Mose's" Big Sale of Suits and Topcoats

"MOSE" IS A FRIEND OF THE MASSES.

IF you start out looking for anything better than "Mose" offers you in his big Easter Sale of Suits and Topcoats—or for anything that is half as good—you are going to wear the soles of your shoes out—for there's no place in this town that can begin to give you the values that "Mose" is giving you.

Most of the stores in Baltimore as well as elsewhere only have three seasons a year—Easter, Fourth of July and Christmas. Because people are going to buy in these seasons, the "Slick" merchants run their prices up and whether they do much business or not they make enough to last them the balance of the year.

BBut, thank goodness, 'Mose' doesn't take a mean advantage of his people that way. Instead of running his prices up at this time—or before the Fourth or at Christmas—he runs them down—gives his people his good Clothing at lower prices than ordinarily.

This Is A Big Sale, For It Is A Collection Of "Mose's" Best Goods—High-Grade Suits & Topcoats—All The Newest And Best Spring Styles And Patterns—Made Up Especially For This Easter Trade-

"MOSES KAHN OF OLD TOWN"

"MOSE" GIVES HIS PEOPLE VALUES.

THERE'S a heap of satisfaction in doing business with regular customers—folks who deal with you season in and season out, for you know that you have their confidence and "Mose" thinks so much of that that he would suffer to lose his right arm before he would abuse it.

NIndeed, as "Mose" grows older he becomes more conscientious, and knowing that he always has done a "square" business, he is going to be careful that he continues to do so.

These suits that "Mose" offers you in this Easter Sale are worth a great deal more money. The run of stores would charge you twice as much for the same materials. And then you wouldn't be getting the good workmanship that "Mose" gives you. Every Suit and every garment of any kind that "Mose" offers is his own good make—cut from the whole cloth that he buys by the bolt from the best Woolen Mills in the country, and trimmed and tailored in a manner that would do a credit to any custom shop at two and three times the price.

NATURAL to suppose that a receiving set with a long name and a large number of tubes will bring in more stations and at a greater distance than a set with a shorter name and fewer tubes!

The way to find out the truth is to put a De Forest Reflex Radiophone in the same room with any set made—no matter how many tubes it uses—no matter how long its name—no matter how great its price—and buy the one that suits you best.

You will find that the De Forest D-10 Reflex will get all the stations any other set will get, probably more clearly, certainly more easily, and probably for about half the money. Its upkeep cost in tubes and batteries will be much lower. You can move it around from room to room or operate it in your car. When a better set is made De Forest will make it.

Remember that De Forest invented broadcasting. Remember that De Forest invented the vacuum tube which makes all present-day radio possible.

De Forest D-10 Reflex Radiophone—a 4-tube long distance receiver using indoor loop, with a reputation for the clearest reception of broadcast in existence. Operates either on self-contained dry batteries, making it a portable set, or on the usual combination of storage and dry batteries. Sold on a direct comparison basis with any other set made, regardless of price. Price of set with loop $150.00.
