ELEMENTS THAT CONSTITUTE WEALTH FOR ESQUIMAUX.—Walrus bodies on which the inhabitants of the frozen North set great value. The meat serves for food, the hides are used to make Summer habitations and the ivory tusks are utilized for many native implements.

©Lomen Bros. from International

EMINENT PRELATES TO BE MADE CARDINALS.
Archbishops George W. Mundelein of Chicago (left) and Patrick J. Hayes of New York, who left on the Berengaria for Rome recently, where they will be elevated to the Cardinalate at the forthcoming Papal Consistory.

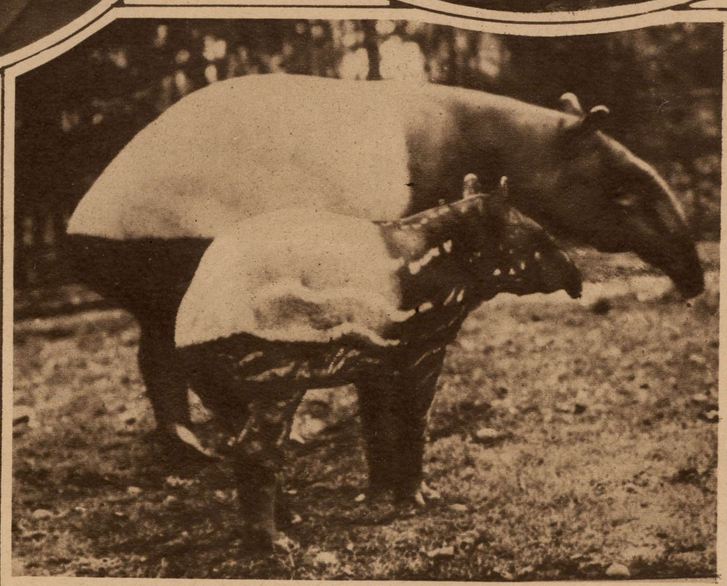
International

EYE TESTS FOR MOTORISTS.
Since defective vision is thought to be the explanation of many automobile accidents, the State Board of Optometry of Massachusetts has started a clinic to test acuteness of drivers' sight. Of 445 people recently examined by the device here shown, 61 failed to pass.

International

PLAYING CHECKERS WITH THEIR TOES.—Miss Elizabeth Chase of Danvers, Mass., and Miss Frances Dillon of Modesto, Cal., college girls, complying with an institutional requirement that seeks to correct foot faults by accustoming the girls to play games and write with feet instead of hands.

Fotograms



KEEPING CLOSE TO MOTHER.
Malayan tapir, with a three months' old youngster, getting an airing in the London Zoological Gardens. Offspring born to tapirs in captivity are extremely rare.

Fotograms

FAIR SEX ALSO ADEPT AT SOCCER FOOTBALL.
The men soccer players shown on this page might encounter lively rivalry in a game with these French and Belgian girls, shown in the international game between the two countries, which was won by the French girls with a score of three goals to none.

©Henri Manuel from Kadel & Herbert

FOR THE SOCCER CHAMPIONSHIP.
Exciting moment in the crucial match between the Fall River and Bethlehem Steel team, in the final round of the Eastern Division of the National Football Association, which was won by Fall River by a score of 2 to 0.

Wide World Photos

© Maryland State Archives mdsa_sc3410_1_81-0626.jpg