EDITOR OF BEAUTY MAGAZINE SAYS BOBBED HAIR IS MAKING WOMEN BALD.

Bobbed hair is a sure means of causing baldness and it won't be many years before the world is filled with bald-headed women, Joseph Byrne, editor of a beauty magazine, said in addressing the annual convention of the American Master Hair Dressers' Association held in New York City.

Milliners' he said, to conform to present-day hair style, have been obliged to make head bands exceedingly tight to keep the hats on, resulting in the death of the hair. Mr. Byrne asserted that girls of the present generation would be bald before they reached maturity.

SKELETONS FOUND BELIEVED THOSE OF 1776 WAR VICTIMS.

Ten skeletons, believed to be those of American soldiers and sailors who were starved to death on British prison ships in Wallabout Creek during the Revolutionary War, were unearthed near Fort Green Park, in Brooklyn, by laborers who were digging a manhole.

The spot is near a large monument erected in the park in memory of the Revolutionary service men who died on the ships.

SHIP USES $29,000 LIQUOR CARGO AS FUEL.

How the skipper of the steamer Maria, liquor laden, converted his storm-tossed craft into an alcohol burner during a gale that threatened to swamp the ship, was told by members of the crew when the ship put into port after a 24-day voyage from Havana.

The Maria, formerly a Cuban gunboat, carried 7,000 cases of alcohol. The liquor fuel was valued at $259,000. The steamer set out from Havana, bound for St. Pierre, with 10,000 cases of assorted liquors and alcohol. She encountered terriffic gales and was forced far off her course when the coal gave out and the Maria was converted into an alcohol burner. The members of the crew were weak from hunger when the vessel dropped anchor.
