Only one opportunity remains for those entitled to register and vote, who have not yet done so. The registers will sit, in each district in this county, at the place named in the advertisement published in another column, from 8 A. M. till 7 P. M. on Tuesday next, for the purpose of registering such persons.

The contributors to the flower mission this week were: Mrs. Samuel K. Herr, Miss Helen Baer, Miss Belle Nygren, Mrs. H. S. Roop, Mrs. T. W. Mather, Mrs. Johu Uiz, Miss Nau Zepp, Miss Frank Pearre.

The Benevolent and Aid Society of St. Paul's Reformed Church, this city, met on Tuesday night, at the residence of Mr. Wm. D. Henry, on Liberty street, and after the transaction of the regular routine business a musical and literary program was rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. Schildt, of Taneytown, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss C. Grace Hockensmith, and Mr John C. Schreeve, of this city, which will take place at Grace Reformed Church, Taneytown, at 2 30 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, 12th inst.

A number of ladies from this city and county attended the State convention of the W. C. T. U., in Baltimore, this week. Among the delegates were: Misses Sarah C. Trump, Mettie Miller, Manchester; Mrs. T. W. Mather, Miss Lizzie Herr, this city, and Mrs. A. C. Wolfe, Union Bridge.

Misses Lydia B. Starner and Minnie E. Schaeffer were delegates from Benjamin's Church and Miss Ada H. Berwager from St. John's Church, of the Salem charge, to the annual convention of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Lutheran Church, Maryland Synod, held at Martinsburg, W. Va., this week.

Two of Westminster's mercantile firms, Messrs. Miller Bros. and Mr. Wm. F. Derr, will have their fall openings to-day, and Messrs. Jno. T. Orndorff's Sons next Saturday. These will be great events, as Westminster is not surpassed in the character of its business houses in any town of the State, outside of Baltimore, and not by many there.

Mr. Augustus Smith and family, of Dakota, were handsomely entertained on Saturday, 25th ult., by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Garner, Linwood. About thirty relatives and friends were present on the occasion. The dinner consisted of everything good, followed later by fruits and cake, of almost every variety and kind.

The attention of Westminster's City Fathers is respectfully called to the necessity for a few crossings on East Main street and possibly in other portions of the city. Winter is approaching and during that season pedestrians, who may have occasion to cross the street, will be compelled, as usual, to brave the mud which is generally abundant at that period.

A decided improvement has been made on Green street, between Liberty street and Belle Grove Park, by repairing the gutters, which not only adds to the appearance of the street, but prevents its flooding by heavy rains as heretofore. The corporate authorities have also put down a new crossing on Liberty street, at Green, and several low sidewalks in the same vicinity have been raised.

W. Y. Barth of the Century Cycling Club of Maryland broke the road record from this city, to Baltimore, on Sunday, making the distance in 1.31.15. The best previous record was made on July 19, 1891, on a cushion tire wheel, by Henry D. Dietz of the old Chesepeake Club, who rode the distauce in 1 35 30. Barth was paced by Messrs. William F. Long and William A. Stultz of Westminster and Elmer C. Davis and Robert L. French of Baltimore. The start was made at 9.11 and the finish was at 11 42 15.

The attendance at the funeral of Miss Allie May Davis, daughter of Mr. Elias N. Davis, of this city, at Deer Park Chapel, last Sunday afternoon, was the largest ever known on such an occasion at that church. Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham, of this city, officiated and preached the funeral discourse, assisted by the pastor, Rev. G. J. Hill, who also delivered a short funeral address. The remains were interred in the burial ground of the church. Many persons could not get into the church during the service, and at its close four hymns were sung while the people passed the altar to take a last look at the features of the deceased.

