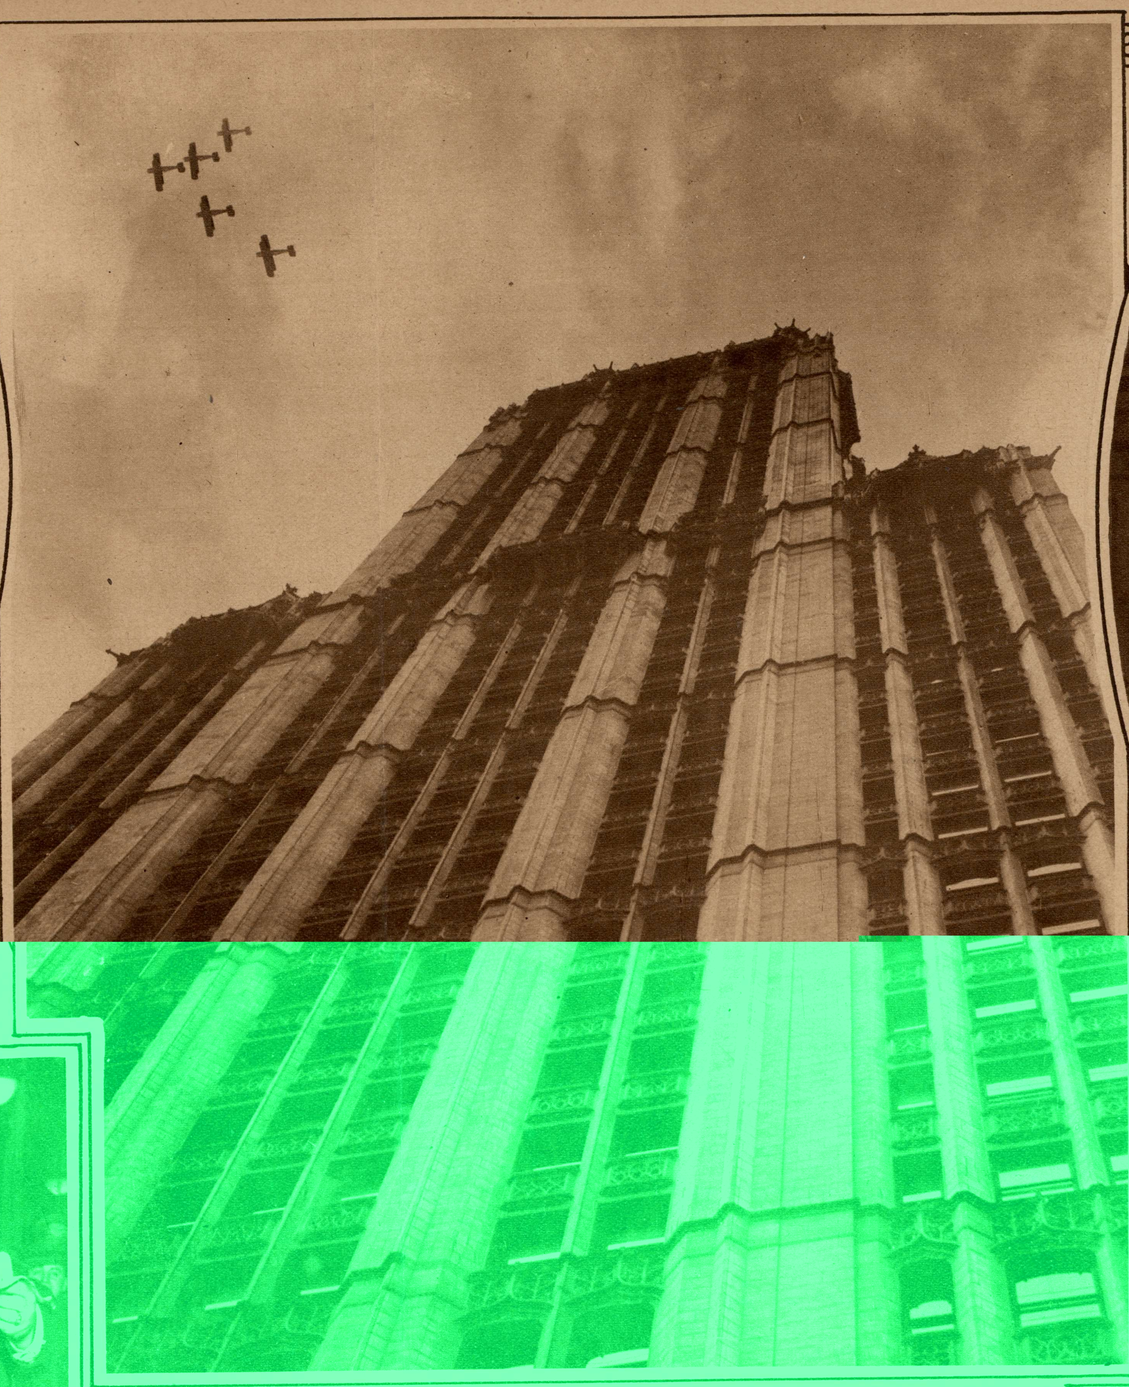
HAS TRAVELED 2,500,000 MILES WITHOUT PAYING A CENT OF FARE.

Tracey Wheeler, veteran engineer of the New York Central Railroad, who has just retired at the age of 70, after 42 years of service, during the last seven of which he has had the run on the Empire State Express.

World Wide Photos



GETTING READY FOR STUNTS AMONG THE CLOUDS.—Army and navy fliers going through their paces in preparation for the great aerial circus that will be staged at the Naval Air station at Lakehurst, N. J., and flying over the metropolis in battle array looking like mere specks as seen from the street in front of the Woolworth Building.

International

THE "DOUBLE" OF THE "GREAT EMANCIPATOR."

Rev. Lincoln Caswell, pastor of the Cornell Methodist Episcopal Church of New York, who has the same lanky build as Lincoln and a remarkable facial resemblance.

International

OLYMPIC REPRESENTATIVES FROM THE "LAND OF THE RISING SUN."—Stalwart athletes that will strive to uphold the colors of Japan at the Olympic games in Paris. At right is Omote, standing broad jump and hundred meter champion, and at right Oda, in running broad jump and hop step and jump.

International

JUST BEFORE THE BATTLE.

Mike McTigue, light-heavyweight champion of Europe (left), shaking hands with Young Stribling, the Southern boxing sensation, just before their bout at Newark, in which the Georgia youth decisively outpointed his opponent. "Pa" Stribling, who manages and trains his son, is at right.

World Wide Photos

BABY "GIRL" WEIGHING NEARLY A HUNDRED POUNDS.

Latest addition to the family of the camel Baldy at the zoo in Universal City. The newcomer weighed 97 pounds at birth, and Trainer Murphy named it Patricia as being a good old Irish name.

International

© Maryland State Archives mdsa_sc3410_1_81-0566.jpg