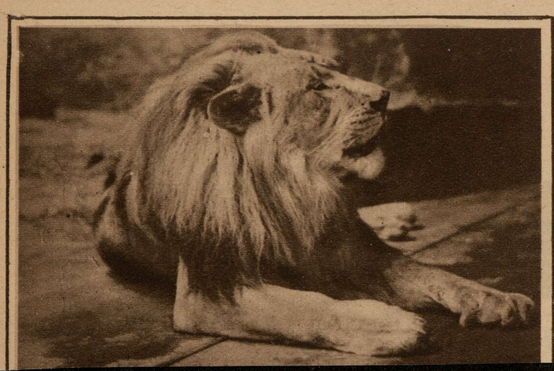
LATEST "CROPPER" FASHIONS ON THE ENGLISH TURF.

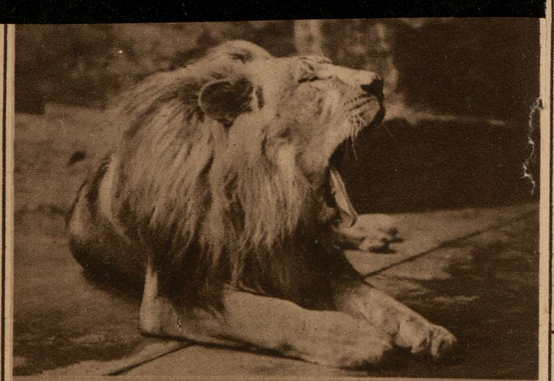
"Coming a cropper," the Prince of Wales sets the fashions in England in more ways than one, and perhaps this spill was due to a subconscious desire to be "in the swim" with the heir to the throne, whose latest fall resulted in his being badly kicked by his mount.

Wide World Photos

An unwilling acrobat, son and heir of Baroness Gray, being thrown from Moonlit during a steeplechase at Hurst Park, England. The snapshot, taken in the one thousandth part of a second, shows every straining nerve and muscle of both horse and rider.

Wide World Photos





SUCCESSIVE STAGES OF LEO'S YAWN.

Four periods in the process by which the king of beasts at the London Zoo expresses his boredom at the world in general and his own captivity in particular by a prodigious yawn of his cavernous jaws.

International

LITTLE, BUT FULL OF PEP AND GINGER,

are these members of a German midget troupe arriving on the S. S. Ballin for a vaudeville tour of the United States. The two at left are mother and daughter.

International

PRESIDENT WITH LATEST MEMBER OF HIS CABINET.

Chief Executive and Judge Curtis D. Wilbur, newly appointed Secretary of the Navy, snapped while strolling on the White House grounds.

International

PROSPECTIVE BRIDE AND GROOM REVEALED AS BROTHER AND SISTER.

James and Josephine Buckley of Boston, Mass., who met at a dance, fell in love with one another and were preparing to get married when search of the parish register by the priest who was to perform the ceremony disclosed that they were brother and sister who had been parted fifteen years before.

Wide World Photos

GOING UP IN THE WORLD—FEET FOREMOST.

Gymnast from New Zealand, E. J. Wilson, who recently gave blase Londoners a thrill by daredevil stunts on one of the high buildings of the British metropolis.

Wide World Photos

GENERAL BUTLER AS MODEL FOR ART STUDENTS.

Philadelphia Director of Public Safety, who has clamped down the lid on the Quaker City, posing at the Philadelphia School of Design for Women. He was to have awarded a prize to the artist producing the best sketch of him, but craftily side-stepped and had somebody else make the decision.

International

© Maryland State Archives mdsa_sc3410_1_81-0588.jpg