Mr. Paul Reese gave a whist party and supper to his friends at the residence of his aunt, Mrs. Katharine Shellman, on Monday evening last, as a farewell before separating for their winter studies. Those present were: Mr. Kane, Messrs. Clarence Billingslea, Emory Buckingham, J. A. Bond, Frank Shaw, E. Matthias, Frank Thomas, Claude Smith and Ollie Grimes. Mr. Shaw left on Thursday for Yale College, where he is a student, and on Monday next Messrs. Billingslea and Bond leave for the Medical Department and Mr. Grimes for the law department of the Md. University, and Mr. Reese for the Md. Institute, Baltimore, where he is studying the profession of an architect.

The annual statement of the receipts and expenditures of this county, made by the County Commissioners and attested by Mr. A. T. Buckingham, clerk and treasurer, will be found in the SENTINEL this week. It will be seen by comparison with last year's statement, that while expenditures were increased considerably in consequence of the cost of assessing property and putting into operation the election machinery under the new law, the receipts from all sources were not quite $600 less, with the tax rate reduced from 49 to 45 cents. This was due, in a considerable degree, to the increase in the basis of taxation by bringing in property not heretofore taxed, thus affording relief to that extent, to farmers and other real estate owners.

The Republican Club of Westminster District met at the SENTINEL office on Monday evening according to previous announcement, with an attendance that taxed the capacity of the accommodations. The principal business transacted was the election of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows: President, Wm. A. Cunningham; vice presidents, Wm. B. Thomas, Harry K. Schaeffer; secretary, Jacob H. Handley; assistant secretary, Edward H. Manning; treasurer, Dewees L. Farrar. Several of these officers were re-elected, among them being Mr. Cunningham, who expressed an earnest desire to be relieved from duty, but finally yielded to the earnest solicitation of the club, unanimously expressed, and remained in the station which he so satisfactorily filled during the past year. The club will meet again at the SENTINEL office on Monday evening next, and thereafter, on Monday of each week until the election, at Odd Fellow's Hall.

Tickets for a continuous passage from this city to Baltimore, on the Western Maryland Railroad, are now sold at the ticket office at 75 cents.

Reports have been received from Tuesday's registration in only a few of the districts in this county, some trouble with the telephone wires yesterday morning having prevented communication with the country section generally. In Taneytown district 34 were registered, of whom one was colored; first precinct of Freedom district, 82 registered; first precinct, Westminster district, 40 registered; second precinct, 38 registered, 8 transferred; Franklin district, 15 registered, 5 transferred; Middleburg district, 26 registered, 6 transferred.

Myers-Royer.

A wedding which excited great interest in this city took place at St. Paul's Reformed Church, at a quarter before 4 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon. The bride was Miss Edith Myrle Royer, daughter of Mrs. Sallie E. Royer and granddaughter of the late John H. Bowers, and the groom Mr. Frank Thomas Myers, son of Mr. Charles W. Myers. The groom is a prominent young business man of this city. The church decorations were the most elaborate ever seen at a church wedding in this city. Festoons of goldenrod and evergreen hung from the ceiling to the side walls in graceful curves and the walls were trimmed with evergreen, asparagus, autumn leaves, &c. The arch in the rear of the pulpit was trimmed with asparagus and an arch of evergreen and golden rod spanned the space in front of the chancel rail. A large marriage bell of boxwood and goldenrod was suspended from this arch and under it the bridal pair stood during the ceremony. The chancel and pulpit platform were banked with choice potted plants and flowers, the entire arrangement having been in admirable taste. Rarely, if ever, have so many persons attended a church wedding in this city. Every seat was occupied and the rear of the church and the vestibule was crowded with interested spectators. The bride wore a very becoming traveling gown of English beaver cloth, of dahlia shade, richly trimmed, hat and gloves to match, and carried La France roses. The ushers were Messrs. Ralph J. Royer, Wm. B. Royer, brothers of the bride; James D. Mitchell and David J. Witter, of this city. Miss Annie E. Shriver was organist. At the approach of the bridal party ten young ladies, accompanied by the organ, sang the wedding chorus from Lohengrin, and Miss Shriver rendered Mendelssohn's march in her usual skillful manner after the ceremony. The marriage was solemnized in an impressive manner by the pastor, Rev. C. S. Slagle. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Myers were driven to the railroad station, where, amid the congratulations of a host of interested friends, they took a train going east for an extended wedding trip. The bridal presents were very elegant, numerous and valuable. Among those present at the wedding from a distance were: Mrs. C. W. Levan, Mrs. Stella Marshall, Miss Lela Rodenmayer, of Baltimore; Mr. Ralph Bowers, of Frederick.

