UNITED ACTION PLANNED ON WAR CLAIMS IN BILL INTRODUCED BY TYDINGS

Marylanders Discuss Support Of Measure Before Congress—Commission Appointed By Governor Fixed Amounts Due Claimants.

(From the Washington Correspondent of The Jeffersonian.)

Support from Maryland for Representative Tydings' bill in Congress to reimburse a number of citizens for war claims, as approved by a commission appointed by Governor Ritchie, was discussed by those interested, and may be recruited within a short time.

The Commission, composed of former State's Attorney A. S. J. Owens, George L. Hopper ond W. Beatty Harlan, fixed the amounts due the claimants as follows:

Martha J. Hensen, $5000; Charles J. Gerbig and John M. Kuhn, $500; Daniel McFaul, $50; F. O. Shromberg, $15,000; John H. Emmord, $15,000; Emma W. Bay, $19,300; Emma W. Bay and Henry C. Holloway, $20,000; Henry C. Holloway, $5,000; Samuel L. Fyle, $9,500; W. Carl Holloway, $7,930; Sylvester A. McGuigan, $6,000; Elmer J. Johnson, $500; Oscar M. Johnson, $3000; William B. Tildon, $3128; F. O. Mitchell & Bro., $29,937; Charles H. Rigney, $580; Henson & Lantz, $2875; Isaac S. Lee $5000; Raymond W. Price, $3680; Harry P. Strasbaugh, $33,666.67; Johnson Bros., $41,305; J. Edmund Michael, $2500; J. F. Towner & Sons, $60,088; trustees of Chapman S. Clark and Nannie M. Clark, $59,300; Annie C., Dorothy C. and Robert M. Vandiver, $51,666,-66.

The findings of the Commission were designed to put claimants' demands in definite shape and thus facilitate payment by the War Repartment, and also to furnish a basis for Congressional relief.

Members of the Commission served without pay "as a patriotic duty" and even shouldered all the expenses of the hearings, except the printing of the report.

Duke, Pikesville, are aware that this list is subject to correction and that some towns may be omitted entirely, and would like to be advised accordingly.
