FOR FORMAL OCCASIONS.—Silver metal lace frock with delicate bandings of coral. The front drapery and the dainty accessories are very beguiling. Bergdorf-Goodman design.

Pach Bros.

OBSTACLES FAIL TO DAUNT THESE ENGLISH GIRLS.—Feminine athletes in the cross-country race under the auspices of the Middlesex Ladies' Athletic Club, in which the best women runners participated, negotiating an awkward natural hurdle at one stage of the course.

Wide World Photos

AFTERNOON DRESS of navy georgette over navy crepe satin. The skirt is embroidered in panels of pleating, and the embroidery of the waist in black and red is combined with beading. Fashion-Bilt design.

White Studio

A SUGGESTION OF SPRING is found in this youthful frock in a straight line one-piece effect, with white wool embroidery and a small edging of lace around the neck and sleeves as the only trimming. Fay Lewisohn design. White Studio

HARRIET GIMBEL. One of the younger principals in "Artists and Models," who adds novelty to the play by several appearances in boy's costume. She was formerly with the "Greenwich Village Follies."

Edwin Bower Hesser

SPORT DRESS. Made of boucle, woven with white silk, embroidered in green, showing a metal thread, and especially suitable for the exigencies of week end visits. Bergdorf-Goodman design.

Pach Bros.

DANCE FROCK. Composed of pale rose sequins, with insets of satin, and edged with a wide band of rose uncut ostrich feathers, creating a slightly odd but decidedly graceful effect. The jeweled shoulder straps are very chic. design.

Bruck-Weiss
Pach Bros.

ATTRACTIVE HAT with upturned brim and a small visor to shade the eyes becomingly. The crown of Milan straw is perfectly plain, but the brim is bizarre with black satin and lace. Bruck-Weiss design.

Pach Bros.

TERPSICHOREAN FROLICS WITH THE SURF AS WITNESS.
Group of pupils of the Scovell Winter Dancing School trying out some new steps under the balmy Florida skies at Tampa.

© Maryland State Archives mdsa_sc3410_1_81-0623.jpg