Boy Injured by a Gun.

A boy aged 13 years, named Charles Angell, son of Thomas Angell, of Taneytown, had his left hand badly injured on Monday by the bursting of an overloaded gun. The thumb and second finger were literally blown off and the hand and other fingers lacerated and shattered. Drs. Motter and Seis amputated the stump of the thumb and second finger and it was feared it might become necessary to remove the entire hand. At the last account, however, the lad was improving, the operation having been very skillfully performed. It is reported that the gun was purposely overloaded by another boy and given to Angell to discharge, with the expectation of enjoying the fun of seeing it "kick" him over.

After the above was in type our Taneytown correspondent sent a fuller account, differing from the above only in stating that two fingers were amputated and danger that the whole hand may be lost imminent. [Ed.]

Death of Miss Gordon-Cumming.

Miss Margaret C. Gordon-Cumming, who went abroad with her parents in 1893 to complete her education, died at Davos Platz, Switzerland, September 14. Last winter in Berlin, Miss Gordon-Cumming contracted the pulmonary trouble which caused her death.

Her father, Alastair P. Gordon-Cumming, is an Englishman and a brother of Sir William Gordon-Cumming. For a number of years Mr. Gordon-Cumming has had a residence near Sykesville, this county, where he owns "The Locusts," an estate of between four and five hundred acres. Miss Gordon Cumming's mother was Miss Frances E. Eames, of Washington.

Melrose Items.

Mr. Robert Fleagle, of Baltimore, is now beginning to hurry matters at the Bandanna creamery. It will soon be in operation.

Shows were numerous last week and among them the people of Black Rock and Lineboro had the chance to view a fine show, consisting of one of the woolliest dogs in the neighborhood, which accompanied "Elick" and "Harry" on the mail route on Wednesday. The people were surprised at the sight but not shocked.

On Friday evening our neighborhood was treated to the music of a calithumpian band. There was no tune or rhythm, but it accomplished the purpose, so everyone must be satisfied.

Recently your correspondent saw a large German family bible which is 109 years old, and in a good state of preservation. The covers are protected by metal pieces and are made of boards.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Baughman have returned to Baltimore, after spending the summer in this city.

Misses Margie and Lula Wachtle, of Myersville, are visiting their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Leander Gladhill, near this city.

Taneytown Items.

The members of Carroll Conclave, I. O. H., at their regular meeting on last Monday night, initiated the following gentlemen: Henry I. Wilson, Chas. V. Wantz, Oscar D. Gilbert, John M. Roberts, Geo. R. Gehr, Harry K. Schaeffer, of Westminster, and David H. Brown, of Taneytown. After the initiations a "smoker" was given by the conclave in the Eckenrode building and a very enjoyable time was had by all. A visiting delegation from Adams Conclave, Littlestown, Pa., of 17 persons, was present, adding much to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Messrs. Geo. Clutz and John Hare, two young men near this place, left on Wednesday for Springfield, Ohio, where they expect to secure employment. They are both excellent young men and should have no difficulty in securing good positions.

What might have been a serious accident occurred on Wednesday afternoon, by one of Mr. Augustus Morelock's children falling into the race at W. Jesse Roberts' mill. A log lay across the race and the children had crossed it safely at different times, but on Wednesday, when one of them attempted to do so it slipped and fell into the water. A short time afterwards its mother missed the child and went to the race where she saw it lying on its back in the water. She at once jumped in after it and with the assistance of her husband, who was attracted to the scene, it was taken from the race. Dr. F. A. Seiss, of this place, was at once summoned and gave the attention required. At this writing the child has completely recovered.

On last Monday evening Mr. Wm. B. Duttera left for Chicago, where he will take another year's study, preparatory to entering the ministry.

Miss Rosa Himler, daughter of Mr. Louis Himler, of near this place, who was in Baltimore for the purpose of undergoing an operation for a tumor, died on Friday morning. Her remains were removed to her home and interred in St. Joseph's Catholic burial ground on Monday morning, in the presence of a large concorse of relatives and friends. She was aged about 16 years and was a very bright young lady. She was respected by all who knew her and much regret on account of her death is felt by her many friends.

Mr. Geo. A. Shoemaker of W. will open a bakery in his house (formerly conducted by Messrs. Koontz & Long) the beginning of next week. He has secured a baker from Baltimore.

The water works are being rapidly pushed forward. The last load of pipe arrived on Wednesday and the trenches have been started. Quite a number of Irish laborers have been secured, as the number of hands here was not sufficient to carry forward the work with sufficient rapidity to complete it in the specified time—December 1st, 1897.

Palapsco Items.

Farmers in this locality have nearly completed their seeding. A large acreage has been sown, requiring the use of many tons of different brands of fertilizers. Corn cutting has also been about finished up, and the crop is generally very good.

Mr. and Mrs. Ebenezer Harman and daughter Pearl, of Baltimore, spent a few days with Mr. Harman's brother, Mr. John C. Harman, last week.

Mr. Ernest Rausch, of Baltimore, spent a few days in this vincinity this week.

Mr. John Taylor of T. and daughter, of this neighborhood, spent several days in Baltimore this week.

Mr. Wm. H. Westaway has purchased, from Mr. John Taylor of T., four acres of unimproved land, for $275 cash.

Our new schoolhouse, to take the place of the one blown down in the great storm on the 29th of September, 1896, is finished and is a very fine building. Too much praise cannot be given our school commissioners for providing us with such an excellent structure for school purposes. The school will open on Monday next, October 4th, with Miss Hilda Crass, of Westminster, as teacher. This will be Miss Crass' fourth winter at this school. She is a first-class teacher and is highly respected in this community.

Mr. Samuel R. Stansbury is very ill at this time with consumption.

Gamber Items.

The union revival meeting was continued Sunday last at Providence, with the following program: Communion service at 10 A. M., conducted by Rev. B. F. Benson, of Westminster Theological Seminary, assisted by Rev. S. W. Coe, of Finksburg Circuit; preaching at 3 P. M., by Rev. Benson; Young People's Union Meeting at 7.30 P. M., under the direction of the Y. P. S. C. E. At the evening meeting the church was crowded from door to church-rail and the meeting was impressive and interesting throughout.

Miss Addie Shipley, of Pikesville, is the guest of her cousin, Miss May Gorsuch.

Mr. William Zentz and wife, of Baltimore, paid a visit to Mr. Zentz's mother, Mrs. M. A. Demoss, on Sunday last.

Mr. John Peeling, of Baltimore, visited his parents, at their home at Deer Park, on Sunday last.

Mr. C. H. Warehime, wife and son, of Baltimore, paid a visit to Mr. J. Caltrider and family, on Sunday last.

Quite a number of our base ball enthusiasts went to Baltimore on Monday last, to witness the game between the two great clubs.

Pleasant Valley Items.

Mrs. Lydia Frock raised a turnip that weighed 8 pounds.

Since our last communication from this place we have had the pleasure of hearing a sermon by Rev. Edmund Erb, of Lincoln, Neb., and also addresses by Rev. Diehl and wife, to the Christian Endeavor Society, about their trip to San Francisco, which were very interesting.

Rev. H. J. Macalister will hold his communion service October 10th, at 10 o'clock, A. M. Preparatory service Saturday previous, at 2 P. M.
